

EVERYBODY WILL FIND SOMETHING TO INTEREST THEM. TOMORROW'S DONT PAGE DISPATCH. YOU'LL MISS THE PAGE DISPATCH. LIKE IT.

IT WILL CONTAIN A SENSATIONAL NARRATIVE THAT WILL BE EAGERLY READ BY PITTSBURGERS. BE ACQUAINTED WITH THE EPISODE.

AN OLD FRIEND WHO DROPPED HIS PEN SOME YEARS AGO HAS BEEN COAXED TO REAPPEAR. HIS NAME IS CHARLES T. MURRAY, THE ONE POPULAR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE DISPATCH. HE IS AS SPIRIT AS EVER.

EVERYBODY IS NOW READING THE ACE OF CLUBS. BEATRICE, BOTH STORIES ARE FASCINATING. LOOK AT SOME SPECIALTIES HERE AND THERE. MINNESOTA'S WEALTH OF IRON.

THE ACE OF CLUBS. OPINIONS OF MEDIUMS. A SYMPOSIUM. THE FIRST SPRING FLOWERS. CRIMINAL CORRECTION. TRIMMING FOR SPRING TOILETS. MEG. PROGRESS IN CALIFORNIA. BILL N.Y.

A TALE OF THE MIDGETS. PAYNE. A CURIOUS OLD BIBLE. R. W. SHOFFER. METROPOLITAN SMALL TALK. WOMEN AT THE CAPITOL. THE NEW THEOLOGY. FANNIE B. WARD.

BEATRICE. REV. DR. GEO. C. PUGH. SKETCHES OF SENATORS. MRS. JOHN DREW'S MEMOIRS. ALABAMA CLAY EATERS. W. J. FARVEL. TURNING OUT OLD MINISTERS. FUN AND PHILOSOPHY. THE AGE OF DOUBT. THOMAS BRANCH. SOCIETY SMALL TALK. EDISON'S LATEST INVENTION. H. H. H. THE WEEK'S SPORT. PRINGLE. THE BRIGHTS OF TIME. CHARLES THEODORE MURRAY. NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM. THE ASSASSINATION OF LINCOLN. LATE SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENTS. A STAFF WRITER.

EVERY MANUFACTURER AND WORKER SHOULD READ THE DISPATCH ON MINNESOTA'S IRON MINES. BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.

ALL THE NEWS GOES WITH THE ABOVE LIST OF EXCLUSIVE SPECIALS. GET THE DISPATCH EARLY BY MAIL OR BY CARRIER. EARLY CARRIER NEWS-BOY ON THE STREET OR BY MAIL. OVER $300 GET IT THIS WAY.

EVERYBODY WILL FIND SOMETHING TO INTEREST THEM. TOMORROW'S DONT PAGE DISPATCH. YOU'LL MISS THE PAGE DISPATCH. LIKE IT.

IT WILL CONTAIN A SENSATIONAL NARRATIVE THAT WILL BE EAGERLY READ BY PITTSBURGERS. BE ACQUAINTED WITH THE EPISODE.

AN OLD FRIEND WHO DROPPED HIS PEN SOME YEARS AGO HAS BEEN COAXED TO REAPPEAR. HIS NAME IS CHARLES T. MURRAY, THE ONE POPULAR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE DISPATCH. HE IS AS SPIRIT AS EVER.

EVERYBODY IS NOW READING THE ACE OF CLUBS. BEATRICE, BOTH STORIES ARE FASCINATING. LOOK AT SOME SPECIALTIES HERE AND THERE. MINNESOTA'S WEALTH OF IRON.

THE ACE OF CLUBS. OPINIONS OF MEDIUMS. A SYMPOSIUM. THE FIRST SPRING FLOWERS. CRIMINAL CORRECTION. TRIMMING FOR SPRING TOILETS. MEG. PROGRESS IN CALIFORNIA. BILL N.Y.

