

ONE WAY TO RAISE THE WIND. A Young Man's Ambition to Get Rich Nipped in the Bud.

B. F. Levi, a young man whose father keeps a clothing and jewelry store at No. 57 Wylie avenue, hit upon a new scheme for making money easily, which was unopposedly frustrated by the police.

MR. BING STILL IN IT. Shipments of Liquors for a Sixth Street Store Consigned to Him.

Barrels received in his name. His Old Economy Restaurant Recently Sold to David Devine.

NUMEROUS WAYS TO FOOL THE COURT. Some people who have been watching the proceedings of the License Court thought that Samuel Bing was "not in it," but they may be mistaken.

For two or three days it has been whispered about among police officials and liquor dealers that Mr. Bing was the virtual owner of the license which had been issued to another person, and that he would continue in the business which he temporarily suspended a year ago at the solicitation of Judge White.

BY A TWO-THIRDS VOTE. Dr. Kempshall Thinks That Revision Will be Decided in This Way.

Rev. Dr. E. Kempshall, Judge Wilson and Dr. W. H. Roberts, three of the committee of five appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, to look into the constitutional methods by which the question of the revision of the constitution of the church is to be decided, met yesterday at the residence of Dr. Kempshall.

CHANGED BEYOND MEASURE. Colonel John W. Enoch, the hard-worked secretary of the city council, has been discharged.

Colonel John W. Enoch, the hard-worked secretary of the city council, has been discharged. He has done so little that the secretary, says the Pittsburgh Council, will probably be asked to hold the office as a municipal matter, and to save Pittsburgh's credit a humiliating failure.

THE CASE IN A NUTSHELL. Underneath that public sentiment is all right, and that the Scotch-Irish contingent is willing and anxious to see the thing a success.

Underneath that public sentiment is all right, and that the Scotch-Irish contingent is willing and anxious to see the thing a success. I have given four months of hard work, have spent money freely upon standard work, and have done so little that the secretary, says the Pittsburgh Council, will probably be asked to hold the office as a municipal matter, and to save Pittsburgh's credit a humiliating failure.

STILL ROASTING DELAMATER. Colonel Dick Saw Some Neighbors Wouldn't Sign His Character Certificate.

Colonel Sam Dick, of Meadville, the implacable political enemy of Senator Delamater, was an east-bound passenger on the Pennsylvania road last night. He now emphatically declares that Delamater will never be nominated for Governor, for the reason that he won't have enough votes.

POP KENNEDY'S RETIREMENT. The Veteran Pennsylvanian Succeeded by Handsome Jack Pitcairn.

Conductor Kennedy, of the Pennsylvania lines, was retired yesterday, after 28 years of continuous service. "Pop" Kennedy, as the railroad boys and a large proportion of the public call him, has been purchasing tickets so long that his retirement is a great surprise. He has for years piloted passengers to Uniontown and back over the South West Penn and knows every man, woman and child along the road.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN WHO RODE IN THE HURRAY IN ONE HOUR. The report of patrol wagon No. 1, of the First ward, that a fire in the house of Joseph Thomas, 405 Third street, was made, resulting in the arrest of 492 persons, the wagon covering 318 miles.

COMMITTED FOR LARCENY. Frank Timony and Frank Robbins were arrested a few days ago by Officers Cross and Glenn on suspicion of having stolen a lot of knives, etc., from Gammle's store, No. 149 Wylie avenue.

OFFICER WEAVER WANTED AGENT. A petition will shortly be presented to Chief Brown from the good people of Shady-side to guarantee the services of Officer C. L. Wachtel as agent in charge of the local police.

ACCUSED OF STEALING BEER. Inspector McKeelvey charges John and Edward Donnelly, John Keel, William Shaw, James and Patrick McCann with stealing beer from the store of William Padon, Carson and South Eighth streets, on the morning of May 1. Magistrate Sweeney yesterday committed the six men to jail for a hearing next Thursday.

DRING OF OLD AGE. Thomas Carr, father of T. J. and Constable Peter Carr, of the First ward, is lying at the point of death at his home, Point alley. Mr. Carr is 78 years old and his condition is due to his advanced age.

MENSA GAVE HIMSELF UP. William Magnus, the man who assaulted Stephen Dorencel on Wednesday night last, gave himself up at the Central station yesterday, and furnished bail for a hearing. Dorencel is lying at his home, No. 78 Dorchester, in a very serious condition.

DR. B. M. HANNA. Eye, ear, nose and throat diseases exclusively. Office, 720 Penn street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

IT MAY BE YOUR LAST CHANCE. See page 14, Sunday Dispatch.

A NEWSBOY COMES TO GRIEF. He Tried to Steal into the Casino Meese - The Usual Cable Car Accidents.

Hugh McQuade, an 8-year-old newsboy, living on Gibson street, attempted, last evening, to beat his way into the Casino Meese by climbing up the scaffold in front of the adjoining office and crawling into the Casino balcony. He missed his footing and fell 20 feet to the sidewalk. The boy was taken to the Duquesne Pharmacy, where Sheriff McCandless dressed his injuries, consisting of a fractured wrist and broken nose.

