

all over Western Pennsylvania. West Vir ginia was raided and her voters enthused, and the club dropped into Ohio several times to give Foraker a boost. After the campaign had ended the greatly increased membership of the club and its brilliant record led to the permanent organization of of the body as a political club. Advocates of the social side of club life were met by the argument that to be distinctive politically there must be but little attempt at social pre-eminence.

Upon that basis the club started and has had its wonderful growth. Its immense non-resident membership at the present time has generated a sentiment within the club in favor of a clubhouse with provision for material and creature comforts as well as mental entertainment. The whole matter, however, is in abeyance at the present time. The permanent organization was schieved by a re-election of old officers and the addition of the following committees:

Executive Committee. John D. Littell. H D W English John McKam, Daniel Dempsey, Marshall Johnston, William S. Brown. Richard Barrows, James M. Sprague, Allan C. Kerr, W. T. Reiter, A. M. Keppel. Constitution and By-Law Committee. (PERMANENT.) N. P. Ramsey, C. F. Odell. H. D. W. English, E. L. Devore, A. C. Kert. A constitution was gotten up under which the club lived until this year, when a new and much more elaborate and thorough constitution was reported and adopted, its

Harry S. Paul, President Americus Club. purpose being to simplify certain matters in connection with the machinery of the club, and to transfer certain responsibilities to committees instead of dealing directly with them by the club membership; apt to prove unwieldy by reason of its size.

An Obstacle Removed. Prior to the adoption of the new constitution there had been certain episodes based upon political factionism, and although their immediate effects had been salutary in clearing the murky atmosphere of threatening clouds, the warmest friends of the club thought it wisest to remove future opportunities for the expression of feeling beyond the pale of the floor. A lively struggle for supremacy in the club was ended by an emphatic expression as to the composition of the Executive Committee, and since that placed each and every member of the club on record, no divisions of opinion have threatened a disturbance of the prevailing harmony. Such questions are by no means nunsual in political organizations, and it is to the credit of the membership that everything was open and above board, and that wounds which in other clubs might have rankled deeply, in the Americus members have left no sting. In other words, storms which might have wrecked any other club have been weathered, the harbor of protecwas a flawless effort of oratory. General Nathan B. Goff spoke in response to "The New South." Active Young Campaigners. The campaign services of the Americus

Club in 1888 were notable. All parts of Western Pennsylvania and a portion of Ohio were visited, and the opening of the Onio were visited, and the opening of the campaign in Pittsburg at the Market House, with "Black Jack" Logan as the speaker, will be remembered as the greatest political meeting ever held in Pittsburg. The most prominent men of the city were upon the plat-form in the capacity of Vice Presidents, and the campaign so successfully started had a termination extremely gratifying to the Americus Club in the success of the candi-Americus Club in the success of the candi-date whose boom first reverberated in the ears of the Americus Club. Among the incidents of the campaign was the parade o' the Harrison and Morton cohorts in New York City, where the Americus Club leaped into prominence as the finest marching club in a parade which included the crack clubs of the country. The proposition made by the Americus Club to the National Republican Committee was also a remembrance o can committee was also a remembrance of the campaign. They proposed to equip a special train, and escort Mr. Blaine over the length and breadth of the country, but after mature deliberation the idea was abandoned.

The present status of the club was clearly in the scope of last night's banquet, and he who runs may read. The present officers of the club have been single in their devotion to the details of the banquet with a result elsewhere indicated. Their names

The Widow's Regrets. 3 EAST SIXTY-SIXTH STREET, NEW YORK, April 23, 1890. Mr. H. D. W. English and the Committee of DEAR SIRS-I received the invitation to the fourth annual dinner given by the Americus Republican Club in honor of General Grant's birthday, and considered it a courtesy of the Committee of Arrangements, as I did not suppose there would be ladies present. I cannot express how highly I appreciate this continual attention of the James S. McKean, Second Vice President club to the memory of my husband, and I would be glad to have the members know Yours, very truly, JULIA D. GRANT. The following letters of regret were read at the banquet last evening: The Son of His Father Speaks.

LEGATION OF THE U.S., ? VIENNA, April 8, 1890. MY DEAR MR. ENGLISH-Your letter asking me to be present at the dinner to be given by the "Americus Club" in honor of my father's birthday, is received, for which I thank you and the club very much. The great distance of Vienna from Pittsburg is all that will prevent my being present upon an occasion so interesting to me. Although I cannot be with you upon the 26th inst., I cannot resist expressing by letter the deep appeciation which I feel of the manner in which the Americus Club continues to honor the memory of my father, General Grant.

It is touching to me and to all the members of my family to see his memory thus kept green in the hearts of the people whom he loved to serve. Wishing each member of the Americus Club prosperity and happi-ness, believe me with you in heart and at the birthday of Ge al Grant should be commemorated, and his heroism and services should be celebrated for ages yet to ome. Very truly yours, JOHN SHERMAN.

Connecticut's Son in Sympathy.

SENATE CHAMBER April 5. Please convey my hearty thanks to the Americus Republican Club for their kind invitation to attend their fourth annual disper on the sixty-eighth anniversary of the birth of General Grant. I am sure it will be an exceedingly agreeable occasion, and I sincerely regret that my engagements and duties forbid my acceptance. Sincerely yours JOS. R. HAWLEY.

