AN INTERESTING GAME AT BUFFALO.

Cleveland, 9..... Pittsburgh, 8

The first game of the Cleveland Players' League team with Pittsburgh was as close and exciting as a continual saw and hard hitting could make it.

The first ball Gruber pitched Hanlon touched for a single to left, a passed ball and a wild pitch sent him to third and he scored on Carroll's long fly to Browning.

CORCORAN'S BIG HIT. In the second inning Fields got a base on balls. Kuehne sent a high one to center, but McKeever secured.

PITTSBURG DID NOT SCORE IN THE FOURTH INNING, but Cleveland crept up two notches, and drew unaccountably close to the home team.

McAleer's single sent the ex-Athletics man to third, and Gruber's hit to left beat him across the plate.