A TALE OF THE MIDGETS. PAYNE. A CURIOUS OLD BIBLE. R. W. SHOFFER. METROPOLITAN SMALL TALK. WOMEN AT THE CAPITOL. THE NEW THEOLOGY. FANNIE B. WARD.

BEATRICE. REV. DR. GEO. C. PUGH. SKETCHES OF SENATORS. MRS. JOHN DREW'S MEMOIRS. ALABAMA CLAY EATERS. W. J. FARVEL. TURNING OUT OLD MINISTERS. FUN AND PHILOSOPHY. THE AGE OF DOUBT. THOMAS BRANCH. SOCIETY SMALL TALK. EDISON'S LATEST INVENTION. H. H. H. THE WEEK'S SPORT. PRINGLE. THE BRIGHTS OF TIME. CHARLES THEODORE MURRAY. NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM. THE ASSASSINATION OF LINCOLN. LATE SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENTS. A STAFF WRITER.

EVERY MANUFACTURER AND WORKER SHOULD READ THE DISPATCH ON MINNESOTA'S IRON MINES. BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.

ALL THE NEWS GOES WITH THE ABOVE LIST OF EXCLUSIVE SPECIALS. GET THE DISPATCH EARLY BY MAIL OR BY CARRIER. EARLY CARRIER NEWS-BOY ON THE STREET OR BY MAIL. OVER $300 GET IT THIS WAY.

EVERYBODY WILL FIND SOMETHING TO INTEREST THEM. TOMORROW'S DONT PAGE DISPATCH. YOU'LL MISS THE PAGE DISPATCH. LIKE IT.

IT WILL CONTAIN A SENSATIONAL NARRATIVE THAT WILL BE EAGERLY READ BY PITTSBURGERS. BE ACQUAINTED WITH THE EPISODE.

AN OLD FRIEND WHO DROPPED HIS PEN SOME YEARS AGO HAS BEEN COAXED TO REAPPEAR. HIS NAME IS CHARLES T. MURRAY, THE ONE POPULAR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE DISPATCH. HE IS AS SPIRIT AS EVER.

EVERYBODY IS NOW READING THE ACE OF CLUBS. BEATRICE, BOTH STORIES ARE FASCINATING. LOOK AT SOME SPECIALTIES HERE AND THERE. MINNESOTA'S WEALTH OF IRON.

THE ACE OF CLUBS. OPINIONS OF MEDIUMS. A SYMPOSIUM. THE FIRST SPRING FLOWERS. CRIMINAL CORRECTION. TRIMMING FOR SPRING TOILETS. MEG. PROGRESS IN CALIFORNIA. BILL N.Y.

A TALE OF THE MIDGETS. PAYNE. A CURIOUS OLD BIBLE. R. W. SHOFFER. METROPOLITAN SMALL TALK. WOMEN AT THE CAPITOL. THE NEW THEOLOGY. FANNIE B. WARD.

BEATRICE. REV. DR. GEO. C. PUGH. SKETCHES OF SENATORS. MRS. JOHN DREW'S MEMOIRS. ALABAMA CLAY EATERS. W. J. FARVEL. TURNING OUT OLD MINISTERS. FUN AND PHILOSOPHY. THE AGE OF DOUBT. THOMAS BRANCH. SOCIETY SMALL TALK. EDISON'S LATEST INVENTION. H. H. H. THE WEEK'S SPORT. PRINGLE. THE BRIGHTS OF TIME. CHARLES THEODORE MURRAY. NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM. THE ASSASSINATION OF LINCOLN. LATE SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENTS. A STAFF WRITER.

that that philanthropic financier, Mr. Russell Sage, on the strength of these rumors advised young men who wanted to grow rich to go to the Congo country and buy rubber. Still Mr. Stanley is the foundation head of all information on this subject, and it will interest Americans engaged in the rubber trade to note the great explorer's prediction that Central Africa will be the rubber reservoir of the world.

At present the United States gets most of its rubber from South America—that of the best quality coming from Para. Rubber is found in nearly all tropical or semi-tropical countries, but the valleys of the Amazon and its tributaries have hitherto had pre-eminence for the number and quality of the various rubber-yielding trees.

