for their note it Nos. 3 min as South Pranches street. They passed a very fair examination. Frederick Vorel, No. 46 Ohio street, who was idensed in 1888, was met by a written protest, alleging that his place was disorderly and fre-quented by drunken men. He said that the only drunken men who created disorder about saloon were men who were refused drinks, dertaker R. D. Rodneyspoke in Mr. Vogel's favor.

The Second ward began with Thomas Byrne,
No. 84 frwin avenue, who was refused one year ago. He keeps a large boarding house. Attorney Christy was sworn. He said that the houses of Byrne, Crawford, Lighteap, Volbrecht and Williams were within a stone's throw of one another, and that not one of them was needed.

was needed.

John Benkert applies for No. 124 Taggart WHEN TO OPEN.

P. S. Crawford is after No. 1 Fremont street, where Chris Ortman now has a licensed saloon. At present Crawford has the boensed house at the corner of Pennsylvania and Irwin avenues, for which W. C. Williams is applying.

Judge Ewing asked: "When have you opened in the morning?"
"From 5 to 5:30 in the morning."

"Is that according to law?"
"I think it is." "Judge Magee has discovered," said Judge Ewing, "that the general law says sunrise." Attorney Christy, who had two men waiting as witnesses against Mr. Crawford, waded in "Have you been careful about selling it to

"Yes, sir. I never took a minor's word. Some-body must vouch for them."
"Bo you know a boy named Dilworth?"
"Yes, sir."
"When when a for him?"

"Who vonched for him?"
"His Uncle Sam. There they sit, right over there. The boy, himself, said he was of age, and he looks like it, too."
"Do you know a boy named Atterbury?"
"I don't know that I do."

Mr. Crawford again pointed to the two waiting winesses, and said: "That uncle there I had to put out of my house. That's whats the Frank Dilworth was sworn. He said that he Frank Dilworth was sworn. He said that he would be 21 years old on September 18 next; that he got several drinks in Crawford's place, from both the proprietor and his bartender. He had seen drinks dealt out to young Atterbury, who did not hook to be 21 years old.

In reply to Attorney McKenna, Dilworth said he had shaved his mustache recently. He had been put out of Crawford's saloon once because he went in there drunk.

WARNED TO BE CAREFUL. Judge Ewing said that, at a casual glance, he would consider the young man to be of age, but he warned Crawford to be more careful. Mrs. Margaret Dorn, No. 73 Jackson street, was deserted by her husband, and has to hoe

Salmon, a prominent druggist there advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One bottle of it cured him. His case was a very severe one. He suffered a great deal, and now wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured him.

There was no flaw in his record. Judge Ewing said: "The location is the only objection to this place. It is too near the motor house of the Pleasant Valley Company."

Louis Lauther applies for Nos. 185 and 150 West End avenue, out near the cemetery. Lie was hochsed four years until 1888. His record was not good in 1887, Judge Ewing said,

A recess of one hour was taken.

NOT MUCH HEADWAY MADE IN THE AFTERNOONS. One Remonstrance Signed by Chronic Problbitionists-A Car Conductor Refused a Drink by One Applicant-One Man Who

Refused to Answer Questions. Gitson C. Lightcap, corner of Taylor and Irwin avenues, rather surprised the court by gaying that he was born in Westmoreland county. "What!" exclaimed Attorney C. W. Robb, "is it possible you were born in this country?" Mr. Lighteap has been keeping a public house for many years. He was referred a license by Judge White. Judge fused a license by Judge White. Judge Ewing expressed a fear that Mr. Lightcap was too much inclined to love genial companionship and the convivial bowl. Charles W. Attorney Marron said, by against him, signed, Attorney Marron said, by chronic prohibitionists.

William O'Donnell has a licensed house at No. 75 Perrysville avenue, near the electric power house. Judge Ewing inquired if Mr. O'Dennell hadn't had trouble with a conductor on the electric road. He said that he had not; that a conductor in uniform had come to his saloon drunk, and that he had refused to sell him a drop and sent him out of the back door. Robert I. Rhodes applies for a license for the old frame hotel on the northwest corner of Ohio street and West Diamond. He has had control of the building for two years. Herman J. Smith runs a tavern at No. 189 Federal street, where he wants a license. Max Schneider has a license at the Hotel Federal, No. 171 Federal street, and desires a renewal. He was detained only a moment. Fred Volbrecht applies for No. 89 Irwin avenue, where he kept a saloon for ten years. Said Judge Ewing:

W. C. Williams applies for the corner of Irwin and Penusylvania arenues, where P. S. Crawford now keeps. It is the old Perry House, Crawford now keeps. It is the old Perry House, E. S. Gilles, 94 and 96 Federal street, Allegheny. Irwin and Pennsylvania avenues, where P. S. Crawford now keeps. It is the old Perry House, and was built and is owned by a man named Grant. Mr. Williams is another applicant who was born in Westmoreland county.

