JOHNSTOWN SCARED.

High Rivers Commence to Flood the City and it is Feared the

BRIDGES WILL BE CARRIED AWAY.

Toothpick Trust Organized by a Bradford Manufacturer.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 21 .- The rivers have risen five teet since 3 o'clock this afternoon, and as the snow has been melting fast all day, it is feared the banks will overflow be ore midnight, and there is much alarm in the lower part of town. The water rose rapidly between 7 and 9 o'clock, and at the latter hour the street at the stone bridge was covered to a depth of several feet and all travel to Cambria had to be across the stone bridge. Wagon traffic being suspended early in the evening on account of its insecurity, the Poplar street bridge was closed to travel long before dark, and it is expected that the Cambria bridge will give way at any moment.

The water continues to rise, and it looks now as if all the bridges might go, and the people living in the lower part of town are moving out. The prevailing heavy fog adds much to their discomfiture.

UNKNOWN PLOATER POUND.

Body of a Man Discovered in the River at Benver Falls.

PETECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATOR. BEAVER FALLS, PA., March 21 .- Late this afternoon, while men were cleaning away the drift from in front of the gates at the race in this place, the dead body of an unknown man was found. The remains were greatly decomposed, and had evidently lain in the water several weeks, the features being unrecognizable. The body was that of a man 5 feet 8 inches tail, and weighing about 160 pounds. He had dark hair, sandy mustache, and wore a red striped cheviot shirt and gray flamed undershirt; also a black coat, striped pants and laced shoes. The body had 45 cents in the coat pockets, a copy of the Sharpsville (Pa.) Comet and two railroad guides.

Some think it is the body of Green, of Yaungstown, and others think it may be the hady of Frisco, an Italian quarry boss, who has been missing from Clinton, Pa., for several weeks. posed, and had evidently lain in the water sev-

The Latest Combine Organized by a Bradford Manufacturer.

IMPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BRADFORD, PA . March 21 .- S. A. Holbrook the toothpick manufacturer of this place, returned to-day from New York, where he su ceeded in organizing a Toothpick Trust. The combine is composed of eight of the leading factories in the United States, in which Brad-ford stands at the head. The object of this trust is to establish a uniformity of prices among all factories and to benefit the manufac-turer and to her allo.

A manager or overseer will be appointed to bill out and collect for all goods sold by the factories belonging to the trust and divide the profitson the percentage plan. This will enable each manufacturer to know the exact price the others are selling at. Mr. Holbrook is satisfied the combine will be a great success and result in much good to the manufacturers.

A Little Boy Takes Polson to Find Out How it Tasted.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BUTLER, PA. March 21 .- At Sunbury, this county, the 6-year-old son of P. P. Brown made a narrow escape to-day through his curiosity to know what poison tasted like. Mr. Brown re cently purchased some rat poison, which he told his son Grant not to touch. This settled it with the boy, and he tasted it as soon as he ittle while after a neighbor saw the boy's and the boy confessed what he had done and said he was sick. Physicians promptly pumped, drenched and dosed the boy until he had nothing left of the poison but his experience. He will live.

WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS SECEDES. Members Object to Being Taxed for the Ben fit of Department Officers.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATUR. ERIE, PA., March 21.-There is a rupture brewing in the Women's Relief Corps of the G. A. R. in this section of the State. The branch of that organization in this city is about to surrender their charter, and become purely an auxiliary to Strong-Vincent post, an auxiliary to Strong. Vincent post.

The corps of ladies are almost unanimous in the matter, and have the support of the post. Their action is the result of a dissatisfaction of two years' standing, and is based upon the disinclination of the corps to pay a per capita tax for the benefit of department officers and to pay for sending delegates to conventions.

MINERS ON STRIKE.

Two Hundred Men Quit Work Owing to the Discharge of Fellow Workmen,

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE ! SCOTTDALE, PA., March 21 .- A strike is on at the Port Royal coal works and 200 men are providing additional works, with capacity affected. It is the outcome of the company's of 300,000 feet of glass a month. Nothing anected. It is the outcome of the company's refusal to reinstate some discharged men. An early settlement is not looked for.

