In accordance with stubborn facts, we have reduced our quotations on eggs to 15c per dozen as the outside figure. There are rumors of offers a shade below this figure. Creamery outter has also experienced a slight decline, but good grades are moving out freely. Cheese is firm and the drift of markets is upward. Higher prices already prevail in the East, and it is only a question of a few days when there will be an advance here. Potatoes are scarce supply is not up to demand and good stock is

Features of Saturday's Spec-

Saturday ended one of the dullest weeks ever known on the Stock Exchange. Sales for the day were 55 shares, and for the week 960.

There were no material changes either way, but nearly everything was firm. The prevailing apathy should not be attrib-uted to a want of confidence in the securities, but to a radical and apparently irreconcilable difference between buyers and sellers, and both so settled in their convictions as to be unwilling to make concessions. That prices remain strong with so little doing would convince investors of the futility of holding out for more favorable

There were no surprises during the week.
