TRUE NATIONAL MEN.

Rev. Shaffer Tells Mechanics What American Greatness Means.

PRACTICAL PEOPLE IN DEMAND.

Sermon by Rev. George T. Street on Personal Responsibility.

SUNDAY TALKS OF OTHER PREACHERS

Yesterday morning Rev. George Shaffer, pastor of the Second M. P. Church, told the members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. what constituted true national greatness. Six lodges of the order, with their friends, filled the church to overflowing.

Hastily sketching the material greatness of America and showing conclusively that in every department of business the American has the right to exclaim, "We are the people," he said: "There is something else cessary in the building up of a great nation beside great material resources. We think we have this something in our republican form of government. Our Government bestows upon each of us something grander, something more important than the blessing of civil and religious liberty. Far greater than these elements of our greatness is this-that the American Government takes to itself in partnership every citizen. Every man over 21 years of age, of proper moral character, and mental capacity, becomes a part of the Government itself. This form of government exalts us to the highest and most honored positions, hence the necessity for the education of the race.

"When we use the right of suffrage, we are not using it for ourselves alone. There are in this country 12,000,000 voters, a little more than one-fourth of the total population. When you go to the polls to exercise the right of suffrage you represent not yourself alone, but four others. Many of these whom you represent are women and children unable to vote; others are insane; many of them belong to the criminal classes. You represent the interests of all these classes and their interest depend unon your intelligent use of, the shiring white ballot. When you stay away from the polls, you not only deprive yourself, but you deprive four others of a voice in the government of your country. Taking this view of it, how responsible, holy and solemn becomes the right of American suffrage. How few are apt to realize it? Your right of suffrage is not a triding thing, a more bauble which you can trade for a class of which yor for a rowling $50 or capacity, becomes a part of the Government realize it? Your right of sunrage is not a training thing, a more handle which you can trade for a glass of whisky or for a position paying $50 or $60 a month, it is not something that you can throw are sund among your friends as a personal favor. It is a solemn charge given you by your

Close upon this comes another element of "Alose upon this comes another element of our greatness—our free educational system. This element is resential to our national safety and our national welfare. Under a form of government like ours, where the people are sovereign, education becomes a necessity. Education is our national safeguard. This Government cannot exist without it. A government like this in the hands of the ignorant and those lacking moral character would be more dangerous than the extreme of monarchy. It would be better by far to have the government vested in three far to have the government vested in three or four intelligent and moral persons than to have it in the hands of many ignorant and de-prayed men. Hence we must have education to guard against such a danger. A man cannot Iuliv represent those he represents without intelligence, without being capable to read and write and without looking into the principles involved in the American form of government. This being the case, I think that our public school system becomes an actual necessity. The perpetuation of the Government depends upon it, and I hold that as we cannot as a nation exist without it, education should be in America as in Germany, compulsary. Children from 6 to 15 years of age should be compelled to go to school. You say that this interferes with parental rights. It does not. No parent has a right to deprive his child of an education. Such a law might work hardships in some cases, but the safety of a nation, which Gadstone said would soon stand at the head of all others, requires the enactment of such a law." represent those be represents withou

SERMON TO LATTER-DAY SAINTS.

Rev. T. W. Williams, of Iown, Lectures on the Bible and Christ's Word. ev. T. W. Williams, of Lucas, Ia., delivered ess before an audience of the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day-Saints last night, at 81 Fourth avenue. Mr. Williams is a the direct word of God to man, and the doctrinal part or that which was given by Christ's inspired apostles, who wrote under the direct inspiration of God. He said:

"We do not make the claim that all that is recorded in the Bible is worthy the credence of man, but only that part which purports to come from God director through his inspired representatives. Sincerity will not avail us unless it accords with the written word of God. Lot's wife, and Uzzah, who laid his hand upon the ark of God, are irrefutable evidences that God's word is true. Nebuchadnezzar's dream and the interpretation given by Daniel portrays the history of nations from Babylonian days down to the final consummation, when the kingdows of this world become the kingas of on Lord Jesus Christ. Christ's words are the words of the Father Christ's tords are the words of the Father direct, and should be worthy our credence. His statements, as inculcated in Matt, xxiv., are to-day being marvelously and miraculously fulfilled. His statement in Matt, vii: If any man will do his will he shall know his doctrine, gives every sen and daughter the outportunity of proving the divinity of the word of God beyond dispute." The principles of these Latter-Day Saints as The principles of these Latter-Day Saints as explained by one of their exponents are the nearest to the real teachings of Christ of any in the Christian world. They claim to follow His teachings as closely as it is possible for anyone to follow in this day. Although the name of the sect is suggestive of the Mormons of Utah, the followers of this religion say that they are not connected with the Brighamites in any way and that their principles are diometrically conversed to replace the principles are diometrically conversed to replace the principles are diometrically conversed to replace the principles are discovered to replace th rically opposed to polygamy.

