ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW CASTLE, April 23 .- A boiler explosion took place at 6:40 A. M. to-day at the Etna iron works, throwing timber and bricks in great quantities over that portion of the mill where the hookers - up were engaged and partially wrecking the plant. The day shift had just come to work and the mill was pretty well filled with employes. The head of the boiler was blown totally off with such force that some of the debris struck by it was thrown

A rescuing party was at once organized and the work of extricating the dead and mutilated bodies of the victims commenced. John bodies of the victims commenced. John Welsh, aged 15, who had just arrived with his father's breakfast, was blown 40 feet into the fivwheel pit, striking the edge of the wheel, which nearly cut his body in two, the was instantly killed. George Kingensmith was also killed instantly, his head being fearfully crushed. Bernard and Joseph Ragan were very seriously scalded, and may die. Lawrence Film was severely scalded and bruised. Andrew Myers inhaled the escaping steam, had his right leg badly burned and will probably die. John A. Blaine had his arm broken by a flying brick, Lafayette Schapnecker and Matthew Garvin were slightly injured.

A tramp who was enjoying the hospitable warmth of the engine room was thrown 20 feet without injury to anything except the clap-boarding. He got out of the debris and ran away. away.

It was several hours before the body of young Welsh, which was horribly mangled, could be removed from the wheel pit, as it had been jaumed between the wheel and the ground.

A NEW CHANNEL NECESSARY,

A Government Engineer Recommends the Straightening of Stony Creek.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JOHNSTOWN, April 23.—Mr. Carl Scherk, assistant to Colonel Merrill, United States Engineer at Cincinnati, bas just completed a survey of the river here. His investigation covers the condition of both rivers, and he is very emphatic in his statement that a larger water way than the present must be made. He recom-mends that the Steny Creek river be straightened by cutting a new channel, changing its course for a distance of half a mile, and says a much deeper channel should be made and the grade of the town raised as the only sure pre-ventive of overflows. His examinations were A force of men will renew the search for the dead in a few days, and will continue all

Became So Unendurable That Her Room Mate Murdered Her. PROVIDENCE, April 23.-The State Institu tion at Cranston was last night the scene of a tragedy. Mary McCarthy losing her life at the hands of Catherine Hanley. The assault oco'clock, and the inmates were asleep. The night watch, Mrs. Charles Norton, heard the sound of a slight scuffle, and hastened above to see the McCarthy woman being assisted to the room adjoining, where she vomited blood. She was taken back to bed and died almost in-stantly. Stantly.

Before her death she said the Hanley woman "had pounded and murdered her." The women slept side by side in separate cots, much to the annoyance of the Hanley woman, whose rest was broken by the nightmare ravings of Mrs. McCarthy.

FAILED TO CONVICT.

An Omnha Editor Accused of Disturbing a Religious Meeting. OMAHA, April 23.-E. Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee, was placed on trial to-day at Tekamah, Neb., on the charge of disturbing a religious meeting. Last fall he appeared before an audience assembled to listen to a temperance lecture by Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, and asked that he might be heard in order to refute slanders which he asserted Mrs. Gougar had publicly made against him.

Mrs. Gougar denied him the privilege and he was arrested for disturbing a religious meeting.

After the examination of four witnesses to-day the case was dismissed by the Prosecuting At-
