Perhaps the Most Powerful of the

New School of Russian

Novelists.

THIS New Novel is not only one of the most exciting and dramatic stories ever penned, but it contains perhaps some of the very best pictures of the horrors of the Siberlan exile system of Russia ever written. It is a singularly powerful expose of Russian bureaucracy, cruelty and intrigue. At the same time, the novel possesses all the most interesting elements of a powerful love story;

of Russian officials to accomplish the

The story involves political intrigues meetings of a band of Revolutionists, to one of which the hero is lured in order that he may be entrapped, strange hap-penings at a masked ball in St. Peters-escape, a meeting of conspirators in a cave on an island of the Balkal Sea, where the hero confronts the man who had betrayed him, the knouting of an Exile in a forest hut to make him disclose a hidde paper, the revolt under a man known as "The Czar of the Exiles," the cruel acts of injustice practiced by officials on Ex-

This novel has made a great sensation in Europe. The scene is laid in the time of Nicholas, the grandfather of the present

Czar, but this seems to have been done in order to avoid the condemnation of the censor, as the novel apparently deals with cotemporaneous conditions, and one

The price expresses nothing until you see the goods. You will find these Suits made in the very latest shapes of Sack and Cutaway Frock styles—the former in handsome, new plaids and checks, the latter in English Wide Wales and Corkscrews. Never in all our experience have we been able to offer such fine qualities at so low prices. Try on a few of these Suits. Observe their fit and make, and, if you don't think that you are getting a most unusual bargain, don't buy. Now we have lots of lower as well as higher price destruction of the hero and unhappiness | Men's Suits, and you're welcome to all of them, of course, but, if you want the bargain of > Our present sale of the stock of fine Furnishing Goods of the bankrupt firm of R. K. Davies & Co., New York, is the innocent cause of the trouble. The fact is that these "fellers," very well knowing the high excellence and newness of the goods of the defunct firm, tried their level best to secure a portion of them, but we stole a march on them and got away with the booty. And now, disgusted with their own ignorance and inability, and envious of our success, they seek to vent their spleen by depreciating the very goods they themselves wanted to buy so awfully bad. Pretty small potatoes these would-be big dealers are. But, let them go on. They will only succeed in making themselves ridiculous. The people very well know that all this "hollering" about antedeluvian and shopworn goods is but another case of sour grapes, and will give a very practical demonstration of their understanding of this case by continuing to flock to our Furnishing Goods Department to buy at 40 cents on the dollar the choice qualities of Shirts, Underwear,

AND YET THEY COME.

More Legislation is Necessary to Keep Out the Chinese.

A PLEA FROM THE PACIFIC COAST.

Mr. Quay Declines to be Subjected to a Public Reception.

TINKERING AT THE NEW TARIFF BILL. Two More Southern Democratic Congressmen Are

Soon to be Bounced. The members of both branches of Congress from the Pacific coast are urging the necessity of more stringent legislation against the Chinese. The latest plan is to exclude so-called merchants, as well as professed laborers. Senator Quay received many callers last evening, but re'used a re-WASHINGTON, March 28.—The Senate Committee on Census to-day concluded the President, and they will, therefore, go over until next Wednesday, when they will probably be settled. hearing upon what is known as the "Chinese Census" bill, a delegation from the Pacific coast appearing in support of the measure. Representative Morrow, of California, author of the bill, stated that its objects were to secure an accurate census of Chinese residents, and, as an economic incident, to enable the officials to carry into effect the requirements of the present exclusion act. STRINGENT LEGISLATION NEEDED. Upon the provisions of the bill Mr. Morrow said that legislation was necessary to keep out Chinese merchants as well as the laborers. We must come to it. There is no business inducement to bring them, now that the immigration of laborers is shut off. There are enough of them, and the fact is that a genuine Chinese merchant has not come to San Fraucisco within the past ten years. As long as merchants are allowed to come and go at will, with or without cer-tificates, the undesirable classes cannot be Mr. McKenna, of California, said the only question before the committee was, will you pursue the policy which led to the passage of the Scott act? This bill includes that policy. This bill is the effort of a nation to protect itself against the people of a nation which it believes will injure it. Representative Biggs, who had just re-turned from California, stated that the ple of that State demanded the passage of the bill.

A RACE STRUGGLE.

Representative Clunic said that the present situation is a struggle between Ameri-cans and Chinese, and he admitted that, without relief, the latter would see the other go down. The American is here to rear his ramily, serve his country and worship God. The Chinaman is here only for gain, to carry away the money and deplete the wealth of the country. In a contest under these conditions the Chinaman has proved himself suprerior to the American. Senator Mitchell said he believed the bill would be construed by the courts to apply to those Chinese only who are in the United States on the 1st day of June. He would that it were otherwise; that the act should be an absolute exclusion law. The law, in his opinion, was constitutional.

The Attention Given by the House Commit tee to This Section. FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENTA WASHINGTON, March 28 .- It is expected that the Rivers and Harbors Committee will have finished their appropriation bill for the completion of the bill every afternoon, and the first rough copy of the finished bill is now in the hands of the committee. In round figures the bill carries a total ap- missing. propriation of $18,000,000. Among the items of interest to Pennsylvania is one of $32,000 for dredging Erie harbor and rebuilding portions of the outer breakwater. bearing on the subject of the Youghiogheny improvement came so late that the committee is undecided as to what they will do in the premises. Congressman Ray will endeavor, however, to have them include some portion of the appropriation asked for this purpose before the bill is finally completed. As it at present stands the bill includes a provision for the con-demnation and purchase of another lock and dam of the Monongahela Navigation Company, by the same processes through which No. 7 was purchased a year ago. The im-provement of the Kanawha river in West Virginia is also provided for, the sum of $25,000 being appropriated for that purpose.

Fred Graff. This evening all of the bodies had been recovered. At dayoreak as many laborers as could be secured had been put to clearing away the debris. The company's yard presented a chaotic appearance. Bricks from the shattered walls lay scattered in every direction, while over the ruins trailed the remnants of the wrecked machinery. The

Mrs. Anna Therman was able to recognize band only by the undershirt he wore. "I made it mysel'," she sobbed. Wallison's body was identified by his brother, the clew being unburnt portions of the woolen stockwere literally charred. His dinner pail was found partially melted near at hand, while a little beyond, crushed

A Newark Company May Forfelt Its Plant prise Brewery was seized yesterday by United States Marshal W. Budd Deacon

2,700 packages of lager beer that were not properly stamped.

The plant is a large one, with a frontage on Orange street, and occupying the whole block between Hudson and Hecker streets. It is fitted up with all the modern brewery conveniences. Geyer Brothers fitted it up, but it is now controlled by the Home Brewing Company. Internal Revenue Collector Large admitted yesterday that he was considering a compromise on a basis of $6,000.

The property is forfeited absolutely to the Government, but the Home Brewing Company late yesterday gave a bond for $40,000 and took possession of the premises. If the Government finally declares against the property the $40,000 will pass into the United States Treasury.
