Mrs. Williams Files a Protest Against Her Son's License.

EIGHTY-THREE MORE CASES HEARD

Eighty-three applications were vesterday disposed of in License Court, finishing the Twenty-fifth ward. To-day the applicants for retail licenses in Allegheny who have not yet been heard, from the Seventh to the Thirteenth wards, will be heard. To-morrow the Court will proceed with wholesale applicants, and on Monday will take up the retail men from the boroughs.

The work of the License Court yesterday was slow, as very many applicants were new and were questioned very closely. Clerk of Courts McGunnegle announced that the licenses of those retail applicants whose bonds have been approved, up to and includthe Tenth ward of Pittsburg, are ready for such licensees as are loaded with their $500. Court opened its session, with both judges on the bench, at 9:35 o'clock. The Fifteenth ward furnished nine applicants: Gotlieb Brose, No. 3405 Butler street; Fuhrer & Sons, No. 3701 Butler street; Jacob Mueller, Sons, No. 3701 Butler street; Jacob Mueller, No. 3813 Penn avenue; Wm. B. McGrady, No. 3227 Penn avenue; Wm. B. McGrady, No. 3227 Penn avenue; Mrs. Marie Stuetzer, No. 3221 Penn avenue; James Ward, No. 3221 Penn avenue; James Ward, No. 3221 Penn avenue; James Ward, No. 3221 Penn avenue; Z. Wainwright & Co., two applications, for brewing and bottling, Thirty-sixth and Charlotte streets.

Brose applies for the place now occupied by Charles F. Hilger, for whom he has been working. By trade he is a barkeeper. Fuhrer & Sons did a business of $45,000 last year. Mueller is a roll hand in Carnegie's Union Mills, and was naturalized only last year. His capital is $2,000. McGrady was not on hand. McCusker sold on Sunday in 1887. Mrs. Stuetzer is a German widow with ever $2,000 in cash. Her son Gus has a retail license at No. 4209 Penn avenue. J. S. Wainwright appeared for the brewing firm. Judge Ewing said that he had become very clear that a brewer could not be a bottler. James Ward has been granted a retail license.

A DOZEN FROM THE SIXTEENTH.

The 18 avenleants from the Sixteenth ward.

Station street, and there he sold liquor on Sunday, Moreland has done a wholesale business of $25,000 since last July, his chief trade being $25,000 since last July, his chief trade being day. Moreland has done a wholesale business of $25,000 since last July, his chief trade being they her examined samiles. Neff, an ex-saloon keeper, admitted Sunday selling. He is on the speak-easy list, but entered an emphatic denial. Wolf withdrew.

Only three applications were made from the sepak-easy list, but entered an emphatic denial. Wolf withdrew.

Only three applications were made from the venue: Joseph R. Miller, 5902 Penn avenue; Joseph R. Miller, 5902 Penn avenue; Joseph R. Miller, 5902 Penn avenue; Joseph R. Miller, 1986, Fetalled whisky on a $100 hecense and sold on Sunday. Miller is an ex-saloon keeper's son, whose cash capital is only $2500. McClain handles mineral and soda waters and he wishes to bottle beer.

James C. Clark and Edwa

The 12 applicants from the Sixteenth ward are as follows: James W. Duncan, No. 3352 Penn avenue; Andrew Degelman, No. 361 Cedar avenue; Richard Fewer, No. 4502 Penn avenue; Thomas Hogan, No. 4116 Penn avenue; Joseph Lätschke, No. 4601 Friendship avenue; Christian Stubinger, No. 347 Cedar avenue; Herman Straub & Co., Liberty avenue and Main street, two applications; the Iron City Brewing Com; pany, Liberty avenue and Thirty-fourth street, two applications; James Williams, No. 3910 Penn avenue; Frank B. Yeager, No. 4602 Liberty

Duncan kept a saloon in Philadelphia in 1876, has $700 in money and credit and is now a conductor on the Pittsburg Junction Railroad. Degelman has $550 and has arranged to borrow more on mortgage. Fewer applies for a bottler's license. He recently kept a restaurant at Chartiers, where he sold beer and whisky without a license. Judge Ewing said he knew Mr. Fewer to be a man whose roughest side was out. Hogan, already licensed, did a side was out. Hogan, already licensed, did a business of $15,000. Latschke said that he "ran 14 years a saloon." He said that he never sold business of rio, wo. Liscoise said that he never sold on Bunday. "Why, how did you get along out there?" asked Judge Ewing, with feftned astonishment. Joseph neglected to reply. During the past year, however, he has dealt out beer to his neighbors, at his cooper shop. Stubinger kept saloon in Manchester seven years, in 1888 was licensed to rechester seven years, in 1888 was licensed to re-tail at No. 4401 Butler street, but in 1889 was refused. To him Judge Magee said: "There will be about two wholesale dealers to each re-tail house. How will you make a living?" The applicant replied: "Each man must look out for himself. If he can't make a living he must quit." "No." said Judge Ewing. "you will run a degrery for the neighborhood." James W. Campbell was called by Mr. Christy. He testified that in 1888 Stubinger kept a very disorderly place, that two or three serious rows disorderly place, that two or three serious rows took place there, and that one young man was stabbed there. BREWERS CANNOT BE BOTTLERS.

