

Table with 2 columns: Page Number and Article Title. Includes 'MAMMOTH NUMBER', 'THE NEWS AND SPECIAL FEATURES', 'THE AMERICAN CLUB BANQUET', 'THE POLITICAL FEAST', etc.

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."

THE TOPICAL TALKER. A Nobleman Among Dogs—The English Mastiff Quite and Curious Customs Reproduced for a Charitable Purpose—The Masonic Organ Recital—Other Social Events. From early morning until late in the afternoon yesterday, the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church resounded with the merry laughter and gay chatter of the members of the "Ariadne Old Mission Band," who were preparing for the G. O. G. concert, which took place last evening.

A JAPANESE WEDDING. A Unique Church Entertainment—Quiet and Curious Customs Reproduced for a Charitable Purpose—The Masonic Organ Recital—Other Social Events. From early morning until late in the afternoon yesterday, the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church resounded with the merry laughter and gay chatter of the members of the "Ariadne Old Mission Band," who were preparing for the G. O. G. concert, which took place last evening.

VON BULOVS' RECITAL. The Noted Pianist's Appearance Greeted by an Appreciative Audience—The Program an Interesting and Artistic One. After a lapse of 13 years the second appearance of Hans von Bulow before a Pittsburgh audience was made at Old City Hall last evening. It would be hard to say just how many years have elapsed since such another audience in numbers and quality has been gathered in this city to listen to a piano recital, unaided by solitaires and attractions.

OUR MAIL POUCH. Condition of the Allegheny Cemetery. Cemeteries should be kept up in a style corresponding to the amount of money paid for them, and also to the wealth of the holders, as well as their wishes. Cemeteries are exempt from taxation and other outlays required of other corporations, and of course, when such an institution is popularly inhabited by the honored dead of great city is of course expected of the managers that they keep the highways and byways in good condition, and the grounds and graves over-trimmed and kept in order.

WORTH TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS. To State That an Artist Produced a Foot With Six Toes. LONDON, April 25.—The trial of the action for libel brought by Mrs. George Augustus Sala against Mr. Furniss, the caricaturist, took place today and resulted in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. The libel was contained in an after-dinner speech made by Mr. Furniss. In his remarks Mr. Furniss stated that Charles Dickens had refused to marry Miss Sala, and that the latter had sent to the American School of drawing which contained a picture having six toes. The caricaturist, Mr. Furniss, said that he had drawn these facts Mr. Furniss said Mr. Sala is now art collector on the London force.

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."

entertainment would not be wholly out of place with the spirit of the occasion. For this do political clubs give banquets. WASTE OF TIME. Speaker Reed is reported by a Washington dispatch to be angry over the way in which the members of the House are wasting time. The further detail is given that the debates of the past few days are characterized by the speaker and those who agree with him as "pure rot."