

12

A bright-eyed, vivacious, little creature, who would probably admit 18 summers, and as many winters, entered a confectionery store one day last week, where it was almost necessary to have a policeman to keep order, so many customers were awaiting their turn at the long counters. But this saucy bit of humanity didn't assume an expression of numanity didn't assume an expression of Idlewood M. P. Church will give a supper and musical and literary entertainment for the benreverence for the rights of others, await her turn. No, indeed. Making her way to the around the little maiden, but did not apparently affect her in the least.

With perfect composure she gave her order amid the indignant glances and upturned noses of earlier comers whose claims to recognition had been ignored in her favor. Her desired candy was speedily-very speedily in fact-boxed for her. Receiving it in an indifferent manner from the hands of the salesman, the little lady rejoined her girl friend who had tarried near the door, and who expressed sur-prise at her quick return. With a saucy toss of the head and a merry little laugh the miss with the box replied to ber friend's expression of surprise with: "Oh, I know how to make them wait on me

"Oh, I know how to make them walt on me quick, no matter how many people are in the store. You seel just go up to the counter and commence tasting of the candies, and the langer I have to wait the more vigorously I taste, so to prevent backruptcy they have to wait on me. Good scheme. Just try it some time," concluded the shrewd little sweetmeat purchaser.

An Adonis, who is noted for his wit as well as the numer, and is a well-known figure at the theaters, was heard discoursing upon the theater programmes the other day in a some-what novel but pointed manner. Could the exaggerated, rasting advertising medlum, com-monly termed a programme, have heard him it would have retired with a proper sense of its inferiority and its presumption at ever having existed. his humor, and is a well-known figure at the

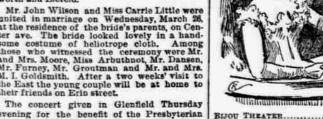

Said he: "The newspaper writers have for years pointed their shafts of wit and at the Eiffel-tower-styled hats and bonr wit and sarcasm ets, and voted them a nuisance in the theater, and I admit they are a nuisance, but not more so than the stiff paper programmes that require the aid of open glasses to find the cast of characters and synopsis of the play, so immersed in anver-tisements are they. One provents seeing and the other hearing. The other evening I was late in obtaining my seat and consequently was over half way back in the house, and positively I never was more irritated in my life than I was during that performance. The sternal rus-tle of those evening in most of the was respon-sible for some mental condemnation that was positively shocking. admit they are a nuisance, but not more so than . .

"Nothing can be more exasperating than to go

Hill, Thirty-sixth ward, in honor of the Misses Apple, of Pittsburg. The evening was spent in playing progressive crokino and parchisses. At 11 o'clock the guests partook of a tempting and hounteous repast, after which the hours passed quickly away with vocal and Instrumental music

Miss Emma Dietrich and Mr. Oren McKinley were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Miller on last Tuesday, and left immediately after the ceremony for the East. They will be home to their friends at Brushton on their return. A very pleasing programme was rendered at Diamont Hospital on Tuesday evening by Missea Edna Vogler, C. Matilda Diem, Minnie Liert Mary McNally, Luzue McNally, Maggie Berg-man and Chrissie Bergman and Messrs, Caroth-era, White, Walker, Erhart, Fire, Butler, Wad-worth and Liefeld. worth and Liefeld. Mr. John Wilson and Miss Carrie Little were united in marriage on Wednesday, March 28, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Cen-ter ave. The bride looked lovely in a hand-some costume of heliotrope cloth. Among those who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Miss Arbuthnot, Mr. Dansen, Mr. Furney, Mr. Groutman and Mr. and Mrs. M. L Goldsmith. After a two weeks' visit to the East the young couple will be at home to their friends on Eris street.

evening for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church was financially a success. The plano Church was innancially a success. The plano solo by Miss Annie Tindle was particularly good. Mrs. Lytle sang several solos, which were greeted with applause. Misses Carrie and Mary Roll and several other singers from the city aided. The grand finale was the "Peake Family," and the ladies who took part should try something olds next time. try something else next time.

On Tuesday evening, April 1, the ladies of the The second secon

A very pleasant and select evening party was held at the residence of Mr. Robert Owens, 63 Ackley street, Allegheny, on Wednesday, March 26, 1890. The evening was very pleas-March 25, 1890. The evening was very pleas-antly passed in dancing and various amuse-menta. Among those present were: Mr. D. L. Evans, Mrs. D. J. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lowis, and the Missee Parry, Remlinger, Ben-nett, Johns, Lloyd, Owens, Griffith, Evans, Davis, and Mesara. Stoffinger, E. Evans, J. Evans, J. and E. Davis, Morris, Ferguson, Lewis, T. Davis, Jones, Powell and Owens.

A very enjoyable fancy dress reception was held at the residence of Miss Jessie Jenkins, held at the residence of Miss Jessie Jenkins, Locust street, Allegheny, on Tuesday evening, March 25, as an offset of the numerous Stag parties of late in the neighborhood. This af-fair was exclusively for ladies. Among the many elegant costumes noticed we mention: Miss Ethel Davis, as a Kate Greenaway pic-ture; Miss Gertie Johnson, as one of Mrs. Jar-hey's wax figures; Miss Etha Woods, as a school gir, and Miss Jessie Jenkins, as a Persian lady. These mill be a meeting of all students of

There will be a meeting of all students of Lake Erio Seminary residing in Pittsburg and vicinity Tuesday afternoon, April 8, 1850, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Miss Kreps, No. 80 Fayette street, Allepheny, Pa. The object of this gathering is to organize a Seminary Asso-clation in Pritsburg. Miss Evans and Mrs. Charlotte Wooster Boalt will be present. Invi-tations have been mailed to every member of the school so far as has been possible to obtain addresses, and it is hoped that any who have been missed will consider this an invitation and be present. vicinity Tuesday afternoon, April 8, 1890, at 2 be present.