Mr. Williams will remain in this city for a month yet, and will deliver a lecture every Sunday morning and evening, at the same place, during that time.

SELF RESPONSIBILITY.

Some Pertinent Remarks Upon the Subject

by Rev. George T. Street. Rev. George T. Street, of Mt. Washington. preached last evening in the Fourth Avenue Baptist Church on "Personal Responsibility." He said every one should choose his own way, the right way, and pursue it. It was not alone a sign of weakness, but one of cowardice to say in extenuation of wrongdoing that it was the fault of evil example or the influence of others by which we were mislead. Go to the penitentiary and ask each of the thousand and one prisoners there what brought him there, what he did, and nine out of ten will answer you that it was the fault of somebody else.

Adam did the same thing when charged with disobedience by the Creator, and his descendants have not abandoned this custom, all humanity saying that it was the other fellow who did wrong.

those men he would say that they should be the victors, instead of the victims. The man can will who wishes, and the will power can con-quer any circumstances. Be a man as well as a Christian and exert that power, and the con-science which can best hold itself responsible for its acts will be the clearest. for its acts will be the clearest,

PRACTICAL PEOPLE NEEDED.

Rev. Dr. Marsh Taiks on Education and Practical Life. The Smithfield Street M. E. Church was filled last night by an interested audience to listen to a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Marsh. President of the Mt. Union College, Alliance, O. The speaker chose for his text Proverbs 4 and 13. His remarks were directed especially to the young people in the gathering, on whom he es-sayed to impress the importance of being practical in every undertaking in life. He dwelt also on the effects of college and higher education, and said that this was not essentially necessary to success in life. He said the world wanted practical people in every line, and only such people were likely to succeed. The practical side of religion was also spoken of by the doctor, as well as the practical side of many other vocations in life.

pent Men to be Present. The sale of seats for the forthcoming dinner of the Americus Republican Club, the anniversary of the birth of General U. S. Grant, April 26, took place at the club house Saturday night. The rooms were well filled with members, and the plan of seats had just 300 plates marked out, 30 of which were reserved for the guests of the club and the press, leaving 270 for members. The Committee of Arrangements will not have the same complaint to make as formerly. The members have been prompt, this year, in answering the notices sent out, and the consequence is that the entire number of seats, at 88 per seat, were taken. If any member has been left unprovided for, the committee says, no blame can attach to it, as all who answered the provise sent out, over a week are says, no hisme can attach to it, as an who answered the notices sent out over a week ago were provided for, and it is absolutely necessary that the printer be given a chance to get out the plans of the tables with the names of those who will occupy them.

Mr. Wilson, of the Seventh Avenue 110cc, has had the entire floor of his hotel, which has been engaged by the Americus on this evening, newly refurnished for this occasion, and with the floral decorations to be made, the supper will celipse any repast ever given by the club. The committee states that it has been very successful so far in securing distinguished speakers, comparing favorably with any dinner yet given. As the club has entertained such gentlemen as President Harrison, Senators Sherman, Plumb and Quay, Hons, William McKinley and Nathan Goff, Governors Beaver and Foraker and Colonel F. D. Grant, this will be difficult to accomplish. The committee has always delayed announcing the names of those who would absolutely be present until the cutire list had been made out, and by so doing claims it has been able to have present at their dinners the gentlemen it has officially named, and therefore will adhere to the same plan this year.

and therefore will adhere to the same plan this year.

Arrangements are being made for special car from Washington to Pittsburg and return for the distinguished gentlemen who will come from the Capitol. From present arrangements the guests will arrive Saturday morning, and will be placed in the hands of a committee consisting of the life members of the club, and will be escorted to places of interest throughout the two cities.

