

concent to a consequent reduction of wages to meet the decrease in working hours.

The Cost of Living Increased. "The cost of production will increase, and the cost of living will have to advance in the same proportion."

Assistant Postmaster General James S. Clark was seen at the Seventh Avenue Hotel last night.

Thinks Eight Hours Enough. "I do not think this agitation is going to benefit business."

Philosophic View of It. John E. Hanan, editor of the Glass Budget, looks at the question in a philosophic manner.

Wanted's Work at All. A member of a wholesale building firm in the city, who requested that his name be omitted.

Assistant City Controller John J. Davis thinks eight hours is long enough for any man to work.

Editor John Flannery, of the Trades Union, gives an interesting and instructive account of the situation.

When Not Force the Issue. "Locally, the building trades are not to force the issue."

LABOR LEADERS' VIEWS. A DIVERSITY OF OPINION AS TO PRACTICABILITY.

Some Think the Agitation Has Not Reached Enough—Others Say the Present is Just as Good a Time as Any to Settle the Matter.

MAKING THEM THINK. Food for Reflection Found in Mr. Reed's Speech.

OPINIONS ON BOTH SIDES. Doings of the Day After the American Club Banquet.

THE GUESTS ALL RETURN HOME. The speech of Speaker Reed at the American Club banquet on the Federal election question, was the subject of general comment among the local politicians yesterday.

THINKS REED DESPOTIC. General P. M. Guthrie was met on the street, and after he had been posted as to its drift, he said: "Well, you know Reed is a despot, anyhow, of the rankiest kind."

WAS HE ASSENT. Postmaster James S. McKean was to have been the host of the table next to the R. Orchestra, those at that table being present by his invitation.

AN IRON POLE CHARGED. Electricity From the Second Avenue Line Knocked Down an Italian—A Baby Suffocated While Asleep—Deaths Investigated by the Coroner—Some Severe Wounds.

THE CLUB MADE FAMOUS. Said Robert W. Taylor, one of the orators, before leaving for New York, at the Union Square meeting.

LOOKED AT IN ANOTHER LIGHT. According to Joseph L. Evans, Master Workman of D. A. 3, Knights of Labor, the rule would do away with the members of his organization.

WHEN IT WOULDN'T WORK. "The general idea of true government is to confer the greatest liberty on the greatest number, in the truest and highest sense of the word."

LOST A SECOND TIME. Little Helen Paul, Three Years Old, Colored, Drowned in the River.

WORK OF THIEVES. The Police Recover Mr. Reese's Stolen Horse and Buggy.

TAKING FRESH HOLD. Railroad Troubles Pass Into the Hands of the Supreme Council, WHO WILL BE IN THE CITY TO-DAY.

HE TALKS FOR CLOSER COMMUNION. The intensity of the lull in the railroad difficulty during the greater part of yesterday seemed to indicate that the agitation would be without any benefit to the men resulting from the two-weeks' hard work.

STILL FEARS OF A STRIKE. However, if it is the opinion of the council that the men should get more money or shorter hours, they will call for a strike.

THE CHANCES OF A STRIKE. The chances of a strike would seem to be somewhat lessened by the fact that it requires a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council to order a tie-up, and two members of the body are said to be greatly against it.

WARNED TO BE CAREFUL. "When the Supreme Council comes tomorrow, said he, 'I want you to go before them and tell me what you know. Tell the truth, and don't be afraid of any man or set of men.'"

SOME YARDS CROWDED. There was nothing new in the yards yesterday. Freight was being removed as usual, and the yards were crowded.

A SUNDAY ENTERTAINMENT. New Board of Managers of St. Michael's Parish.

WORK OF THIEVES. The Police Recover Mr. Reese's Stolen Horse and Buggy.

Special for To-Day. For men, 500 electric blue coats and vests, bound with mohair, $12.50.

WEDDING GIFTS. POTTERY, CUT GLASS, BRIC-A-BRAC.

