WILLIAM OUTLINES HIS POLICY.

Socialist Leaders Disagree Over the May Demonstration.

A NOTE OF WARNING SENT TO RUSSIA

Emperor William is likely to find some opposition in the German Legislature to his many pet schemes. Both the Reichstag and the Bundesrath are opposed to an extension of the imperial power, and the opposition is only awaiting the aunouncement of the Emperor's policy to form in battle array against it.

COPYRIGHT, 1890, BY THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED PRESS. 7 BERLIN, April 12.-Immediately on his return from Weisbaden Emperor William will hold a prolonged conference with the heads of the various departments, Chancellor von Caprivi, Baron von Berlepsch and Baron von Bieberstein successively. It is reported to be the determination of the Emperor to exercise a rigid personal scrutiny threatens to paralyze Ministerial work.

None of the bills based on the decisions of the labor conference, as reported by Baron von Berlepshe, has received the final imperial sanction. The assent of the Bundesrath to the measures is doubtful. The Federal Governments do not share the Emperor's eager haste for reforms. The prospect is, therefore, that when the Emperor opens the Reichstag, in his speech from the throne announcing the labor measures he will speak without the quality of definiteness which characterized the an-

UNDER THE BISMARCK REGIME. Beyond the pregnant fact that the Reichstag will be asked to grant a military credit probably 80,000,000 marks, nothing is known of the Government's programme. The Progressist press indulges in visions of a change in the tariff policy, a reduction of the duties on cereals and progressive modifications of the customs as to abolish the turation of the articles that are absolutely necessary for the use of the people and an adaptation of the tariffs to develop the industries of the country.

It is not believed in official circles that the Emperor will be rash enough to entangle himself in the difficulties entailed by a revision of the tariffs which would involve complete retorms in the whole financial and fiscal system of the empire. Equally dis-credited are the rumors that the Emperor intends to propose a revision of the constitution in the direction of a reduction of the powers of the Bundesrath, while centralizing power in the hands of a ministry controlled

TRYING TO CLIP HIS WINGS.

Neither the Reichstag nor the Bundesrath will ever assent to an extension of the Imperial powers toward absolutism. Already the leading Federal princes of the empire, incredulous of the Emperor's capacity and scared by his methods of governing, are try-ing to tone down his self confidence. It is an open secret that the Governments Wurtemburg and Saxony, of Bavaria, which hold 14 votes in the Bundesrath, will not co-operate in Imperial measures unless the Emperor consults them more on the gen

To-night the Reichsanzeiger has a curt significant declaimer of the reported reorganization of the Central Ministerial departments. It is denied that the Government contemplated increasing the responsi bility of the Ministers. The temper of the leading Federal Governments, the article says, would not brook any discussion of the -report necessary.

BATTLE LINES NOT YET FORMED.

The Reichstag will meet with the various parties undetermined, awaiting the effect of the Government programme before group ing themselves. The official record of the composition of the Reichstag after the second ballots is as follows: Conservatives, 72: Imperialists, 19; National Liberals, 43; Freissinnige, 67; Centerists, 107; Socialists Volksparte, 10; Poles, 16; Guelphs, 11; Reichslanders, 10; Anti-Semitics, 5; Dane, 1; No party, 1. One of the chief features of the moment is the disunion among the Freissinnige party since Freissinnige members of the Landtag censured the leadership of Herr Richter as dictatorial and inelastic. The guarrel has widened. Herr Richter now leads a section of the party in a basic policy of pure opposition to the Conservative Gov-Herren Laenl and Rickert backed by an important faction, would coalesce with the advanced Nationals or even co-operate with the Government on liberal proposals. In the face of the ex-pected coalition with the Conservatives the Imperialists and the right wing of the National Liberals are forming a reactionary group against a liberal policy by the Gov-ernment. The Freissinuge party will be New Yorkers Endeavor to Hang a Chinese compelled to close their ranks.

