for the excellent health of ministers: Compar ing the death rate of ministers, in respect of the causes of death with the mortality of other men, the following results are obtained: Of 96.331 clergymen, 180 died of infectious diseases. The usual experience of an insurance company would have made the number 239; that is, the would have made the number 238; that is, the mortality of the clergymen was only 79 per cent of the ordinary death rate. The death rate of physicians from these diseases was 127 above the usual rate. Of lung affections, excluding consumption, 311 clergymen died, instead of 328, the number expected from mortality tables. Physicians died of such diseases 115 per cent above the average rate. Between the ages of 26 and 45 the mortality of Roman Catholic clergymen, compared with Protestant ministers of the same age, was as 137 to 109, while between the ages of 46 and 65 the difference was as 15 to 109, and between the ages of 66 and 85 as 154 to 100, and between the ages of 66 and 85 as 118 to 100, been in progress during the week in reference to iron and steel products for immediate as well as remote deliveries, but this has not yet arrested the downward tendency in prices. Actual transactions have been of limited proportions. The total weekly output of pig iron during March has been reduced about 4,000 or 5,000 tons. This is taken as an encouraging element in the situation.

Eastern drygoods commission men report a slightly better reorder demand from Western jobbers. There is a considerable distribution of spring dress goods through price concessions. Prices in the regular way are firm except as to bleached cotton, which favors buyers, and print cloths are 1-16@1/c TRADE IMPROVING. R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review says: With larger tonnage in motion than in any previous year at the same season, a larger volume of currency in circulation, larger payments through clearing houses nearly 10 per cent, larger imports and exports, and larger domestic production in agriculture, in iron and steel, leather and boot and shoe manufacture, the country has en-tered upon the second quarter of the year with great nopefulness. Trade throughout the country seems gradually improving. Yet there are unfavorable symptoms which do not disap-pear, but grow more distinct and threaten-ing. The iron industry has advanced too rapidly—the expected set-back has begun. Furnaces in blast April 1 were of 175,671 tons weekly output, against 180,091 March 1. The production for the quarter may be estimated at 6,250,000, and stocks on hand are accumulating. Prices are lower, Southern No. 1 being offered at $17 50 and $18.

while bids of $33 are sought for steel rails. BAR IBON BETTER. The business in bar iron is better, with no change in price; plates are moving at very not as active as makers wish. Coal is still stagnant, the output for the quarter having been 668,032 tons, or nearly 10 per cent less than last year's, with accumulating stocks unsold. Copper has been steady at tin inactive at 2014c and lead dull at $3 85

The speculative markets have been mor active, with a higher range of prices on the whole. Sales of wheat heretofore have reached 74,000,000 bushels, and reached 74,000,000 bushels, and the price has advanced 2%c, though exports have been only about equal to last year's for the week on account of more definite reports of injury. Corn is also half a cent stronger, with sales for the week of 11,000,000 bushels, and oats nearly 1 cent higher. Pork and lard are steady, but hogs 20 cents per 100 pounds dearer. fourth, and the high prices have checked actual consumption. Petroleum has de-clined 1% cents with small sales, but sugar has been firmly held. The average of all prices for commodities is but a shade higher than a week ago, some manufactured products having declined. CHEERFUL REPORTS.

Reports from other cities are more gener ally favorable than is usual. Boston finds improvement in wool and leather, and domestic trade active in boots and shoes, cotton goods and lumber, and in other building materials. Philadelphia notes few sales of wool, and prices are less firm and a good trade in chemicals, liquors and leaf tobacco. Chicago grain receipts are still large, drygoods sales show a slight increase with good payments, and there are liberal orders for boots and shoes. St. Louis again reports the Southern district somewhat damaged by ods, and collections are rather less satis factory. At Pittsburg there is a better feeling among iron manufacturers; at Cleve-land an improvement in drygoods and hardware; at Detroit a slow improvement and manufacturers busy, and at other Western cities a general improvement and a satisfactory volume of trade. At the South, outside of the direct effect of the floods, trade is good and less time is asked than usual, good the direct effect of the floods, trade is good and less time is asked than usual, good the process having swalled the cash surplus of dealers.

