Elaborate Decorations for the Americas Banquet To-Night.

REED ALMOST LOSES HIS SPIKE-TAIL

On a Baltimore and Ohio special train which will reach Pittsburg this morning at 7:45 o'clock, will be a very distinguished party of statesmen and politicians, who come to signalize the Grant banquet of the Americus Club at the Seventh Avenue Hotel this evening. A. J. Logan, of the Americus Committee of Escort, telegraphed

There were no possible means of removing
Cappeller unless the Governor came to the from the Baltimore and Ohio depot at relief of the Legislature, and this evening he Washington, at 7:42 o'clock last evening, ing him on the ground that he is inefficient that everybody was aboard, and that no hitch of any kind had occurred. There was | Later he sent the name of Norton to the Sena story current in Washington that Senator ate for confirmation, which was done. A guny was coming over on the Pennsy to avoid the necessity of traveling with Hon.

B. Townsend, of Lima, who was defeated for

Whether there was any foundation for the story or not, Mr. Logan's telegram stated that the tollowing gentlemen were on board the train, and in high feather, both politically and personally: Hon. M. S. done the Committee of the committee investigating charges against the State Board of Pardons submitted a report which experts the Quny, Hon. John Dalzell, Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Hon. Thomas M. Bayne, Hon. H. L. Swords, Congressman Osborne, Hon. Louis E. McComas, First Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson, Colonel H. L. Swords and Messrs. Cushing, Leech, Murphy and Spofford. This is the entire party expected, Senator Allison having not been a certainty.

THE HARRISBURG CONTINGENT. Secretary of State Stone telegraphed from Harrisburg that Governor Beaver, Attorney General Kirkpatrick, Hon. W. H. Davies and himself would leave Harrisburg at midhight. Supervising Architect Windrim, Richard R. Quay and Hon. G. V. Holliday, United States Commissioner of Customs, guests of Postmaster McKean, will be on the same train. The stalwart form of General D. H. Hastings will alight from the same train, as will Hon. W. H. Andrews, Chairman of the State Republican Commit-tee. Hon. H. K. Boyer, State Treasurer-elect, expected to come, but telegraphed from the home of his father at Colledgeville, Pa., that the serious illness of the latter keeps him away. Edwin S. Stuart, President of the State League of Republican clubs, telegraphed from Philadelphia his inability to State Senator who is running for Governor, will arrive from Meadville this morning, accompanied by his brother, coming on the Valley road.

Chairman English, of the Committee of Arrangements, is desirous of having everything move promptly, and requests that members of the club be on hand between 6 and 7 o'clock, so that all can be in their seats at sharp 7. The guests of the evening will enter to a burst of music arm in arm, and those present will be afforded an excellent opportunity of seeing political asperities overcome by banquet amenities.

Private Secretary Halford wrote to Mr.

English regretting his inability to be present, and stating that President Harrison would forward a suitable telegram to be read at the banquet. A similar expression is looked for from Hon. Channey M. Denew, who was to have turned loose his oratorical Gatling gun, but who pleads his just recovered health as a reason for not indulging in ways and means to lose it.

A REALLY BIG GUN. More interest attaches to Speaker Reed's now assured presence than any other feature of the banquet. He will put his best foot

After the arrival of the distinguished Chalfant and others, will be a pleasant epoch, and the guests from Washington will be supplied on their arrival with the tickets newal of hospitalities during the afternoon, and the statesmen will then array themselves in the traditional spike-tail, and make ready for the tray. The menu cards, by Eichbaum & Co., are strikingly beautiful, and every detail of the banquet is in the best of preparation.

Rev. George Rodgers, of the Verona P. E. Church, will invoke the divine blessing, and it is hoped to get the banquet over with and the feast of reason begun by 9 o'clock. Mr. Clarkson will speak about 20 minutes, and Mr. Reed's time will be his own. Mr. McComas' speech on the "New South" is awaited with great interest.

The guests' table will be the great point of interest. President Harry E. Paul will have Governor Beaver on his right hand and Hon. Thomas B. Reed on his left. Senator Quay's seat adjoins the Governor and Hon. John Dalzell will be just across the

ALL OF THEM TOGETHER.

On the opposite side of the table will be the entire list of Gubernatorial candidates; Major E. A. Montooth, Senator Delamater, General Hastings, Congressman Osborne and Secretary of State Stone. Such a lying down of the lion and the lamb has not often been seen, and the nature of the occasion is a guarantee that there will be no factional emonstration of any kind.
The choicest roses that Florist Patterson can procure will bloom for the banqueters. Over 1,000 will be used in the decoration but not in any stereotyped design. They will simply be placed in handsome vases and arranged in the most effective manner. They will all be of the long-stemed variety, some of the American Beauties being fully a vard in length of stem.