DONATED A PARK ENTRANCE. John M. Hoeh Gives a Valuable Strip of Land to the People.

John M. Hoeh has presented a piece of land 100x600 feet, being a portion of the grounds at his residence at Joncaire and Fralich streets, as an entrance to the Schenley Park. The property is worth $10,000. This will make the fourth entrance, the others being located on Forbes avenue near the Murdoch property, on Bellefield avenue near Wood street, and on Fralich street near Wood street.

WOULDN'T RELEASE THE BIRD. A Desperate Struggle to Preserve Part of the Biscow Nekker.

Hon. John O'Neill started out yesterday in a buggy with Hoek, Derman, to convey "Roger," the bald eagle he had donated to Mr. Bigelow's menagerie, to Schenley Park. The eagle took one glance at the blue vault of heaven, and then spread his wings for flight. This was not in accordance with the programme laid out, and Messrs. O'Neill and Derman attempted to restrain him. The bird made a desperate struggle, and the struggle in the buggy scared the horse so that he ran away.

FOUR HUNDRED STILL OUT. Depositors of the Lawrence Bank Afraid to Give Up Their Books.

The Fidelity Title and Trust Company, as assignee of the defunct Lawrence Bank, gave to the depositors' committee yesterday a list of the outstanding deposit books. The books number about 400, and without them it is almost impossible to make a proper statement of the bank's affairs. The committee, however, receiving the list started out immediately to collect the books. They succeeded yesterday afternoon in getting eight of them, and expect to get many more to-day.

QUAY HOLDS A CONFERENCE. The National Chairman Saw a Man, but Refused to Talk About It.

Senator Quay came up from Beaver yesterday afternoon, quietly registered at the Seventh Avenue Hotel, held a conference with a strange man, whom nobody seemed to know around here, and then seemingly slipped back to Beaver last evening. When seen by a reporter in a very pleasant manner, and then declared he had nothing to say. The Senator was gone before the local politicians were aware of his presence. Collector Warmack was searching for him at the Union depot.

BRADLEY CELEBRATED HIS RELEASE. John Bradley was arrested at the corner of Webster and High streets yesterday evening by Officer Wagoner. He had only been recently released from the workhouse, and celebrated his return to freedom by smashing nearly all the furniture, dishes, etc., in the house.

ENTERPRISE PUTTING NEW LIFE INTO AN OLD TOWN. Dravosburg is in high feather to-day and McKeesport and Reynoldston share largely in the good feeling. The occasion of this is the fact that the new Dravosburg bridge has been officially thrown open to public travel. This bridge completes the necessary link that joins the three towns, and each will be largely benefited thereby. Dravosburg is destined to become a thriving town. Already it represents quite an item in the business of this section. Its bridges and its manufactures are being recognized, and it is only a question of time until Dravosburg will have its quota of factories.

GO TO HAMILTON'S. Music store for bargains in pianos and organs.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST LINE OF MEN'S FINE NECKWEAR IN THE CITY AT JAMES H. AIKEN & CO., 100 FIFTH AVENUE.

TO SHUT OUT ENGLISH CUT WARE. The Attempt to Organize a Builders' League Unsuccessful.

LABOR HAPPENINGS OF YESTERDAY. The American Flint Glass Workers' Union will take a hand in the tariff agitation.

The directors of the Pittsburgh and Birmingham road met yesterday at the Duquesne Hotel, and the balance of the contract for the electric road. Murray Verner was present, from Rochester. The directors couldn't decide what system they would adopt, but it is understood they are holding the road for a local company. The road will be put in shape first, and then the system will be selected.

LETTERS OF THE CONTRACTS. Meeting of Directors of the Pittsburgh and Birmingham Road.

The directors of the Pittsburgh and Birmingham road met yesterday at the Duquesne Hotel, and the balance of the contract for the electric road. Murray Verner was present, from Rochester. The directors couldn't decide what system they would adopt, but it is understood they are holding the road for a local company. AN INTERESTING SUBJECT. Dealt With in an Interesting Manner by Rev. J. H. Koehne.

At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church last night Rev. J. H. Koehne, of the Blayden Lyceum Bureau, lectured on "Infidelity in Early Centuries." Mr. Koehne, who, though comparatively young, has already made for himself a name as a lecturer, entered into his subject with vigor and originality. He said that it was a surprisingly interesting subject. The present was ever fading away; the past was always with us. Our bodies were the creations of the past. Our poetry and philosophy were but the embodiment of past dreams and past reflections.

FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING. Doctors Plan to Entertain Members of the State Medical Society.

The local committee of physicians having in charge the arrangements for the annual meeting of the State Medical Society to be held here June 16, met at the Schlosser House last evening. Dr. Foster, the Secretary, stated that they were at work on the programme, and it would be issued in eight days. The balance of the arrangements are about completed, and there is nothing left but to carry out the details.

THEIR RAIL WAS INCREASED. The Allegheny Shoplifters Recommended, With Sentations Promised in the Case.

There was no hearing yesterday in the case of Mrs. Speer and her daughter Josephine, who are charged with shoplifting by the firm of Porter & Donaldson, they being recommended to jail. Bail was increased from $500 to $1,000, on account of the recent disclosures in regard to the contents of their home.
