WAR, AND ONLY WAR.

The Old League Won't Have Schedules Changed.

ROBISON WANTS A FIGHT.

Brunell Wisely Favors a Change and Ignores Childish Talk.

THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

President Robison, of Cleveland, in behalf of the National League, states that no change of schedule by the Players' League will be tolerated. He talks wildly on the subject. Secretary Brunell favors a change of schedule. Guerrero and McClelland are matched to run a ten-mile race on Saturday.

PERSONAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CLEVELAND, O., April 1 .- President Frank Robison returned from the scene of war-New York City-Sunday night after taking an active part in the deal by which the National League Circuit was reduced to eight clubs and at once entered upon the work of extending his new cable road out toward the League ball grounds. Tuesday morning he read in his newspaper that the Brotherhood contemplated changing its schedule so as to avoid conflicting dates in the cities of the League circuit. In the afternoon he met a reporter who asked him whether the League would play its present schedule through, no matter what happened. "Well barder," was the somewhat astonish

"What do you mean by that?" asked the BOBISON RATTLED.

"Simply this," replied Mr. Robison. "I may say that if the Brotherhood League changes its schedule to-morrow at New York, the National League will call a special meeting and change its schedule again to meet every date possible of the Brotherhood. All during the winter the Brotherhood has howled for war. It has declared that it has all the players on earth, that the League isn't in it, that it is the Brotherhood that will get all the patronage and now, at the last moment, as the dawning of the season actually begins to stare the new organization in the mean that it shall get away. At Pittsburg when the Brotherhood League met to form a schedule it did not do so. On the contrary it formed an outline and subsequently gave that to the League at the Cleveland meeting. For what reason, I confess, I do not know. The League, at its Cleveland meeting, was comeiled to give out a ten-club schedule. IT COULDN'T MOVE BRUSH

"It couldn't induce Mr. Brush to believe that it was politic for him to retire, and adjourned in hopes, that was all. When the League schedule was revised at the New York meeting, it was simply a condensation of the ten club schedule. It did not depart in the least from the outlines of the schedule originally adopted. The Brotherhood knows this. and I think expected it. Now, I may say that if the Brotherhood schedule is changed again, if they do not care to meet us, we will make it imperative that they shall. It was left with me at New York if such a course was adopted by the Brotherbood, to request a special meeting to meet that organization on its own grounds. As far as a am concerned, I shall certainly do so. The Brender of the little of the lit certainly do so. The Brotherhood has be-seeched war all the winter; has blown its trumpets and sounded its big drum. We are going to blow a few now, and if the Brothergoing to blow a lew now, all the hood changes 20 times, the League will do likewise. We are neither ashamed nor afraid to meet any base ball opponent on the field."

ABOUT THE DEAL. "Can you tell THE DISPATCH anything about that Indianapolis deal?" "I don't know as I know anything new

"What was the consideration paid?" "Just two men know that, and that is all that will be known for awhile."
"How came the report of the consolidation of Cleveland and Pittsburg to be published?" "Indirectly, I was the cause of it, I intimated "Indirectly. I was the cause of it. I intimated that there might be such a consolidation in order to throw people off the track of the Indianapolis matter, upon which I was working. I didn't mean that it should spread quite as far as it did, and for that reason I owe Pittsburg an apology, but," communed Mr. Robison, with a smile, "I have already made amends to Mr. Nimick, and I guess that is all right."

"When did you see Mr. Brush."

NO BROTHERHOOD IN HIS.

"At Chicago it was said, you know, that Mr. Brush went up there to talk with the Brotherhood, relative to gaining admission to that organization. I can certify that he never said a word about Brotherhood, that is, joining the Brotherhood, while in the city. He did talk good League news, though." good League news, though,"
"Then it is absolutely correct that the League will now meet the Brotherhood schedule, no matter what changes it may make?"

"That is our position exactly," reiterated Mr. Robison, "As one member of our club has said: Robison. "As one member of our club has said: 'II we must die, let us die young and lighting by our colors to the last.' We have always tried to give the public good, bonest baseball; we shall always continue to do so. If we don't we ought to die, and if the public does not appreciate or care for our organization, then we must take the consequences. In the meantime, we do not propose to let people forget that we are on earth. I think there is nothing objectionable in that."

BEUNELL'S COMMON SENSE.

He Says That Changing the Schedule is No Backdown.

PETECHAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.: PHILADELPHIA. April 1 .- Al Johnson, of Cleveland, and Secretary Frank Brunell, of Chicago, of the Brotherhood League, were in town to-day in consultation with President Henry M. Love, of the local Players' League club. Mr. Johnson denied that he was here after Catcher Clements, but Mrs. Clements told THE DISPATCH correspondent that a man an swering Johnson's description had called twice at her residence and asked for her husband, and Johnson did not see Clements, as he was safely under Harry Wright's wing at the Philadelphia ball park.