The menus of the Americus Club dinners have always been souvenins of the occasion that the guests and members retain, and the committee promises that the present one, now in the hands of the engravers, will be no exception. The gentlemen composing this committee have much experience in giving dinners, this being their fourth.

Colonel Barr is a pleasant talker, and the other day when a reporter met him taking lunch at the Duquesne, the conversation drifted to Speaker Reed.

Said the Colonel: "I regard Mr. Reed as the strongest and brainlest man in the House. Do you know he ressembles Shakespeare somewhat, but he is very sensitive about it. I remember one day I told him that he looked like the great poet, and the remark didn't please him. He feels that Shakespeare was such a superior man that comparisons would be edious, and he dread lest some epithet should be applied to him. "Reed, of course, is a sarcastic man. He doesn't like Judge Emery, of Maine, I bought some property in the State after the Judge had pronounced the title unencumbered, but afterward I discovered somebody had a claim against it, and it gave me some trouble. I met Reed one day, and I told him about it. I said I was provoked that a man of Emery's prominence should lead me into a trap, and then I asked him what he thought of the Judge as a lawyer.

ALMOST PHYSICIANS.

Programme for the Fourth Annual Commencement of the Medical College-Twenty-Nine Graduates-The Institution Meeting With Gratifying Success. The fourth annual commencement exercises of the Western Pennsylvania Medical College will be held in the Grand Opera House, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Diplomas of graduation will be granted to 29 of the 117 students who have attended the institution this term.

An interesting programme has been arranged for the occasion. The exercises will be opened with prayer by Rev. F. R. Farrand, of the Southside Presbyterian Church. The salutatory address will be delivered by Dr. J. D. Thomas, of the Southside. The degrees will be conferred by Dr. C. B. King, of Allegheny, after which Prof. M. D. Riddle, D. D., of the Western Theological Seminary, will deliver an address. The presentation of prizes will then take place followed by the benediction. The Opera House orchestra will lend interest to the occasion, by interspersing the excises with selections. The following are the names who have passed the required examinations and will compose the graduating class: Herman E. Almes, Joseph C. Boggs, A. J. Bouceck, Pearson C. Cope, Wm. S. Campbell, Hiram DuPuy, Simon P. Ernest, Wm. H. Petter, George L. Fife, Thomas B. Gornley, John A. Graham, Jos. L. Haven, Ellis S. Montgomery, Thomas N. McKee, George E. McFarland, Samuel H. McKibbon, J. Robert McQuaid, Jos. E. Martin, John H. Mercer, Jacob W. Phillips, Robert M. Powers, Joseph Piersol, John C. Sullivan, Wm. B. Shields, John S. Silvus, John B. Shupe, H. P. Thompson and Walter A. Voorhees.

The oath formerly administered to students when they graduated, will be dispensed with this year. This plan has been adopted to conform with the ideas of nearly every member of the faculty who believe that it is sheer nonsense to administer the oath. Many of the physiciaus, among others, Dr. C. B. King, Dr. J. D. Thomas and Dr. J. M. Duff, were opposed to the use of the oath from the first. The oath principally bound the young physician to gentlemanly deportment while discharging his professional duties.

The success of the new medical college has passed the most sanguine expectations of those who established it. They have had the proud satisfaction of educating nearly 100 physicians, many of whom are now successful practitioners. The college is no longer an experiment; but it ranks with all of the first-class institutions in the country. But it could scarcely be otherwise with such physicians as compose the officers and faculty, back of it.

The trustees of the institution are: President, Dr. C. B. King; Vice President, Dr. J. B. Murdoch; Secretary, Dr. W. J. Asdale: Treasurers, Dr. J. Chris Laure, Dr. James McCann, Dr. W. Snively, Dr. J. D. Thomas, Dr. J. G. Connell, Dr. J. C. Dunn. The officers of the faculty are: President, Dr. James McCann, Dean, Dr. J. B. Murdoch; Secretary, Dr. W. J. Asdale. Seventeen other well-known physicians of Pittsburg and Allegheny compose the faculty, who have devoted their time and energy and knowledge to place the institution on the high plane which it now occupies.
