

THE PERIL OF PARIS

Averted by the Heroic Measures Adopted by the French Government.

THIRTY THOUSAND TROOPS

Kept the Populace in Complete Check, Although Not Without Some Bloodshed.

THE VERY NAME OF BOULANGER

Caused a Tremendous Sensation and Almost Created a Serious Uprising of His Adherents.

SOCIALISTS SUPPRESSED IN GERMANY.

Squads of Police on Every Street Corner Succeeded in Preventing All Formal Demonstrations in Berlin.

DOINGS OF THE DAY THROUGHOUT ALL EUROPE

All demonstrations in Paris, yesterday, were sternly suppressed by the military and police. There were 34,000 troops, mostly cavalry, stationed in the city.

NEW CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.

PARIS, May 1.—The demonstration of the first of May, passed without bloodshed in Paris, but the blood spilled is not particularly valuable, having flowed mostly from the heads and noses of the sans culottes.

Not a Very Dangerous Set.

Whenever the police or cavalry charged they threw all their souls into their legs, and the chase being over, they hooted and rallied again.

ALL STERNLY SUPPRESSED.

THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT OVERAWES THE SOCIALISTS.

A Squad of Police Stationed Upon Every Corner—A Few Inoffensive Gatherings of Workmen Where Good Order Prevailed—William Secor a Victim.

BERLIN, May 1.—The labor demonstration here has been a failure in so far as the Government is concerned.

A Wild Ramble About Boulevard.

There was, however, no opportunity for a mob to gather.

A Great Number of Spectators.

Every thoroughfare, particularly in the neighborhood of the Invalides, has been strategically taken possession of by mounted and foot police at intervals of 100 yards.

A Very Dangerous Mixture.

Every one knows this, but that it will have any effect upon the 100,000 laborers who will be in the streets to-night, very much doubt.

Grave Fears of Trouble.

Outwardly Berlin appears to have treated May as of no importance.

All Ready for an Uprising.

PRESIDENT GOMPERS' ADDRESS.

HIS REASONS FOR DEMANDING SHORTER WORKING HOURS.

More Opportunity for Rest and the Pleasures of Life—Laborers as Well as Millionaires Dissatisfied With Their Lot.

LOUISVILLE, May 1.—Some estimates place the number of workmen in line in the great May day parade to-day at 10,000.

Half that number is probably nearer the truth. The Louisville Legion band furnished the music, and a body of the Louisville police marched in the leading division of the parade.

The body of the procession was made up of the various labor unions, the respective banners.

The weather was fine and there was a great turnout of workmen's families, making the number assembled in Vander Park for the exercise over 10,000.

The procession marched through the city to the park, where it arrived about 1 o'clock and was reviewed by President Gompers.

The National Federation, after dinner a number of addresses were delivered. The most important was that by President Gompers.

He said that the laborer was listened to attentively throughout.

Several local unions held meetings. Among these that of the carpenters alone took place in Vander Park.

Resolved to go on a strike to-morrow unless the master builders accede to their demands.

They said that eight hours constituted the minimum pay. They stated that the masters had refused to recognize their union and they made such recognition essential to the success of the strike to-morrow.

They claimed to have the money necessary to fight to win.

PRESIDENT GOMPERS' SPEECH.

President Gompers' speech was as follows: "My friends—We have met here to-day to celebrate the day that has prompted the thousands of working people in Louisville and New York to participate in this demonstration."

He prompts the toilers of Chicago to turn out by their 5,000 or 10,000 men; that prompts the toilers of England, Ireland, Germany, France, Italy, Spain and Austria to defy the manly and intelligible and a noble cause."
