small crowd however. bome boys won hands down in as lively agame as will be seen in this city this season. A large crowd was present, and both sides received hearty applause. Although the Wheeling club had the game virtually won in the first few innings, interest was kept up to the last. Following is the core by innings:

make the teams more determined to wallop each other. There was no doubt at all about the earnestness of each side in the struccle. There was brilliant playing all round, and some very noisy kicking. Old Sport Galvin, however, was on deck with blood in his eye, and he completely wiped out all insults that he suffered on Saturday. Comiskey's star aggregation could do little or nothing with the old man. He hopped about like a frisky youth of 19, and had as much vigor

Jimmy pitched one of his old-time games, and that's all there was in it. And he was admirably supported. Quinn was put in behind the bat instead of Carroll, and did very well. The fielders did first class. Manager Hanlon not only did great things in the field, but he yanked out three hits, one of them being a triple. Corcoran, the Eastern youth of promise, also did well, both in fielding and at bat. The Chicagos also fielded admirably, but their soft spot was Mr. Dwyer in the box. He was rapped gay and lively.

There was the usual kicking about the um-pire's decision. The visitors assailed Gunning for alleged bad judgment on balls and strikes, and, doubtless, he was a little off. Gunning also called a balk on Galvin, and that stirred up the elements on the local side. Hanlon argued the matter with the umpire, but it was useless. The contest, however, was a fine one for all that, because it was of the kind that is in doubt until the very last man is out. In the first two innings nothing was done on either side, although it looked as if the Windy City people were going to size Jeems up in the

ond. In the third inning the home players men were out. Corcoran and Galvin both were retired on flies and Hanlon, the third man at bat, had two strikes called on him. He got his eye on the next, however, and banged it clean over the fielders' heads into left field for three called balls, filling the bases. There WAS SOME EXCITEMENT when Beckley came to bat, and he sent the little crowd wild by thumping the ball far into left for two bases, sending home Hanlon and Visner. Fields retired the side by knocking a fiv into Farrell's hands.

Corcoran sent out a fine single to center field, and then old Galvin came to the rescue. He made one of his famous swipes and knocked the ball far down right field near the foul line The hit caused more cheers and Jeems puffed around to second base and Corocran scored. Hanlon knocked a fly to Duffy and retired the side. In the fifth inning Visner lea off by cracking the ball into right field for two bases, and he reached third on Quinn's sacrifice. Beckley was on deck again and sent Visner home by a fine single to middle.

The visitors made their first run in the third inning. Bastian reached first on a fumble by Galvin, but Latham's grounder forced Bastian out at second. Latham stole second and got to third on Duffy's sacrifice hit. While O'Neil was at bat Quinn had a passed ball and Latham scored cleverly on the error. After two men scored cleverly on the error. With a tie in the second, Daily started in by hitting Sunday. This seemed to make him still wilder and he forced in a run by hitting Hemp and giving Hines and Miller each bases on balls. Hemp was caught at third and Dunlap and La Roque tying at first, retired the side. Pittsburg's lead was shortlived, however, as Cleveland pounded Daniels again in their half of the second. Smalley took first on balls. Daily sent him home with a two-bagger and scored on Davis' hit to left. Gilks' hit to left brought him in and the side was retired by Dawes' easy drive to Dunlap. Pittsburg jumped to the front again in the third inning. Kelty and Daniels both took their bases on balls. Hemp's single to left scored Kelty. Hines' two-bagger cleared the bases. Pittsburg put Gray in the box in the third and, though six men went to bat, no scores were made. Sommers attempted to pitch in the fourth inning and met with as lively a re-ception as his predecessor. La Roque drove a single to center. Youngman got his base on

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, April 23 .- The increased force of Government inspectors of immigrants at this port, including R. D. Layton, of Pittsburg, who was assigned to his new post to-day, will be under John E. Milholland, who has been made chief of the immigrant inspection department. Mr. Milholland said to-day that he and his assistants would make strenuous efforts to enforce the law in spirit as well as letter. The incoming ships will be met at Quarantine and the inspectors will be met at Quarantine and the inspectors will there begin the work of finding out what immigrants violate the law.

Collector Erhardt decided to-day that the five Italians detained on Tuesday would have to go back. Surgeon General Hamilton visited the barge office to-day, and after a careful inspection decided that from a sanitary point of view it was an undesirable place to land large numbers of immigrants. He also visited Castle Garden, which he regarded as a much preferable landing station.