It is interesting to observe the urgency with which the Republican organs are advising Senator Emery to name the candidate for Governor, who as a professor, and to present his name to the State Convention. This way of remedying the matters of which Emery complains is a familiar and favorite one with those who have got the pins thoroughly set up. But there are some years of experience the people who are dissatisfied have come to the conclusion that a more effective way may be to preserve their independence, and take their position after the nomination is made.

The Missouri judge who has ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the gambling practices of progressive ecclesie and high life, evidently proposes to have no competition with the standard Missouri industry of draw poker.

Collector Ehrhardt has decided that the piano in his orchestra is not an artist and must therefore be shut out by the contract labor law. The orchestra that grew through the custom house under the political definitions of art is likely to consist exclusively of the instruments of the circus and the variety importance. Mr. Mantell pays $60 to Hilary Bell for this picture. Augustus Pittou, his model, is the artist who has created a canvas of the picture representing Miss Coghlan as Peg Woffington.

They tell me that the theatrical gossip, that Pauline Hall, the somewhat large and sleepily but with beautiful star of comic opera, is writing a novel. She ought to be able to write a very tolerable romance out of her own experiences on the boards, but she is hardly likely to do that.

When she was in Pittsburgh last winter she said that she was somewhat tired of comic opera and might try something else. The message meant to try her hand at literature.

Stewart Robson, the Lord of "The Heart," who has been in the city for some time, was in a high school the students got up a dinner which was presided over by a college professor who was supposed to preserve order. The banquet was a success, but the students of the rank of the kind. The professor happened to leave the banquet room for a few moments. While he was out a dare-devil student picked up a chair and hurled it at the professor. He did not leave very much of the reform in his department. Clark had very distinct ideas of what he was there for.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind emulates Marshall McMahon's famous declaration by declaring that it and its officers shall stay just as they are. But the pupils are leaving and there is a doubt whether the state appropriation will be immovable, as the abuses of the institution.

With New York and Chicago exporting the strikes in the building business, Pittsburgh is not likely to have the same established territory within its boundaries for dozens of World's Fair buildings.

An ingenious Hungarian recently got up a scheme to hold a lottery out of the $250,000 prize, and is now languishing in prison. This indicates that time-honored precedents must not be disregarded. The extensive privilege of lottery, to avoid it, the people, must not be subverted.

CHICAGO'S carpenters' strike has so many other issues mixed up in it, that however it may be settled to the benefit of either side, a victory or defeat for the eight-hour day.

The baseball diplomacy having given place to actual playing, the cricketers are now trying to negotiate terms which will enable them to play with the benefit of the modern development of athletic sports in the exercise which they furnish for the muscles of the jaw.

The conference of Filer and Quay may provoke sarcastic inquiries as to whether there is any intention of getting up another Presidential bond for trading purposes.

A two thousand barrel well, five miles from the city limits, if it had been found fifteen years ago would have preserved the independent retaining interests of Pittsburgh. It ought to revive them even after fifteen years' suspension of vitality.

ONE thing the Western creditors have failed to do. They may destroy everything else, but not a single mortgage has been blown off the Western farms.

FREEDOM FOR CONGRESSMEN. A committee appointed by the National Civil Service Reform League has been inquiring into the evils of the patronage system and their report, just now made, promises a most interesting and suggestive document.

oil must masquerade as strictly pure family lard. Cottonseed oil being a strictly legitimate and useful product, it might be supposed that it would stand on its own merits. But the colored people, according to their self-appointed mouthpieces, declare that it must be protected in the business of passing itself as something else.

These peculiar features are fully balanced by the prevailing Congressional idea on the other side of the case, that the way to dispose of fraudulent shams in trade, is to levy a tax on the frauds.

THERE is now a prospect that the border question will have a chance in Congress. A favorable report has been made on the bill, and as it is not a public measure there is a possibility that the bill may be passed in the fullness of time.