Among the many happy events of the weel was the filst birthday anniversary of Mrs. R. Murdock, at her home, No. 23 Fifth street. There was a numerous gathering of children There was a numerous gathering of children and grandchildren. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed, and some lovely presents remain as testimonials of the event. Among those present were Mr. E. A. Harris and wife, Mr. F. Loder and wife, Mr. C. Walsh and wife, Mr. J. Fox and wife, Miss Mary Murdock, Miss Lillie Murdock, Miss Maggie Elder, Miss Mollie Wil-son, Miss Annie Hensil, Mr. H. G. Kaye, Mr. E. Appleton, Mr. J. Harris, Mr. M. Elder, Dr. Shafer and many little folks. On last Monday evening Mr. William Dunn

On last Monday evening Mr. William Dunn to a play with the desire of hearing what is said | was very agreeably surprised by a few of his on the stage, and at the most interesting mo-ments have the neighbors on either side and 33 Stewart street, Allegheny, the occasion bements have the neighbors on either side and behind seek the cast of characters amid the advertisements, while the lady in front articles bet programme with lots of ratile to more thoroughly protect her dainty gloves from contact with her gown.
What a pleasing innovation it would be to have soft paper programmes with nothing printed upon them but what pertained to the pleasure or youthful adorer who would miss the advertisements—the realing of which has belped them many times to cover up their embarrasmen and tide over moments between the acte-but the majority of theatter goers would rive the new programme a royal welcome. Or if the soft paper would not be practicable a little book form programme, and tide over moments when the atter but the majority of theatter the staff or dain any others.
Wr. Robert W. Wallace and Miss Eva Me-

REFORE THE

...... "The Drummer Boy" WORLD'S MUSEUM......Curiosities. Etc. The above are the theatrical attractions for this week. .

Commencing to morrow night, "The Drum-mer Boy, or the Battlefield of Shiloh" will hold the stage of the Bijou Theater for one week. This romantic military melodrama never seems to grow old, and all the vivid and realistic nes of the dreaded days of the Civil War will be enacted over again. It is a well-known fact that it is for the benefit of Post 8, G. A. R., and it will be devoted to the widows and orphans' fund. A large number of people will participate in the grand revival of this old historical drama, and they have been in active rehearsal for the past been in active rehearsal for the past three months. Among them are J. Milton Hays, D. A. Jones, Jimmie Craven, D. Ash-worth, F. A. Grundy, JL L. Buchanan, Abe A. Gray, John L. Brown, Ed. F. Fisher, Leon L. Long, Miss Mamie Sawyer, Edith Atkinson, Lulu Bell Orcutt, Louise Dannenfels, Harriet Euchmmiller, E. H. Brady, Joseph Kuniz, W. F. Spirt, John F. Hunter, George W. Brown, George R. Taylor, W. J. Hamilton, J. E. Over, Thomas E. Cunningham, Harry Nigby, George W. Perkins, Allen Cordele, Joseph D. Bryson, George P. Morton, Harry Shuliz and Joseph T. Forguson, assisted by Companies A and B, Fourteenth Regiment, N. G. P. New scenery has been especially prepared, and it is prom-ised that a most excellent performance will be given. All who can should certainly attend, as it is for a most worthy object. The regular prices of the Bijou will provail.

Miss Nellie McHenry and a strong company brings Bronson Howard's "Greenroom Fun" to the Grand Opera House this week. The play has won high praise elsewhere, and Nellie McHenry is well known to Pittsburgers as comedienne of great originality and strength. The following is a brief idea of the plot: A party of society young people feel called upon to give an amateur dramatic entertainment for the benefit of the little cannihals in the benighted lands. The mishaps and contretemps which naturally occur during their endeavors to produce a roaring melodrama entitled, "The Eagle of the Crag," are ludicrous in the ex-

Eagle of the Crag," are ludicrous in the ex-treme, especially as they are presumed to be instructed by a competent stage manager who is a supposed popular tragedian. The first two scis are taken up with the divers plans and other preparations for the public appearance, among which are various mistakes of a most ludicrous nature. The third act pictures the night of the performance, giving views of the stage as well as the greenroom, disclosing frantic efforts of the stage manager to bring order out of amateur chaos. order out of amateur chaos.

There is probably no comedy better known than "The Widow Bedott," which is to be pre-sented at the popular Harris Theater for one week, beginning with next Monday's matinee. Mr. Neil Burgess has played it for a number of Mr. Neil Burgess has played it for a number of years, making both fame and fortune with it. It is a pure, true story of New England life, and yet is extremely funny. The title role is played by Mr. Harry La Marr, an actor of more than ordinary ability, who is said to be even better in the part than Mr. Neil Burgess. The balance of the company is made up of capable actors and actresses. There are plenty of good specialties in it, and a most enjoyable production is looked for. Special new scenery is being prepared. The attraction this week at the Academy of Music is Elliott's Jolly Voyagers and European

...

Stage Whispers.

MISS FANNY DAVENPORT, who played "La

FRANCIS WILSON'S company is still attracting large audiences to the Broad Street Theater, rning.

la grippe.

and reciter.

edy line

Music is Elliott's Jolly Voyagers and European Specialty Company. The Elliotts, with their

PITTSBURG DISPATCH. THE

> Philadelphia, where Gilbert and Sullivan's Philadelphila, where Gilbert and Sunivan's Gondoliers' esters upon the second month of its run on Monday, March 31. Wilson lately m-troduced a new lullaby song into the second act. It isn't Sullivan'a, but it is by Hubbard Emith, the composer of the "Tale of Woe" duet, and it is said to have won great popularity with his audiences.

An Easter offering consisting of a puzzle will be given to the first 600 people purchasing reserved scats for the "Spider and Fly" at the Bijou Easter week.

AT the Bijou Theater for the week of April 21, Manager Gulick has arranged with the pow-erful young actor, Robert Mantell, to present here his costly revival of Alexander Dumas' thrilling romance, "The Corsican Brothers," in which he lately achieved a distinguished met-ropolitan success. Mr. Mantell will be romem-bered by many of our theater-goers by his mas-terly impersonation of Loris Ipanoff in "Fedora."

HERMAN MERIVALE has been at work for the last six months on a new play for Henry Irving. It is founded on Sir Walter Scott's "Bride of Lammermoor," and will be called "The Master of Ravenswood." Most of the The Master of Ravenswood. A lost of the writing is said to have been done under Mr. Irving's personal supervision. The London Times thinks the eminent English actor is growing old. In an issue it gravely remarks that as Edgar in the above mentioned drama Henry Irving will probably be seen for the last time as a young lover.

SARAH en chocolat: For the coming production of "Cleopatra" in Paris, an adaptatic by Sardou from Shakespeare's tragedy, Sarah Bernhardt announces her intention of breaking Termarci announces her intention of breaking all her previous records by dyeing her frail person chocolate color in view of her imper-sonation of the Egyptian Queen. The produc-tion will not take place before April 20, but the Ports St. Martin buxoffice is said to be already besieged by admirers anxious to behold this curious metamorphosis of their idol.