Alger Swinging Around the Circle.

DETROIT, MICH., March 14, 1890. I assure you it would give me great pleas-ure to be with the Americus Club on the 26th prox., but my official duties attending the Department Encampments of the G. A. R. will take every hour of my time until the first day of May, when I shall be in the State of Washington. On the date named I am to be in California, to attend the Department Encampment, or rather just startng from that place for Oregon and Wash. With many thanks for your comngton. plimentary words, and regretting that cir-cumstances will not allow me to be with you, I am, Sincerely yours, R. A. ALGER, Senator Spooner Deals In Compliments. I have your favor of the 6th inst., inviting me, on behalf of the Americus Republican Club, of Pittsburg, to be present at their iorthcoming dinner, on the anniversary of General Grant's birthday. I beg to express my grateful appreciation of this renewed courtesy upon the part of your club, and to assure you that it would give me very great pleasure to be able to avail myself of it. Please present my compliments and thanks to the Americus Club. With best wishes for the prosperity of the club and for yourself, I am, yours very truly, John C. Spooner.

VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER, April 5. I regret that engagements already made prevent the acceptance of the invitation with which I have been honored by the Americus Republican Club, of Pittsburg, to be present at their dinner commemora-tive of the birth of General Grant. The occasion would be one of great interest to me and I regret I cannot join you in paving tribute to the memory of the illustrious soldier and statesman, Ulysses S. Grant. With renewed thanks and regrets, believe LEVI P. MORTON. me.

A Precious Legacy, Says Carnegie. PITTSBURG, March 12, 1890.

Many thanks for the kind invitation to adiress the Americus Republican Club at the dinner in honor of General Grant's birth-While greatly appreciating the flattering invitation. I regret to say that preasing engagements made far in advance, prevent me from accepting. The memory of General Grant is a premous legacy to the nation, and you do well indeed to commemorate it. Very respectfully yours, ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Ingalls' Accents Honeyed.

SENATE CHAMBER, March 7. I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your very obliging invitation to attend the annual dinner of the club in commemoration of the anniversary of the birth of General Grant, and in reply I would say that it would give me sincere pleasure to be present, but my engagements and public duties are such that I shall be unable to attend. With thanks for your courtesy, Very truly yours, JOHN J. INGALLS.

SENATE CHAMBER, April 7, 1890. I thank you for your invitation to be present at the fourth annual dinner of the Americus Republican Club, of Pittsburg, when you will celebrate the sixty-eighth an-

I have yours inviting me to meet the Americus Club on the occasion of the anniversary of General Grant's birthday. Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to join you at that time, but I cannot promise to do so, as I have engagements which will occupy my whole time. Regretting that I cannot answer affirmatively, I am, with great respect, yours very truly, WM. B. ALLISON.

Colerado's New Senator.

SENATE CHAMBER, March 25, 1890. I regret very much that I cannot accept your kind invitation to attend the fourth annual dinner of the Americus Club at Pittsburg on the 26th of the month. I have held your invitation in the hope that I could see my way clear to accept, but circum-stances compel me to decline. Again thanking you, 1 remain, yours very truly, E. WALCOTT.

Wanamaker Emphasizes Dinner.

P. O. DEPARTMENT, March 8, 1890. I have the honor of your letter of the 6th, with its invitation to the next annual dinner of the Americus Club on April 26. It would give me great pleasure to meet the 800 business men and Republicans compos-ing your club, especially at dinner, but I cannot see how it would be possible for me to be absent from my official duties at that time. Kindly accept my sincere thanks for the courtesy extended, and be good enough to express the same to your associates. Yours, most sincerely, JOHN WANAMAKER. The President's Law Partner, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, April 8, 1890

Please convey to the Americus Republican Club my thanks for their invitation to the dinner on the sixty-eighth anniversary of the birth of General Grant. It would George S. Houghton, Secretary Americus Club. give me pleasure to be present on that oocasion, but, I regret, other engagements will prevent. W. H. MILLER.

Silver Bill Versus Bill of Fare. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, April 8, 1890.

The Secretary of the Treasury acknowledges the courtesy of the invita-tion of the Americas Republican Club, of Pittsburg, and regrets that plans partially matured will prevent his attend ince at their fourth annual dinner on April 26, the sixty-eighth anniversary of the birth of General U. S. Grant. A Member of Grant's Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, April 23, 1890. It is a source of extreme regret to me that cannot accept your invitation to attend the fourth annual dinner of the Americas Republican Club. The occasion, I doubt not, will be consecrated to the purest love of country, and eloquent lips will exhaust their powers to please and instruct in giv-ing expression to the grateful tributes of an sporeciative people to the nation's great soldier and patriot. If my duties elsewhere did not forbid I would gladly join you, and welcome the opportunity of aiding by my testimony in assigning to General Grant the proud position which justice and truth will ever claim for him in the history of our will ever claim for him in the anstory of our country. No one has exceeded in the grandeur of his achievements for liberty and humanity. No one has contributed more to the perpetuity of our Union,
