the heirs, devisees, and assigns of either William McCune or James McCune and all others interested:

Take Notice—That on February 8, 1890, a petition was filed in said Court, setting forth that said John Yourd was the owner in fee simple of a certain tract of land in Penu township, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, containing 53 acres and 165 perches, more or less, which appears by the records of morigage book, vol. 11, p. 43, of Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, to be encumbered by a mortgage dated July 8, 1845, in the sum of 8900, made by James McCune to Thomas Mitchell and John Boyd, trustees of William McCune under the will of Agnes McCune, deceased, dated August 9, 1843, and recorded in will book, vol. 6, p. 34, and that the said mortgage rand mortgagees, their heirs and assigns are dead, and that the said mortgage appears open and unsatisfied of record, and that the said mortgagees or their heirs or assigns who could satisfy said record do not live in the county of Allegheny, nor can any person be discovered upon whom service of process could be made in said county, and that after diligent inquiry they cannot be found, and that his (said Yourd's) title is clouded and encumbered by said mortgage.

Whereupon the Court made the following order: That the Sheriff be directed to serve a notice stating the facts set forth in the petition on the holder or holders of said mortgage, and in case the parties aforesaid cannot be found in the said county, then the Sheriff shall give public notice of the facts set forth in the petition, requiring said holder or holders of said mortgage to appear at the next term of said court and answer the said petition and show cause why a decree should not be made according to the prayer of the petitioner.

You are hereby notified that unless you appear in said court on April 8, A. D. 1890, at 9:30 o'clock A. M. and answer said petition and show sufficient cause why a decree shall not be made, that the said mortgage Book vol. 11, page 43, for 8000, should be satisfied of record, a decre