It is interesting to observe the urgency with which the Republican organs are advising Senator Emery to name the candidate for Governor, who as a professor, and to present his name to the State Convention. This way of remedying the matters of which Emery complains is a familiar and favorite one with those who have got the pins thoroughly set up. But there are some years of experience the people who are dissatisfied have come to the conclusion that a more effective way may be to preserve their independence, and take their position after the nomination is made.

The Missouri judge who has ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the gambling practices of progressive ecclesie and high life, evidently proposes to have no competition with the standard Missouri industry of draw poker.

Collector Ehrhardt has decided that the piano in his orchestra is not an artist and must therefore be shut out by the contract labor law. The orchestra that grew through the custom house under the political definitions of art is likely to consist exclusively of the instruments of the circus and the variety importance. Mr. Mantell pays $60 to Hilary Bell for this picture. Augustus Pittou, his model, is the artist who has created a canvas of the picture representing Miss Coghlan as Peg Woffington.

They tell me that the theatrical gossip, that Pauline Hall, the somewhat large and sleepily but with beautiful star of comic opera, is writing a novel. She ought to be able to write a very tolerable romance out of her own experiences on the boards, but she is hardly likely to do that.

When she was in Pittsburgh last winter she said that she was somewhat tired of comic opera and might try something else. The message meant to try her hand at literature.

Stewart Robson, the Lord of "The Heart," who has been in the city for some time, was in a high school the students got up a dinner which was presided over by a college professor who was supposed to preserve order. The banquet was a success, but the students of the rank of the kind. The professor happened to leave the banquet room for a few moments. While he was out a dare-devil student picked up a chair and hurled it at the professor. He did not leave very much of the reform in his department. Clark had very distinct ideas of what he was there for.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind emulates Marshall McMahon's famous declaration by declaring that it and its officers shall stay just as they are. But the pupils are leaving and there is a doubt whether the state appropriation will be immovable, as the abuses of the institution.

With New York and Chicago exporting the strikes in the building business, Pittsburgh is not likely to have the same established territory within its boundaries for dozens of World's Fair buildings.

An ingenious Hungarian recently got up a scheme to hold a lottery out of the $250,000 prize, and is now languishing in prison. This indicates that time-honored precedents must not be disregarded. The extensive privilege of lottery, to avoid it, the people, must not be subverted.

CHICAGO'S carpenters' strike has so many other issues mixed up in it, that however it may be settled to the benefit of either side, a victory or defeat for the eight-hour day.

The baseball diplomacy having given place to actual playing, the cricketers are now trying to negotiate terms which will enable them to play with the benefit of the modern development of athletic sports in the exercise which they furnish for the muscles of the jaw.

The conference of Filer and Quay may provoke sarcastic inquiries as to whether there is any intention of getting up another Presidential bond for trading purposes.

A two thousand barrel well, five miles from the city limits, if it had been found fifteen years ago would have preserved the independent retaining interests of Pittsburgh. It ought to revive them even after fifteen years' suspension of vitality.

oil must masquerade as strictly pure family lard. Cottonseed oil being a strictly legitimate and useful product, it might be supposed that it would stand on its own merits. But the colored people, according to their self-appointed mouthpieces, declare that it must be protected in the business of passing itself as something else.

These peculiar features are fully balanced by the prevailing Congressional idea on the other side of the case, that the way to dispose of fraudulent shams in trade, is to levy a tax on the frauds.

THERE is now a prospect that the border question will have a chance in Congress. A favorable report has been made on the bill, and as it is not a public measure there is a possibility that the bill may be passed in the fullness of time.

It is interesting to observe the urgency with which the Republican organs are advising Senator Emery to name the candidate for Governor, who as a professor, and to present his name to the State Convention. This way of remedying the matters of which Emery complains is a familiar and favorite one with those who have got the pins thoroughly set up. But there are some years of experience the people who are dissatisfied have come to the conclusion that a more effective way may be to preserve their independence, and take their position after the nomination is made.