Trouble seems forth coming at the Millwood works. The operators there agreed to grant an advance if there was any granted by the operators in the Larrobe district. They have failed to abide by the agreement and the Millwood men have sent to officers of Division 4 for instructions in the matter.

John F. Scott Continues His Story of How the Fords Mnde Glass Factories.

In the hearing of the equity suit by S. F.

Barr against the directors of the Pittsburg

Plate Glass Company yesterday, before H.

D. Gamble, clerk of the United States Circuit Court, John F. Scott continued his testimony. He said a resolution was submitted was said about options, nor were plans submitted. The meeting was at Creighton,

September 20, 1887. The new works would have 50,000 more capacity than the two .old works combined. Some stockholders wanted plans, while others wanted the old works extended. Mr. Barr said the company's charter did not empower it to build in Armstrong county, and in this he was backed by the attorney for the company, Wm. Scott.

The question was put on the motion to build new works, but no one voted either way.

No options, plans or estimates were re-ported as held by J. B. Ford & Co. or the

Pittsburg Plate Glass Company; and no chance was subsequently offered the Pittsburg Plate Glass Company to build additional works, but

J. B. Ford & Co. went in with the building. Mr. Scott said J. B., Emory L. and Edward Ford and A. Pitcairn held above 75 per cent of the stock. At the time of the meeting

Scott was treasurer, and paid four drafts signed by A. Pitcairn, as Vice President, payable to Buffington & Buffington, and aggregating $14,305, but the money was sub-sequently refunded by J. B. Ford, Colonel Barr objecting, that he didn't want the com-pany money used that way.

Scott said he heard Ford say prior to the meeting that the company ought not to build as it couldn't afford it, and it would hurt the dividends. John Pitcairn thought it should and said at the meeting that J. B. Ford & Co. could build the new works for $1,500,000. Witness said he was offered stock in the new No. 3 works previous to the meeting, and the Fords said the Pitts-burg Plate Glass Company ought to have the No. 3 works, as it could control the trade

these petitions was incumbent upon him.
The licensing of the traffic was a legislative policy, and not a judicial one, and he was sorry that some good people were so silly as to coincide with the mistaken idea that the judiciary is responsible for it. He disclaimed any credit for refusing any licenses in 1886, and pointed to his course as being consistent since the beginning of his term. The prevalence of drunkenness in Butler, Saxonburg and Evans City was condemned, and he promised to inquire more closely into the illegal sale of liquor in the future, if the licensed venders do not protect themselves against the pirates in the business.

WHAT WE HAVEN'T GOT

SPRING CLOTHING!

From a Pair of Kentucky Jean Pants to a Gorgeous Fancy Vest Isn't Worth Having.

Paste This in the Crown of Your Hat and Don't Forget It.

No man can be on very good terms with himself unless he is decently and comfortably clad. The question of cost enters largely into the matter of dress. Well you can spend a fortune and not get very much out of it, and you can spend very little and get a whole lot, so to speak. It all depends on how you buy and where you buy. It is the disposition of most men to buy as cheaply as possible when it comes to the purchase of clothing for themselves. They may be extravagant in everything else, but practice the strictest economy in the matter of dress.

WE ARE PREPARED FOR SUCH MEN

At $8, $10, $12 and $15.

And the "pull" we've got is a price-pull, which will pull more trade than any emount of

BEAUTIFUL SPRING SUITS

For $10, $12, $15 and $18. With hundreds of Spring Overcoats at $5, $6 and $7, and hundreds of Spring Suits at $6, $7 and $8 which, while not being as good as our higger priced ones, yet are vastly better in every way than what you'd get for from $2 to $4 more money elsewhere.

THIS WEEK WE BEGIN A TRIUMPH! We have opened up, ready and perfect for your seeing and buying, a wonderfully grand stock of Boys and Children's Clothing. Leaving out all the crumpled, much-handed-about-phrases, we simply call our Boys' Spring Clothing the best, the finest, the grandest ever seen in this city. In more than the ordinary import of trade speech, it's an
