A SERIOUS MATTER.

Mr. F. R. Grimm Gives an Interesting

Statement of a Personal

Character.

He is connected with E. McCall & Co.,

"It was two years ago," continued Mr

Grimm, "that I first noticed my trouble. It came on with a severe cold, which I contracted through exposure incident to my work. I paid no attention to it, and finally it resulted in a case of chronic catarrh.

Mr. F. R. Grimm. Frankstown avenue. North

Dallas.

Mr. F. R. Grimm, Frankstown avenue, North Dallus.

"My head and nose were constantly stopped up. My eyes were weak and watery. There were roaring and buzzing noises in my ears. I had a dall, heavy pain in my forehead. I could feel the mucus dropping back into my throat. I was constantly hawking and raisire.

"I used various remedies and was under the care of different physicians, but could obtain no relief. I grew worse rapidly. The pain in my head became very severe. For six months I was not without a headache for a sincle day. I became quite deaf. My appetite failed me. It was a rare thing for me to eat more than one meal in 24 hours, and half the time I was unable to retain that. My heart would beat rapidly. The palpitation would be followed by a slow, irregular beating and a feeling of faintness. Sharp pains would shoot through my chest, extending as far as the shoulder blades.

"My nights were the worst. I could not sleep. The mucus would drop back into my throat and nearly choke me. I had to sit up in bed, and cough and raise to obtain relief. Night sweats set in and weakened me terribly. I was reduced in weight from 150 to 130 pounds. My limbs were so weak that often it seemed as though they could not bear my weight.

"It was while in this condition that I read of the wonderful success Dra. Copeland and Blair were having with cases similar to mine. I decided to try their treatment, and called at their office. They did not promise to perform any miracle, but I felt that they understood my case, so placed myself under their care.

"The result has been simply wonderful. I feel like a different man. I have no more headaches nor pains in my chest, sleep well, and have a good appetite; have gained in weight, and, to be brief, all the symptoms I mentioned have disappeared and I feel that I am now a well man. I was engaged entirely at night work, and this retarded my progress. Indeed, they did exceedingly well to get me on my feet again as soon as they did under the existing circumstances."

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocca, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Criti Service Gazette.

I will give $5,000 to any man or set of men that will meet me in public and show as many sound well cures of the different so-called incurable ailments of the human family as I can. I treated and cured of a monster tapeworm Dennis O'Donnall, of No.1 Wharton's Row, Southside, on March 25. Also, Max Koheler, of 44 Wylie ave., March 29. Also, two ladies on April 3, one from the Southside; and on

Allegheny and one from the Southside; and on April 71 treated Charles Pobland, of Latrobe, Pa., a gentleman from Pittsburg and a lady from Leechburg, Pa., and the result was three large tapeworms. Also, April 9, a lady from McKee's Rocks, Pa.; April 10, John Thomas, of McKeesport, Pa.; April 15, a gentleman from Sharusburg, Pa. And not last nor least, I treated Adolph Tilch, of Shawnee, O., on April 18, and in two and one-half hours relieved him shartsour; Fa. And not ask not least it treated Adolph Tilch, of Shawnec, O., on April 18, and in two and one-half hours relieved him of two very large tapoworms, making a total of 86 that I have taken in the last 16 months, and I am treating a gentleman from New York City at this writing (April 20), and a lady from Allegheny to-morrow, the 21st, and that will make 88.

Thousands are afflicted that do not know it. Send stamp for circular and see symptoms. Get Burgoon's System Renovator at all drugstores and use it, and you will save money, save suffering and save lives. And now is the time to treat for catarrh. I have the only cure on earth. Know me by my works.

A FEW 'FESSING UP.

All Speak-Easy Proprietors Don't Deny They Are Law Breakers.

LAST WEEK OF LICENSE COURT.

To-Day Winds Up All of the Retail Applicants in the County. ALLEGHENT WHOLESALERS TO-MORROW

The License Court yesterday heard the 48 applicants from Marshall, McCandless, North Versailles, O'Hara, Ross, Reserve, Robinson and Stowe townships. All in North Versailles were opposed, the township being nearly surrounded by prohibitory districts. There was strong opposition for wholesale license, 89 in number, will be heard. The court expects to finish its work this week. The retail list for the boroughs and townships will probably be handed down this evening, and the wholesale list for Allegheny, the boroughs and townships on Friday.

A petition for a rehearing by Herman J. Smith, No. 189 Federal street, Allegheny, was refused. Two applicants apply for Marshall townthip, Frederick Riley and William M. Wilson, both on the Perrysville plank road. Riley is licensed. At the recent election | yard. he went to the polling place armed with a petition for his relicensing and a half pint of whisky. He gave drinks to several citizens, who kindly signed his petition. He admitted that minors secured drinks, at second hand, in his barroom; that horse dealers played crackloo on his porch, and that a game of poker has been conducted in a house on the opposite side of the road. Mr. Christy called five witnesses against Kiley, and was about to call more, when Judge Ewing said that they could not take an hour to hear testimony. Richard Henry, bartender for Riley, testified that he got the "rake-off" from the poker game regularly, and gave it to Riley. He said that crack-loo for the drinks was sometimes played in the barroom.