Rare exotic plants and towering palms will make a veritable tropical foliage against which the beautiful coloring of the roses will be enhanced, and fully 500 yards of smilax will gracefully twine and cling round chandeliers and pillars. The wel-coming arch, which will be a masterpiece of artistic skill, composed of carpations, shaded from the deep carnation to the pure white, will be suspended from the ceiling over the stairway, where it will cordially greet each and every guest as he enters. ALMOST A CATASTROPHE.

A special from Washington last evening to THE DISPATCH says: Almost a catastrophe occurred just previous to the de-parture of the train. Speaker Reed had given his gripsack and overcoat in charge of his colored messenger, who delayed his strival at the depot for so long that the under price.

Thinking the messenger might have mistaken the instructions and gone to the wrong station, a courier was sent by a flying cab over to the Baltimore and Potomac sta-tion to hunt up the recalcitrant gripsack, but no trace of man or gripsack could be found there. Just as the train was about to pull out the messenger hove in sight, and the terrific strain of the situation was re-

The Buckeye Legislature Will Adjourn of Monday Morning-Governor Campbell Summarily Bonnes Railroad Commissioner Capeller.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1

COLUMBUS, April 25.-The Legislature will adjourn Monday morning. The principal point of interest to-day was the reorganization of the Commissioner of Railroads, W. S. Cappeller. The House tacked on an amendment which made it impossible for the Governor to appoint J. A. Norton, Chairman of the State Central Committee, as he desired to do. The Senate refused to concur in the amendment, and a committee of conference struck out the objectionable feature. In this shape the bill was passed by the Senate, but by the time it reached the House there was not a quorum and will not be again this session, hence the bill could not

NEW YORK, April 6, 1889.

To Messrs. Wm. Knabe & Co.: The Knabe pianos, which I did not know before, have been chosen for my present concert tour in the United States by my impresario and accepted by me on the recommendation of my friend Bechstein, ac-quainted with their merits. Had I known these pianes as now I do, I would have chosen them myself, as their sound and touch are more sympathetic to my ears and hands than all others in the country.

DR. HANS VON BULOW. The many hundreds of delighted owners of Knabe pianos in this community and their thousand friends will cheerfully join Dr. von Bulow in his enthusiastic praise of the matchless qualities of the "Knabe" a an instrument answering every demand and requirement of the artist musician.

Another American Woman Will Marry a French Nobleman.

TWICE CONFINED AS A LUNATIC. He Claimed Residence in This Country to Get Out of a Scrape.

MRS. J. C. AYER TO WED A REAL PRINCE

PARIS, April 25 .- The American colony here is now excited over the news of the approaching marriage of Mrs. Charles F. Livermore, of New York; a well-known social leader there and at Newport, to Baron Raymond Seilliere. Mrs. Livermore is expected in Paris next Saturday, and the marriage, it is said, will soon follow.

"The Baron is a brother of the well-known Princess de Sagan, and he is wealthy in his own right. Many people, however, assert that he is crazy. He has already been confined in several lunatic asylums.

The Baron has been well known in New York since 1886, having been introduced there and at Washington by the Marquis de Mores. He is a tall, slender man, with a dark complexion. In 1887 he came to Paris with Count Sala, of the French Legation at Washington, and Commandant d'Ullman, a Catholic Hungarian nobleman. He was also accompanied by Charles F. Livermore, the well-known banker of New York.

A POLITICAL PLOT. The Baron boasted at that time that he possessed papers compromising to the Or-leanist cause. Invited to dine with his aunt, the Duchesse de Bergues, he was seized at her house by a party of men who hustled him into a cab, and 15 minutes later he was in the private lunatic asylum of Dr. Fairet, at Vauves. The Baron claims the whole thing was a plot to get him out of the way. At that time he boasted that he was engaged to marry an American lady of great wealth, though it was asserted that he already had a wife living. When Baron de Seilliere failed to return from the dinner at his aunt's house Mr. Livermore and other friends of his suspected foul play, wrote to the Princess de Sagan, who replied that he had gone to Germany. They learned the true facts, however, by mploying detectives, and went to Ministe McLane, who then represented the United States here, whom they convinced that the Baron had declared his intention of becomstreet, New York.

UNDER AMERICAN PROTECTION.

After receiving instructions from Washington Minister McLane called upon Mr. Flourens, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs. M. Faillieres, French Minister of the Interior, stated in the Chamber of Deputies that, the Baron having been placed in the asylum at the request of his family and having been examined and found insane, the Government refused to release him. M. Gaillard, in the Chamber, maintained, howeuer, that the Baron was not insane and that his family were seeking to get hold of

The Baron, however, was released on July 20 and immediately sailed for New York on the Gascogne, being accompanied by M. Livermore and Commandant d'Ullman. On the voyage he exhibited eccentricities of behavior that led many people to regard him as still insane. He put up at the Brunswick Hotel last spring and stopped at the Livermore Cottage at Newport and visited Mrs. Paran Stevens. Soon after, he went voluntarily to the Homeopathic Asylum for the Insane at Middletown, N. Y., and remained there for some weeks.

