BUSINESS NOTES.

BUTERS and sellers of real estate did considerable dickering yesterday, but nothing important came to the surface THE drift of talk in Wall street yesterday was bullish, but it was not reflected in the stock market, which opened tame.

QUITE a village has sprung up where the colored camp meeting was held last summer, near Wilkinsburg. The ground was then vacant. BALTIMORE AND OHIO reports net increase of earnings for the past six months of $1,684,156. Earnings for March $84,152 more than in March last year.

MONEY is working toward greater case. A $15,000 mortgage was placed on Market street business property yesterday, by Fred Binehart, at 415 per cent, free of tax.

TALK on 'Change yesterday indicated strong probability of a war between the Duquesne and Pittsburg Traction Companies as soon as the incs of the former are completed, THIRTY-SEVEN mortgages were recorded on Tuesday, the largest of which was for $30,500. On the same day 35 deeds were filed, the con-sideration ranging from $1 to $7,000.

MR. GOULD said at Dallas, Tex., yesterday, that there was nothing new in the passenger rate matter, and he knew of no movement look-ing to a settlement of the differences. WORKNEN commenced tearing down Nos.

101, 103 and 105 Fourth avenue yesterday, to make room for the eight-story Vandergrift building, work on which will begin as soon as possible

AT a meeting of members of the Exchange and a memory of memory of the Conference Com-mittee in New York, embodying recommenda-tions for improving busines, was, after full ex-planation, adopt-d with only one dissenting voice. The resolution was printed in THE DISPATCH a few days are DISPATCH a few days ago.