The first applicant in the Third ward was David Audier, who applies for No. 146 East street. There was nothing special in his case, nor those of Henry Brunner, No. 206 Federal street, and Mrs. Karolina Bayer, No. 229 Ohio street.

William Beilstein, Nos. 261 and 265 Ohio Street, was compelled to close his salsoon a year ago, and has since been selling oyster stews and Amos Blum, who used to keep a $300 saloon on Pike street, asks a license for No. 165 Ohio street, where he took possession yesterday. J. C. Breitlauch, No. 183 Ohio street, was 14 years in the saloon business until 1889. His record was good.

Henry Cappes, No. 191 Ohio street, said that he fed more people than anybody on Ohio street. On Washington's Birthday he fed 300 people. He underwent a good examination.

DON'T KNOW OF IT. John Dietz, now living on First street, ap plies for No. 89 Second street, where, Judge Ewing intimated, a speak-easy had been conducted during the past year. Mr. Dietz averred that he had no knowledge of the manner in which the house had been run. Robert Campbell, No. 57 Ohio street, is an old gentleman with white beard, who runs a restaurant,

Mrs. Amelia Diel is a widow. She wants a license at No. 90 East street, corner of North avenue. She speaks English so poorly that the services of Interpreter Luty were needed. She services of Interpreser Laty were needed. She has been keeping boarders.

Gottlieb Dahlinger, No. 121 Madison avenue, is the possessor of a license, and has kept a saloon for 34 years. He is a stooped, wrinkled, bald-headed German. He was closely questioned by Judge Ewing, but passed the ordeal unscathed.

H. J. Deginther, No. 57 Third street; Charles Eberle, No. 102 Perry street; Joseph Fisher, corner of Onio street and Cedar avenue, and Sigismond Feuderich, No. 225 Ohio street, were passed rapidly.

the Allegheny saloon keepers who has not been interrupted by the Brooks law. He is an ap-plicant also for a wholesale license, and says that he is willing to pay for both licenses if the Court will grant them.

Fred W. Goimer, who applies for No. 45 East Diamond, has been bartender during two years. He claims to be incapacitated for work by wounds received at the battle of Manasses.

RAN HIS CLOCK PAST. Christian Gerst, No. 63 Cedar avenue, was knocked out a year ago, but again bobs up serenely. He desires to refresh the idlers and health seekers who saunter in the East Park.

When he kept har, he said that he always kept his clock ahead, so that he would think it was 12 o'clock before it really was 12. John Gottschalk is applying for No. 215 Ohio street. That is his old homestead, he says, and he hates to leave it. Recently John has been tending bar for Louis Ruppel, on Smithfield street.

No. 150 Madison avenue, is a very little man who was evidently so badly rightened by the august presence, that he was unable to raise his voice above a whisper. The Court allowed him to stand up in front of the par and talk confidentially with the attorney, until the prescribed time had elapsed, and theu said, "Call the next."

Frederick Kamm, No. 185 Ohio street, received all the queries and insinuations of the Court with a perfect calm. To every question put to him he said, mildly and deliberately, "Sir?" If the question was repeated he would reply, and thus, in a very comfortable manner, got through his time. He leaned upon a chair back and swayed to and fro, until the Court said, "Call the next."

WHY HE TRIED BOTH.

WHY HE TRIED BOTH. Andrew Langlitz, No. 153 Ohio street, is a gray-bearded German, who suffers with a neryous affection which makes him shake his head with a continual negative motion, when often he means to give an affirmative nod. The house in which he does business is owned by his wife. He has applied for a wholesale license. He said he saw a good many going in for both, and he thought he would try it. he thought he would try it.

Lorenz Lattner, Nos. 196 and 198 Madison avenue, is a fat, puffy, bald German, with a benevolent old-fashioned face, who used to keep a saloon, and has for two years been conducting a restaurant. He rather surprised the Court when he said that he did not drink beer; it did not agree with him. "I wish we could find more of that kind," said Judge Ewing.