Secretary Brunell said to-morrow's meeting would be a very important one in the history of the Player's League. He had no doubt but that all the deserters would be taken back and only those would be blacklisted who remained with the old League. In regard to conflicting dates, Mr. Brunell said that the Western clubs dates, Mr. Brunell said that the Western clubs were unanimously in favor of rearranging the schedule so as to avoid conflicting with the National League. "This may be regarded as a back-down," said Brunell, "but we are in baseball for money, and if we rearrange our dates, it will be done simply as a matter of business." Al Johnson had very little to say. He and Brunell went out to Forepaugh Park and admired the new grand stand, and they both agreed that the Philadelphia Players' club would have one of the handsomest grounds in the rew League.

the rew League.

Jee Muivey did not report to the Philadelphia National League club to-day. When he signed his last contract and received $1,250 in advance from the Phillies he agreed to report on April 1. Manager Wright was at the ground on April 1. Manager Wright was at the ground to-day, but Sir Joseph falied to put in an appearance. Neither did he return the $1,250 advance money. Captain James Fogarty said: "it's a million dollars to a cent that both Mulvey and Pickett will play with the Brotherhood this season. I do not know whether Joe ever returned the $1,250 to the Philadephia club or not, as I never asked him about it. It is none of my business, but I don't think they can do anything to him if he did keep it, as it was nothing more nor less than a bribe. Mulvey is not afraid, and he is not hitting from any one. You will find him up around the ball ground. As to Pickett he will play Fere, notwithstanding John Ward's assertion to the contrary. Ward is manager of the Brooklyn, and not the Philadelphia cinb."

No Game To-Day.

There will be no ball game at Recreation Park to-day, but if the weather remains fine the local League club will play the East End Athletics to-morrow. The diamond is in bad condition, but Manager Hecker had his young men in line yesterday. Youngman at second did well. Sunday, honest Billy, was there, and he thinks Mr. Nimick will be President of a surprising team. Sowders will be here to-day.

They Are Friends Now. Sir Guy Hecker ended all talk yesterday re-

Last evening Beckley visited the Central Hotel to see his friend Hemp. Hocker sought an introduction to Beckley, and on receiving one, asked Beckley if it was true that he intended to smash his (Hocker's) face. Beckley said there was no truth whatever in any of the published reports. After this understanding the genial Guy and Beckley shook hands and there is no illfeeling now. Guy, by the way, knows what his fists are made for.

NEW LEAGUE AFFAIRS.

Secretary Tener Leaves for New York to Attend nn Important Meeting.

John Tener, Secretary of the local Players' League club, left the city last evening for New York to attend the meeting of the new League. Before leaving, he, in conversation with friends, expressed himself as being inclined to favor a change of schedule from a business point of view. Mr. Tener could not well understand the opinions and feelings of baseball patrons of a thoughtful turn of mind, and that opinion is to avoid as many conflicting dates as possible. It is evident that Mr. Brunell is of the same is evident that Mr. Brunell is of the same opinion as Manager Hanlon, and it would be well for the Pittsburg officials of the new club to encourage Mr. Tener toward taking the sensible view of the situation. The talk of "backdown" is all absolute nonsense.

Visner, the new outfielder of the new club, arrived yesterday. He is a fine tooking young fellow, and appears to be every inch a ball player. It seems dollars to one cent buttons that Visner turns out all right, Manager Hanlon will undoubtedly have a good man in the lon will undoubtedly have a good man in the ex-Brooklyn player, and he will always be well up in the batting order. To-day Guerrero and others of the pedestrians in town propose taking the Players' League players on a pedestrian "jaunt" just to get them in line. Nobody knows better than Guerrero how to exercise on a road, and he is a Brotherhood crank. The new club players had a good exercise yesterday.

A CLEAN SWEEP. A Pittsburg Kennel Wins All the Boston Irish

Setter Prizes. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BOSTON, April 1.-The W. L. Washington kennel of Irish setters have again made a clean sweep at the big Boston bench show. Champion Laura B, won the championship of America, and the first prize in the challenge class for the twentieth time in succession. Ruby Glenmore won first prize in the open bitch class, and this being her sixth first prize, she now enters the challenge class with the title of "Champion." Septime, shown for the first time, won a first prize easily in the bitch puppy class, although she was but 7 months old. Sarsfield was shown out of condition and won third prize.

Mr. Washington's kennels were awarded the Mr. Washington's kennels were awarded the grand special prize for the best kennel of Irish setters in the show, defeating 60 of the best Irish setters alive, and making the unprecedented record of winning at the three largest shows of the season, namely, New York, Chicago and Boston. This kennel is the greatest attraction in the show. Other Pittsburgdegs have done well. Joe Lewis' Irish cotter spaniel, Patsy O'Connor, won first prize, challenge class, and his English setter, Blink Bonny, won first prize, novice class, and third prize, open class; his pug. Little Jewel, won second.

