Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were regarded as incurables and accepted as life legacies, have been cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. The prompt and certain relief is itself a great boon to sufferers and has made Chamberlain's Pain Balm immensely popular in many places. A single trial, which requires an outlay of but 50 cents, will convince you that rheumatism can be cured and that Chamberlain's Pain

Balm will do it.

Pittsburg's Volume of Trade Beyond

That of All Former Seasons,

LITTLE GAIN TO MANUFACTURERS.

Factories for the Production of Light

Weight Hardware Goods

NOW A CRYING WANT OF THIS CITT

Oppice of Phitsburg Disparch

Tussdax, April 29, 1890.

The jobbing hardware trade was never better in this city, so far as volume of business is concerned, than it is at this time. All ware that pertains to this season of the year is moving out with unwonted activity. The heaviest demand is for agricultural implements. In the early part of the senson there was a general apprehension among jobbers that this would be a poor season for refrigerators, owing to the great searcity of the ice crop. Retailers at first ordered sparingly fearing a light trade. These fears have passed groundless. Refrigerators are every year coming to be more regarded as a necessity instead of a luxury. Dealers who were conservative in their views a month or two ago, and ordered sparingly, have of late found it necessary to duplicate orders. A leading jobber of hardware said to day that for any former season. There is season than for any former season, There is season than for any former season. There is the season that for any former season, there was a general manual trade of the first ordered a larger volume of trade in refrigerators for this season than for any former season. There is the season than for any former season. There is the season than for any former season. There is the season than for any former season. There is the season than for any former season. There is the season than for any former season. There is the product of day that orders already on his books assured a larger volume of trade in refrigerators for this season than for any former season. There is also a greater demand for lawn mowers than in any previous season. Hardware merchants report that all hands are hustling to fill orders.

From the manufacturer's standpoint trade s not altogether lovely. Prices of all iron and steel products are down to hard pan, and in some lines even below. Nails can hardly be produced at a profit at present prices, which are 30c per keg below rates of last fall, when there was a boom. But steel nails are jobbed at 82 per keg, and there are rumors that even this low price is belug shaded by some who are over anxious to sell. The Situation at Present.

There are but two of our nail mills in operation, namely, the Shoenberger and that of

There are but two of our nail mills in operation, namely, the Shoenberger and that of Chess, Cook & Co., and these are operating in a small way simply to meet local trade. Manufacturers of cut nails are by no means anxious for orders, for it is a question if they can come out even at present cost of raw materials. It is doubtful if any department of the greatiren and steel industry has suffered so much from competition and depressed trade as the cut nail department.

Wire nails are off 50@60c per keg from the highest point reached last fall. The present jobbing rate is $2.50 per keg against $3.10, which was reached within six months. The nail makers would find it to their interest to shut down, were it not for the fact that idle mills depreciate so fast, and that it is even better to run at slight loss than to retire from their field. The majority are no doubt run at this time in the hope that the tide must turn before long. In the meantime the weakings will be forced to the wall, and we will have practical decreased. The majority are no doubt run at this time in the hope that the tide must turn before long. In the meantime the weaklings will be forced to the wall, and we will have practical demonstrations of Darwin's theory as to the survival of the fitter. point of the fittest.

Barbed wire has declined from 4c to 31/4c per pound within a few months.

Pittsburg's Fame Abroad. As an illustration of Pittsburg's reputation as a great hardware center, one of our leading rehants received within a day or two a letter rom the new State of Washington, ordering some special articles in hardware lines, which, the correspondent said, he had tried in vain to the correspondent said, he had tried in vain to obtain from Western cities, but knew that Pittsburg merchants would have them in stock. Though our city has made great progress of hat years in the manufacture of hardware goods, there is still room for even greater advances. Our productions in this line are confined mostly to heavy weight articles, on which there is the least profit. Pittsburg from and steel travel in great quantity to the far East, to return again in the shape of finished products of light weight. These things ought not so to be. In the old time we had our povelty dull and quiet; Rio fair at 19½c.

Minneapolis—Receipts of wheat for the manufacture of hardware goods, there is still room for even greater advances. Our productions in this line are confined mostly to heavy weight articles, on which there is the least profit. Pittsburg iron and steel travel in great quantity to the far East to return again in the shape of finished products of licht weight. These things ought not so be. In the old time we had our novelty works, but they had their day and ceased to be. There are a multitude of household implements and light hardware which could be produced in this city cleaper than any place on the continent, for which we now only furnish the raw material into finished products is a contribution to the prosperity and weakled of Pittsburg. The Every company organized to work up the raw material into finished products is a contribution to the prosperity and wealth of Pittaburg. The more the merrier.

