ONE JUROR REPENTS.

He Strongly Urges the Pardon Board to Act Favorably Upon

THE APPEAL OF THE NICELYS.

Coercion Was Freely Used to Secure the Verdict of Guilty.

SMITH'S CASE WILL BE HEARD TO-DAY

SPECIAL TRUEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. HARRISBURG, March 18 .- One of the most interesting cases before the Board of Pardons to-day was that of the two Nicely brothers, of Somerset county, under sentence of death for the murder of Herman Umberger, who was shot down in cold blood in his house in February of last year, and robbed of $18,000. The prisoners were represented by General S. A. H. Croffroth and William H. Koontz of Somerset, and Lyman D. Gilbert, of this city, while the commonwealth's interests were guarded by John Cessus and F. J. Kooser, of Somerset.

Counsel for the applicants for executive clemency filed a large number of letters and petitions asking for either the pardon of the murderers or the commutation of their death penalty to imprisonment for life. They claimed that they were after evidence which, it they had time and power to secure, would enable them to contradict essential testimony given by Commonwealth witnesses and they, therefore, asked for a continuance of the case and a modification of one of the rules of the board so as to allow the taking of depositions outside Somerset

UNSATISFACTORY EVIDENCE.

Mr. Gilbert considered the papers and letters submitted to the board so unsatis-factory in the absence of the evidence desired, that, under similar circumstances, if the case were on trial he would be obliged to withdraw from it. The counsel for the persons whose depositions they wanted would bear on the case directly, and that of number of people who had known him several years before the trial.

A LITTLE MORE TIME.

The board, in view of the fact that two lives were at stake, agreed to give the coun-sel for the prisoners until the next meeting of the board to procure their new testimony.
Among the letter: submitted was one from J. W. Beck, one of the jurors who convicted the murderers to General Koontz, to whom he wrote that there was much in the the verdict had given him much uneasiness of mind. It was not his fault that it was of mind. It was not his fault that it was he was ready to stand by his declaration. held out for a different verdict.

The evidence, in his opinion, was not suf-been overpowered and sick he would have remained firm until the time of the writing of his letter, which concluded as follows: 'Will you favor me by going to the Nicelys and telling them that I do not want them to have any hard feeling toward me—that I tried to do my duty and could not. Now, Mr. Koontz, let me know what they say. I can see those men's faces before me every croup if used as soon as the child becomes can see those men's faces before me every night, and I do not like that."

In a letter addressed to the board he says there was great excitement at the time of the trial, and the people were much prejudiced against the prisoners. When the commonwealth had completed its testimony Inrig, 3610 Fifth ave.; Carl Hartwig, 4016 ing any lies on the part of the defendants.

JURY BOOM SECRETS, "When the jury retired five of the jurors were for acquittal," said Mr. Beck. "I held out against the solicitation, threats and abuse of some of the jurors, one of whom pulled me off the bench on which I was resting two or three times, and swore that I was as bad as the murderers for not agreeing with them." One of the tipstaves, in charge of the jury, he said, told him there nity. was no reason for his holding out-that an act had been passed that made a verdict of | 27 Fifth ave. after April 1.

Another letter in the interest of the murderers (dated Chicago) claims that the Nicely boys are innocent of the murder of No family should be without it. Druggists Herman Umberger, and that the guilty men, of whom there were five, were running at large. One of them (evidently meaning himself) would never be caught. He closed his communication, which was signed "F. R. S.," by stating that he would not say any more, as further remarks might put his neck in danger. Petitions were also presented signed by people of Somerset and Westmoreland connties asking for the extension of executive elemency to the prisoners because of the existence of doubts as to their guilt, and be cause they were convicted when a bitter feeling had been aroused on account of atrocious crimes having been committed in Somerset county by persons from adjoining counties, and when the excitement was at fever heat over the great disaster at Johnstown. The father and mother of the murderers were present during the progress of the discussion resulting from the application of the counsel for a continuance of the case, and evinced much interest in the proceedings.

THE JUDGE FOR HIM.