A SOCIALISTIC SOUABBLE. The Socialist leaders have a momentary feud over the workmen's proposed celebration on May 1. Herr Liebknecht and Herr Rebel will attend a reunion of the delegates to-morrow to urge the unwisdom of making a manifestation. Herren Grillberger, Vollmar and Schippel support the celebration. Herr Liebknecht is backed by the police, who have given warning that they will not tolerate street demonstrations. The Post announces that the military hill will provide for a large increase in the number of troops. The announcement agrees with opinion held in official circles that the Emperor will abide by a strong foreign policy. The chief subject of the recent conferences of commanding generals, which were presided over by the Emperor, was the reorganization of the reserves and Landwehr with a view to strengthening The Posther Lloyd, in an official com-

(BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.) LONDON, April 12 .- The Revenue and Agricultural Department of the Government of India has issued a report on the wheat crop of 1889 and 1890, showing its condition up to February 22. Taking 100 to represent the full average condition, the condition of the present wheat crop in the several divisions of the province is reported as follows: Meerut and Rohilkund, 60; Agra and Jhansi, 66; Allahabad and Benardes, 75; Oude, 66. Throughout Bengal the prospects of the wheat crop of the present season are much better than those of last year. A 12 to 14 anna crop may be expected from the whole province, and while the area sown and outturn will be larger, the requirements for local consumption will, owing to a good rice harvest, be less than those of the previous year.

The following nomenclature is prescribed by the Government of India: Twenty annas are taken to represent : big crop, 16 annas an average, and 12 annas three-fourths of an average crop.

Republicans in Congress Are Trying to Agree on a Measure

THAT WILL PLEASE EVERYBODY.

Their Efforts Have Not Met With Very Great Success as Tet.

WINDOM'S IDEAS UPON THE SUBJECT Are Radically Opposed to Those of the Western

Enthusiasts. The Republican Congressional Caucus Committee is endeavoring to decide upon a silver bill. Secretary Windom has been consulted and has agreed to accept a compromise. The free coinage adherents, how-

The whole subject is being thoroughly discussed by the members, with a view of arriving at some common ground upon which all can stand. It is not expected that a vote will be taken on any proposition to-day, but that another meeting will be held some time during Sunday or Monday before the meeting of the Re-publican caucuson Monday night. Secretary Windom was before the committee to-day by invitation, and his views sought on the WINDOM AS AN ADVISER. Secretary Windom remained with the committee about two hours and engaged in the discussion. He was not disposed to in-sist upon the terms of his original bill, but expressed himself as willing to accept the terms of the measure reported by the House

No vote was taken on any proposition and no conclusion has been reached. The entire time was consumed in discussion. The delay in arriving at an agreement appears to be caused by the insistence of the extreme silver men upon absolute coinage. The conservative element favors the House bill, and there is a leaven of restrictive feeling at work.

A section of the House bill which is particularly attacked by the silver men is that making the treasury notes issued in pay-ment for bullion redeemable in bullion. They argued that the effect of this section would be to pile up bullion in the treasury and to give some warrant for the demand of a radical farmers' element for great govern-ment warehouses in which their agricul-tural products may be stored and Govern-ment notes issued thereon.

THE SECRETARY FIRM.

On this point Secretary Windom content ed himself with reiterating his preference for the House committee provision. And he also expressed regret that the committee had stricken out of his bill the provision giving him discretionary authority to susp bullion purchases.

The members of the Senate Republican Silver Committee have not had a meeting since Thursday night, and the indications are they will not until the House caucus announces its conclusion upon the subject. The committee consists of Senators Morrill, Allison, Aldrich, Sherman, Jones and Hiscock, the six Republican members of the Committee on Finance, and Senators Davis, Mitchell, McMillan, Manderson,

Platt, Peirce and Teller. The silver men on this committee are contending for free coinage of bullion produced in the United States and of Mexican ores melted in United States refineries. They say the silver produced in United States and Mexico as shown by the statistics of the Treasury Department is 57,000,000 ounces annually, all but 7,000,000 ounces being

THE SILVER CLAIM. This entire amount, they claim, is not as great at present values as the Secretary of the Treasury is required to purchase by the terms of the Jones bill. That bill requires the purchase monthly of silver bullion of the value of $4,500,000. But they admit that the the effect of the purchase that the effect of the passage of the bill would be to increase the value of silver. In case they are unable to secure anything from the committee more favorable to them than the terms of the Jones bill, the silver men will insist on a substantial increase of the paper currency of the country.

As the thief was getting in close quarters and his borse was winded, he le t his horse and broke for the woods time; this time he heard groans from the thief as if he had wounded him. Being out of ammunition the farmer did not follow him into the woods, but captured his stolen horses and returned home.