The last German called during the day was Peter Loebig, who applies for No. 92 East street. He has been living for two years on the exceedingly meager profits of a restaurant. Judge Ewing said: "I would have been glad to have licensed you in 1888, but you had been selling on a $100 license and selling on Sanday."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Cured by Cuticura

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and been through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body, from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving a complete raw sore. After trying everything, I heard of your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, I find myself cured at the cost of about $6. I would not be without the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house. ISAAU H. GERMAN, Wurtsboro, N. 1.

Burning and Itching

I was sick in the fall of 1888 with a burning and itching so bad that in three weeks I was covered with a rash, and could not sleep nights or work days. Some doctors thought it might be salt-rheam (eczema), and said they had never seen anything like it before. I received no help from any of them or from any medicine that I could get hold of until I tried your CUTICURA REMEDIES. After three weeks' use I was able to work, and kept getting better, until I am now entirely cured.

C. E. OSMER, Taftsville, Vt.

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES successfully for my baby, who was afflicted with eezema, and had such intense itching that he got no rest day or night. The itching is gone, and my baby is cured, and is now a healthy, rosy-cheeked boy.

Are having an enormous sale. They are the universally popular Carpets for their maximum of rich and elegant effect at a minimum of cost. Our collection of patterns is the best to be found, the most of them confined exclusively to us for this region. BODY BRUSSELS.

The old substantial, always to be relied upon Body Brussels, giving the greatest amount of wear for the price. The new patterns show a radical departure in design and coloring from all former showings. The lowest market prices for them always as also for

NEW ADVIRTISEMENTS.

APRIL 2, 1890.

Yesterday Boys' Clothing was our subject; to-day we shall take up

MEN'S CLOTHING.

These are the three questions that confront every prospective purchaser. If you'll but reason with us for a minute, the questions will be

First-WHEN? Yes, when is the proper time to invest in a new Spring Suit? NOW, most certainly. NOW, "when well-apparel'd April on the heel of limping Winter treads;" NOW, when Easter Sunday stands at the threshold; NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY YOUR NEW SUIT

OR SPRING OVERCOAT. Second-WHERE? Ah, there's a hard nut to crack! Where, where, where will I buy my new suit? Well if you are sensible, you'll patronize a reliable house-an enterprising house-a low price house. In other words, go to KAUFMANNS', where EVERYTHING IS GUAR-ANTEED TO BE AS REPRESENTED, OR THE MONEY RE-

Third-WHAT? That's easy. Coming to Kaufmanns', and seeing all the new, novel and desirable styles of the season, the most fastidious person can easily and quickly make an advantageous choice. Not so in the other houses, who carry limited assortments. It makes no difference whether you are a millionaire or a day laborer you will find it to your advantage to trade with us.

OUR MAMMOTH SPRING STOCK

Embraces all the latest and most fashionable styles, fabrics and patterns of foreign and domestic makes. It was bought-and has been markedat prices lower than any other house in Pittsburg can command. In addition to all the regular sizes, we have provided a full line of "Stouts" and "Slims," and thus can guarantee a perfect fit to forms short and forms tall, forms fat and forms lean. If you seek the most reliable fabrics, the best workmanship, the newest styles, the latest patterns, and the lowest prices, in the selection of your Spring Suit or Spring Overcoat, don't fail to visit our Men's Clothing Department this week.

OUR GREAT SALE OF FURNISHING GOODS

and offer them at the lowest From the Failure of R. K. Davies & Co., New York,

Still continues with unabated vigor. We at all times sell goods at lower prices than others, but we've never been able to offer fine and seasonable Underwear. White Dress Shirts, Neckwear, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, etc., at such unequaled low prices as right now. The fact is, we bought these goods at 33c on the dollar, and, in order to move them as quickly as possible, we now offer them at 40c on the dollar. Fine White Dress Shirts, laundried, worth $1 10, for 59c. Excellent Balbriggan Underwear, worth 75c, for 25c. Fine Cotton Half Hose, fancy striped, worth 20c, for 7c. Beautiful Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, worth 25c, for 9c. The celebrated Monarch Linen Collars, worth 20c, for 9c each.

The above few bargains are but a mild indication of the perfect galaxy of good things awaiting you.