The case of Charles Carter was represented by P. A. Shoemaker, who presented a letter from Judge Johnston, who tried the case, asking for the commutation of the death penalty to imprisonment for life. Carter, who is colored, killed a negre at Johnstown on account of a white woman of whom both were enamored. John Fenlon, who assisted in the prosecution, opposed "cool, cold and deliberate, and Carter was a bad man." Chal Dick, who also represented the Commonwealth, was of the opinion that commutation should be granted. and spoke of the low character of the wit-nesses who testified against the prisoner. Carter's execution is fixed for the 9th of Application was made for the commutation of the death penalty of John W. Rudy, of Lancaster, whose execution is fixed for the 9th of April next. The prisoner was convicted of the murder of his father, by whose corpse he was found after the latter's death. It was claimed that no evidence was produced at the trial that justified a verdient of murder in the first degree. There was no motive for the crime, and the son had always shown great affection for his father. Nine of the jurors asked for the favorable consideration of the application. Colonel Frank Eshelman, who opened the case, said there was a demand in Lancaster that some one should be hanged, and Rudy was selected as the victim. F. K. Martin supplemented this statement by the remark that 20 murderers had been committed in Lancaster county in 20 years and no one had been executed. AN ACCOMMODATING INDIVIDUAL, Ex-Senstor J. W. Lee and William Mc-Clelland made pleas in favor of the pardon of Charles Laribee, of Venango county, who accommodated a colored friend by shooting him in 1874. The board was informed that Laribee, who is chief baker in the Western Penitentiary, had stated a few days ago that he had killed Lew Williams in a drunken freak after Williams had asked him to choost him. Centain McClelland him to shoot him. Captain McClelland showed that Laribee was a model man, and that during the suffering in Johnstown the Western Penitentiary had contributed 58,-Western Penitentiary had contributed 38,200 loaves of bread to relieve the distressed.

All this was baked under the supervision of Laribee. Dr. Rankin promised to back the prisoner in a new process for making yeast if he were pardoned. Ex-Senator Lee said that while the prisoner was very ignorant when he did the shooting he had developed into a remarkable man. If released veloped into a remarkable man. If released he would be a benefit to the community instead of a detriment.

D. W. Moore and John M. Rourk, represented John Shrod, of Allegheny, convicted of larceny; and the former also spoke the application of Frank Hunter, of to the application of Frank Hunter, of Forest county, convicted of malpractice. The board held a secret session to-night, but took no action in any of the cases.

The Smith murder case was not heard owing to the forced departure of Secretary Stone to New York. D. W. Moore was present to argue the case, but a full board is required to hear capital cases. Secretary Stone will return to-morrow morning when the argument will proceed. the argument will proceed.

PLEA FOR THE FARMERS.

ictor E. Piollet Thinks Their Tax Burder Should be Lightened-Constitutionality of the Provision Relieving Manufacturing Corporations. PRPECIAL TRLEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HARRISBURG, PA., March 18 .- The discussion of the single tax question by two representatives of the United Labor League consumed a large portion of the time of the State Revenue Commission this afternoon, and compelled an evening session to enable all parties desiring to give their views on taxation to be heard. The Grangers were represented by Victor E. Piollet, Worthy Master Rhone, R. H. Thomas and State Lecturer Brown, all of whom made earnest pleas for the equalization of taxation. Pioliet, who was the principal talker, described in glowing colors the outrages to which the farmers were subjected in taxes 60 others would back up William H. Shallis, who had made an important statement corporations. The farming classes were, he in the interest of the Nicely brothers, but whose reputation had been assailed by a would have to be done to lessen their tax burdens to save them from disaster. The country's perpetuity was threatened, as well Secretary Stone thought it was but justice to give the commonwealth's counsel the names of the witnesses whose depositions were desired. After some parleying the names were announced, and the character of to remedy the drawbacks to the farmer's their statements was toreshadowed. Concerning one of them, who is alleged to have remarked that the officer who arrested the murderers told him that he had manufactured some of the evidence which resulted in the conviction of the Nicely brothers.

Mr. Kooser intimated that there was an animus in this statement, inasmuch as the officer had one time arrested the man for horse stealing. 2 and 3 mills. He wanted the mortgages John Cessna, after hearing what was in- of the farmers relieved of taxation and de tended to be proved, said the Commonwealth | manded the imposition of a tax on railroad considered the proposed testimony as wholly immaterial, as it would not alter the status to maintain the schools, public charities and pay the judicial, legislative and executive expenses of the State. Then the corporations would about be paying their share of the taxes. He could not see why manu facturing corporations should be exempted > Camant remarked that that provision of the revenue law was unconstitutional. Colonel Piollet promised to test the constitutionality of the provision indicated if the Auditor General would back him, to on the propriety of framing an act recog-nizing the single tax theory.