CHARLES MACGEACHY "tours" the State of Massachusetts with Richard Golden in "Old Jed Proutty" next season on the same original plan that he proposes to do the same original in the coming May. To this end he has can-celed a number of week stands invities in order to nonto secure the necessary straightaway course to secure the necessary straightaway course within the great Bay State. New Hampshire and Vermont are to be "toured" later provided existing other contracts can be canceled. The whole of the season of 1891-92 is already mapped out with "tours" of Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delawarc, all one-night stands from 30 minutes to an hour apart. The Southern, Southwestern and West-ern States are next to follow in rotation. The yours will be "circuised" ahead with six-horse tours will be "circussed" ahead with six-horse old-fashioned stage coaches filled with advance agents and advertising material. The com-pany's baggage car next season will be a re-duced copy in exterior of the old Prouty tavern in Bucksport.

NEWS OF THE SCHOOLS.

Names of Some of the Honor Pupils and Other Interesting Matters.

THE marriage of Miss Minnie Erwin, of the Forbes School, takes place April 8 at the Luth-eran Church, on Grant street. SOME 60 members enrolled their names as members of the Teachers' Library, yesterday. The membership fee for the year just com-mencing is $1.

esterday, but the names and results of the successful applicants who were on permanent examination, will not be ready for two weeks. IT is rumored that Prof. J. B. Sullivan, of the Duquesne School, First ward, is to resign. Mr.

Sullivan can write Dr. as well as Prof, before his name, and will likely devote himself en-tirely to the practice of medicine. MISS BOTHWELL has been elected to suceral of the Grand Army John Taylor. The sword, which is a beauty, was offered by a Phil-adelphia newspaper to the most popular vet-Dr. H. C. Jillson, will be married April 10 at the Calvary Episcopal Church to Mr. Richard K. Fleming. This vacancy in the High School corps will be filled at the next meeting of the High School Committee.

THE line of work the public schools will preand the sword was presented on behalf of the newspaper by Past Department Commander Thomas J. Stewart. It was accepted on be-half of Comrade Taylor by City Solicitor of Buildebringthe pare for the Exposition next September will likely be mapped out the coming week, as Suneary or mapped out the coming week, as Su-perintendent Luckey expects to call a meeting of the committee appointed by the Central Board for this work, to have a consultation with Superintendent Johnson to arrange all preliminaries.

GOVEENOR BEAVER has issued a proclama-tion appointing April 11 and May 2 as Arbor Days. He gives as his reason for having two Arbor Days this year, the diversity of climate which makes it impractible to observe the same day in all localities. Where the climate con-ditions are favorable April 11 is the date to be observed, and in the more northerly altitudes terest. Among other things talked of were pension matters and Grand Army affairs in general. Comrade Dr. J. E. Wilson, of Post 155, who is on the Pension Examining Surgeon Board, was present, and gave much light on pension matters. He told of a bill that had been favorably recommended by the Committee on Pensions of the House of Representatives, which pro-vided for a double rating of veterans who had two wounds, either of which would incapacitate from manual labor. The preparation of the bill was largely brought about by a test case which Major Denniston was prevailed upon by Dr. Wilson and other officials of the Pension Bureau to enter some time ago. The case failed, as was expected, and Major Deuniston and others wounded in like manner (a leg off and an arm almost ruined) still receive a pen-sion for but one wound.

sion for but one wound. Department Commander Denniston made s characteristic address which received the usu enthusiastic received the usual enthusiastic received to any comrades spoke interestingly. Comrade Levi B. Richards, of Post 117, recited "The Woodpecker," thereby bringing down the house. A lunch was a pleasing feature of the evening. Let us have more of such meetings.

The Soldiers' Widows' Home.

Popular John Taylor.

The project of a Soldiers' Widows' Home a Hawkins station, started by the ladies of the G. A. R., has "taken" most satisfactorily. Many posts have contributed liberally, and entertainment after entertainment is being given to help along. The reception to be given at to help along. The reception to be given at Cyclorama Hall, Alleghenr, on Tuesday, April 16, by Camps 33 and 162, Sons of Veterans, promises to be a grand affair and will materi-ally assist the home. The entertainment under the auspices of Encampment No. 1, U. V. L., at U. V. L. Hall last Monday evening, was a suc-cess in every particular. The hall was crowded by an audience liberal with its applause, which was merited by the volunteer talent. A neat sum was realized for the Home. Geary Circle, No. 7, gave a musical and liter-ary entertainment on last Tuesday evening, which was a success all through. Feople were turned away as the hall was so crowded. The

THE Permanent Certificate Committee met which was a success all through. People were turned away as the hall was so crowded. The proceeds go towards the Home. On last Tues-day evening, Post 88 voted $150 toward the project with the expectation of giving more later. Post 162, at its meeting before last con-tributed $50. At Post 157's meeting last Thurs-ing the post for its donation,

Miss Bornawalla has been elected to suc-ceed Miss Bornand, who was married during the week, in the Highland School. The School Board of this district meets next Tuesday, and will elect two additional teachers, who will teach in the building just finished. the postroom of Post 51, Philadelphia, on last Thursday evening to witness the presentation of a handsome sword to Quartermaster Gen MISS LIZZIE S. JILLSON, assistant teacher of frawing at the High School, and daughter of eran or military officer in Pennsylvania to be decided by popular vote. The great popularity of National Quartermaster General was proved,

Philadelphia Warrick. Comrade Taylor's vote exceeded $0,000 over the next highest competitor, and this notwith-standing that his name was used under a strong protest from him. He was forced into the con-

Page 15 of this issue. visitor of Post 157 on last Thursday evening and made a stirring speech. CONRADE ROBERT A. STEWART, who served in the First New York Artillery, was mustered into Post 157 last Thursday. THE comrades of Post 128 are actively enaged in preparing for their grand celebration of Lee's surrender, at Carnegie Hall, on Wednesday, April 9.

card, were received by Post 151 last Tuesday

"CHAPLAIN" MCGUIRE, of Post 41, was a

It is whispered that Comrade A. P. Burchfield will be appointed an inspector of the Western Penitentiary in place of George A. Keliy, who resigned. COMRADE P. N. GUTHRIE, of Post 117, was a visitor of Post 41 on last Wednesday evening, and his remarks were excellent. The meeting was full of interest. Post 162's committee having in charge the arrangements for the post's trip to the Boston Encampment is making good progress. Post 162 will likely be largely represented. Post 200 will light a campfire at its hall, cor ner Center avenue and Erin street, on Wednes day evening, April 8, the anniversary of Lee's surrender. Comrades and their friends are cor-dially invited to attend. CARPETINGS

The Ace of Clubs.