SOME GREAT STOCK.

The Franklin Breeders Have About $100,-

000 Invested in Trotters. FRANKLIN, PA., April I .- Messrs. Miller and Sibley, proprietors of the Prospect Hill Stock Farm, received to-day from New York other highly bred young horses, the most of them being the get of the famous Electioneer, purchased by them in New York last week. This firm invested $50,000 in gilt-edged trotting stock last week, and have now on their farm one of the finest lot of thoroughbreds ever got to-gether, the value of the stock aggregating gether, the value of the stock aggregating nearly $100,000.

They have some very promising youngsters in training, and unless all signs fail, there is among them either the coming king or queen of the turf. Cope Stinson, the well-known trainer, has been engaged at a salary of $5,000 a year to give the youngsters their trotting education, and this fact alone will be enough to convince horsemen that Prospect Hill Stock Farm will be heard of this season.

The sporting editor of this paper is stakeholder, and the parties meet this evening to sign articles. Guerrero is an "inside" run-ner and McClelland has run mostly on outdoor tracks. But the former is so much superior to tracks. But the former is so much superior to McClelland on the tan-bark that an outdoor race may equalize matters. Guerrer is here to start in next week's 172-hour race.

JOHN B. DAY, after seeing Fricken pitch yesterday, said he thought he was a coming pitcher, but he had too many men on hand to SUNDAY is still as modest as ever, but he thinks there is respect due to the people of the old League who have spent so much money in baseball and got nothing back. JACK BOLAN, of Cincinnati, and Billy Corcoran, of Pittsburg, have signed articles of agreement for a 20-round glove contest at the Dayton Athletic Club on April 7.

BILLY BRENNAN and Tommy White, of Chicago, have signed articles for a finish fight, at 128 pounds, for $300 a side, to take place within eight weeks, within 100 miles of Chicago. JIM MUTRIE made a wager of $100 yesterday that the New York League team would hold a higher position than the New York Players' club in their respective associations at the close of the game.

JIM MUTRIE ordered new uniforms for the team yestorday. They will be the same as last season, namely, white, with black stockings, belts and caps. The words "New York" will be in black letters across the breast. JCAR COLEMAN, who left for the Hot Springs three weeks ago, returned home Monday in the pink of condition, but not overanxious to sign with any club. Coleman has reduced himself fuly 25 pounds, and says neither his arm nor his shoulder pains him the least. While at the Springs he took 14 baths and practiced daily with the Cleveland club. He is now more confident than ever that he can pitch as effectively as ever, and the movements he underwent in gymnasium practice

UNCONSTITUTIONAL ALL AROUND.

A Judge's Intimution Which a Philadelphin Lawyer Could Not See. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

HARRISBURG, April 1.-The constitutional right of the State to except brewing companies from the provision in the revenue act of 1889, from the provision in the revenue act of 1889, exempting manufacturering corporations from taxation on their capital stock, was argued before the court to-day. The decision in the case on trial to-day, in which the Germania Brewing Company, of Philadelphia, was the defendant, will cover all cases in which appeals have been taken from settlements against brewing and distilling companies, of which 12, representing a capital of nearly $5,000,000, appealed recently.

Judge Simonton strongly intimated to John J. Johnston, of counsel for the Germania Srewing Company, that a fight against the Brewing Company, that a fight against the entire section exempting manufacturing corporations, except brewing and distillery companies, would make his position stronger, but the Fhiladelphia lawyer could not see the force of the view of the Judge, as the wiping out of the section on constitutional grounds would make all manufacturing corporations, including brewing and distilling companies, taxable.

IF SO, Your Blood Must be purified, and Burdock Blood

In January, 1884, my leg broke out in one solid mass of sores, which baffled the skill of several physicians. It subsequently proved to be the result of poison. After doctoring it vainly for three months I purchased a bottle of your Burdock Blood Bitters, and commenced taking it according to directions. In less than four days after the sores began to disappear, and in two weeks there was not a sore to be seen. I therefore recommend Burdock Blood Bitters as one of the best medicines for the blood ever made.

G. F. McCoy, Newark, N. J. CLEANSE THE BLCOD! GET PURE BLOOD! - -

I had sores all HE BEAT MEDICINE About one year over my face and HE BEAT MEDICINE ago my back was eyes so that I could hardly see, with erysipela and pain in my head. Burdock Blood Bitters has cured me, and I find it better than any other medicine I ever used.

Mrs. W. H. Cris PELL, Sharon, Sharon, Sharon, PELL, Griffins Corners, Delaware Co... N. Y. Mercer Co., Pa, I am now using the second bottle of Burdock Blood Bit ters, and can safely say I have received more benefit from their use than any other medicine I have ever taken. When I commenced using E. B. B. I was suffering greatly from weakness, want of appetite and general debility. I am now enjoying good health, all the old weariness is gone, and I now feel better than I had for years.
