

THE STRUGGLE BETWEEN HERTY AND MOORE VERY CLOSE. GREAT FINISH EXPECTED. THE LOCAL COLTS AGAIN TRIM UP THE WHEELING AGGREGATION.

The excitement regarding the great 142-hour pedestrian contest grows as the finish approaches. Moore and Herty continue to make an extraordinary struggle for first place.

To-night will see the close of one of the most exciting go-as-you-please pedestrian contests that has been witnessed in this country.

During yesterday afternoon Herty was almost compelled to retire from the contest. His leg became so weak and painful that he could scarcely move it.

John Hughes also caused considerable excitement by his game efforts. While Moore and Herty were battling for first place, Norma began to try and out Herty's lead.