AT

also in

-AT-

138 Federal and 46 South Diamond

Streets, Allegheny, Pa.

T. M. LATIMER.

THE WHITE IS KING.

The Headquarters for the

WHITE SEWING MACHINE

some of them nearly new, for $3 and upward.

J. KEVAN & CO.,

12 SIXTH STREET. BRANCHES: 281 OHIO ST., Allegheny,

OPENING MARCH, 1890.

Robes. Manteaux and Modes.

Bandall Cor. Fifth &

Verner Block

Market sts.

Direct from Paris.

mh22-MWF80

announcement in advertisement on

A. A. HUMPHREY POST, No. 545, will give an intertainment at the Millvale Opera House, or the anniversary of Lee's surrender April 9, to which all posts are cordially invited. A good time is promised to all who attend. Some good musical and elecutionary talent will be on hand and the old "boys" will develop into vocalists.

Post 41's firing squad had a special meeting after the post meeting last Wednesday evening, and found that enough money was in the and round that enough money was in the treasury to defray the expenses of the trip to the Boston Encampment. The members were lavish in their thanks to the citizens of Law-rencevile for their patronage of the entertain-ment on St. Patrick's Day.

GENERAL CUSTER CIRCLE, No. 14, Ladies of the G. A. R., is thankful to General Custer Post No. St. of Etna, for a donation of $100. The circle was about to make a payment toward the Soldiers' Widows' Home at Hawkin's Station, and the post hearing of this sent a committee at once to the circle with a check for the above amount.

Sons of Veterans.

THE anniversary celebration of Colonel E. J. Allen Camp, Wilkinsburg, was a great success CAMP 162 voted last week to change its nam from Andrew Carnegie Camp to Samuel Har per Camp. The camp is flourishing and the prospects are bright.

THE invitations will be out early this week for the full dress reception at Cyclorama Hall on Tuesday. April 15, to be under the auspices of Camps 33 and 162 for the benefit of the Sol-diers' Widows' Home. It ought to be a grand success.

CAMP No. 162 will commence to drill as a battery next Wednesday evening in Washington Infantry Hall. The next business meeting will be one week from Wednesday at K. of L. Hall, 101 Fifth avenue, and thereafter drills and business meetings will be held alternately.

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

MAJOR W. W. GREENLAND, Second Brigade Quartermaster, spent a few days in the city last week.

THE cost of sustaining the regular army of the United States last year was $40,466,460. This included all the different departments of the

THE Armory Committee of the Fourteenth Regiment met last Tuesday evening and adopted new rules for the government of the Central Armory. MAJOR WILSON F. BRADEN, of Greenville, An assemblage of about 800 comrades filled Judge Advocate of the Second Brigade, has been appointed an inspector of cattle and will locate in this city. Will remain at the same old stand, No. 12 Sixth street, after April 1, where, for the THE preliminary inspections of the compan-ies in the Fourteenth Regiment will be started past 15 years, the White has made the greatest record of any sewing machine in the world. Also agency for Hall's Bazaar Dress and Skirt by Colonel Perchment about April 14. The in-spections will be held on the regular meeting Forms, Newlon's System of Dress Cutting taught, and perfect fitting patterns out to nights of the companies. LIEUTENANT LINDSAY of Company H order. Second-hand Sewing Machines of all makes,

Eighteenth Regiment, has tendered his resignation on account of removal from the city Lieutenant Lindsay gives several other reasons in his resignation which may cause the Adju-tant General to smile when he sees them, CAPTAIN HUNT will hold a short preliminary Lieutenant Brown will have charge of the guard mount. The regular spring inspection of the Battery takes place May 10. Captain Hunt returned to Pittsburg last Friday after an absence of several weeks in Canada.

and 129 FRANKSTOWN AVE., East End. Most of the companies of the Eighteent mh30-95

SUPERFLUOUS

HAIR

ACNE ROSACAE Is a chronic and congested infiammatory dis-case of the face, mostly affecting the checks and nose. The characteristic features are red-ness, dilatation and enlargement of the blood-vessels of the checks and nose and more or less implies and pustules. — Symptoms—At first there is more or less red-ness of nose and checks; this is frequently ac-companied by an olly, greasy condition of the skin, and the nose is spit to feel cold rather than warm—often takes months and even years to thoroughly develop. After awhile the redness becomes permanent, and upon close examina-tion you will find the nose and checks covered with a network of fine veins and capillaries. Sometimes these run in straight lines on the side of the nose, near the end, but as a ruls regular loops. We often see a vein say one-hierts to reins running in all directions from main stem; then hard indurated pumples appear, which often fester-sometimes is preads to checks. The course of this disease is chronic, presting and mattery pustiles appear-affects both sexes. In the third stage the nose is gen-regular loops, they veins enlarged to an and the nose becomes rough, red, corrugated, ubbits and mattery nears. enormous extent, are a mark teol and a contragated, and the nose becomes rough, red, corrugated, tubulated, and in some cases assumes mons-trous proportions, becoming as large as a man's for

<text>

$5 Will Buy a Sewing Machine at

DOMESTIC ROOMS,

is we are clearing out our second-hand stock

NO. 8 SIXTH STREET.

weicome. Or if the soft paper would not be practicable a little book form programme, stiff enough to prevent the rathing that so rathed me, would be a delightful substitute for the daily newspaper affair that is now thrust into one's hands the moment he enters the theater, and in which he has to delve and persevere in delving to ascertain where the little space is, that is reserved for facts concerning the attrac-tions of the house."

10.00 Japanese sacred nuts, warranted to accom plish more than any patent medicine yet offered to the public-bring the possessor good luck the entire year if carried on Easter Sunluck the entire year if carried on Easter Sun-day-are for sale by a Fifth avenue jeweler, They are the latest fad and consequently are having a large sale among the "fadists." Their intrinsic value is small, but in former times the uneducated Japanese used to worship them, the superstition arising from the fact that the kernel is heart-shaped. In shape they rep-resent accurately a pair of mounted ox borns. They are two inches from tipto tip, and are black in color, looking not unlike a black but-terfly.

The taste is very similar to that of a Brazil put, and a remarkable quality about them is trained dress with a lace front. The corsage that they, like wedding cake, improve with age, remaining sweet and palatable for 20 years from the time they are gathered. They really are quite a curiosity, and can lay claim to considerable beauty, especially when their brunet coloring is enhanced by a dainty yellow ribbon arranged gracefully around their rather extensive waists, as is the case with the members of the family that are in Pittsburg.