At the immigration investigation to-day Jacob Terkuile said about 25 per cent of the immigrants coming to America by the Taber line, of which he was the agent, had sent their tickets from here. They were mostly railway laborers. Names of the passengers are given, The steamship companies refuse to sell more than ten tickets to any one person. This is done to preventspeculation in tickets. He was asked if he had been aboard the steamer Pactana, the last arrival on his line, and replied that he had not. "Well, I was," rejoined Congressman Owen, "I found the vessel very dirty. The sleeping places were very dirty and there were no washing or closet accommodations in the steerage. On the upper deck there were three pumps at which the 789 passengers were obliged to wash in 12 small basigs as best they could. One immigrant said that they were obliged to eat out of these pans as well as wash in them."

Mr. John C. Cortes, passenger clerk of the Cunard Line, testified that his line carried about 27.000 immigrants last year. They were mostly English, Irish, Scotch and Scandinavians. About 3,000 prepaid tickets were sold here for friends or relatives to come over.

Arthur Lederer, passenger agent of the Red Star Steamship Line, testified that the steamers of that line brought 23,000 immigrants to this country from Antwerp last year. They were of Swiss, French, German and Belgian, nationalities. No inducements were held out to them to emigrate.

Bad as it was in its dreadful work, it has at the same time wrought what seems to be a miracle at the State Insane Hospital at Westboro. The cases described by Dr. N. E. Paine, the superintendent of the hospital E. Paine, the superintendent of the hospital furnished some of the most singular phenomena in the study of mental disorders and the curative virtue of disease upon disease. Lagrippe swept through the Westboro Insane Hospital, just as it did through other institutions, and while some succumbed to its ravages, others, seven in number, not only recovered health, but reason as well. ut reason as well. Dr. Paine's report gives a minute statement of each case, and makes it conclusive that each cure followed an attack of the Russian malady.

MERRY MILK MEN.

Four Sharp Burglars Masquerade in Tha Character, but Are Caught. CHICAGO, April 23,-Alderman John Dahlman's tailor shop was mysteriously denuded of its entire stock of goods last night. Today the plunder was found in a house close to the police station. Captain Kipley and a couple of officers, while on a general hunt, stumbled upon a painter named Clair, who, in his rooms, was pawing over the Alderman's costly wares. Quietly waiting in the house the police neatly nabbed three of Clair's fellow-thieves as they, an hour apart, dropped around to examine the spoils.

an hour apart, dropped associated and before being taken out of the den each, was made to confess. The goods, they said, were brought to the place of concealment in milk wagons stolen for the purpose, no suspicion attaching to the seeming milk peddlers apparently busy in the early morning. The thieves had even cracked jokes with policemen while conveying the plunder away.

BRAZILIAN WOMEN WON'T VOTE.

Chance of Them Getting the Ballot Just at Present. RIO DE JANEIRO, April 23. — General Decoror da Fonseca, the head of the Provi-sional Government, says he is determined to deliver up the Government the to Legislative Congress just as soon as possible, and that internal peace and order shall be maintained, let t cost what it may. From some words that the General and his ministers have let drop, it would seem that they are convinced of the necessity of removing the capital from the metropolis, or principal commercial city, just as soon as possible.

The Provisional Government has declared that it does not consider it the proper opportunity, nor convenient, for any change in the legislation now in force regarding the registration or elective franchises of women.

A Scene in a Church.

There was a ludicrously sudden descent from the sublime to the ridiculous in a country church when a clergyman, preaching on the misseries entailed by sin, suddenly exclaimed: "Thank God, I am not a sufferer: my miseries have all been healed, and what did it?" The change of tone started one of the deacons from a drowsy mood, and springing to his feet, he cried out: "Tutt's Liver Pills." The deacon was right in his estimation of this celebrated medicine. They will certainly cure your "miseries" if they result from dyspepsia, torpid liver, chilis, headache, loss of appetite, costive bowels, malaria or general debility. Take the deacon's advice and try them.

COONEY is a "heady" little player. He is never at a less to know what to do with the ball. Yesterday, in the eighth inning, when the Reds had three men on bases, he came within an ace of making a triple play. Beard sent a shashing redhot liner right at him. Cooney nailed it, although it nearly took him off his feet. Quick as a flash he ran to second, doubling up Marr, and three to first just too late to get Holliday.—Cinciunati Enquirer. batted Van Haltern very heavily to-day and won the fourth game of the series with Brooklyn.
