AN UNPOPULAR BOOK

The City in a Hole by the Publication of the Triennial Report.

ONLY SEVEN COPIES OF IT SOLD. It Cost Pittsburg Over $7,000 and Nebody

Desires to Purchase.

WHAT THE OFFICIALS SAY ABOUT IT Reclining in his easy chair in the City Assessor's office Chief Frank Case was accosted yesterday, and to the question of whether he was a popular author or not, replied; "I do not know. I am not certain that the books compiled by the Assessors' Board are popular, but I have an impression that they are not what you might call salable in the strict sense of the word. I think that about seven copies of the latest work—the report of the tri-ennial assessment—have already been sold, but I am afraid that the list will not be materially ncreased."

Controller Morrow was then seen, and asked how the sales were progressing. He sighed over the recollection of having retused an advance in salary, and thought that if he had to depend upon the percentage obtainable from the sale of the city assessors' reports for a living, his clothes would have to be reduced in girth.

INTERESTED BOTH WAYS. He admired the work very much, and, although it was a book of interest, in fact a large advance in interest to those who were assessed, he thought the price was a little too lofty. The three volumes, which were estimated by Councils to be worth $5 if each, did not seem to eatch the public eye, or the public's greenbacks. There was a sort of lassitude in the rush to obtain copies which boded ill for the popularity of the work.

the work. He had, the Controller said, sold five copies himself, and was waiting eagerly for more or-ders, but had an idea that the city would have, as it always has had a large amount of surplus literature on hand. "Why," said the Controlliterature on hand. Why, said the control-ler, "even my own reports have been annually cut down, and next year i expect to reduce them further. The only people who read my reports carefully are the controllers of other cities. I hope: the proof-readers I doubt, and the reporters I question. Bankers read it for the information on bonds contained."

THE CITY IN A HOLE. From the various talks held with City Hall officials and taxpavers it appears that the city is in a hole on the three volume work. Whether of history or fiction, there are only seven people apparently who had the enterprise to people apparently who had the enterprise of investigate at $5 41 per investigation. As it is, the city is willing apparently to sacrifice literary stock at a very large discount before very long. The discount before very long. The trouble appears to be that the people who want the reports are perfectly willing to pay for knowing how their own ward stands, but the man in the Thirty-sixth is unwilling to pay $5.41 for the privilege of learning the assessments of the Twenty-third. The East Eod residents who are so desirous of library privileges are not seemingly anxious to add to their collections, and now it is said the members of the Carnegue Library Board are expected to hold a meeting, to consider whether the issue of 1.000 copies of the assessors' reports would not make a good nucleus for the library. The book cost the city over $7,000. It is printed and sold by a city ordinance.

CHARTIERS AND WESTVIEW.

A Good Well in the Former and Considerable Fight in the Latter Field.

The Tate well on the Hibler farm, south of the old Arbuckle well in the next ravine running to Chartiers creek, promises to do anywhere from 100 to 500 barrels a day. Some per sons think it shows for a bigger gusher than he Arbuckle well. It is mainly owned by Thomas Tate, his partner, Mr. Meyers, and Boehmer Bros. The drill is but two feet in the sand and will not be pushed further until tank-age is built and pipe line connection made. age is built and pipe line connection made. The well was on the verge of being abandoned on account of the rock appearing to be n. g. It was an intensely hard shell and of unpromising appearance, so hard that it knicked the bit out of shape. A consultation was held and it resulted in a determination to run one more bit. That broke the crust and the grease flew to the top of the derrick, after a few turns of the templet screw.

The Duquesne Gas Company is having trouble in the effort to supply drillers in the trouble in the effort to supply drillers in the Westview field with gas. Mrs. Hahn objected to allowing the pipe to go through her farm and the work was stopped for a time. Another woman as an earnest of her feelings destroyed the workmen's lunch ere they reached her place. J. W. Breen objects to the line running through his farm, and the gas company pro-pose to retaliate by refusing to supply Smith & Kleiman with gas for their boilers while drill-ing on the Breen farm.

PHELPS TAKEN BACK.

He Apologized to the Faculty, but Young

Tibbey is Still Out. The case of Hartley Phelps, who was suspended from the High School last Thursday, primarily because he read a paper before the Dean Literary Society lightly ridiculing some members of the faculty, came up before the regular meeting of the faculty of the High School yesterday. The young man acknowledged reading the opnoxious portion of the paper to the school before he had first read the paper to the senten order as a contraction of the paper at rehearsal.

In his letter asking for restoration, Mr. Phelps acknowledged his error, and made a formal apology, and on motion he was again admitted apology, and on motion he was again admitted to the school at once.

In the matter of James Tibby, who was suspended for wearing a badge of mourning to symbolize his regret at Pheips' suspension, and which act is always punishable by demerits, the faculty took no action. He has as yet made no apology, and until he does, he is considered out of the school, and beyond the power of the faculty to forgive him.

AN EXPOSITION SECRET.

Manager Johnston Makes a Beal in New York-The Offices Changed. Manager Johnston, of the Exposition Sci ciety, returned yesterday from New York, where he was arranging for some big attractions for the exhibition next fall. He said he could not tell what arrangements he had made antil the matter had been laid before the Board of Directors next week. The Exposition Society yesterday moved their offices from the Hamilton building to their own building at the Point. They will remain there pormanently.

[Communicated.] RUTAN SEES DEFEAT taring Him in the Face and Resorts to

Mud-Siluging Tactics. In answer to an article in the evening pa-pers of yesterday, attacking Mr. John N. Neeb, Senatorial candidate in the Fortysecond district, the following has been re-

"Senator Rutan, after making one of his coasted house to house canvasses, found that I am going to be the successful candidate for Senator in the Forty-second district. He has a long communication in this evening's papers, in which he alleges that the firm with which I am connected has received a quarter of a million of patronage from the National, State, county and municipal governments, for public advertising in the Freiheits Freund since 1836. Would there be anything detrimental to me if that was a fact? The amount stated is, however, nearly twice what the Freiheits Freund received from official advertising in that period, during which the Freiheits Freund paid several millions of dollars in wages alone, and never had any trouble with its I was born, and more remote ancestors were Whigs in other portions of this State, and speak.

"It, is true that I never represented Beaver, Washington and other counties, as Senator Rutan claims he has, because this has always campaign without entering into personali-ties, but the Senator has opened his bat-teries. He shall have the full benefit of this kind of warfare. I can stand it, but can he? employes, and besides, every cent that the Freiheits Freund got was honestly carned and value received given. I never found fault with the thousands and thousands of dollars Senator Rutan drew as county, State, Government and legislative official during the past 30 years. The last canvass he made was on the plea that he was poor. He has had two terms in the Legislature since, to which a salary of $1,500 per term was attached. He has not lived in Allegheny six months continuously since his election, but traveled considerably in Europe, sojourned at Atlantic City and Philadelphia. Still he is wealthy. The most ridiculous charge made is the one against my Republicanism, because a Democratic German paper, the Beobach-ter, prefers me, among the Republican can-didates for Senate, instead of a man, who in the last session of the Legislature misrepre-sented his district in the State Senate. My great grandfather, grandfather and father were Whigs, residents of Allegheny, where