A group of merry maids and men were engaged in chatting and eating at one of the pop-ular cafes the other evening, when one bright young lady said, addressing the remainder of the party: "Oh, by the way, did you know that Miss Blank is to be married to-morrow?" "Buried!" exclaimed one of the men, whose hearing must have been defective, in a tone and manner expressive of surprise and horror. "No," answered the first speaker, "I didn't my buried, I said married." With a sigh of relief the man who had ejacu-lated returned to his dinner, and a demure litlated returned to his dinner, and a demure in-the maiden astonished, the whole company by saying: "Married and buried! Not much differ-ence between the two, only in the first case a woman is buried alive, and in the last case sho is buried dead." THORNE BRANCHE.

Where Time Hange Lightly.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association will bold their fourth annual entertainment at Cy-clorama Hall next Thursday evening. The second annual reception of the Smithfield Club will be held at the Miller residence. Center avenue, opposite Erin street, on Friday evening, April 11, 1890. Master Jimmie Griffith, of 1101 Muriel street.

outhside, celebrated his 8th birthday last Monday evening in a very pleasant manner, assisted by a number of young friends.

Miss Sadie Adams was delightfully surprised last Wednesday evening at her home on Madison avenue. Cards, music and refreshments made the evening a very enjoyable one.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCounell have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Nellie Irene, to Sanuel J. Fleming, on Thurs-day, April 10, at 8 o'clock P. M., in the United Presbyterian Church, Mansfield, O.

Invitations are out for the fourth annual literary and musical entertainment to be given by the Y. M. H. A. of Allegheny county, Thurs-day evening, April 3. The outertainment will be followed by dancing. Music by Toerge's orchestra.

A delightful luncheon was given on last Tuesday by Mrs. John Miller at her residence. Dossary by ars. John Miner at her residence, on Boggs avenue, Mt. Washington. Among the Indies present were Mrs. John Schmidt, Mrs. Charles Gallagher, Mrs. Joseph A. Langdon, Mrs. J. H. O'Birlen, Mrs. A. Robins, Mrs. L. Keenan and Miss Mary Keenan.

Invitations have been issued by the Lafayette to a reception at new Turner Hall Forhes avenue, Wednesday evening, April 16. Gernert Bros, will furnith the music, and the following proteinen constitute the Committee of Ar-raugements: Messrs J. A. Stephenson, W. T. Bancel, F. H. McCarthy, A. A. Rancel, D. A. McGee, G. G. McSwigan.

The 19th birthday of E. G. Stoebener was celebrated at his home, Meyran avenue, Oakland, Friday evening, March 28. Those present were: Brinny evening, Marchas, Those present were: Mrs. William Lenz, Stella Lenz, Miss Lizzie Arnold, Mrs. James McKnight, Mrs. J. H. Steer, Harry Lenz, Harry Nell, William Powell, James Brown, William Hauch, Fred Rebele, Emil Rebele, Charlos Isler and Miss ad Emma Cronmillier at their home on Love | the valley.

bicycles and unicycles, head the list. They can do anything and everything possible on wheels. Other artists in the company are Culhane and Emerson, Baby Erma Culhane, 4% years of age,

Mr. Robert W. Wallace and Miss Eva Mc-Donald were married at Perrysville Thursday evening, the Rev. J. Graham officiating. A large number of guests were from Pittsburg. Miss Lou McDonald, the bride's sister, played Miss Lou McDonald, the bride's sister, played the wedding march, and Miss Annie McDonald was maid of honor and Mr. Charles Wallace best man. The bridal costume was white nun's veiling, with high bodice and ornamented rich lace. She wore a set of diamonds, a gift of the groom, and a large bunch of pink roses com-pleted her toilet. The maid of honor wore a robe of white cashmere. After the ceremony a reception was held, and an elaborate dinner was served. Among those present were Mr.

The remarkably ferocious gorills, named An-gola, which killed a bulldog in a fight held at Fort Wayne recently, is the chief curiosity promised this week at the World's Museum was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. James James Forguson, of Washing-ton; Mrs. McDonald, of Indiana; Miss Ralston, Miss L. Brown, Miss M. Anderson, Miss Hanna McMillin, Miss Carrie McLean, Miss Woods, Mr. J. Baum, Miss Phillips, Mr. W. Baum and many others atthough there are other novelties, and Maggie the Midget and her infant stays over. In the theater the World's Specialty Company will interpret a large programme,

Last Wednesday evening, March 26, at the residence of bride's brother, Mr. J. C. Kober, 543 Fifth avenue, Mr. Charles Hubuer and Miss Emma Kober were united in marriage by the Rev. Ruoff. The bride wore a white Albatross senting "Faust Up to Date," which has proved to be the most successful of any of the bur-lesques of the home theater. The company numbers 130 people and the production is on a scale of magnificence never before seen on the light opera stage, There is an abundance of comical situations and humorous lines, catchy music, handsome women, combined with the elaborate stage settings and bright costumes, augmented orchestra and brass band, and the best company that has ever been brought across the ocean. Prices will range from $1 60 to 25 cents. Sale of seats begins Thursday morning. was V-shaped with a Medici collar, and a ve was worn. The flowers were white roses. Miss May Kober, the bride's niece, was bridemaid, May Kooer, the orders needs there, was ordemaid, and also wore a white dress, walking length, trimmed in white silk fringe, and carried white tea roses. Mr. Will Hubner, the groom's brother, was best man. The presents were numerous and costly, including glassware, silverware and bric-a-brac of every description. A sumptuous supper was very much enjoyed silverware and bric-a-brac of overy description. A sumptious supper was very much enjoyed by over 100 guests, and numerous telegrams of congratulation were received. After supper dancing was commenced and continued until a late hour. Sciemeriz's Orchestra furnished the music. Mr. and Mrs. Hubner will be at their new home, Van Braam street, city, after Easter.

Visiting and Visited.

Mr and Mrs. H. L. Childs, of Shadyside, are visiting in Lakewood, N. Y. Miss Nellie Dean, of Forty-first street, is so-journing with friends in New York. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Collins have returned to Homewood after a visit in New York. Atlantic City at present numbers among its guests Miss Campbell and the Misses Page, of Allegheny.

Miss Jessie Larence, of Alken avenue, Shadyside, is spending a few days with friends in New York.

