Cattle Markets at East Liberty Show Weakening Tendencies.

OWING TO LOW GRADE OF RECEIPTS.

Sheep and Lambs in Very Light Supply and a Little Higher.

RUSH OF POOR HOGS WEAKENS TRADE

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, ? WEDNESDAY, March 26, 1890. Receipts of cattle for the week, about 78 toads, against 70 loads last week, and 75 for the previous week. Markets opened strong on Monday morning at prices of the previous Monday, and nice, tidy butcher cattle were a shade higher. Prime 1,600-pound steers would have quickly brought $4\, 75\, 65\, 500\, per cwt, but in the language of a leading drover, were as scarce as hen teeth. On Tuesday about ten loads of mixed cattle, of all grades and sizes, excepting primes, were dumped onto the market, and the result was that prices dropped not less than 10c per cwt on all common and medium stock. Good butcher cattle held up fairly well to prices of last week in spite of the depression on common stock. This was, however, due to the scarcity of the former grade. Tuesday's receipts furnished us stock tit for transportation to the East. The bulk of them had much better been kept at home a few mouths longer and enjoyed some generous feeding.

Said a leading stockman: "A very large proportion of the cattle sent to the East Liberty Lard."

English market advices were emphasized with the remarks that indications favored still lower prices. A dispatch was received saying that some of the Russian ports were open and that Russia was offering to sell more freely. Com was traded in to a moderate extent, and the feeling dereloped was a little casier, transactions being at slightly lower prices. The easier transactions being at slightly lower prices. Said a leading stockman: "A very large proportion of the cattle sent to the East Liberty yards this week were poor mixed lots, entirely unfit for butcher purposes, and less fit to be shipped East. Shippers seem to be possessed with the idea that Pittsburg consumers are starving for something to make soup out of, judging from the quality of most of the cattle coming in of late. There is no trouble what ever selling tidy butcher cattle weighing from 1,000 to 1,300 pounds, but very little of this grade is being shipped to us of late. Of the 10 loads that arrived on Tuesday there was not a single load of the kind wanted in our market. loads that arrived on Tuesday there was not a single load of the kind wanted in our market. A few steers might have been found in each load, but the majority were thin, bony steers, cows, and dear knows what, which would have been much better left in the corn fields and pasture fields until their ribe gathered a little

"Markets have been at the mercy of buyers all the week, and principally for the reason that the offerings were of a grade unfit for the butcher trade. I do wish that the farmer would waken up to the fact that he can do better with waken up to the fact that he can do better with his thin, low grade cattle by keeping them at home and feeding them well for a season than by dumping them on to our market, where they can hardly begiven away."

What is said above as to cattle is in a great measure true as to all live stock coming to the front of late. Quality is the chief thing combinated of, and all choice stock holds up well in price because of its scarcity.

Prices for sheep and lambs were higher this week than at any time this year. There was an advance of 15 to 25c per cwt on last week's prices for the reason that receipts were very light. Native wethers are hardly quotable as very few were offered. They would readily bring $8.50. The range for Western wethers was 5c to 6%. Choice lambs weighing from 90 to 100 lbs were active at 7c to 7%c. Sucklers or spring lambs are too plenty this week and dropped from a range of 10c to 12c per lb to a range of 6c to 9c within a few days.

MORE OUTSIDE MONEY

Seeking Investment in Business Property in Pittsburg.

A HALF MILLION DOLLAR ORDER.

Another Big Deal in Realty at Hazelwood and Several More Pending.

LIFE INSURED IN THE NICK OF TIME

The Pittsburg fever is spreading at a rapid rate among outsiders. They begin to realize the importance of the city as a business center, and are anxious to get in on the ground floor. As a proof of this Messrs. Black & Baird yesterday received an order from parties, presumably in Philadelphia, to purchase business property here which will cost in the aggregate from $450,-000 to $500,000. They are willing to pay a fair price, but exorbitant figures would probably spoil the deal and cause the loss to the city of an enterprise of great importance. It was mentioned yesterday in connection with the sale of St. Michael's Seminary property at Hazelwood, that Samuel W. Black & Co. were negotiating for the transfer of a block of 16 building lots in the Blair estate. The deal was closed up vesterday afternoon, at a price approximating $16,000, or $1,000 a lot. Buildings will be erected on them this season. They are located near the end of the Second avenue electric road. The same firm has a deal pending involving a block of about 20 lots and a tract of 12 acres, being part of the Biair estate, and within a convenient distance of the electric road. These transactions are exciting considerable interest among investors, and focusing attention upon Hazelwood as a desirable place for residence.