Herman Straub appeared for Straub & Co., and Aloisous Frauenbeim for the Iron City Brewing Company. The latter company, succeeding Frauenbeim & Vilsack, was incorporated December 5, 1889, its stockholders being Edward J. Frauenbeim, Edward J. Vilsack, Joseph Vilsack, Alolsius Frauenheim and A. A. Frauenheim. Judge Ewing expressed doubt whether a corporation could be licensed to bottle, Mr. rauenheim was given a severe lecture by indge Ewing, who said that the company was Judge Ewing, who said that the company was seriously violating the law through its agents, and was liable to civil and criminal prosecution. "You must do better," said the Judge, "and if there is not an improvement I will see that evidence is gathered together next year." Mr. Frauenbeim said that the company had been carrying on its business under legal advice, but it was possible that he did not know the methods of all his agents.

James Williams is a young man who works in a rolling mill. Shortly before he was called a pale, elderly woman with grav hair, clad in widow's roles, slipped quietly into the courtroom and handed a paper to Balliff Pender. That gortleman passed it Mr. Christy, while the woman retired to a rear seat and sat waiting nervously for James Williams to be called. She was the young man's mother and her paper was a protest against the granting of a license was a protest against the granting of a license to her son. She had set forth that she feared that the liquor trade would ruin her son. The paper was passed to Judge Ewing, who read it and filed it. When Williams had passed his brief examination and left the room, his mother arose and burried out after him.

THE WICKED BARKEEPER. . There were nine applicants for the Seventeenth ward. Maurice Ackerman, No. 4753 Butler street; Henry Fuchs, No. 4635 Butler street; Charles Hook, No. 4302 Butler street; Michael C. Kane, No. 48 Hatfield street: John Lanahan, No. 4315 Butler street; August F. Mueller, No. 4115 Penn avenue; M. J. Sterger wald, No. 69 Forty-third street; Kilian Soell, wald, No. 69 Forty-third street; Kilian Soell, No. 123 Forty-third street; Charles Stranbe, Clay street and the Allegheny Valley Railroad. Mr. Fuchs sand that he had twice been refused a retail license and he became tired. This year he had withdrawn his retail application. In 1887 he was convicted and fined for selling on Sunday, but he laid the blame of the affair on "the wicked barkeeper."

Kane is an old-time grocer of Lawrenceville, who sold liquors as well as groceries until 1888. He acknowledged that he had been a little reckless for a time in the manner of selling. The firm of P. & M. Kane is the best known grocery firm in Lawrenceville. They pay taxes on £990,000 worth of real estate. Michael Kane said that he expected to attend to the wholesale liquor trade and leave the grocery business to some of the younger generation.

John Lanahan has been granted a retail license. Mueller is an old saloon keeper, who went out of business, at the request of Judge White, May I, 1889, when he had $4,000 worth of wines and liquors left. In 1880 he sold at retail on a wholesale license. That was the record of 1888, but at his hearing yesterday he tried to go back on that story, without flattering result. Steigerwald is a son of Mrs. Annie Steigerwald, who has been refused a retail license.

SCENTED A SPEAK-EASY.

The young man has been driving an express wagon, and acknowledged that he occasionally delivered beer at his mother's house, No. 75 Forty-third street. James W. Campbell testified that he saw beer delivered at Mrs. Steiger waid's house, and, from the smoil, be thought the house was a speak-easy. He saw many peo-ple go in and out of the place, and had been told by the police that it was a drinking house. by the police that it was a drinking house. Straube is a young man, living in McKeesport, who travels for the wholesale liquor house of J. J. Speck. He has been a barkeepar, and in 1886 and 1887 kept the Union House in Harrison township. He was naturalized in December, 1887.