Miss Nellie and Master James Watt, of Sta-tion street, East End, are in Philadelphia visit-ing friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Blair, of Penn avenue departed last evening for a two months' in Oakland, California. Miss Bess Dalzell, after spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Robert Duff, of Hawkins, has returned to Washington, D. C.

Finley H. Torrens, of this city, arrived at Alexandria, Egypt, with H. Gaze & Son's Pal-estine party on March 9. He reports all well, Miss Louila Wilhelm, Miss Lizzie Schuman and Cora Friday are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. James R. Witherow, Rochester, Pa. Mrs. S. D. Warmcastle, of North Highland avenue, East End, was a passenger on a steamer which arrived in New York yesterday from St. Augustine, Florida, Miss Maggie Musgrave is in the city visiting friends. She will soon start for her home in Col-orado. Miss Musgrave is stopping with Mrs. Scripht, of Resacca street, Allegheny. Mr, and Mrs. Daniel Evans, of Petrolia, Butler county, are on a visit to our city for a few weeks. They are the guests of Mr, and Mrs. A. B. Kennedy, of Cedar avenue, Allegheny.

Sewickley Society Notes.

Miss Love, of Edgeworth, is in New York The Misses Graff gave a small box party at the Grand Opera House last Wednesday evening. Miss Mame Nevin is home after visiting her cousin, Miss. Strobel, in Philadelphia, and friends in Baltimore, Md.

Captain Wilson and family, formerly of Mocongahela City, are now settled in their elegan

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Nevin entertained the Monday Evening Euchre Club very pleasantly at their pretty home last Monday evening.

Miss Spencer, of New York City, who has been visiting Miss McCleery, left during the week for a visit to friends in the East End. Mr. Edward O'Neil gave an elegantly ap-pointed and very enjoyable dinner to a number of his gentlemen friends last Toursday evening. Stoer, Harry Lenz, Harry Noll, William Powell, James Brown, William Hauch, Fred Rebele, Emil Rebele, Charlos Isler and Miss Annie Stoer. A reception was given by the Misses Linzie of Emma Cronmillier at their home on Love May 2

THE public schools have closed for a week's Emerson, Baby Erma Culhane, 4% years of age, Johnson and Mack, Dot Pullman, Walton and Slavin, Golden and Quigg, O'Brien and Alex-ander, James A. Baisley, the banjoist, Honrie and Lunadi, with his somersault dog, Don and Jess, and Sam J. Burton, the comedian. Be-side all the specialties, there is to be a roaring afterpiece, entitled, "Out of Sight," in which nearly the whole strength of the company will be engaged. vacation. Miss Ballou, of the Public Cooking School, takes no vacation, but will continue to instruct the young cooks during the present week. The third class for this year will gradu-ate April 19. The cooking school takes no holi-day this week, so that the coming class can start early enough to finish the course at the specified time.

THE reports for the school attendance for this month show very good results for March. The Homewood school looms up with a big showing, but the new schoolhouse at Brushton will take some 40 pupils from this district next month. The Minersville school district has nearly 100 less in attendance for the month of March than for February, which is attributable to the broken up condition of the streets of the ward

By far the most expensive organization that has visited Pittsburg in years will be the London THE fact that the Pittsburg teachers were paid yesterday is largely due to Dr. McKelvy, President of the Central Board. He has been Gaiety Theater Company, who appear at the Grand Opera House Easter week under the in Arkansas and expected to arrive in Pittsburg Friday, but the delays in getting over the storm-beaten district prevented him from reaching the city till yesterday morning, be having traveled all night. On his arrival at the Union depot he went direct to the Central Board rooms and signed the school warrants, and 600 teachers were made happy. direction of Abbey Schoeffel and Grau, presenting "Faust Up to Date," which has proved

THESE pupils stand first in their classes for the month of March at the Forbes school: Room No. 1, Hugh Muldoon; No. 2, David Room No. 1, Hugh Muldoon; No. 2, David Lentz; No. 3, Bennie Levi; No. 4, John Stokley; No. 5, Clarence Rosenfeld: No. 6, John Guntz; No. 7, George F, Martin; No. 8, Alex. Silver-man; No. 9, Sadie Pedley; No. 10, Lottie Over-end: No. 11, Josie Sloan; No. 12, Ellie Gueth; No. 13, Grace Garrett; No. 14, Annie Gardom; No. 15, Dora Zeidler; No. 14, Ruby Wilson; No. 17, Clara Maeder; No. 18, Ruby Wilson; No. 19, Annie Fuhr; No. 20, Alice Tyler; No. 21, Joseph Shipp; No. 22, Fred Toerge; No. 25, Herbert May.

J. H. Rowz is going to play Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice," at Altoona, on April 4 and 5. Miss Lottie Venzey will be the Portia. Each month there is an entertainment in one room on each floor to which the head pupils are invited. THE tiger which Sarah Bernhardt carried with her during her last tour in this country, died at Jardin des Plantes, Paris, recently, of

THE following are the names of the pupils A CABLEGRAM to THE DISPATCH last night who stand first in the highest grammar rooms of the ward schools: Humboldt, Carrie Vaux; says: Nat Goodwin will bring his "Gold Mine," in July, to the Gaiety Theater, London, for a Liberty, Lida Axtell; St. Clair, Lottie Hopkins; Morse, Eliza Valoon; O'Hara, Minnle Shelly: AN English exchange imparts the highly in Allen, Emma Weber; Peebles, Gertrude Kain; Ralston, Stella Scott; Homewood, Anna B. Mc-Kee: Luckey, Fannie Trimble and J. Brown; North, E. Taylor and E. Jackson; Minersville, Minnie Mittler; Birmingham, Eddie Knoel; South, Jennie Proctor; Thad Stevens, Nellie Farrel: Lincoln, W. H. Holmes; Lawrence, Fred Ochenshirt; Highland, Alma Fitzgerald; Bedford, Sam Klages; Springfield, Mathew Considine; Riverside, Nellie Dugan; Monorga-hela, Jerome Kernan; Knox, May McKee; Wickersham, Linnie Isler; Hancock, Blancho Kelly; Franklin, Geo, Wandless; Duquesne, Will J. Hill. Allen, Emma Weber; Peebles, Gertrude Kain; teresting information that Evelyn Bellew, brother of "that promising young actor Kyrle Bellew," has entered public life as a reader MAX FREEMAN has been relieved of his duties as stage manager of the Cassino by Ru-dolph Aronson. He will stage Byrne's "Castles in the Air" for the De Wolff Hopper Opera Bouffe Company. NELLIE MCHENEY has purchased a new four-act comedy-drama, entitled "Lady Peggy," which she will produce in Chicago next month Frank Tannehill, Jr., is the author. It is said Will J. Hill.