crops and high prices having swelled the MONEY GENERALLY EASY. The monetary situation is not threatened. Interior markets are generally easier at Kansas City and Milwaukee, with more demands. At Cleveland the demand is such as to cause some stringency. Complaints o slow collections are distinctly less frequent. It is not to be overlooked that the West and South have been drawing from last year enormously for products sold, while the purchasing of goods is not much more than in other years. Thus the east-bound tonnage for the past five weeks from Chicago has been 442,464 tons against 296,713 last year, but in quantities or values shipped Westward, no such increase is discoverable. The business failures occurring through out the country number 209, as compared with a total of 206 last week. For the responding week of last year the figures

Some Big Figures on Business

IN THE LICENSE COURT. Thousands of Dollars Dropped Into

Being Brought Out

Brewers' Pockets.

ANOTHER WHOLESALERS' DAY The court again switched off vesterday and indulged in a little more wholesale business. The Twenty-sixth ward was taken up, furnishing eight applications, as follows: Charles B. Dietz, No. 1919 Jane street; William Diven, No. 1738 Carson street; John O'Connor, No. 1814 Carson street; John Sell, No. 156 Eighteenth street; Henry Strauch, No. 2001 Carson street; John Schwarz, No. 129 Seventeenth street; M. Winter & Bros., brewers, No. 2022 Josephine street, and William F. Zoeller, No. 1807 Carson street. Dietz is by trade a molder, suffered : rupture and went to saloonkeeping. For some time the Humboldt Dramatic and Literary Association met at his house and drank beer. Dietz sold en Sunday in 1887. Diven is a beer bottler in the Sixth ward, and wants a general wholesale liceuse. He sold on Sunday in 1887. O'Connor has a wholesale house. He admitted sales of pints and half pints on doctors' orders. Judge Ewing told him that such sales were in clear violation of the law, and he expressed surprise that a man like Mr. O'Connor should do such a business. Sell wishes to combine liquor with his grocery trade, which has recently been bad. Against Strauch, who was never in in the liquor trade, Harvey Chess and other neighbors, filed a remonstrance. In 1888, when refused a retail license, Strauch posted in the window of his bakery the names of the people who had remonstrated against him. As he was naturalized in October, 1887, Judge Ewing said: "You exhibited characteristic modesty by thus posting the names of old citizens." Strauch could not see that his act was wrong. Judge Magee said it was vindictive and vicious. "It is a want of moral sense," said Judge Ewing. REMEBEMRED TOO LATE. "A year ago," said Judge Magee, "a man down on Sixth street posted Judge White's name in his window. And by the way, I don't know whether he got a license this year or not. I forgot all about it until this

The hero of the episode referred to, who attracted much attention a year ago, has been this year granted a license in the Twelfth ward. He is an old soldier. Schwarz is a grocer and on the speak-easy list. He gets beer, he says, for private use Winter & Bros. did a business last year of $240,000. could explain, but he simply smiled at the witness and called for "next." Embs and Hock have both been in the saloon business, and Hock is on the speak-easy list. "Mistake, Judge," he said; "mistake." Mrs. Klein keeps a candy store, two boarders, and three children. Her husband presided behind a bar before he was called away from this wicked world. Kunzelman, an exsaloon keeper, has eigars, soft drinks, three boarders and a place on the speak-easy list