There were five applicants from the Eighteenth ward: Stephen Fetter, No. 5327 Butler street; John B. Golden, No. 5402 Butler street; Peter Miller, Butler street extension; James Newell, Jr., No. 5302 Butler street; Daniel Sweeney, No. 5416 Butler street; Daniel Sweeney, No. 5416 Butler street, which would be in the Fifteenth ward, and it was so advertised. This, Judge Ewing said, was defective. "If a wholesale house were needed there," said Judge Ewing, "we might stretch the rules of the law a little to allow you to amend your petition. But if you were to open a bottle and jug trade out there, you would be a curse to the neighborhood. You must, I think, wait a year." Golden has been driving a beer wagen for Pier & Dannals, and his house, where Mrs. Golden looks after a cigar store, is set down as a speak-easy. Prior to 1888 Golden sold whigky on a $100 license. He was once prosecuted for it, but settled the case by paying the costs. Old Peter Miller was told that his petition was defective, the location not being described with sufficient accuracy.

LEASED FOR A BARBER SHOP. Before the noon recess Attorney Christy filed a statement by the owner of the property at No. 1139 Liberty avenue, saying that he had No. 1139 Liberty avenue, saying that he had leased that property on the express condition that it should be used only as a barber shop, that he had not leased to August Paske, who applies for wholesale license, and that the man to whom he did lease had no right to sublet. Paske was heard Tuesday.

After dinner the Eighteenth ward was finished. James Newell is now a cable car conductor, but was until recently a beer wagon driver for Spencer & Liddell. His capital is $1,000. Sweeney is a heater at the Linden Steel Works.

Works.

There are 12 applications from the Nineteenth ward: Frank Ackerman, No. 112 Frankstown avenue; Joseph W. Einstein, No. 163 Frankstown avenue; Charles Egbert, No. 151 Larimer avenue; Theodore Heinemann, No. 6025 Rodman street; Adolph Loheyde, No. 73 Frankstown avenue; F. E. & W. G. Markell, No. 6219 Penn avenue; J. A. Miller, No. 6394 Station street; Louis Meyers, No. 56 Frankstown avenue; James Moreland, No. 6205 Penn avenue; Frank J. Russ, No. 6326 Station street; Charles Neeff & William H. Young, No. 6021 Penn avenue, and Jöseph M. Wolf, No. 6006 Kirkwood street.

Ackerman drives a wagon for Spencer & Lid-Ackerman drives a wagon for Spencer & Liddell. "There seems to be a wonderful number of drivers of beer wagons," said Judge Ewing, who are going to graduate into wholesale dealers for themselves." Einstein was refused a retail license. Egbert did not appear, and Heinemann was heard out of order on Tuesday. Lohedye is now engaged with William J. Friday, being occupied in buying, selling and "compounding" goods. Judge Ewing expressed some surprise at learning that Mr. Friday was in the business of compounding liquors.

RUNNING THE GAUNTLET. Markell Brothers are druggists. Miller is a bottler, but desires to enter the regular whole-sale business. Meyers has for eight years been employed in various wholesale liquor stores, but he used to attend bar for Joe McKee, on Station street, and there he sold liquor on Sun-day. Moreland has done a wholesale business of

They have never engaged in the liquor business. There is a remonstrance against them based There is a remonstrance against them based chiefly on the fact that they are very near the Wilkinsburg line. Attorney Balph represented the remonstrants and questioned the applicants very closely. Hest confessed that there were judgments against him which could not be collected. All his property is in his wife's name.

AN ATTORNEY'S OBJECTIONS. Cohen has tried the drygoous business, but it did not pay him. He has been naturalized only a little over two years. Goeddel, a finelooking, white-bearded gentleman, is another applicant, right by the Wilkinsburg line, and previous saloon record. Attorney L. K. Porter excepted to asking of any questions other than those touching the statutory qualifications.

In the Twenty-second ward there are no wholesale applicagus, but there are seven in the Twenty-third ward—F. E. Arthur, No. 1382 Second avenue; John Donlon, Acorn street and Four-Mile Run road; John O'Donnell, No. 1356 Second avenue; Peter Quinn, No. 1390 Second avenue; James P. Sullivan, No. 1352 Second avenue; James P. Sullivan, No. 1352 Second avenue; James P. Sullivan, No. 1352 Second avenue, and C. H. Ward, Second avenue, at Glenwood; no number given.

Arthur withdrew. Donlon is a teetotaler, who said that he would not apply if his rheumatism would allow him to work. Edward O'Donnell, who has $15,000 worth of real estate, expects to use in his wholesale business $3,000 which he holds for a brother, who is now in Europe. For three successive years he has Europe. For three successive years he has

which he holds for a brother, who is now in Europe. For three successive years he has been refused a retail license. Quinn is on the speak-easy list, but he declares that to be a grievous error. Sullivan is a young man who is to be set up in business by his father. Ward admitted to violations of the law in 1887. The Glenwood Sportsmen's Club, to which he belongs, meets in his building. It consumes about a keg of beer a day.