The Missouri judge who has ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the gambling practices of progressive ecclesie and high life, evidently proposes to have no competition with the standard Missouri industry of draw poker.

Collector Ehrhardt has decided that the piano in his orchestra is not an artist and must therefore be shut out by the contract labor law. The orchestra that grew through the custom house under the political definitions of art is likely to consist exclusively of the instruments of the circus and the variety importance. Mr. Mantell pays $60 to Hilary Bell for this picture. Augustus Pittou, his model, is the artist who has created a canvas of the picture representing Miss Coghlan as Peg Woffington.

They tell me that the theatrical gossip, that Pauline Hall, the somewhat large and sleepily but with beautiful star of comic opera, is writing a novel. She ought to be able to write a very tolerable romance out of her own experiences on the boards, but she is hardly likely to do that.

When she was in Pittsburgh last winter she said that she was somewhat tired of comic opera and might try something else. The message meant to try her hand at literature.

Stewart Robson, the Lord of "The Heart," who has been in the city for some time, was in a high school the students got up a dinner which was presided over by a college professor who was supposed to preserve order. The banquet was a success, but the students of the rank of the kind. The professor happened to leave the banquet room for a few moments. While he was out a dare-devil student picked up a chair and hurled it at the professor. He did not leave very much of the reform in his department. Clark had very distinct ideas of what he was there for.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind emulates Marshall McMahon's famous declaration by declaring that it and its officers shall stay just as they are. But the pupils are leaving and there is a doubt whether the state appropriation will be immovable, as the abuses of the institution.

With New York and Chicago exporting the strikes in the building business, Pittsburgh is not likely to have the same established territory within its boundaries for dozens of World's Fair buildings.

An ingenious Hungarian recently got up a scheme to hold a lottery out of the $250,000 prize, and is now languishing in prison. This indicates that time-honored precedents must not be disregarded. The extensive privilege of lottery, to avoid it, the people, must not be subverted.

CHICAGO'S carpenters' strike has so many other issues mixed up in it, that however it may be settled to the benefit of either side, a victory or defeat for the eight-hour day.

The baseball diplomacy having given place to actual playing, the cricketers are now trying to negotiate terms which will enable them to play with the benefit of the modern development of athletic sports in the exercise which they furnish for the muscles of the jaw.

The conference of Filer and Quay may provoke sarcastic inquiries as to whether there is any intention of getting up another Presidential bond for trading purposes.

A two thousand barrel well, five miles from the city limits, if it had been found fifteen years ago would have preserved the independent retaining interests of Pittsburgh. It ought to revive them even after fifteen years' suspension of vitality.

oil must masquerade as strictly pure family lard. Cottonseed oil being a strictly legitimate and useful product, it might be supposed that it would stand on its own merits. But the colored people, according to their self-appointed mouthpieces, declare that it must be protected in the business of passing itself as something else.

These peculiar features are fully balanced by the prevailing Congressional idea on the other side of the case, that the way to dispose of fraudulent shams in trade, is to levy a tax on the frauds.

THERE is now a prospect that the border question will have a chance in Congress. A favorable report has been made on the bill, and as it is not a public measure there is a possibility that the bill may be passed in the fullness of time.

It is interesting to observe the urgency with which the Republican organs are advising Senator Emery to name the candidate for Governor, who as a professor, and to present his name to the State Convention. This way of remedying the matters of which Emery complains is a familiar and favorite one with those who have got the pins thoroughly set up. But there are some years of experience the people who are dissatisfied have come to the conclusion that a more effective way may be to preserve their independence, and take their position after the nomination is made.

The Missouri judge who has ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the gambling practices of progressive ecclesie and high life, evidently proposes to have no competition with the standard Missouri industry of draw poker.

Collector Ehrhardt has decided that the piano in his orchestra is not an artist and must therefore be shut out by the contract labor law. The orchestra that grew through the custom house under the political definitions of art is likely to consist exclusively of the instruments of the circus and the variety importance. Mr. Mantell pays $60 to Hilary Bell for this picture. Augustus Pittou, his model, is the artist who has created a canvas of the picture representing Miss Coghlan as Peg Woffington.