E. P. ROBERTS & SONS. Special display in new Art Annex.

WHAT THEY WILL DO. Work Ahead of the Allegheny Public Library Committee—As to Mr. Carnegie's Representative—Book Matters and Art Works to be Considered.

CHARLES W. DALLINGER, Esq., Chairman of the Library Committee of Allegheny County, was seen at his home in Allegheny last evening and questioned as to the probable business of the initial meeting of the committee this evening.

ALL EXTREMELY SATISFIED. All the guests, before their departure, were seen by committees of the American Club. They one and all expressed extreme satisfaction over the success of the dinner.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL IS COMPOSED OF THE FOLLOWING GRAND OFFICERS: F. P. Sergeant, Grand Master of the Federation; W. Debs, Vice Grand Master; William A. Sheehan, Chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; W. G. Howard, Chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors; A. B. Davis, Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen; John Sweeney, Grand Master of the Switchmen's Association; John Downey, Vice Grand Master; S. E. Wilkinson, Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; William Simons, Chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors and Trustee John Glenn.

THE CHANCES OF A STRIKE. The chances of a strike would seem to be somewhat lessened by the fact that it requires a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council to order a tie-up, and two members of the body are said to be greatly against it.

WARNED TO BE CAREFUL. "When the Supreme Council comes tomorrow, said he, 'I want you to go before them and tell me what you know. Tell the truth, and don't be afraid of any man or set of men.'"

SOME YARDS CROWDED. There was nothing new in the yards yesterday. Freight was being removed as usual, and the yards were crowded.

A SUNDAY ENTERTAINMENT. New Board of Managers of St. Michael's Parish.

WORK OF THIEVES. The Police Recover Mr. Reese's Stolen Horse and Buggy.

Special for To-Day. For men, 500 electric blue coats and vests, bound with mohair, $12.50.

WEDDING GIFTS. POTTERY, CUT GLASS, BRIC-A-BRAC.

CAPTURED A WIDOW. She Put on Her Best Dress and Diamonds, and Went Away With Her Guests Made a Hasty Exit Over the Garden Wall.

CLEANING OUT THE SPEAK-EASIES. "You'll go so many" Chief Brown has said this in his joyful words to the speak-easy proprietors, but the number of raids made by the police yesterday speak in words which cannot be misunderstood.

THE CHANCES OF A STRIKE. The chances of a strike would seem to be somewhat lessened by the fact that it requires a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council to order a tie-up, and two members of the body are said to be greatly against it.

WARNED TO BE CAREFUL. "When the Supreme Council comes tomorrow, said he, 'I want you to go before them and tell me what you know. Tell the truth, and don't be afraid of any man or set of men.'"

SOME YARDS CROWDED. There was nothing new in the yards yesterday. Freight was being removed as usual, and the yards were crowded.

A SUNDAY ENTERTAINMENT. New Board of Managers of St. Michael's Parish.

WORK OF THIEVES. The Police Recover Mr. Reese's Stolen Horse and Buggy.

Special for To-Day. For men, 500 electric blue coats and vests, bound with mohair, $12.50.

WEDDING GIFTS. POTTERY, CUT GLASS, BRIC-A-BRAC.

E. P. ROBERTS & SONS. Special display in new Art Annex.

JOS. HORNE & CO.'S. PENN. AVE. STORES.

FOR A SCORE OF YEARS. Has the Women's Foreign Missionary Board Done Good Work—Pittsburgh Delegates Leaving To-Day for Washington—A New President to Elected.

THE twentieth annual assembly of the Women's Foreign Missionary Board, in session in Washington, to-morrow will enlist the attendance of a number of Pittsburgh ladies. There are five boards, the Chicago, Occidental, Southern, New York and Philadelphia, the latter, the oldest of the quintet.

THE CHANCES OF A STRIKE. The chances of a strike would seem to be somewhat lessened by the fact that it requires a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council to order a tie-up, and two members of the body are said to be greatly against it.

WARNED TO BE CAREFUL. "When the Supreme Council comes tomorrow, said he, 'I want you to go before them and tell me what you know. Tell the truth, and don't be afraid of any man or set of men.'"