On the Southside there were ten license applications from the Twenty-fourth ward: Joseph Brosky, No. 2743 Carson street; Hugh J. Crowly, No. 2731 Carson; Mrs. Mary Donley, No. 2738 Carson; Michael End, No. 2802 Carson; David P. Evans, Arlington avenue and Twentyseventh street; the Keystone Brewing Company, two, Carson and Thirty-third streets; Joseph Miller, No. 2858 Sarah street; Patrick bill forbidding any privileged or class dealseventh street; the Keystone Brewing Company, two, Carson and Thirty-third streets; Joseph Miller, No. 2838 Sarah street; Patrick McGovern, No. 2917 Carson, and H. C. Snyder, No. 2912 Carson street.

Brosky's place is on the speak-easy list. The Aurora Social Club, a drinking society, has been meeting at his house. He was naturalized September 24, 1887, after keeping saloon several years. Mrs. Donley is the wife of Councilman Mark Donley. She has $30,000 worth of real estate, mostly from her first husband, Joseph Miller. Evans withdrew. Joseph Bruening appeared for the Keystone Brewing Company, of which he is chairman. McGovern failed to respond to his name. Snyder married a daughter of Fred Wuerth, the saloon keeper, and expects to start on his wife's money.

Only seven applicants appeared on the Twenty-sixth street; Ernest Hauch's Sons, Nos. 85 to 58 Twenty-sixth street; John R. Morgan, No. 2517 Carson street; Caroline Wilhelm, Josephine and Twenty-sixth streets, Ernest Hauch's Sons, Nos. 85 to 58 Twenty-sixth street; John R. Morgan, No. 2517 Carson street; Caroline Wilhelm, Josephine and Twenty-sixth streets, Ernest Hauch's Sons, Nos. 85 to 58 Twenty-sixth street; Lenset Hauch's Sons, Nos. 85 to 58 Twenty-sixth street; John R. and Twenty-sixth streets, and John Weber, No. 2632 Sarah street.

Dosch's trade the past year was $30,000. Funk is a barber, and Hirsch looks after a grocery store. George and Otto Hauch appeared with their father. The old gentleman has transferred his brewing business to his sons. Morgan is a young roller, with very little capital. Mrs. Wilhelm appeared with her son-in-law, Peter Lascheid, who manages her brewery. Weber kept a wholesale liquor store and grocery for 16 years, and during the last two years a grocery alone.

Physicians Wise in Their Generation. The above class of scientists recognize, and have repeatedly borne testimony to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy and preventive of fever and ague, rheumatism, want of vigor, liver complaint, and some other aliments and unfirm condition of the system. of Real Lard. A STRONG PLEA FOR COTTONSEED OIL has been reopened by the House Committee on Agriculture. Yesterday representatives of the Southern negroes made earnest arguments against the measure, threatening disaster to the Republican party if it was passed. They claimed that the proposed bill taxed one section for the benefit of WASHINGTON, April 9 .- By request the House Committee on Agriculture to-day reopened the hearing on the Conger lard comound hill and the Butterworth anti-option bill, both of which have been reported to the House with favorable recommendations. Of the first-named bill Messrs. A. Graves, representing the Georgia Agricultural Association, and J. Pennoyer Jones, representing the colored cotton farmers and planters, of Arkansas, both colored men, made arguments against its passage.

Intterworth's Anti-Option Bill Also the Object Renewed Opposition. The question of taxing compound lard

Mr. Graves, in addition to arguments aleady presented, pleaded for the protection of the cottonseed industry against the imposition of the burdens contained in the bill, on the ground that it had contributed more than anything else to improve the condition of the colored farmer and laborer of the South.

A POLITICAL ARGUMENT.

A POLITICAL ARGUMENT.

To pass this bill, he asserted, would be the entering of the wedge, which, when driven home, would separate the colored people from the Republican party. In the course of his argument on the bill, Mr. Jones said:

If cottonseed oil must be taxed, why not tax the Western hog? Why break down one industry of the country that another industry is should be protected. The Republican party is committed to the policy of protection of American industries. It is so enunciated in its platforms, and to its music it has marched to victory. But, Mr. Chairman, if the Republican party at Chicago had placed in the platform of its principles the singular creed that one industry of our country should be taxed to death that another industry at home should be protected and live, on an appeal to the country they would have been buried so deep by the weight of public disfavor that the trump of Gabriel would not awake them.

