ALLEGHENY WHOLESALE DEALERS Just Forty-Four of Them Decided Out of

Seventy-Four Who Applied. A NUMBER YET TO BE ACTED UPON

The License Court yesterday heard 73 wholesale applicants from the boroughs, seven of the listed men failing to appear. To-day the boroughs will be finished, and

BACK FROM CHICAGO. After dinner Thomas Brennan was heard. He has been keeping a saloon in Chicago, having been refused a retail license in this county in 1888. Attorney Yost asked Brennan if he was not indicted, in September, 1888, for the lilegal sale of liquor, and if he did not fly to Chicage on the same day that the indictment was found. Mr. Brennan declared most emphatically that he had never heard of such a thing. Mr. Yost later produced the record of indictment. George Morrison and Michael Mooney are opposite one another at the northern end of Braddock. Morrison is a blacksmith and Mooney an express wagen owner, both being ex-saloon keepers. Joseph Striebich was refused a retall license. He was never in the business.

The Chartiers borough (Mansfield) applicants were cross-examined by Attorney W. M. Price. There were 18 on the list, all but three being on Fourth avenue. James Gallagher is an old butcher who has been hauling beer for D. Lutz & Son. He was asked by Attorney G. P. Murray if he did not deliver beer at the house of Quinn, at Bridgeville, the piace being called "the dollar-in-the-slot cellar." Mr. Gallagher admitted the delivery of as many as ten kegs some weeks, but said that he had never he had never beard of such a thing. Mr. Yost kegs some weeks, but said that he had never heard of the "slot." Mr. Murray alleged that a man would put $\foxed{Slot}$ into a box and walk away with an eighth of heer, a watchman looking on to see that there was no fraud.

Nearly all other Chartiers applicants were cross-examined by W. M. Price. Julius Gott-fried, now licensed, has done a business of $\foxed{S3}$. 500 since July 10, 1889. Henry Hamma, who is licensed, has a bottle trade, and hauls whisky to his farmer customers. Jacob Rappel, h-censed, has a $\foxed{S0}$00 trade. The Keystone Brewing Company, D. Whittaker, a grocer, and Lawrence Oeffner, collector and barrel maker, propose to go into business as L. Oeffner & Co. William Walton is now a manufacturer of soft drinks.

The Second Homestead ward furnished 16 applications, five of them by the C. Bauerlein Brewing Company, the Keystone Brewing Company, D. Lutz & Son, Pier & Dannals and the Iron City Brewing Company, Louis Amshel and Herman Labovitz are young Hebrew City garmakers. Stophen Bauer cannot speak English and his wife stood up and talked for him. John Donahue is an ex-saloon keeper who has been trying to keep a family of ten with a pick

John Bohanne is an ex-saloon keeper who has been trying to keep a family of ten with a pick and shovel for two years.

David R. Lewis died on March 3l. His attorney, S. A. Wills, filed a petition to have Mrs. Lewis substituted, but Judge Ewing said that the court had no power to do such a thing. Levi Myers has been working for Joseph Levi, Braddock liquor dealer, for several years. Samuel Osborne is a lame miner whose wife is in the Westmoreland County Insane Asylum. Patrick Rodgers used to keep a saloon in England, and in this country has been a mill man and a boss baker. Peter Schmitt was held over until to-day, because his attorney could not be present. Charles A. Schulz, the only applicant for the Third ward, is a brewer.

Third ward, is a brewer. Third ward, is a brewer.

Judge Ewing yesterday extended the time for the payment of the wholesale license fees in Pittsburg to May 1, because the judges have not had time to approve all the bonds.

No more lists of grants will be handed down until the entire list of applicants is finished, probably next Monday or Tuesday.

ALLEGHENY WHOLESALE LIST.

Over Half of the Applicants Get What They Asked the Court For. Judges Ewing and Magee made up their list of wholesale grants for Allegheny before they Catarrh to Consumption. Catarrh to Consumption.

Catarrh in its destructive force stands next to and undoubtedly leads on to consumption. It is therefore singular that those afflicted with this fearful disease should not make it the object of their lives to rid themselved of it. Deceptive remedies concocted by ignorant pretenders to medical knowledge have weakened the confidence of the great majority of sufferers in all advertised remedies. They become resigned to a life of misery rather than torture themselves with doubtful palliatives.

But this will never do. Catarrh must be met at every stage and combated with all our might. In many cases the disease has assumed dangerous symptoms. The bones and cartilage of the nose, the organs of hearing, of seeing and of tasting so affected as to be useless, the uvula so elongated, the throat so inflamed and irritated as to produce a constant and distressing cough, Sanford's Radical. TAKE HEED.

It is an absolute fact that many suffer, and indeed too many are daily hoodwinked by patent medicine and quack treatment, and they give way to foolish advice and leave a regular schooled and reputable physician to resort to all kinds of patent nostrums in vain to find health and strength, when they could really be health and strength, when they could really be assured that there is more nourishment in one bottle of Klein's Silver Age than in a carload of the stuff they call "invigoratora" It is, too, a fact not to be passed by, the indorsement of well-known physicians, who cheerfully indorse this excellent and pure stimulant. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS ANOTHER GREAT SUFFERER Cured by the Catarrh Special-

The above is a portrait of Mrs. Elizabeth Bratt, who lives at Verner Station. The catarrhal secretion that formed in her head and dropped down into her throat, caused a severe ulceration to set in. Her mouth, throat and her food, and was compelled to eat only soft foods. She would often have sharp pains in her face, and a drink of cold water would cause the most intense pain. As some of the catarrhal poison extended to her lungs, she coughed badly, her breath became short and she felt much pain and soreness in her lungs. She had a constant weak, tired feeling, and she often felt so nervous that her whole body would be in a tremble. The food she ate would sour on her stomach, and she felt a full, distressed feeling after eating. Her heart would often palpi-tate as if it would jump out of her body. She had much pain across the small of her back and lower part of her body. Exposure to cold air would cause her to take cold, and often for a month at a time she would not dare to step outside the door. Although doctoring all of the time she gradually grew worse. She lost much flesh, until she only weighed 98 pounds. It was while in this condition that she began treatment with the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, at 323 Penn avenue, and became cured. She says: "My disease was of 12 years' standing, and my condition was much worse than has been described. I now feel well and strong, as I did when I was a girl, I have regained my flesh and am very glad to testify to my cure, as above stated by these specialists. Signed with my own hand, "MRS, ELIZABETH BRATT."