The Chicago Trade Quiet, With a Weaker Feeling and Lower Prices On Wheat-A Very Light Business in Both Pork and Lard. CHICAGO-Wheat-The market was again very quiet to-day and the feeling developed was weaker and prices averaged lower. There is no doubt that the widely advertised labor demonstrations having some effect upon trade, operators evidently feel indisposed to wait until e affair is settled. There was a lack of outside news and that which did come to hand generally favorable to the interest of holders. but the influences did not have the usual effect buyers being timid and instead of a strong market, prices generally eased off. The open ing was about 1/2c higher for July than yester day's closing but eased off %c and closed about %c lower than yesterday. May declined 1%c below the opening and closed lige lower tha Cable advices were generally quite favorable to holders and crop news of a bullish character. Crop news from the winter wheat districts continue rather unfavorable and de not show any particular improvement. Indiana and Missouri sent in gloomy reports to-day and the Illinois crop reports indicate a much smaller crop than last year. Corn was fairly active, a good general speculative business being reported within a range of 140 %c. The feeling developed was weaker and a still further decline was recorded on all futures. The fine weather and more liberal receipts were the chief influences on values and offerings were larger than for several days past. A good deal was sold for country account by receivers, and shippers were also liberal sellers. Local warehousemen were also offering considerable May, while the buying was scattered. The decline of outside markets, both Eastern and Western, of 14@14c also helped to Eastern and Western, of 14 % also helped to depress values. The market opened at vester day's closing prices, was weaker, sold off 36 % c. railied a little, ruled steady and closed 46 % c. lower than yesterday. Oats were fairly active, but weaker and prices ranged lower, but inside figures were not maintained, last sales being at 16 decline for May and June, but steady for the more deferred futures. Weakness was due to large receibts. to large receipts.

Pork trading was comparatively light. Feel-

Pork trading was comparatively light. Feeling was easy and opening sales were made at 15@20c decline. Later the market showed a little more steadiness and prices rallief again 15@30c, and closed comparatively steady.

Lard—Very light business transacted and celling was comparatively steady. Fluctuations in prices were slight and exhibited little change from closing figures of Monday.

Rios—A fair trade was reported but the bulk of the business was in transferring contracts. Opening sales were made at a slight decline on Monday's closing figures, but a steadier feeling prevailed—later—and prices rallied 25@5c. Toward the close the feeling was quiet and the market closed at about outside figures.

LANDS AND HOUSES CHANGING HANDS

The following shows the drift of opinion concerning the condition of the real estate market:

Black & Baird-Business was dull early in the month, but it has picked up and is now fairly active. Charles Somers & Co .- The demand during the past week or more shows that the market has almost recovered from the depression of the early part of the month. We think the improvement is permanent.

C. Beringer & Son-There is no boom, but there is a good deal going on. The great trouble is to bring buyers and sellers together to close up transactions.

Baxter, Thompson & Co-We have no reason to complain. The inquiry for property is almost as great as ever.
C. H. Love-The market has been rather quiet so far this month, due, perhaps, to the in-dustrial muddle, but there are sigus of improvement all around. I think the outlook is very encouraging.

Changes Above Grant Street. The block bounded by Sixth avenue, Grant street and Virgin and Cherry alleys has undergone a complete change within the past two or three years. The first act in the transformation scene was the erection of the Excelsion block. Two or three large livery stables soon followed, and then came the Free Dispensary on the site of old Turner Hall. The change is still more clearly seen in the fact that a large number of houses formerly used as dwellings have been remodeled and in some cases rebuilt and occupied by tradesmen in various lines of

This change is regarded as the forerunner of a similar movement in other blocks in that part of the city; for it is a rule, well understood by real estate brokers, that where a break is made in a neglected locality it is soon followed by others. Besides, the pressure on the lower part of the city is demanding an outlet, which is found in perfection in the district of which Grant street is the western boundary. Wants the Tax Rate Lowered. A prominent banker and property holder, in the course of conversation yesterday, remarked: "It has been my experience for some years that taxes absorb about one-third of all I receive as rents. One of my properties brings in $9,000; $3,000 of this goes for taxes. This is the uniform average. I think there should be a law limiting assessments on property to 2 per cent. This would afford sufficient revenue for all legitimate improvements. If the city wants luxuries it should wait until it can afford them, and not place too heavy a burden on property close of the previous day. Sales were 105 shares.

It was remarked by several brokers that there was no scarcity of orders, but the majority of them were below ruling quotations. Manufacturers' Gas was offered at 20. The close was at medium figures. It is thought business will improve when outsiders become familiar with the new deal. FIRST | SECOND | THIED CALL CALL

FILTHY LUCRE.

The Local Money Market Continues Fairly Active and Stendy.

Business at the city banks presented the usual features yesterday. Money was easy with a good discount demand, which was supplied to regular customers at 6 per cent, Outsiders, as a general thing, had to pay 7. Depositing held its own, but checking dropped off. It was still heavy, however, showing an active business movement. The exphanges were $2,481,556 19, and the balances $308,306 14.

