There was interest added to the contest, however, by the fact that Sowders and Miller, of the N. L. team were loaned to the Miller, of the N. L. team were loaned to the Climax club. Altogether it was estimated that about $150 | evening. would be realized for the laudable enterprise above mentioned. Few people, however, care about going to a baseball game on a raw and cold day. This was the case yesterday and although the early part of the contest was very close few people were in a humor to appreciate it. At the end of four innings the score was two each, but from that stage on to the finish the Climax aggregation was not in the

Of the five hits made off his delivery Miller had three to his credit. This would indicate that the to his credit. This would indicate that the promising young twirler may not do so well when faceing the older stuggers of other Na-tional League teams. It is but fair to remark that Sowders was pitching for a weak fielding team. Had he been supported by his own col-leagues certainly the bits would not have been so numerous. Pennington, though three errors are recorded against him, and a me splendid work at short. Smith also took good care of first base in an admirable manner. For the Pittsburgs Wilson did well at first base, and Berger supported Baker in excellent style. The Southsiders were completely outplayed at all points and that tells the whole story. HERE IN FREE AMERICA EVERY WOMAN IS A QUEEN.

Ladies at the present time are perhaps more interested in what kind of hat or bonnet they should wear than any other part of their apparel. This is natural, for, as all ladies know, much depends on the style of head dress worn. Our stock of Millinery has been selected with the greatest care, and the most fastidious tastes can be suited.

Since our formal opening it has taken the closest watching to keep the stock up to the momentum sales have gained. But we have done it, and to-day this department is, if possible, fairer and brighter than ever.

STRAW HATS AND BONNETS

Are to be found in every shape, color and quality; trimmed hats and bonnets in an immense variety; fine ribbons, flowers and velvets to match; millinery laces, ornaments and gimps. What a charming embarrassment of color and style!

By the way, you can get your hat or bonnet trimmed by milliners who are artists in their line, on very short notice.

Mourning hats and bonnets we make a specialty.

CLOAKS, CAPES AND JACKETS.

In this department the express brings us fresh lines daily. It would be impossible to even outline our stock, which includes elegant Cloth Capes with accordion plaits; Beaded Capes from $1 50 to $9 75; Connemaras from $4 to $7 50; new Misses' Reefers, Blazers and Blouses; new Braided Jerseys and Cream Jerseys which will astonish you.

JUST A WORD ABOUT CURTAINS.

In these troublous house cleaning times the remarkable values we offer will be appreciated. Nottingham, Scotch and Swiss Lace Curtains and Portieres in the newest pat-terns are offered at prices that are certain to make purchasers. Good goods have never been so cheap be ore.

In Ladies' Underwear and Corsets, Misses' Underwear and Corsets, Gents' Underwear and Scar's, and Hosiery of all kinds, we show the largest and best selected stock at prices that will suit all. A peep into this department will convince the most skeptical that our prices, quality of goods considered, are lower than elsewhere. Inspection and comparison invited.

A Rumor That Lawrence Barrett Will Never Again Appear Upon the Singe. CINCINNATI, April 14 .- The Times-Star today says it is not improbable that Lawrence Barrett will never sgain appear on the stage. Edwin Booth has received two letters from his old friend very recently, one during his en-gagement in this city last week, clearly indicating that no work must be arranged for next season, at least in the way of a combination of these two stars. The operation in Baltimore refnored a large tumorous growth from Mr. Barrett's throat, but now comes the unwelcome news that simi-lar growth is on other portions of the body, and while Mr. Barrett's ceneral health is not af-fected, these tumors make it impossible to ap-pear on the stage.
