I don't think anybody will be frightened by such a more."

Predoine Strum, No. III Carson street, revealed nothing special.

Richard Splane, keeping the Capitol Hotel, No. 161 Carson, is an applicant for both licenses. He is on Chief Brown's list, but swore that there was no foundation for it.

George Shafer has a licensed house at Nos. 17 and 19 Carson street, the Central Hotel. He presented pages from his register showing his pationage. He went through without striking a snag. "Call Peter Anmon," said Judge Ewing, but as that man did not respond to testify against Mr. Shafer the applicant was allowed to depart.

agreed to let the case go over until after the noon recess. Attorney Christy had prepared to show

He said he had sold small quantities or drinks to very few people. He admitted that he had sold drinks to Henry Dressler, Ed Watt, Michael McBride, Nicholas Hartman, Louis Free, A. C. Wagner, George Glover, Fred Fritchell, D. Hunter and Captain Irwin. He could not say whether or not he had sold to Dr. McCord, but he was positive that he had

Dr. McCord, but he was positive that he had not sold to George Free. He said that people ceaxed him so hard that he could not get away from them. Some of them said that fley could not get anything to drink elsewhere. He promised to be good hereafter, if he could get a license. As he had admitted the retail seling, no witnesses were called.

The Thirty-first ward (Allentown) was then taken up. There is one licensed house there and eight applicants. The license is held by John Richter at No. 52 Washington avenue. The eight applicants are H. J. Alt, No. 99 Washington avenue; George Brehm, No. 11 Birndingam road; Robert A. Bleiel, Amanda and Arlington avenue; Jacob Dietz, Knox and Arlington avenue. The Court was furnished with a memorandum that there was no record in the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue that John Richter had a United States retail liquor license, but Mr. Richter declared that he was possessed of that interesting document.

NOW A DRY DISTRICT. The Thirty-second ward, Mt. Washington, was begun with Jacob Brednich. There are nine applicants for the ward, and at present no liceused houses. Mr. Brednich said that he had been taking beer for his rheumatism. It was prescribed by Dr. Wilson, and had helped

"I am afraid you ought not to have told us that," said Judge Ewing. "All the rheumatic men in town will be running after that docfor."
James Hollis, applying for the corner of Anianda and Arlington avenues, said that he drank ale.
"That is much better than beer," said Judge

Ewing.
The Judge thought that there was little desaid Hollis.

This caused a roar of laughter. Mr. Hollis glared around at the crowd and shouted. How many drinks have you had to-day?" sked Judge Ewing.
At that Hollis cried, "Oh!" and shook his finger at Attorney Christy. When he had finished laughing he said, "I had two glasses of Christian Wilbert was told by Judge Ewing that, if he were licensed, there must be a great improvement over the sort of house which he ran two years ago. The applicant declared that he would do better, and said that he had not drank any liquor for six months.

John Zimmerly, Bailey avenue and Ruth treet, closed the Thirty-second ward. The only applicant in the Thirty-third ward a John Conway, who wishes to keep a saloon

THE CERTIFICATE.

This affidavit was dated March 30, which was Sunday. The second paper was a certificate, not sworn to, as follows:

"To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quirter Sessions:

"We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that Samuel Bing, who applies for license at No. 32

Sixth street, in the Fourth ward of the city of Pittsburg, called upon and solicited subscriptions from us and each of us during the late campaign, on behalf of the Republican City Executive Committee.

"That at no time did he refer to the License Court, the granting or refusing of license, the Department of Public Safety, or J. O. Brown as Chief thereof, nor did any of his conversation relate to, or in the remotest implication have any reference to the above named suljects."

This is signed by the following:

Brown & Taylor, Hotel Hamilton: P. Mc.

Although his $400 license expired November 1, 1887, he continued to sell, according to the record, until the hearings in April, 1888. "Your Honor," he said, "that was two years ago, and I've surfered enough since then."

"If you should get a license," said Judge Ewing, "you must quit your old habita. Shut up about II o'clock, don't trust anybody, not even the owner of a mill; look out for the boys and don't set aw free lunch."

Attorney Dickey filed an affidavit by Martin Logan, Nos. 8, 10 and 12 Penn avenue, stating that, since his hearing, on March I7, he had, in good faith, opened a restaurant.
