THE SAFE INDUSTRY.

Pittsburg Safes Demanded in All Quarters of the Globe.

TRADE OUTLOOK NEVER BETTER.

Builders' Hardware Depressed in Sympathy With Iron Prices.

COAL TRANSPORTATION ON THE OHIO

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, TUESDAY, March 18, 1890.

There is but one company in Pittsburg engaged in the manufacturing of safes, which is well known to the business world as the Barnes Safe and Lock Company. An interview with the founder of this company, where no doubt was a disposition on the part of the more conservative traders to await a warmer weather and see what the actual damwho established the industry in the year of the great fire of 1845 when Pittsburg merchants wakened up to the necessity of fire proof safes, developed some facts of interest as which started a sharp advance, but at the adproof safes, developed some facts of interest as to the present situation and outlook of this heavy-weight industry.

When Mr. Barnes first began to manufac-

The number of safes turned out by the Barnes Company in 1889 reached 6,000, and a low estimate places the average weight of these safes at a ton each. One recently manufactured for the Citizens' Bank, of Johnstown, weighed ten tons. Orders last year came from Maine, Mexico and California, and all intermediate States and Territories. The books of the company show the shipment of a burglar and fire-proof safe to China within the past six months, a safe just completed for a bank in New York State was shown this afternoon. The prospects for this industry were never brighter than they are right now. Last year was the best on record, and this year promises to be better. The large force of workmen employed are, many of them, working overtime of late in order to catch up to orders.

Recent orders for the most approved patterns of burglar and fire-proof safes from Waynes-burg and Huntingdon, Pa., and Keyser, W. Va., and scores of places near and far have recently been booked, and a year of unusual activity is certainly ahead for this pioneer com-

Builders' Hardware. The recent lull in iron and steel has had a quieting influence on this department of our manufacturing industries since the first of the year. There was a very active demand for this line of goods in the closing months of 1889, and line of goods in the closing months of 1889, and dealers then stocked up so heavily that the output has of late been accumulating. There was a general expectation of an advance in rates in November and December, and this led dealers to purchase more heavily than usual. The advance failed to materialize and a larger stock of goods than usual is held by second hands, hence orders come in slowly so far this year. There has, however, been an improvement in demand the past week or two, and as the outlook for building in this section was never better than it is now, there is a strong undertone of confidence in the future of buildiers' hardware. The difference between this and average seasons is that trade this season will be a little behind time getting under headway.

The orders which usually come in February and March are expected to come in April and May. Already the signs are here that trade will been in the next two months. The out-look has very much brightened in the past

A river man who has been familiar with coal transportation for well nigh a generation said "This season has been an exception to to-day: "This season has been an exception to anything in my memory, and older inhabitants than I am say the same thing. Since the 19th of October the tow boat with which I am engaged has made 13 trips from here to Cincinnat, towing each time from 15 to 20 barges and flats, some of which have carried 15,000 bushels of coal. We have not lost a day in that time. The stage of water has been all that was required, and there has been no ice, as there is in ordinary seasons, to compel us to lay up. I am ordinary seasons, to compel us to lay up. I am very sure that there has not been as favorable a season for transporting coal down the Ohio for 20 years as this past winter has been. As a result coal yards below are unusually well stocked for this time of the year, and fuel has been extraordinarile chem all the arresult. been extraordinarily cheap all the past season.

The weather which has given us steady transportation has had the effect also of lessening demand for coal, and the result is the season in a draw as a season.

The article in this line called for at that day, would easily go inside of the present office or bank safe and have room to spare. The writer who was a small urchin when the first safes were manufactured in this city, remembers one which was placed in a Liberty street office between 1845 and 1850, which struck him as something immense. The same would be a mere baby alongside of the average safe now turned out of this establishment.

EASTERN MONEY MOVING WEST. Wildwood Station to be Metamorphosed Into a Charming Resort.

THE VALUE OF STREET RAILWAY STOCK

The only important event in real estate circles yesterday, so far as could be fished out, was the sale by James W. Drape & Co. of nine lots on Dithridge street, each 50 feet by 180, the entire frontage being 450 feet, at figures running from $52 50 to $56 a foot front, the entire sale aggregating $25,000 cash. The purchasers are Messrs. E. Z. Smith, John, Isaac and William Beckley and Thomas Fry. They will erect handsome dwellings on the property during the present

It is again given out that considerable Eastern money will find its way to Pittsburg this spring for investment in manufactures and real estate. While Pittsburg is entirely able, financially, to take care of her own interests, the promised influx of foreign capital will be welcome. The city has started on a career of expansion which will afford profitable employ ment for large amounts of money, and outsiders are welcome to come in and share our good fortune. There is room enough and busness enough for all.

Holders of street railway stocks will be in terested in the following quotations made the other day in New York: Eighty five shares Third Avenue Railroad Company brought 242 to 247%; 20 shares Sixth Avenue Railroad Company, 192; 144 shares Second Avenue Railroad Company, 1071/4; 50 shares Central Park, North and East River Railroad Company, 1234: 1 share Clinton Hall Association at 55%, and a $1,000 bond of the Bleecker Street and Fulton Ferry Railroad Company, 114%.

