An Ancient Bank Note Revives Recollection of a Famous Burglary.

THE STATUS OF LOCAL BUSINESS

Mr. Thomas D. Messler purchased yesterday, through the firm of Black & Baird, Nos. 214 and 216 Penn avenue, lot 37, fronting on Exchange alley, with several old buildings thereon, for $21,000, or $1,400 a foot front. This is considered a reasonable price for that neighborhood. Mr. Messler will improve the property.

Messrs. Straub & Morris are about closing up their deal for a large tract of land on the Sixteenth ward, involving about $20,000. The probable purchaser is a well-known business man, who, if he succeeds in "making the riff," will subdivide the property and put on the market.

A piece of down-town business property is about to change hands for $50,000. It is expected that a large tract of land on the Sixteenth ward, involving about $20,000. The probable purchaser is a well-known business man, who, if he succeeds in "making the riff," will subdivide the property and put on the market.

Something of a curiosity in the way of a bank note is on exhibition in a window on Wood street. It was issued by the Farmers and Merchants Bank, of Pittsburgh, and bears date 1812. As a work of art it is not a success, the engraving and printing being rough and the paper of poor quality.

The bank was located on Fourth avenue, just below the present Bank of Pittsburgh. Soon after it was opened for business it was broken into and robbed of about $40,000, which was quite a large sum in those days.

Two of the burglars were captured—one named Bernat, at Cleveland, by Sheriff Willard. The other was captured at the residence of Messrs. Somers & Co., who are conducting the negotiations, were asked for security, but said they were pledged to secrecy.