The business prospects of Pittsburg were never brighter than at present. All branches of trade are prospering. There is no boom in anything, but the busy appearance of the streets and stores, factories and offices, affords conclusive evidence of a high degree of activity. There are few idlers. There is no city in the country where labor finds more stable employment, or is better remunerated. Said an iron worker yesterday: "Pittsburg is the best city in the United States for the workingman. He not only lives well, but, if careful, lays up money, and in due time becomes proprietor of the house he lives in." A great deal of real estate is owned by workingmen, and many of them have handsome credits at bank. The prosperity of the working element is reflected in that of the community at large. There is such close relationship between the two that they must stand or fall together.

But the prosperity of Pittsburg should not be a matter of surprise. Her superior commercial and manufacturing advantages place her ahead of all rivals. With an abundance of coal, coke, iron, oil and natural gas at her very doors, and with abundance of capital and skill to utilize them to the utmost, it would be strange if she did not take the lead in industrial activity. So far from showing exhaustion, her energies are in full vigor, and she is constantly reaching out and finding new markets for her products.

Under such circumstances it is no wonder that wide-awake people in other cities, less favored by nature, are desirous of establishing themselves in business in Pittsburg. Let them come. There is room for all who want to better their condition by locating in a live place.

The certainty of death and the necessity for those having families to make provision for them are strikingly illustrated by a circum-stance which has just come to light. A few months ago a prominent insurance agent, since dead, and a friend, an architect, were dining

The oil market developed more strength and steadiness yesterday than usual of late. Opening at 84%, it hung around that figure until about noon, when it advanced to 85%, from which it broke to 84%, rallied and closed steady at 851/2. It was a pyker's market throughout, being bid up and offered down with very little doing. Refined was weaker. Tuesday's clear-ances were 290,000 barrels. A good strike is reported on the Tate farm in the Chartiers field. The well started off with a rush, and is said to be good for at least 200 a rush, and is said to be good for at least 200 barrels a day, some say more. It is located between the Arbuckle No. 1 and the Fritz wells. The old Davis well in the same field is still producing 100 barrels a day. Calhoun, Jennings & Co.'s well, on the Mansheld Coal Company property, is still drilling, with but a poor outlook for anything better than a dry hole. Wesley Weber and W. E. Clark are starting a rig on the Joseph May farm, a few hundred feet from the O'Brien well, which is doing 125 barrels a day now. Rigs are also going up on several adjoining farms.

The E. M. Hukill well, on the J. M. Winett farm, near Fairmont, W. Va., came in Tuesday night, and oil was spurted over the derrick. The well was immediately closed down. It is over a mile west of the Fleming well and six miles from the Hamilton well, the pioneer in this field. It indicates a much greater breadth of oil territory than any of the operators supposed.

A BETTER TONE.

Railroad Shares Dull, But on the Road to Improvement-Fears of a Monetary Stringency Disappearing-Nearly

Everything Closes Higher. New York, March 26.—The stock market showed a still smaller volume of business to-day, but there was, on the whole, a much better tone to the dealings than on yesterday, and the tone to the dealings than on yesterday, and the result of the day's operations is to leave almost everything traded in slightly higher than last night. The fears of a monetary stringency are fast disappearing, but the bull leaders are annuhetic and the bears are disposed to be annuhetic and the bears are disposed to be sets unknown. night. The fears of a monetary stringency are fast disappearing, but the bull leaders are apathetic, and the bears are disposed to be over-cautious, leaving the operations from day to day in the hands of the professionals and room traders, who show very little disposition to extend their ventures beyond the day, and fluctuations are confined within the narrowest limits.

The near approach of April settlements without signs of stringency in the money market makes the bulls hopeful. There seems to be little of the foreign selling left, and most of the operations between the London market and this one are arbitrage operations, while the completion of the fortnightly settlements there gave a better tone to the market for American stocks. This was another rise in foreign exchange which was due principally to the scarcity of commercial bills and had no appreciable effect upon the market.

There was some activity in spots to-day and Missouri Pacific, Rock Island, Ontario and Western and Sugar refineres and Union Pacific were all conspicuous, though their sales would on any ordinary day be considered small. The expectation of a dividend upon Missouri Pacific made it a leader in the limited upward movement, which obtained throughout the greater portion of the day, and the buying for foreign account sent Ontario and Western to the front for the first time in a long while. The better outlook in the West helped the Grangers, but only Rock Island showed any special strength. Sugar was the only stock which showed any width to its fluctuations, and after a drop to 63% against 64% last evening, it recovered almost all higher to-night, but no marked advances were made.

Railroad bonds were a little more active to-day, the sales of all issues reaching $1,251,000, which business was very evenly distributed. There were no special features to the dealings, and, while a firm tone prevailed, the movements were extremely small and few marked changes are shown to-night.