He was prosecuted last year, but he said it was "spite work." DID A JUG TRADE. Henry Laur said his brewing trade was $40,000. He did a jug trade until three weeks ago. Lohrmann is the Alderman for the Thirtieth ward, going out of office in three weeks. Nusser has sold 6,000 barrels of beer during a year. He has three licensed saloons, 700 people who receive an eighth a week and several who get two eighths. Scherrer is a double-header, having been retused a retail license. Schademan expect to raise money on his wife's property. This is a method of raising the wind which Judge Ewing does not at all approve. Wyland wants a bottlers' license, He expects to work up a trade among the Poles. There were 16 applications from Twenty-eighth ward, as follows: Anthony J. No. 10 South Diamond; Peter J. Auen, No. 1206 Bingham street: John Callahan, No. 49 Fi teenth street; James Dona hue, No. 1413 Carson street; John M. Hammel and Edward J. Kirsch, Fifteenth and Bingham streets; John Herschenroether, No. 53 Twelfth street; Meyers Keller and Patrick Wilson, No. 67 Twelth street: Elias Kauf feld, No. 1505 Carson street; Fred Kiphen, No. 1204 Sarah street; Edward S Kennedy, No. 1321 Carson street; Charles H. Link, No. 115 Twelfth street: Terence Murphy, No. 1507 Carson street; Patrick P.

Weber, Amand and Arlington avenue; J M. Walkosky, No. 1318 Carson street: Max Weisberger and Max Schlanger, No. 1213 brewer, and on money which his father will loan him he wishes to open a wholesale liquor store next door to the brewery. Peter Auen said his year's trade was $30,000. Judge Ewing said: "The Criminal Court shown us that, had the officers of the

TIRED OF HIS TRADE. Donahue is a nailer for Chess, Cook & Co., and was born in Allegheny county. He is a brother-in-law of Richard Bennett, of Bennett Bros., wholesalers. Hammel & Kirsch, wholesale dealers, partnership last August. Their business in one months was $40,000. Herschenroethe is a butcher with ample capital. Keller Wilson are inexperienced in the liquor trade. Keller is a tinner and Wilson a Kauffeld has been 21 years in the wholesale business. His brother, Fritz, has been granted a retail license. Kauffeld said that one-eighth of his whisky trade is with country people. He is on the speakeasy list. The jug business, he said, was dying out. Kiphen, an ex-saloon keeper, denied the speak-easy charge. Attorney Christy asked that the case be held open until be could get witnesses against the applicant. Subposuas were issued and the court took a recess until 1:30 P. M.

After dinner Charles H. Lenk was called. Callahan and Kennedy have been granted retail licenses and have no interest in the wholesale cases. Lenk has never sold liquor, being engaged with Gray's Iron Line. He has only $2,000, and he has not that. It is in the possession of a brother-in-law, Frank Hunkel. Murphy is dead. Weber is a bartender, 27 years old, who has been in America 11 years. Smith is a driver for the Keyste Brewing Company, and was naturalized February, 1889. Walkosky is a Polish Heerew who said that he came to the United States in 1884 and was naturalized September 19, 1888. This short-term naturalization rather surprised the court, and when Walkosky saw that he had made a mistake he began to protest that he might be mis-taken. Judge Ewing told him to bring in his papers. Weisberger is sollector for the Iron City Brewing Company, and formerly kept saloon. His partner, Schlanger, is traveling drummer for the same company.

WADED INTO THEM. Attorney Christy waded into the two gen-tlemen with a flood of questions without getting very satisfactory replies. It was shown that advertisements had been in-

The Thirtieth ward had 13 applicants. Charles J. Alwes, No. 18 Carson street, granted a retail license; John W. Painter and James G. Pontefract doing business under the name of Jos. S. Finch & Co., McKean and South Second street; Patrick F. Gallagher, No. 515 Carson street; Patrick Lyons, 538 Carson street; James Lyons, No. 503 Carson street; A. A. Milligan, No. 1 Carson street; Wm. Padden, No. 421 Carson street; Peter Soffell, granted retail license, No. 21 Carson street; Richard Splane, Nos. 101 and 103 Carson street; Valentine Trapp, No. 309 Carson street; William Ward, No. 315 Carson street; A. C.

