The Local League Magnates Talking of More Law.

THEY WANT DAMAGES

MR. NIMICK'S STATEMENT.

Pitcher Getzein Signs With the Boston Old League Club.

THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

President Nimick, of the local National League club, made an important statement yesterday regarding an attempt to secure damages from certain local players. He also said a meeting may be held to have all elubs charge only a quarter admission fee to League games. Getzein signed with the Boston League club. Paddy McBride and and Lynch have been matched to fight. "We are not done with the law yct," said President Nimick, yesterday afternoon, "ex-cept our attorney, Mr. Scott Ferguson, so advises. He is looking into the case of Conway, Beckley, Rowe and White, but only looking into them to see if we can vesterday regarding an attempt to secure claim damages from them. The cases of Rowe and White are different from all others, and I think there ought to be a law that will prevent such unfair dealings as the two players named successfully tried with us. Well, if Mr. Ferguson says we have a case against these players we will proceed against them.

URGED BY FRIENDS.

"I don't want one of them back, but some of the best friends of the club insist that we try and punish players who so shamelessly have taken thousands of dollars from us by false representations. If Conway reports before April L of course we'll have to keep him and pay him, but if he does not report, then his contract with us is broken. Should the new League people get on to anything like the high moral plane they talk about and force Conway back to us, matters would then be very singular. Conway, a new League man, would be playing with us, and many people would think that he would not care how our club got along."

Regarding the price of admission to the League games, Mr. Nimick said: "The League has refused to allow any of its clubs to reduce the admission fee, so that the figure has to be 50 cents. However, I think there will be another meeting held, when the matter will be again discussed. I don't say that all the League clubs would want a quarter admission fee, but I think if we had it here it would be a great benefit to our club. We are in favor of making the admission fee as low as possible and we may get permission to do this before the season #### opens ABOUT LOW PRICES.

The question of admission fees is one of the most important that concerns the local League club. For a long time the majority of patrons of the game have been urging the price back to the quarter, and it is not unreasonable to ask that reduction now. The salary list is considerably lower, and it seems as if the club could afford to make the reduction. A mini-

GETZEIN FOR BOSTON.

The Triumvirs Secure the Hoosier Club's

Prominent Pitcher,

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BOSTON, March 28 -- Charles Getzein, the star pitcher of the Indianapolis club, signed with Boston this morning. When the Indianapolis team was disposed of to the League last week the attention of the Boston men was at once directed to Getzein. John Clarkson was very enthusiastic over the prospect of getting him, and warmly urged the Boston directors to get him. This forenoon President Soden, of the Boston club, received a dispatch from President Brush, of the Indianapolis club, saying he had secured Getzein for Boston.

This selection will meet the hearty approbation of the Boston players, as well as the pub-lic, for it insures the services of one of the best pitchers in the profession, one of long ex-pertence and undoubted skill. Getzein's work been pitchers in the protession, one of long ex-perience and undoubted skill. Getzein's work with the old Detroit League team will never be forgotton because of its effectiveness. Last year he was overworked in Indianapolis, and at the close of the season could not do himself justice. This year he will have valuable allies in Clarkson, Nichols and Taber, and in return will render good service himself, making the Boston League club pitching department as strong as any in the country. Negotiations had been pending for the re-lease of Knanes, the fine left-handed pitcher of the Detroit club, but the price asked for his re-lease and the slow way that the Detroit people had of doing business prevented the deal from being consummated. This proved lucky for the Boston directors for they have got a better and more experienced man.

Some Lively Practice.

The players of the new local club had a very busy time yesterday, although the weather was unfavorable for practice. They all adjourned to the handball court, and some exciting contests were played. Corcoran, the new short-stop, showed that he is a very active young man and has made a good impression. AI Maul arrived and was looking well. The entire team will be ordered down to regular hard work on Tuesday.

Old Club Affairs.

Manager Hecker, of the local League club. went to Oll City last evening to make arrange-ments to bring his wife and family to this city. He will permanently locate in Pittsburg. Yes-terday he told Debbe and Maya two of the youngsters that they could go home. They will leave for their respective homes to-day.