NEW PATENTS .- From O. D. Levis, to be a superior sort of article in the farce NEW PATENTS.—From C. D. Levis, patent attorney, No. 131 Fifth avenue (es-tablished 20 years), Pittsburg, Pa; a patent guaranteed on all new inventions; O. B. Shailanberger, Rochester, Pa., box for elec-A SWINGING drawbridge through which a steamboat 70 feet long, and loaded with excur-tionists, will pass, is to be one of the mechanitrie motors; George W. Blair, Pittsburg, lamp; C. L. Smith, Pittsburg, step ladder; E. P. Sleutz, Idlewood, and J. B. McGrew, cal effects of Steel Mackaye's new drama, "Money Mad." The play is to be produced at the Standard Theater on April 27. FINAL arrangements for this year's produc-tion of the Passion play at Ober-Ammergan E. P. Stents, Inlewood, and J. D. McGrew, Pittsburg, electric railway; H. Schneider, Pittsburg, shait bearing; Thomas Schmau-ser, Allegheny, Pa., galvanic apparatus; C. R. Dailenbach, Allegheny, swimming apparatus; G. A. Belknap, Beaver Center, bill, the Charles Sure, Cover Ba have been completed. The principal reliearsal will take place May 18, and the first perform-ance of the play on May 28. Other perform-ances will be given in June, July, Angust and Sentember. ridle bit; Charles Swan, Corry, Pa., machine for molding target pigeons. WILLS, HENSHAW AND TEN BROECE with their clever and amusing farce-comedy, "Two Old Cronies," will shortly be seen at the Bijou Theater. They have a company of great ex-cellence, and having already made a big hit in Pittsburg, the success of their return engage-ment is assured. Every time you catch cold or feel chilly. In very many cases a drink of pure whisky will july restore you. Prince Regent, Queen Victoria's wedding present whisky, has the highest recommendations for purity. Sold only by John McCullough, Half Cen-tury House, 523 Liberty st., foot of Fifth CHARLES MACGEACHY will "tour" Richard CHARLES MACGEACHY will "tonr" Richard Golden in "Old Jed Prouty" throughout Maine during the coming month of May. The plan is a new one and already a matter of much talk among theatrical managers generally. For, if the results prove to be profitable, "touring a State" may become a regular practice for every month of the theatrical year. avenue.

Dou't Send for the Doctor

Page 15 of this issue.

The Ace of Clubs.

See announcement in advertisement on The Grand Army in Brief. Post 157 will meet at 8 o'clock instead of 7:30. commencing on next Thursday.

300 pieces 50 cent dress goods to go at 371/ Great bargain. cents. DEPARTMENT COMMANDER DENNISTON

MISS FANNY DAVENFORT, who played "La Tosca" to an immense audience at Watertown, Mass. Friday night, is confined to her bed at Woodruff's House and could not appear at Ogdensburg last night. She has been suffer-ing for a week and was obliged to cancel Tues-day night at Buffalo. Her physician says she must have a week's rest, and Arthur Thomas, her manager, aunounces that all engagements for next week have been canceled. KNABLE & SHUSTER, 35 Fifth ave. BLACK GOODS-A superior assortment of

THE comrades of Post 151 talk of little but their approaching celebration of Lee's sur-render. lightweight black dress fabrics, with hem-stitched borders, from 85c to $2 50 per yard. THREE applications, two new and one by HUGUS & HACKE. TISSU ilding last week and the balance will be i by next Tuesday. Battery B has been assigned the old Commissioner's office on the second floor and the guns and heavier material will be stored in the yard and cellar. The building is in remarkably poor condition, but will be presty thoroughly overhauled and cleaned at once. "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" is all ready for a successful week at the Bijou Theater. A full rehearsal took place in the United States Court room last night under the direction of Mr. A. F. Nail, the owner of the piece, who ar-A NUMBER of the members of the National rived in the city last Tuesday. He is much pleased with the cast and at finding the parts Guard that served during the troubles at Scranton in 1877 met in Old City Hall last Fri well learned. Mr. Nail is particularly well day evening for the purpose of forming an pleased with the stage settings, new scenery, organization among the survivors. There were about 75 men present, and A. C. Dean was elected Chairman and Charles S. Black, Secre-tary. A committee was appointed on organi-zation, and another meeting will shortly be called by the chair. The prospects are that this presentation will be the most successful the drama has ever had. Jimmie Craven, of Alliance, O., the "drummer boy," arrived in this city on Thursday, and will boy," arrived in this city on Thursday, and will give the best representation of the character ever given. Leon J. Long, as Uncle Joe, will give some of his latest productions on the topics of the day. The members of Post 8 will assemble at the post-room at 7:30 o'clock to-morrow evening, and all who are therewill march in a body to the Bijou to see the play. THE date of the competitive examination for appointment to West Point from this district has been set for next Thursday at the rooms of the Central Board of Education. Congressman Daizell has named Prof. George J. Luckey, John G. Bryant and C. F. Bingeman as the board of examiners, and Dr. Bingeman, of Penn svenue, will conduct the physical examination. About 20 young men have already announced their intention of entering the contest.

A Notable Gathering.