If the late cauvass settled one thing or principle, it was protection. But that protection was upon the broad lines dictated by common sense, to wit: Protection to American industries, American mechanics and American labor, against foreign manufactures, foreign mechanics and foreign pauper labor. The system inaugurated by the Republican party in taxing one American industry to protect another is an innovation that will be resented by the great mass of our people, and hurl any party from power that insanely attempts it.

HITS BOTH WAYS. there is a remonstrance against him.

On the bearing of Thomas Mulvihill Judge it is committed to free trade. It claims to be Ewing proceeded to ask about the applicant's in favor of lessening taxes and reducing the previous saloon record. Attorney L. K. Porter tariff. If there is anything in their professions,

They employ somewhere in the neighborhood of 75,000 persons. More than three-fourths of this great number of employes are colored men. It would be safe to say that there are at least three persons who rely upon each of these 75,000 persons for their support and living from this enterprise. The wages paid to these people aggregate $3,500,000 at the least calculation. The passage of this bill would close up many of these mills, and perchance threw thousands of dependent people out of employment, and entail hardship and want upon a people who are least able to stand it. And all this is to protect the Western hog.

ANOTHER OBNOXIOUS MEASURE. Representative Adams, of Illinois, introduced to the committee Messrs. Councilman and Murray Nelson, of the Chicago Board of Trade, who appeared to oppose the But-terworth anti-option bill. Mr. Councilman stated that he indorsed both in Mr. Councilman was given a copy of the amended bill to study, with a view to suggesting a provision, if possible, by which legitimate dealers in grain and farm

Ate Some of the Biscuits to Prove They Were Not Polsoned. CHICAGO, April 9.-Colonel John Van Arman, of this city, died Saturday at San Diego, Cal., of nervous prostration. He was 70 years old, a native of Plattsburg, N. Y., and for many years was the brightest ornament of the criminal bar of Cook county. A single act of his made him famous. He was defending a baker accused of poisoning several persons, and the State produced in evidence some of the biscuits and cakes supposed to contain the same kind of poison. The State's Attorney claimed that the cakes were of the same baking as the poisoned ones, but Van Arman insisted that they were not. During his closing address to the jury be picked up several of the bis-cuits and devoured them with apparent relish, to the astonishment of spectators. His client was acquitted. He prosecuted the famous railroad conspiracy case for the Michigan Central Railroad in 1851, Secretary of State Seward being the leading lawyer for the conspirators.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

They'll Win You.

"Wanamaker's have a store-

You can't go amiss in our stock for a Spring Overcoat you'll like. First, for style; next, for the custom-tailored look and fit it has: next, for the cost.

You may want to go a step farther. If you do we have the very finest silk-lined Oversacks.

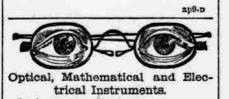

The only helmsman you'll need among our Spring Suits is which particular design you'll like most. You'll like more than one. Which most? Still, that pleasing uncertainty assures you of the one you like in any event. You'll take equal courage from our prices.

April 10, 1890.

NEWS! HAPPY NEWS!

FOR EVERY WOMAN WHO WEARS SHOES,

A Rochester, N. Y., Shoe Manufacturing Co., well known for the superiority of its goods, recently received an order from a large retail house for 2,000 Ladies' fine French Kid Shoes. When the order was completed, and the goods ready for shipment, the retail shoe dealer failed. This threw the entire order on the manufacturer's

Our wideawake shoe buyer (they call him the "Cerberus of the Shoe Trade,") knowing the circumstances of the case, and being aware of the manufacturer's anxiety to turn the goods into money without delay, telegraphed a spot cash offer for these 2,000 pairs of shoes, and, although the price offered was away below cost, his proposition was accepted.

The goods arrived yesterday, and will be found on sale this morning. They come in two styles:

"THE COMMON SENSE."

" THE OPERA LAST."

Each pair is guaranteed to be made of extra fine quality French Kid and Hand Turned; Spanish Arch, quarter over the vamp, leather lined, etc.; widths from AA to EE; sizes 21/2 to 7. And here's the most important information of this entire announcement: We will sell these fine French Kid Shoes

AT ONLY $2 50 PER PAIR

Although they've never before been sold below $4. Now, then, Ladies, if you need Shoes, and miss this opportunity, don't blame anyone but yourselves. The sale commences this morning, and will be continued until every pair of these shoes will be on the feet of some Lady. P. S .-- Only one pair will be sold to each patron. This is to prevent the dealers from gobbling up these unprecedented bargains.