The Post says: Of course everybody in any way interested in railroad securities feels a good deal of interest in the endeavors of the representatives of the trunk lines and Western roads in session in this city to-adjust their rates with the lake and rail lines to the Northwest. The lake lines of steamers very justify claim that they can carry freight between Buffalo and Duluth than between Buffalo and Chicago. The "Zoo" line and the Lackawanna's new line via the Flint and Pere Marquette and Green Bay and Wincom are the only rail lines that can compete with the lake steamers, and they will probably insist on large differentials as compared with the lines via Chicago. If there is any difficulty in setting a basis for all the lines it will only be because the lines from Chicago to St. Paul, Minneapolis and the country north of there want to insist that the shorter distance from Buffalo to Duluth shall be ignored. What is considered a big strike in that region has been made on the Dunlap farm in Crawford county by Bovard, Wallace & Co.'s No. 2 coming in the result. Black was suspected of having stolen are the rate of 100 barrels a day at seven feet in the sand. The oil was thrown 40 feet in the air, but since then the well has settled down to 75 barrels.

Ready was discussed.

Ready took from three deputy sheriffs a black prisoner named William Black. The officers were taking the man to the county of the operators supposed that his friend, then and there, take on lot 196 is completed and doing 500 barrels a day. The daily production of Hague & Grandiu's six wells recently completed and doing 500 barrels a day. Their No, 1 on 100 to 100 the Barnwell county jail, tied to trees and shot to death. Ready imitated the Barnwell lynchers. He overtook the posse of three deputy sheriffs with the prisoner on a lonely road, took the prisoner from them, tied him up to a tree on the road side, shot him to death and then went off.

A reward of $500 was offered for him and he was subsequently arrested in Georgia. This is the man who is now being tried at Barnwell Court House. During the progress of the trial it was proven that a friend of the prisoner had attempted to bribe one of the jurors. This stopped the trial and the briber was to-day fined $20. The old panel was discharged and a new panel summoned. The trial is now in progress. Ready is de-fended by some of the ablest attorneys in the county. The general impression is that he will be acquitted.

THE BLAME FIXED

Upon Conductor Houghinling for the Railrond Disaster at Hamburg-Cowell Conplers Condemned-Officials Must Give Information to the Press.

ALBANY, March 26 .- The Board of Railroad Commissioners has handed down a decision in the matter of the accident on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad on March 6, near Hamburg, in which 6 persons were killed and 21 injured. After reviewing the facts in the case the board comes to the following conclusion: From the statement of facts there can be but one conclusion as to the reckless culpability of Conductor Houghtaling. He should not have left Dunkirk until the air hose had been replaced upon the disabled car, and the rear car supplied with air; nor until the safety chains placed upon the disabled car, and the rear car supplied with air; nor until the safety chains had been securely refastened, or other chains, which are carried on the locomotive for just that purpose, supplied. It is proper to say that, inasmuch as he did leave Dunkirk with the rear cars in the condition they were, be should at least have notified the sleeping car conductor and porters and rear brakeman of such fact, so that they might have been on the lookout. It appears from the testimony that he did none of these things. His conduct throughout is more remarkable from the fact that he is a man of 62 years of age, has always borne a good reputation as a careful conductor, and had never before met with a serious accident to his train.

The board is also of opinion that Engineer Albert P. Mooney showed bad judgrent in leaving the station, inasmuch as Houghtaling had informed him that that there was no air on five cars in the rear. Mooney defends his conduct upon the ground that Rule No. 2, printed upon the backs of the time cards, states that conductors will have charge of trains, etc., and that no conference having been requested by the conductor, it was his duty to obey him. The board has made a careful examination of the Cowell coupler, which gave way first at Dunkirk and then at Hamburg. The board deems that such couplers are in the highest degree dangerous, and should not be used.

Great complaint has been made on account of officials of this railroad, and of other railroad companies in accidents, refusing all information to the press. The board recognizes reasons for the indisposition of a railroad company to have facts and circumstances in detail of an accident hurriedly given to the press by newspaper reporters before time has been had to carefully investigate, for the reason that mistakes are apt to be made to the great prejudice of the rights of the company. On the other hand, however, the board deems that a brief statement of the salient facts of the accident, giving the names and number of killed and giving the names and number of killed and in-jured, could, with propriety, and should, be given by railroad companies.

it, accompanied with great pain, told him but too plainly that DR. SHAFER. his disease was fast advancing. The inflammation that followed produced a stricture. As he grew weaker his food failed to digest, he had belching of gas after eating, bad taste in his mouth, and coated tongue. He felt a severe pain in his right side, and sharp pains would seize him in his arms and legs. Day by day our patient sufferer continued to grow worse, until his blood became so poisoned, that an eruption of pimples and red blotches covered his whole body. Having been unable to find any relief, he had about given up in despair, when reading in the paper a testimonial of a patient who had been cured of conditions similar to his by the physicians of the Polypathic Institute, 420 Penn avenue, he called upon them, and after using their medicine—which was made to suit his case—for one month he became cured. He says: "I desire to state for the benefit of the public that the above statement of my case is correct in every particular. I had been suffering for over two years, and had given up all hope of ever being cured, but Dr. Shafer, of the Polypathic Medical Institute, has cured me.