They tell me that the theatrical gossip, that Pauline Hall, the somewhat large and sleepily but with beautiful star of comic opera, is writing a novel. She ought to be able to write a very tolerable romance out of her own experiences on the boards, but she is hardly likely to do that.

When she was in Pittsburgh last winter she said that she was somewhat tired of comic opera and might try something else. The message meant to try her hand at literature.

Stewart Robson, the Lord of "The Heart," who has been in the city for some time, was in a high school the students got up a dinner which was presided over by a college professor who was supposed to preserve order. The banquet was a success, but the students of the rank of the kind. The professor happened to leave the banquet room for a few moments. While he was out a dare-devil student picked up a chair and hurled it at the professor. He did not leave very much of the reform in his department. Clark had very distinct ideas of what he was there for.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind emulates Marshall McMahon's famous declaration by declaring that it and its officers shall stay just as they are. But the pupils are leaving and there is a doubt whether the state appropriation will be immovable, as the abuses of the institution.

With New York and Chicago exporting the strikes in the building business, Pittsburgh is not likely to have the same established territory within its boundaries for dozens of World's Fair buildings.

An ingenious Hungarian recently got up a scheme to hold a lottery out of the $250,000 prize, and is now languishing in prison. This indicates that time-honored precedents must not be disregarded. The extensive privilege of lottery, to avoid it, the people, must not be subverted.

CHICAGO'S carpenters' strike has so many other issues mixed up in it, that however it may be settled to the benefit of either side, a victory or defeat for the eight-hour day.

The baseball diplomacy having given place to actual playing, the cricketers are now trying to negotiate terms which will enable them to play with the benefit of the modern development of athletic sports in the exercise which they furnish for the muscles of the jaw.

The conference of Filer and Quay may provoke sarcastic inquiries as to whether there is any intention of getting up another Presidential bond for trading purposes.

A two thousand barrel well, five miles from the city limits, if it had been found fifteen years ago would have preserved the independent retaining interests of Pittsburgh. It ought to revive them even after fifteen years' suspension of vitality.

oil must masquerade as strictly pure family lard. Cottonseed oil being a strictly legitimate and useful product, it might be supposed that it would stand on its own merits. But the colored people, according to their self-appointed mouthpieces, declare that it must be protected in the business of passing itself as something else.

These peculiar features are fully balanced by the prevailing Congressional idea on the other side of the case, that the way to dispose of fraudulent shams in trade, is to levy a tax on the frauds.

THERE is now a prospect that the border question will have a chance in Congress. A favorable report has been made on the bill, and as it is not a public measure there is a possibility that the bill may be passed in the fullness of time.

It is interesting to observe the urgency with which the Republican organs are advising Senator Emery to name the candidate for Governor, who as a professor, and to present his name to the State Convention. This way of remedying the matters of which Emery complains is a familiar and favorite one with those who have got the pins thoroughly set up. But there are some years of experience the people who are dissatisfied have come to the conclusion that a more effective way may be to preserve their independence, and take their position after the nomination is made.

The Missouri judge who has ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the gambling practices of progressive ecclesie and high life, evidently proposes to have no competition with the standard Missouri industry of draw poker.

Collector Ehrhardt has decided that the piano in his orchestra is not an artist and must therefore be shut out by the contract labor law. The orchestra that grew through the custom house under the political definitions of art is likely to consist exclusively of the instruments of the circus and the variety importance. Mr. Mantell pays $60 to Hilary Bell for this picture. Augustus Pittou, his model, is the artist who has created a canvas of the picture representing Miss Coghlan as Peg Woffington.

They tell me that the theatrical gossip, that Pauline Hall, the somewhat large and sleepily but with beautiful star of comic opera, is writing a novel. She ought to be able to write a very tolerable romance out of her own experiences on the boards, but she is hardly likely to do that.

When she was in Pittsburgh last winter she said that she was somewhat tired of comic opera and might try something else. The message meant to try her hand at literature.