While we have no excuse to offer for the offensive words of Prof. Cordoza and regard them as a breach of courtesy for which their author should have made a frank apology, we have no words to express our chagrin that there should be found a professor in Claffin University who could see no way to resent an insuit except by the cowardly use of the bludgeon. For this brutal outrage Prof. De Treville should be relieved of his professorship or tried in Court as a criminal. Nothing less than this will vindicate the honor of the University and State and meet the demands of a Christian civilization.

AN EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Twenty-Three Labor Unions in New York Have Declared for it.

NO GENERAL STRIKE PROBABLE. The Boon Will be Granted to Some and the Rest Will Wait.

SOCIALISTS MAKING A LITTLE NOISE. They Propose to Take a Hand in the Great Demonstration of May 1.

Twenty-three unions of New York City have declared for an eight-hour working day. It is not likely that many of them will strike to enforce the demand, however. The Socialists are taking an active part in the agitation.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, April 12 .- The unions which have declared for a work day of eight hours in this city are: The plasterers, the artificial stone masons, the American stair builders, the cabinet makers, the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, the paper hangers, the millers and millwrights, the Progressive painters, the housesmiths, the eccentric engineers, the operative cement workers, the mosaic and encaustic tile layers, the wood machine workers, the derrick men, the granite cutters, the iron molders, the Belgian pavers, the cement asphalt layers, the amalgamated carpenters. he German painters, the German pavers, the slate and metal roofers, and the cigar makers.

NOT ALL ENTHUSIASTIC. Of these 23 unions it is not likely that more than half a dozen will make an em-phatic demand for eight bours. The eighthour work day has been accorded to the Plasterers' Union. The artificial stone masons, the cement asphalt layers, and the operative cement layers are now engaged in a fight for it. It is believed by the majority of the workingmen that there will not be a strong demand for eight hours on May 1. It was expected that the bricklayers' unions would make their wish for an eight-hour day known, whereupon all the other building trades could come in and get it. The refusal of the bricklayers to lead the way has disconcerted all the other unions and considerably upset their plans. This will be sent to the boss carpenters on Monday:

The Conference Committee representing the United Brotherhood and the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters beg leave to notify the employing carpenters of New York City and vicinity that on and after Monday, May 5, the working hours for journeymen carpenters in this city will be eight hours and wages $3.50 a day.

A SOCIALISTIC DEMONSTRATION. There was a meeting of Socialists at No. 16 East Forty-first street to-night preliminary to the organization of a big demonstra tion in favor of the eight-hour movement. Mr. S. E. Shevitch addressed the meeting. He desired to have the Socialists in each Assembly district thoroughly organized. It is expected that all the Socialists in the city will take part in the demonstration which will be held in Union square on the evening of May 1.

The Only Emmet's Drinking Habits Have Conquered Him Once More. PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, April 12 .- J. K. Emnet, the comedian, who failed to keep his engagement at the Chestnut Street Opera House last night, is in the city in charge of his son and other friends who are trying to his son and other friends who are trying to brace him up so that he can fill his engage-ments next week. Emmet had been drink-ing so hard all the week that a man had been sent to accompany him all the time and to restrain him from over indulgence if possible. Yesterday morning he managed by a clever pretext to elude the watcher. Then he jumped into a hack and drove out to the driving park, where he spent the day and night driving about the track and drinking at the bar. Meanwhile every effort was being made to find him, but without success. He returned to the Con-tinental at 3 o'clock this morning in a very demoralized condition. The Opera House was not opened at all to-day. Some five years ago Mr. Emmet caused the Opera House to remain dark for a whole week and at the time Messra. Zimmerman and Nixon declared that he should never enter the theater again. Time, however, somewhat healed the breach and after five years another contract was entered into, but with some very heavy money penalties in case Fritz should again render himself in-capable of keeping faith with the public. The actor has behaved himself until the present time.

ERIE, April 12.-The steam barge Shesango barned and sank off this point last night, and the fate of her crew is a mystery. Captain Clarke pulled up within 15 feet of the craft and found it all afire. He hailed the crew, but got no answer. Seeing the craft make a lurch, he got off, and in three hours the yeasel went down in four fathers of water. The craw had lought the fathoms of water. The crew had lought the fire with desperation. Up to this time no trace has been discovered of them. The Shenango was built in Detroit three years ago and is owned by C. D. Waterman It is of 938 tons burden, cost $60,000 and had 60,000 bushels of grain for Buffalo. The craft lies about two miles out. One anchor had been cast.