SOME YARDS CROWDED. There was nothing new in the yards yesterday. Freight was being removed as usual, and the yards were crowded.

A SUNDAY ENTERTAINMENT. New Board of Managers of St. Michael's Parish.

WORK OF THIEVES. The Police Recover Mr. Reese's Stolen Horse and Buggy.

Special for To-Day. For men, 500 electric blue coats and vests, bound with mohair, $12.50.

WEDDING GIFTS. POTTERY, CUT GLASS, BRIC-A-BRAC.

E. P. ROBERTS & SONS. Special display in new Art Annex.

JOS. HORNE & CO.'S. PENN. AVE. STORES.

WHAT THEY WILL DO. Work Ahead of the Allegheny Public Library Committee—As to Mr. Carnegie's Representative—Book Matters and Art Works to be Considered.

CHARLES W. DALLINGER, Esq., Chairman of the Library Committee of Allegheny County, was seen at his home in Allegheny last evening and questioned as to the probable business of the initial meeting of the committee this evening.

ALL EXTREMELY SATISFIED. All the guests, before their departure, were seen by committees of the American Club. They one and all expressed extreme satisfaction over the success of the dinner.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL IS COMPOSED OF THE FOLLOWING GRAND OFFICERS: F. P. Sergeant, Grand Master of the Federation; W. Debs, Vice Grand Master; William A. Sheehan, Chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; W. G. Howard, Chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors; A. B. Davis, Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen; John Sweeney, Grand Master of the Switchmen's Association; John Downey, Vice Grand Master; S. E. Wilkinson, Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; William Simons, Chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors and Trustee John Glenn.

THE CHANCES OF A STRIKE. The chances of a strike would seem to be somewhat lessened by the fact that it requires a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council to order a tie-up, and two members of the body are said to be greatly against it.

WARNED TO BE CAREFUL. "When the Supreme Council comes tomorrow, said he, 'I want you to go before them and tell me what you know. Tell the truth, and don't be afraid of any man or set of men.'"

SOME YARDS CROWDED. There was nothing new in the yards yesterday. Freight was being removed as usual, and the yards were crowded.

A SUNDAY ENTERTAINMENT. New Board of Managers of St. Michael's Parish.

WORK OF THIEVES. The Police Recover Mr. Reese's Stolen Horse and Buggy.

Special for To-Day. For men, 500 electric blue coats and vests, bound with mohair, $12.50.

WEDDING GIFTS. POTTERY, CUT GLASS, BRIC-A-BRAC.

FOR A SCORE OF YEARS. Has the Women's Foreign Missionary Board Done Good Work—Pittsburgh Delegates Leaving To-Day for Washington—A New President to Elected.

THE twentieth annual assembly of the Women's Foreign Missionary Board, in session in Washington, to-morrow will enlist the attendance of a number of Pittsburgh ladies. There are five boards, the Chicago, Occidental, Southern, New York and Philadelphia, the latter, the oldest of the quintet.

THE CHANCES OF A STRIKE. The chances of a strike would seem to be somewhat lessened by the fact that it requires a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council to order a tie-up, and two members of the body are said to be greatly against it.

WARNED TO BE CAREFUL. "When the Supreme Council comes tomorrow, said he, 'I want you to go before them and tell me what you know. Tell the truth, and don't be afraid of any man or set of men.'"

SOME YARDS CROWDED. There was nothing new in the yards yesterday. Freight was being removed as usual, and the yards were crowded.

A SUNDAY ENTERTAINMENT. New Board of Managers of St. Michael's Parish.

WORK OF THIEVES. The Police Recover Mr. Reese's Stolen Horse and Buggy.

Special for To-Day. For men, 500 electric blue coats and vests, bound with mohair, $12.50.

WEDDING GIFTS. POTTERY, CUT GLASS, BRIC-A-BRAC.

E. P. ROBERTS & SONS. Special display in new Art Annex.

JOS. HORNE & CO.'S. PENN. AVE. STORES.