Stewart Robson, the Lord of "The Heart," who has been in the city for some time, was in a high school the students got up a dinner which was presided over by a college professor who was supposed to preserve order. The banquet was a success, but the students of the rank of the kind. The professor happened to leave the banquet room for a few moments. While he was out a dare-devil student picked up a chair and hurled it at the professor. He did not leave very much of the reform in his department. Clark had very distinct ideas of what he was there for.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind emulates Marshall McMahon's famous declaration by declaring that it and its officers shall stay just as they are. But the pupils are leaving and there is a doubt whether the state appropriation will be immovable, as the abuses of the institution.

With New York and Chicago exporting the strikes in the building business, Pittsburgh is not likely to have the same established territory within its boundaries for dozens of World's Fair buildings.

An ingenious Hungarian recently got up a scheme to hold a lottery out of the $250,000 prize, and is now languishing in prison. This indicates that time-honored precedents must not be disregarded. The extensive privilege of lottery, to avoid it, the people, must not be subverted.

CHICAGO'S carpenters' strike has so many other issues mixed up in it, that however it may be settled to the benefit of either side, a victory or defeat for the eight-hour day.

The baseball diplomacy having given place to actual playing, the cricketers are now trying to negotiate terms which will enable them to play with the benefit of the modern development of athletic sports in the exercise which they furnish for the muscles of the jaw.

The conference of Filer and Quay may provoke sarcastic inquiries as to whether there is any intention of getting up another Presidential bond for trading purposes.

A two thousand barrel well, five miles from the city limits, if it had been found fifteen years ago would have preserved the independent retaining interests of Pittsburgh. It ought to revive them even after fifteen years' suspension of vitality.

oil must masquerade as strictly pure family lard. Cottonseed oil being a strictly legitimate and useful product, it might be supposed that it would stand on its own merits. But the colored people, according to their self-appointed mouthpieces, declare that it must be protected in the business of passing itself as something else.

These peculiar features are fully balanced by the prevailing Congressional idea on the other side of the case, that the way to dispose of fraudulent shams in trade, is to levy a tax on the frauds.

THERE is now a prospect that the border question will have a chance in Congress. A favorable report has been made on the bill, and as it is not a public measure there is a possibility that the bill may be passed in the fullness of time.

It is interesting to observe the urgency with which the Republican organs are advising Senator Emery to name the candidate for Governor, who as a professor, and to present his name to the State Convention. This way of remedying the matters of which Emery complains is a familiar and favorite one with those who have got the pins thoroughly set up. But there are some years of experience the people who are dissatisfied have come to the conclusion that a more effective way may be to preserve their independence, and take their position after the nomination is made.

The Missouri judge who has ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the gambling practices of progressive ecclesie and high life, evidently proposes to have no competition with the standard Missouri industry of draw poker.

Collector Ehrhardt has decided that the piano in his orchestra is not an artist and must therefore be shut out by the contract labor law. The orchestra that grew through the custom house under the political definitions of art is likely to consist exclusively of the instruments of the circus and the variety importance. Mr. Mantell pays $60 to Hilary Bell for this picture. Augustus Pittou, his model, is the artist who has created a canvas of the picture representing Miss Coghlan as Peg Woffington.

They tell me that the theatrical gossip, that Pauline Hall, the somewhat large and sleepily but with beautiful star of comic opera, is writing a novel. She ought to be able to write a very tolerable romance out of her own experiences on the boards, but she is hardly likely to do that.

When she was in Pittsburgh last winter she said that she was somewhat tired of comic opera and might try something else. The message meant to try her hand at literature.

Stewart Robson, the Lord of "The Heart," who has been in the city for some time, was in a high school the students got up a dinner which was presided over by a college professor who was supposed to preserve order. The banquet was a success, but the students of the rank of the kind. The professor happened to leave the banquet room for a few moments. While he was out a dare-devil student picked up a chair and hurled it at the professor. He did not leave very much of the reform in his department. Clark had very distinct ideas of what he was there for.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind emulates Marshall McMahon's famous declaration by declaring that it and its officers shall stay just as they are. But the pupils are leaving and there is a doubt whether the state appropriation will be immovable, as the abuses of the institution.