Money on call at New York yesterday was easy, ranging from 3%@4% per cent, last loan 4, closed offered at 4. Prime mercantile paper, 5@7. Sterling exchange quiet and weak at $4,84% for 60-day bills and $4,86% for demand.

DISTRESSINGLY QUIET.

The Oil Boomer Polls to Show Un-Field News Tame.

A listless feeling dominated the oil market resterday, and trading was light, although the range was wide enough for good pyking. The opening was about steady, but the market soon went down under selling by Bradford and Oil Movements in Real Estate.

There were no exciting developments in real estate yesterday, but the gossips were busy as usual. One gentleman of high standing in financial circles, said he had been apprised of a deal on Wood street, with which he was disposed to connect Lafayette Hall, but investigation failed to verify the report. It was ascertained, however, that the property is for sale.

Transactions reported are appended.

J. C. Reilly, 77 Diamond street, sold for Richard Casey to Frank H. Kramer, a five-eighths interest in the wagon and carriage manufactory, corner of Cherry and Virgin alleys; also, for William Breeze to John Glynn, for $2.050

A DAY OF UPS AND DOWNS.

Railroad Stocks Fluctuated in a Very Peculiar Style-A Strong Rally About Noon-The Leading Features of the Binrket.

New York, April 29.-In Wall street to-day were again free realizations, but general sentiment, indicated by general course of prices, is till very bullish, and all offerings both from realizations and the hammering of the bears are steadily absorbed, and prices continue to move upward slowly but steadily. The reports of an interview with Mr. Gould at St. Louis last evening created considerable of an impression, he not a bear. The report circulated on the street on the strength of dispatches from Chicago that a basis of settlement of the rail-road fight had been reached failed of confirmation later in the day. The news that Chairman Walker had been summoned to St. Louis to confer with Gould created a renewal of feeling and buying of Missouri Pacific became the great feature of the day. The London market was again materially higher than ours last evening, and London sent large buying orders, which had the effect of opening our market up with the Loudon favorites of Louisville and Nashville, Northern Pacific preferred and Nor folk and Western preferred leading. North ern Pacific was favorably affected by news a syndicate had taken Northern Pacific bonds set aside to retire issues of the Oregon Transforced prices off, and the disappointment over the report of Union Pacific made that stock a leader in the decline, which, however, in few instances reached over slight fraction A vigorous rally started toward noon, in the best prices of the day were generally reached toward delivery hour. Realizations again put a stop to improvement, but only for a time, and the market finally closed active and strong. Northern Pacific preferred leading the last upward spurt. The final changes are invariably in the direction of higher figures, and while most advances are for small fractions. Northern Pacific is up 2 Missouri Pacific 1% and Pacific Mail 1%.

Railroad bonds were again active and strong all the way out, the business of the day being $2.610,000, with material gains all over the list. The Atchison incomes, the Wisconsin Central incomes and the Texas incomes were the active specialties, and all were strong. The Hocking Valley issues, the Denver and Rio Grande 4s, the Cedar Falls firsts, the St. Louis and Cairo 4s, and the Richmond and Danville debentures were strong bonds, and while there were few declines noted, they were not of special importance. Government bonds have been dull and steady. State bonds have been dull and steady. The Post save: There was considerable real-Elgin creamery butter is steady at headquar-ters. The Butter Board at Elgin reaffirmed last week's prices, and markets were stronger there than for a week or two past. Choice grades of cheese are also firmly held. Potatoes two past. Choice stock, however, holds its own. There is a fair supply of cabbage, but demand is up to supply. Green beans and peas are coming in freely from Tennessee. Green onions are scarce. Apples are slow. Eggs in side quotations. BUTTER-Creamery, Elgin, 21@21%c;Ohio do, 19@20c; country rolls, 14@16c. HEANS—Navy hand-picked beans, $1 80@2 00. BEESWAX—25@28c # B for choice; low grade, 18@20c.

The Post says: There was considerable realizing of profits on the general market during the forencon, particularly in the first hour, but the general market continues bullish. The advance in Northern Pacific and Oregon stocks are due to reports of a new financial reorganization of the Oregon Transcontinental Company, but the market on the whole reflected only to the operations of professional room traders. London was a buyer of the Southern stocks, respecting which there is considerable bullish talk, and St. Paul also was bought for the same account. The Union Pacific for the year was rather disappointing, to which fact the redecline from 60% 200% is attributed. Some fear is entertained that money will work closer at the end of the month, due to calling by the railroad companies, but there is no reason to apprehend any advance in rates. Stocks were stronger in the afternoon, and the highest prices of the day were made in the hour from 1 to 20 clock. In the last hour there was a small reaction, and the net result of the day was advances of 1/201 per cent on the general market. The following table shows the prices of active stocks on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday.