A large meeting of the resident companions of the Loyal Legion was held in the Fire Mar-SEVERAL local Captains, in speaking of Major Patterson's intention of inspecting comshal's office on Friday to arrange for attending the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of that organization on the 15th of next month, in Philadelphia. It is expected at least s0 of the Pittsburg companions will attend. Some will be accompanied by their wives and other members of their families. The probabilities are a majority will leave on the 8:10 P. M. train of the 14th, when, if desired, special cars will be pro-vided. The general meeting will be held in the Academy of Music on the evening of the 15th, and on the 16th a full dress reception in the Academy of the Fine Arts, to which special tickets will be necessary. It is expected that at least 6,000 companions will be in attendance, and that it will be the most notable gathering of officers since the close of the war. of that organization on the 15th of next month, panies in the sitting up exercises, state that the drill is perfectly incompatible with the present manner of running companies. To put men manner of running companies. To put men through such a course of exercises and derive any benefit would require at least a half hour's work daily, while, at best, men show up for drills but once a week or two weeks. The drill has certainly not been practiced in any of the local companies, except possibly in the last few weeks as a preparation for the inspections. A REQUISITION has been made on the Secre-tary of War for a sufficient number of new 45 caliber rifles to complete the fitting out of the National Guard in this State. It is expected at the next encampment. All unserviceable guns and spare parts are to be sent to Harris-burg at once for repairs, together with all old 50 callber ammunition on hand. The move is a good one, and was brought about by the sugression An exceedingly interesting little volume is the work entitled "Collections of a Coffee Cooler" by S. Creelman, of Co. A. One hundred caliber ammunition on hand. The move is a good one, and was brought about by the suggestion of regular army officers, who were inspecting the guard last year, it being claimed that the difference in ammunition and guns might cause serious trouble in case the companies were to be called into action. and first Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers. Comrade Creelman's story of prison life in An-Comrade Creeiman's story of prison life in An-dersonville and Florence is at once pathetic, amusing and racy. Besides this story the book contains: "Transformed Historic Scenes," "Foraging," "The Soldier's Widow," "Army Beans," "The Soldier's Funeral," "Silent Sen-tinels," "Army Corn," "The Battlefield," "The Army Mule," "Co. K," "Dirie's Sunoy Land" and "Soldier's Oration." All are very good. Comrade Creelman served 46 months during the Rebellion inclusive of II months in prison pens. His present address is Wilkinsburg, Allegheny county, Pa., Box 196. SPECIAL orders from the Adjutant General's office discharges Quartermaster Charles E Brown, of the Eighteenth Regiment, and Lieu-tenant C. J. Snyder, of Company F, same organization. The discharge of the latter gen-tleman finally settles the troubles in this com-pany caused by the new ruling of General Hastings, giving unsuccessful candidates before

A Coffee Cooler's Collections.

Hastings, giving unsuccessful candidates before the Brigade Examining Board the right to retain any commission they might be holding prior to the examination. The vacancy in Company F will probably be filled by the re-election of Lieutenant Kaercher, who was Remembering the Widows' Home. The Secretary of Colonel William H. Moody Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., yesterday warded to the Treasurer of the Soldiers' Wid-elected to the position before the recent ruling of the Adjutant General. ows' Home fund at Hawkins station an installows' Home fund at Hawkins station an install-ment of $40 toward the purchase of the place. The prevalence of sickness among the members of the circle prevented their offering being as large as was expected. It is, however, only in-tended as an earnest of the interest taken in the project by the ladies of Circle No. 52, and an evidence that the women of the Grand Army circles are willing and anxions to provide for those who are left helpless by death of the men whom the buliets have spared, but disease or old age cut down. CAPTAIN O. C. COON, or Company I, McKeesport, has announced his intention of resigning his commission as Captain. Mr. Coon has been connected with Company I since 1884, serving through all the intermediate positions from private up. During his term as Captain he has private up. During its term as Captain he has brought the company up to a remarkably high standard of efficiency, particularly in rifle practice, last year every member of the organi-ration having qualified as a marksman or sharp-shooter. The cause of Captain Coon's resigna-tion is due to some trouble consected with the business organization which was formed among the members about a year ago. The probable successor to the Captaincy is Lieutenant Jay-cox.

Post 236's Celebration.

will officially visit Post 151 some time in May.

Post 236's celebration of the surrender of Lee is to be made a very interesting affair. Turner Hall, Allentown, will be the place of the cere-mony. Comrade Daniel Ashworth, of Post 3, is the orator for the occasion. On behalf of the Jordan's is the orator for the occasion. On behalf of the people of the hill Prof. Kennedy will present a beautiful American flag to the post. The flag is now in Grove's store, on Fifth avenne, and many people stopped to admire its beauty last week. The emblem will be received for the post by Comrade A. P. Burchfield, of Post 162. The prospects are good for this celebration eclipsing in interest all provious Grand Army affairs on the hill. Comrade John C. Thomas, who is endeavoring to make it a complete suc-

Easter millinery opening, Thursday to Sat-urday, April 3 to 5. Prices reasonable. 705 PENN AVE.

that the guns will be in shape for distribution

The Ace of Clubs. See announcement in advertisement on Page 15 of this issue. who is endeavoring to make it a complete suc-cess, has secured lots of musical and literary talent. 300 pieces black and white dress goods to be sold at 37½ ets. Regular 50c quality. KNABLE & SHUSTER, 35 Fifth ave.

LADIES' waterproof rubber cloth wraps, in Scotch tweeds, plaids and diagonals, with fancy linings, from $4 to $20 each. COMRADE JNO. M. MCALIECE was elected Officer of the Guard of Post 157 last week. TTSSu HUGUS & HACKE.

> VISITOR-Why, Mrs. Savemoney, what a beautiful neat parlor suit you havel Mrs. S.—Nonsense, that's not new; it's my old one, refurnished and reupholstered by Haugh & Keenan, 33 and 34 Water street.

Ten different styles, in Swiss Embroidery, Lace and Irish Point, from 25c to $1.

VANDYKE SETS, 25c to $1 75.

Side Pleated Crepe Lisse Ruching.

Of the latest and most tasteful designs. We Three inches deep, in Buff, Cream, Pink, boldly make the assertion that NO STORE selling a quality of goods equal to ours dis-poses of them at such low prices, nor shows Light Blue, Cardinal and Black. Immense variety of Turn-over Ruchings in Lace and Crepe Lisse. Children's Sailor Collars, 12 different styles, in entirely new patterns and shapes, made of Point de Gene Lace, Tatting Work, Guipure and Torchon Lace.

EASTER KID GLOVES.

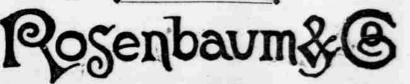

The new spring shades in Tan, 8-button Mousquetaires, at $1 25 and $1 50; a splen-did quality.

5-hook Suedes, in the new shades of Gray and also Black, at $1.

4-button Tan and Gray Kids, new shades, at $1 25.

Misses' 5-hook Kid Gloves, in Tan and Brown, 98c.

Every department of our house holds out attractive novelties for your spring pur-

510 TO 514 MARKET STREET.

P. S .- Easter Neckwear for Gentlemen, newest patterns and styles, at lower prices

Trimmed Bonnets,

Trimmed Hats,

such an assortment of stylish wares.

Ribbons for Dress Trimmings,

CONFIRMATION WREATHS.

New Designs at Low Prices.

This Week, Special Attractions in

Ribbons for Neckwear

Exclusive Novelties in Children's Shirred.

Embroidered and Lace Caps. The most original and becoming styles for Children of Ribbons for Millinery, Ribbons for Sashes.

Trimmed Toques,