With New York and Chicago exporting the strikes in the building business, Pittsburgh is not likely to have the same established territory within its boundaries for dozens of World's Fair buildings.

An ingenious Hungarian recently got up a scheme to hold a lottery out of the $250,000 prize, and is now languishing in prison. This indicates that time-honored precedents must not be disregarded. The extensive privilege of lottery, to avoid it, the people, must not be subverted.

CHICAGO'S carpenters' strike has so many other issues mixed up in it, that however it may be settled to the benefit of either side, a victory or defeat for the eight-hour day.

The baseball diplomacy having given place to actual playing, the cricketers are now trying to negotiate terms which will enable them to play with the benefit of the modern development of athletic sports in the exercise which they furnish for the muscles of the jaw.

The conference of Filer and Quay may provoke sarcastic inquiries as to whether there is any intention of getting up another Presidential bond for trading purposes.

A two thousand barrel well, five miles from the city limits, if it had been found fifteen years ago would have preserved the independent retaining interests of Pittsburgh. It ought to revive them even after fifteen years' suspension of vitality.

oil must masquerade as strictly pure family lard. Cottonseed oil being a strictly legitimate and useful product, it might be supposed that it would stand on its own merits. But the colored people, according to their self-appointed mouthpieces, declare that it must be protected in the business of passing itself as something else.

These peculiar features are fully balanced by the prevailing Congressional idea on the other side of the case, that the way to dispose of fraudulent shams in trade, is to levy a tax on the frauds.

THERE is now a prospect that the border question will have a chance in Congress. A favorable report has been made on the bill, and as it is not a public measure there is a possibility that the bill may be passed in the fullness of time.

It is interesting to observe the urgency with which the Republican organs are advising Senator Emery to name the candidate for Governor, who as a professor, and to present his name to the State Convention. This way of remedying the matters of which Emery complains is a familiar and favorite one with those who have got the pins thoroughly set up. But there are some years of experience the people who are dissatisfied have come to the conclusion that a more effective way may be to preserve their independence, and take their position after the nomination is made.

The Missouri judge who has ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the gambling practices of progressive ecclesie and high life, evidently proposes to have no competition with the standard Missouri industry of draw poker.

Collector Ehrhardt has decided that the piano in his orchestra is not an artist and must therefore be shut out by the contract labor law. The orchestra that grew through the custom house under the political definitions of art is likely to consist exclusively of the instruments of the circus and the variety importance. Mr. Mantell pays $60 to Hilary Bell for this picture. Augustus Pittou, his model, is the artist who has created a canvas of the picture representing Miss Coghlan as Peg Woffington.

They tell me that the theatrical gossip, that Pauline Hall, the somewhat large and sleepily but with beautiful star of comic opera, is writing a novel. She ought to be able to write a very tolerable romance out of her own experiences on the boards, but she is hardly likely to do that.

When she was in Pittsburgh last winter she said that she was somewhat tired of comic opera and might try something else. The message meant to try her hand at literature.

Stewart Robson, the Lord of "The Heart," who has been in the city for some time, was in a high school the students got up a dinner which was presided over by a college professor who was supposed to preserve order. The banquet was a success, but the students of the rank of the kind. The professor happened to leave the banquet room for a few moments. While he was out a dare-devil student picked up a chair and hurled it at the professor. He did not leave very much of the reform in his department. Clark had very distinct ideas of what he was there for.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind emulates Marshall McMahon's famous declaration by declaring that it and its officers shall stay just as they are. But the pupils are leaving and there is a doubt whether the state appropriation will be immovable, as the abuses of the institution.

With New York and Chicago exporting the strikes in the building business, Pittsburgh is not likely to have the same established territory within its boundaries for dozens of World's Fair buildings.

An ingenious Hungarian recently got up a scheme