HE PAID FOR IT.

Wilson is an oil country man who has been keeping a lodging and eating house at Brush Creek, accommodating oil drillers, tool dressers, etc. In 1885, when he kept a drug store in Mc Bride City, Butler county, he was prosecuted for selling whisky illegally. Without appear-ing in court, he settled the case by a payment ing in court, he settled the case by a payment of money.

James R. Pearce applied for a license in Mc-Candless township. Judge Ewing believed that McCandless township. Judge Ewing believed that McCandless was a prohibitory district, but the applicant was heard. Mr. Christy asked Pearce if he believed in a Supreme Being. The applicant said that he did. Four witnesses were sworn against him. George Swan said that Pearce sometimes got as full as boiled oil. Chas. Pearce, an uncle to the applicant, testified that no licensed house was needed there. The uncle, being pressed for the cause of his enmity against his nephew, finally said: "Well, he used to belong to the same church as I did, but he quit it, married into an infidel family and broke off from Christians altogether. He confessed to me that he was an infidel and I don't allow my children to have nothing to do with his children."

allow my children to have nothing to do with his children."

North Versailles township has five applicants; A. W. Douds, near Turtle Creek; August Goldstrohm, near Brinton station; Charles Jenkner, at Port Perry; Daniel McMunn, Wall station; Joseph Redfern, Wilmerding.

Douds is a few feet from the probibitory township of Patton, which contains nearly all Turtle Ereek. Goldstrohm, licensed in 1888, during 1889 delivered heer shipped out by the Iron City Brewery. Under the old law Jenkner was convicted of selling on Sunday and was fined $125 and costs. He said that he did not believe that there was a salconkeeper in Allegheny county, prior to 1888, who did not violate the law. Munn came into court wearing his Grand Army uniform and brass but-Allegheny county, prior to 1888, who did not violate the law. Munn came into court wearing his Grand Army uniform and brass buttons. In the consideration of the Munn case, Attorney N. S. Williams urged that the Court ought to grant a license at Wilmerding rather than to suffer the continuance of the illegal traffic there. Judge Ewing said that had become an old song, and he expressed the opinion that there is now more illegal selling than there was before the Brooks law.

There are seven applications from O'Hara township: Mrs. Mary Breedle, now licensed, on the Sharpsburg and Kittanning pike; Jacob Frees, near Sharpsburg; Captain Ezekiel Gordan, at Montrose; Philip House, near Sharpsburg; John Kammer, on the Kittanning pike; George Schneider, near Guyasuta, and Henry F. Thomas, now licensed, on the Little Pine creek road.

Gordon is an old river captain. He used to ran packets on the Allegheny before the railroads were built. House, Kammer and Schneider are ex-saloen keepers. Court took a recess for dinner.

OUT IN ROSS TOWNSHIP. Four of the applicants from Ross township are now licensed: Marcus Jenny and Joseph F.

D. Keating at West View: William Keown on the Perrysville plank road, beyond West View and Christ Schauzenback at the Five Mile House on the plank road. The other applicants and Christ Schauzenback at the Fire Mile House on the plank road. The other applicants are Matthew Cridge at Evergreen station and Henry C. Tennemeyer at Perrysville.

Cridge is an oid gentleman whose barroom is in the rear of his dining room. The material assertions of a remonstrance were all denied by him. Five witnesses called against him testified that the people of Evergreen did not want and did not need a saloon. Cridge owns the house in the Fourth ward of Allegheny where Charles O'Brien is preparing to open a saloon. The licensed men passed without difficulty. Tennemeyer used to keep a saloon in the Second ward of Allegheny, and for nearly three years has been in California.

Ten applicants appeared from Reserve township: Thomas Boehm, No. 698 East street; Adam Miller, No. 694 East street; Daniel Pfeifer, now licensed, corner of East street and Royal; Lewis Heyl, Mrs. Elizabeth Sigmund, now licensed, and Samuel Tschume, all on the plank road continuation of East street; and near the city line: Charles Fath, at "City View;" Conrad Rook, on Royal street; Conrad Unger and Franz Weckel, on the Troy Hill road.

Heyl admitted the illegal sale of liquor during the past winter. He said that he had to do that to keep up with the procession, as his neighbors were selling. Charles Fath, Heyl, Miller, Rock, Unger and Weckel kept saloons before the advent of the Brooks law. Tschume secured a bottler's license last year, but did not operate under it, as he did not understand the business.

William Henry Seuft, proprietor of the operate under's neese last year, but did not operate under it, as he did not understand the business.

William Henry Senft, proprietor of the "Summit House," is the only applicant for Robinson township. In 1888 he was returned for selling liquor to minors, but was not pushed. During the past year he has not had afficense. Rev. Douthett swore that in 1888 there was much rowdyism and drunkenness along the road near Senft's place, which had not been noticod since.