MONEY IN THE BUSINESS Mr. Pontefract said their business last year exceeded $300,000. Gallagher is down as a speak-easy. Patrick and James Lyons are brothers, and James is on the same list with Gallagher. Milligan is the gentleman who keeps a wholesale house opposite the Panhandle depot, and who received such a severe scoring during the retail hearings be-cause he sold liquors by the drink. Splane was sick and could not come. Alwes and Soffel naturally did not appear. Trapp has a wholesale license and his trade has been mostly in bottles and jugs. He said he had not sold a whole barrel during the year. Ward and Waggoner are ex-saloon keepers. Mr. Christy tried to show by William Lippincott that Waggoner gets drunk, but the witness would not make good the claim. Mrs. Yeager keeps a grocery and says that the grocery business is There were three applicants from the Thirty-first ward, of whom one, Henry Binder, withdrew. Joseph Greenewald, at No. 94 Washington avenue, was in the business for several years, as was also Jacob S. Schneider, at No. 41 Washington avenue. The Thirty-second ward, Mt. Washington, had four applicants-Frederick Fuhs, Nos.

36 and 38 Boggs avenue; John G. Hisler, Sycamore and Kearsarge streets; William Kramer, Boggs avenue and Whitworth street, and Fred Shultis, No. 58 Shiloh Fuhs wants a bottler's license. He has been driving a beer wagon for A. A. Milligan, and his house is reported as a speak-easy. Hisler drives a beer wagon for Pier & Dannals, and is also on Angelo streets; John Embs, No. 49 Pius the speak-easy list. Kramer applied for both wholesale and bottler's license, and

The case of Fred W. Kiphen, Twenty eighth ward, was then called up by Mr. Christy, who had two witnesses present. Attorney Morton Hunter said: "If the Court please, I guess we will admit that we are not entitled to a license and will withdraw the application." Shultis is a drummer for Robitzer, the

NOT ENTITLED TO ONE.

The Thirty-third ward furnished five applicants: John Conway, granted retail license; Peter Davin, No. 305 West Carson street; W. L. Lippencot, West Carson and Smithfield; Anthony O'Brien, No. 141 West Carson street, and Edward L. O'Malley, No. 5 West Carson street. Davin is a puddler. Lippencot has been working for A. A. Milligan, and confessed that he had done some of the retail selling in Milligan's place. O'Brien was a saloon-keeper for 12 years, and has $10,000 in the Bank of Pittsburg. For a year and a half he has been keeping a saloon in Youngs-town, but did not move his family from Pittsburg. O'Malley said that he had never drunk in his life. He is a rolling mill worker. He has no written lease for No. 5 West Carson, which is now a storage room for the Crescent Brewing Company, of Aurora, Ind. The nine applicants for the Thirty-fourth ward were: Peter Carlin, No. 758 West Carson street; John Gilroy, No. 463 West Carson street; Michael Minick, No. 766

West Carson street; Daniel Obernauer, No. 742 West Carson street; John Peppels, No. 750 West Carson street; John F. Sullivan, No. 467 West Carson street; William E. Schade, No. 708 West Carson street; Mrs. Nancy Jane Wagner, No. 694 West Carson street, and Louis Wehn, No. 4 Main street. DID NOT ANSWER. Carlin is licensed to retail and Gilroy did not answer. Obernauer was formerly in the iquor business with a brother on Fifth avenue. Sullivan is a son-in-law to Mrs. Maria Fleming, who keeps a speak-easy. "This," said Judge Ewing, "is an outrageous attempt to practice fraud on the court. The son applies for a retail license and the son-in-law for wholesale. Call the next." Attorney Brennen tried to explain and palliate, but the court would not listen. Mrs. Wagner was granted retail The last ward in Pittsburg, the Thinty-sixth, had four applicants: William C. Gundelfinger, No. 158 Steuben street, now icensed; Morris Gibansky, granted retail license; Henry J. Oberhelman, Nos. 142 and 144 Wabash avenue; and Fritz Schinneller, No. 108 Main street, held over be-cause of the applicant's sickness. Gundelfinger admitted that his driver, Swaney, sold beer on commission. He de-Oberhelman is a grocer, who expects to give up that busi ness. On July 27, 1889, he was convicted for selling cigars on Sunday. He is on the speak-easy list, but declared that to be a grievous error.