If the plans for its improvement are carried out, Wildwood on the Allegheny, near where the pumping station of the Pennsylvania Water Company is located, will soon be trans formed into one of the finest summer resorts in the county. Among the improvements projected are a fine hotel and a large park, with a lake, trees, shrubbery, and other appliances for comfort and pleasure. East End capitalists are said to be putting up the money.

This time last year the United States was shipping gold to Europe; whereas now the con-dition of our foreign trade balance is so unlike what it then was that the outlook does not give romise of gold leaving us in any considerable amount during the next six months. This af-fords assurance of continued ease in the money market.

Speculation is so sensitive to outside influence that almost anything is sufficient to move prices one way or the other. Rumors of the most improbable kind are frequently resorted to with success as a bull or a bear factor. The rise in New York Central the other day was due to the announcement that there was a sur-plus of $14,000 against a small deficit for the corresponding quarter in 1889. A month or two ago the stock of a local traction road lost a full point because one of the cars of the company had run over and injured a child. Investors were apprehensive of a suit for damages.

The State of Georgia calls for bids for a series of bonds not exceeding in the aggregate $1,900, 000, to date from July 1, 1890, and be redeemable in installments of $100,000 yearly, beginning on January 1, 1917. The interest is not to exceed series, bearing a lower rate of interest, viz., per cent per annum, 3% per cent per annum and 3 per cent per annum.

HARD CASH.

Bankers Report Conditions Comtortable and Unchanged-Operations of the Trensury. Business at the banks yesterday was about on a level with that of the previous day. There was a fair demand for discounts at unchanged rates, and checking and depositing were up to the Tuesday average. The prospect of fair weather was a stimulant to business. Exchanges were $2,361,700 07, and balances $431,- 625 23. There was a reduction of $32,098,219 in the total amount of national bank circulation outstanding in the 12 months ending February 28. The decine in February amounted to $2,313,166. The circulation oustanding at the end of that month amounted to $192,120,406. Of the total amount based on United States bonds amounted to $127,410,251, an increase of $663,221 for the month, but a decrease of $13,461,264 for the 12 months ending therewith.

The circulation secured by the deposit of money in the redemption fund amounted to $43,710,155, a decrease of $3,636,887 for the month and $18,662,655 for the 12 months. The bonds on deposit to secure circulating notes amounted to standing in the 12 months ending February 28.

little more aggressive, while the bulls hold off pending that time.

Atchison was again one of the most active stocks of the day, but the strength which it has shown lately was missing, and the same may be said of the Wheeling and Lake Erio tocks. Northern Pacific preferred and C. G. C. & St. L. were also specially weak at times, while all the advances were made in the specialties, the most conspicuous movement being in Flint and Pere Marquette.

The unlisted department was more quiet, though there was a fair business in sugar refineries, which after a fractional decline slowly crept up again and closed with a material improvement. money in the redemption fund amounted to $64,710,155, a decrease of $3,036,887 for the month and $18,652,955 for the 12 months. The bonds on deposit to secure circulating notes amounted to $143,197,000 an increase of $830,250 for the month, but a decrease of $14,288,700 for the year.

Money on call at New York yesterday was easy, ranging from $34,624 per cent; last loan, $345 closed offered at $34. Prime mercantile paper, land, Columbus, Cincinnati and St. Louis lost 1 per cent each, while Flint and Pere Marquette is up 4½, the preferred and Sugar 1 each.

The railroad bond market was comparatively more animated than the share list, but out of the total day's business of $1,497,000 Atchison incomes contributed $332,000, the 4's $165,000. the Texas Pacific firsts $136,000, and Louisville, New Albany and Chicago consols $120,000.

The Post says: There was no news of any kind to furnish a pretext for selling stocks short this forenoon. On the contrary there were several facts that should have encouraged the expectation of firmness, at least, if not some improvement in prices. Foreign exchange was reduced ½ cent on the pound, and the sub-Treasury was debtor at the Clearing House this morning $1,555,000, both of these facts giving some reason to expect easier rates for money.

So far as the railroad situation is concerned, there is still reason to expect an important improvement in the relations of the Western roads to each other. And as for the roads east of Chicago, they are doing better now than at any time in the past five years, with a fair prospect that their present profitable business will continue. Their stocks have risen a little in the last month, but the average is still several points below what it was two months or six weeks ago.

GENERAL GROCERIES UNCHANGED

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, TUESCAY, March 18, 1890.

Country Produce-Jobbing Prices. The situation is practically unchanged. Commission men report that very little stuff i coming forward. The supply of apples and potatoes is light and a choice article in either line is promptly taken. The markets for dairy products of good brand are steady at quotations. Poultry is scarce and firm. In the region around Pittsburg it is doubtful if the poultry crop has been as bare in the memory of the oldest inhabitant as it is at this time. The season for Florida oranges is over.