Stowe township brought up 16 applicants and a long list of remonstrants. The following are the anxious petitioners, all at or near Mc-Kee's Rocks: William T. Armstrong, Mrs. Mary A. Bryan, George Bielbel, Franz Burger, Frank H. Bragdon, James Bryan, John Bryan, Mrs. Theresa Gensch, James Grogan, William Lamb, William McCarthy, Emil Robitzek, John Schindehutte, Franz Paul Steedle, Theodore Smith and Al Young.

Mrs. Bryan was formerly postmistress and is the mother of two other applicants. Bleibel has reasted a house, whose occupant, his father, George Bleibel, during the past year had a United States retail fluor license. Burger kept saloons on the Southside and in Lawrence-ville before he became a citizen. He was naturalized in 1888. Bragdon was formally employed ville before he became a citizen. He was naturalized in 1889. Bragdon was formally employe as assistant steward at the Hotel Duqueane. A CANDID APPLICANT.

James Bryan applies for a house kept for some time by Geisler, who gave the place, Judge Ewing said, a terribily bad reputation, John Bryan said that during the past year he had "a kind of chromo called a wholesale license." Next door to him was Bleibel's speak-easy, where Bryan sold beer. John said to the court: "To tell the truth, a man can't run much more than a doggery under one of those so-called wholesale licenses." "That is very true," said Judge Ewing, Bryan said that he sold to speak-easies. "If I did not do that," he said, "I might as well close up."

Mrs. Gensch has the largest boarding house at McKee's Rocks. In her upper hall a lodge of the United Workmen meets. "You had better get rid of that," said Judge Ewing. "A license ought to give you enough business to occupy the whole house." Mrs. Gensch said that the lodge has a lease for the whole your. Lamb keeps a boarding house, where Pat Foley said he had eaten many a good meal.

Robitsek has been running a small boarding house and a large speak-easy. He said that he bought some of his Hquor from John Bryan. Schindehutte was returned in 1888 for selling to minora. Sheedle, like Robitsek, confessed the Judge Ewing said, a terribly bad reputation.

corn and said that he had sold liquor without license. Sunth was the first applicant for license during this whole session of court who acknowledged that he had ever been drunk, but he insisted that it was "only once." Judge Ewing said that he had understood that Mr. Smith drank too much, and that that was the only question in this case. Mr. Smith said he was ready to "let up."

Al Young, retund and smilling, was the last applicant of the diy. He has been in the business, off and on, for 18 years. He said that he had rented his boat to Kelly, who was selling drinks in it. Personally, he insisted that his own record was clear during the past year, and he told Judge Ewing that he thought he could obey the law, if licensed. He was verbally indersed by ex-Mayor Lyon, who said he had drank Al's dandelion beer with great relish.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR THE BILL.

Mr. Kelly Thinks the Merchant Murine Measure Will Pass. The Philadelphia Board of Trade has ap-pointed three delegates to go to Washington this week to urge on Congress the passage of the merchant marine bill. Mr. George A. Kelly is the local member of the Shipping League, and is also very much interested in the success of to the applicants from Marshall and McCandless. One man in Reserve township confessed to illegal selling, and three such confessions were made for McKee's Rocks, in Stowe township.

The Court will to-day dispose of the few remaining applicants for retail license, and will hear those who were not present when their cases were called, in city and country.

On Wednesday the Allegheny applicants for wholesale license, 89 in number, will be the measure. Mr. Kelly said he couldn't see and thought he had consumption, as his DR. SHAFER. parents had both died with consumption, in speaking further of the matter he said. "I consulted Dr. Shafer, of the Polypathic Institute, about my kidney trouble, which he cured in a few weeks. He also gave me medicine for my lung disease, which I had considered beyond reach, but imagine my surprise and joy when I discovered that I had also been cured of my lung trouble. It is now three months since I took treatment, and not a single symptom has returned, and I never in all my life enjoyed better health than I new do. I am pleased to recommend Dr. Shafer to all who are suffering as I was. A. W. Douds."

Value and Price.

Look through the spectacles of advertisements sometimes published, and you'll think the MADDIAND O DI LID clothing business is carried on for recreation and philanthropy; that it pleases storekeepers to ask one price today, and quarter price tomorrow. But investigate. You'll find there's always a close relation between the value of our goods and the price. Investigate these astonishing offers, and you'll find the shifting price is caused by the doubtful merit of the goods. Special Attractions in Millinery Display. Dainty Bonnets, Nobby Toques and Stylish Hats in endless variety.

This nice April weather—a foretaste as it were of what's to come—naturally sets the ladies to thinking what they should wear and how their dresses should be trimmed. Some folks get through life without many trimmings thrown in. They endure but do not enjoy living. We're glad to be in a position to liven matters up a little this week with trimming bargains. The ladies of both Pittsburg and Allegheny will appreciate in a practical way by coming to our establishment for what they want in this line. We've no further words to waste, but will convey to vou in cold type a few hard facts and figures we believe will interest everyone who reads them. Here they are as to Drapery Nets, etc.:
