AN ADVANCE ON FIREBRICK, GLASSWARE AND PORCELAIN—A CUT OF 50 PER CENT ON LUMBER—BONUS OFFERED FOR SILK PRODUCED IN THE UNITED STATES.

Since the publication of these dispatches about two weeks ago of the abstract of the tariff bill, some changes have been made in the dutiable schedule. These, in addition to the present rates of duty being enclosed in parenthesis in cases where comparisons are necessary:

Increased Tariff on Firebrick.
Firebrick (20 cents), 25 per cent on plain; 45 per cent on glazed; other brick, plain (20 cents), 25 per cent, ornamented, 45 per cent; cement, Roman, Portland and hydraulic (20 cents), 3 cents per 100 pounds; glass, window (10 cents), 10 per cent; other glass, round (20 cents), 10 per cent; cement (20 cents), 10 per cent.

Unpolished cylinder round and common window glass (10 cents), 10 per cent; polished cylinder round glass (10 cents), 10 per cent; glass, sheet (10 cents), 10 per cent; glass, plate (10 cents), 10 per cent; glass, window (10 cents), 10 per cent; glass, other (10 cents), 10 per cent.

Grease, deodorized, such as is commonly used in soap making or in wire drawing, or for stuffing and dressing leather, and as are it only for such uses, not specially provided for in this act, 10 per cent.

Human hair, raw, uncleaned and not drawn, or oiled or refined into rubber, which has been prepared for use and is fit only for manufacture, 10 per cent.

Ivory and ivory not sawed, cut or otherwise manufactured, but in the form of raw ivory, 10 per cent.

Other important changes in this schedule—railway iron, tinplate and wire fencing—have already been noted.

Penknives and pocket cut-throats (now 50 per cent) show a sharp increase from 12 cents to 22 per dozen and 50 per cent.

In the wooden schedule, timber is set 50 per cent in the Senate bill of last Congress. The schedule is placed at $1.50, and a safeguard against export duties on logs is provided to equal the rate on the timber.

Sugar stands as already noted, at 35 per cent on the 100 lb. cwt. and 45 per cent on the 50 lb. cwt. The bill provides for a 50 per cent reduction on some grades and more than that on others.

Cigars, cut and cheroots (25 per cent) and cigars, wrapped (25 per cent) are set at 35 and 25 per cent, respectively. The bill provides for a 50 per cent reduction on cigars, cut and cheroots (25 per cent) and cigars, wrapped (25 per cent).

Cotton manufactures are practically as in the Senate bill of last Congress. In the hemp, flax and jute schedules, cables, cordage and twine of manilla, including binding twine (25 cents) is made 15 cents a pound.

Under the silk schedule a bounty clause is added for the first time. It provides for a 50 per cent bounty on silk produced and reeled in the United States and 7 cents per pound on cocoon.

Under the head of books and paper pulp, wood pulp (10 cents) is fixed at $3.50 per ton.

THEY WANT HASTINGS.

Popular Sentiment at the Capital Favors the Attorney General's Candidacy—Claims of Delamater's Friends Doubted—Other Political Points.

HARRISBURG, March 31.—Senator Delamater may have the lead in the race for the Republican nomination for Governor, but the friends of General Hastings are inclined to dispute some of the claims of Chairman Andrews with regard to the choice of delegates.

Among those claimed for Delamater is William Miller, of Snyder county, who is a clerk in the State Library. He is popular, but his position in the Governorship is likely to result in his defeat, if the popular Republican vote is invoked to decide the choice of a delegate.

Another name mentioned is the Hastings candidate, George G. Boyer, a member of the Soldiers' Orphan Commission and Manager of the Harrisburg Car Manufacturing Works, is prominently mentioned as the Hastings candidate, and his friends say his success depends on his entering the fight for delegate.