INSANITY IN THE FAMILY. The Baron's brother Frank married in 1880 Diane de Gallifet, danghter of the French Marquis and General of that name. There is insanity in the family, for the Princess de Sagan sent her son. Louis Helyde Tallerand-Perigord, to the Asylum of St. James, from which, however, he was subsequently released. The adventures of the Baron have long been notorious among the American colony in Paris, and as his intimacy with the Livermores is well known, the reported approaching marriage is an absorbing subject for gossip. Mr. Livermore died within a year.

Meanwhile another American lady of wealth and social position, also a New Yorker, is reported to have contracted an alliance in aristocratic circles, for it is said that no less a person than Mrs. J. C. Ayer, who recently broke her arm by being thrown from a carriage in the Rue Galilee, is to marry Prince Dolgorouki, a cousin of the morganatic widow of the murdered Czar of Russia. Mrs. Aver is a millionaire and has a fine house on Fifth avenue. It is being debated in the American colony which is the higher alliance, as Princes are plentiful

THE FOUR HUNDRED DISPLEASED.

Young Ward McAllister to Become a Wine Seller in New York City. NEW YORK, April 25 .- Ward McAllister, Jr., son of Ward McAllister, the socalled leader of the famous "Four Hundred," is negotiating with W. H. Fearing to form with him a partnership in the wholesale wine and liquor business. Nearly all the arrangements, it is said, have been completed, and in a little while they propose to open at No. 24 Broad street.

The friends of McAllister were inclined to think that such a step on the part of his son will cause his retirement from the ranks of "society." Some of the Four Hundred who were seen thought so, too. To them the news was like the shattering of some great Mr. Fearing was found at his home, No. 7

Mr. Fearing was found at his home, No. 7
East Forty-third street. He was asked as to the truth of the story that young McAllister was about to become his partner in the wine and liquor business. "I have nothing to say," he said, "beyond this, Nothing has yet been done. What may happen in the future I cannot say. You had better see Mr. McAllister. It is a business and personal matter, and I do not care to discuss it."

The leader of the Four Hundred lives at No. 16 West Thirty-sixth street, and his son is living with him. Young Mr. McAllister was not at home, but his father was in. He saw the reporter, and in answer to a question as to the matter, said: "It's my son's business. I am not connected with it. Yes, it is true, negotiations of this character have been carried on with Mr. Fearing, said Mr. McAllister. "But the matter has not been settled yet. I cannot tell when it will be settled or whether any such arrangement will at all be made. It's my son's business purely." SPIRITUALISTICALLY MARRIED,

But Got a Breach of Promise Verdict on a Dead Man.

WICHITA, April 25 .- In the Common Pleas Court this morning a verdict for the plaintiff in a breach of promise case was rendered against a dead man, Jonas Tramblie, who committed suicide here last Christmas. Rose King, the plaintiff, entered suit for $10,000 on discovering that Tramblie, to whom she had been 'spiirtual-istically' married, had a wife living, and the next day the old man shot himself.

Petitioning Against Foreign Workmen. PORT HURON, April 25. - General Spaulding, of Detroit, Treasury Agent, has been petitioned by 450 Fort Gratiot workmen, asking that the law against foreign contract labor be enforced. The petition states that thore are 100 Canadians employed in Fort Gratiot. Mr. Spaulding has presented the matter to the United States District Attorney.

Too Handy With His Pen.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25 .- E. C. Atkins & Co., manufacturers of this city, report that a traveling salesman recently in their employ named J. H. Stone has forged their name to a number of checks which he has cashed in Tennessee, North Carolina and other Southern States. Warrants are out for his arrest. Stone is a young man recently married.

A Very Important Announcement Is made by the East Pittsburg Improvement Company in another column. It seems that the demand for lots in the neighborhood of the Westinghouse Airbrake Company's great plant at Wilmerding has necessitated the opening up of an additional plan of lots adjoining the growing town. A 10 per cent discount is allowed on all purchases made on the opening day, April 29, and for one week thereafter. The handsome profits made by early investors in the original plan will doubtless occasion a great rush for lots in the addition.

CURED BY CUTICURA

I have used your CUTICURA REMEDIES in two cases where it proved to be successful. The first was in the case of a boy a year and a haif old. His face and body were in a terrible condition, the former being completely covered with sores. I took him to the Massena Sulphur Springs, but he did not improve any. I was then advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which I did. He took one and one-half bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, when his skin was as smooth as could be, and is to-day. I used the CUTICURA on his sores and the CUTICURA SOAP in washing him. He is now 5 years of age and all right. The other case was a disease of the scalp, which was cured by washing with the CUTICURA SOAP and rubbing in the CUTICURA, one bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT being used. They have proved successful in every case. It is surprising how rapidly a child will improve under their treatment.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

On the Female Face. Superfluous hair is an excessive growth of hair on the upper lip, chin, cheeks, throat, fore-head, between the eyebrows, on the nose and ears; also on men's cheeks above the beard line and from moles and birthmarks.
