FALLING FROM THE FIFTH FLOOR.

A Fellow-Workman Escapes a Like Pate, Almost Miraculously.

SINGULAR CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY

At about 2:30 P. M. yesterday an accident occurred at the new Government buildings, on Smithfield street, by which Thomas Carey, an iron worker, lost his life, and another workman was injured. Different accounts are given of the occurrence, but the following, which is that of Superintendent Malone, seems the most probable:

The statue of Justice was being hoisted into position at the Fourth avenue and Cherry alley corner of the building, when the derrick mast broke in the middle and falling over, carried off a portion of the stone dormer and snapped a thick boom clean across. Carey was standing on the coping of the fifth floor, and was knocked down by a portion of the derrick.

Rising, dazed and terribly scared, he leaped or ran about 18 feet, to a lower platform, and thence fell through a defective piece of boarding to the cellar, a distance of over 100 feet. The fall occurred through the interior of the building. When the body was picked up, two minutes later, life

James Briston was also hit by the mast badly gashed over the head, and bruised about the arm and breast. He was attended to by one of the Homeopathic Hospital sur-geons, and carried to his home on Thirty-Carey were removed to the morgue. Several other workmen were slightly injured by

Carey was 30 years of age, single, and resided on Second avenue. He had been employed about two weeks on the building, and was unknown to the greater part of the THOUGHT THE TIMBER SOUND. "The accident," said Mr. Malone, "was one that could not have been foreseen or prevented by human skill. The broken errick-mast must, of course, have been defective, but to all outward appearances it was perfectly sound. It had been six years in use, and I had intended to have it re-moved, as I thought it not improbable that age and long service had injured it. But I never imagined it was so far gone as to break across like that. We have been always cautions here; the Government has even been

Mr. Malone then went on to give the history of the boom which had been broken, and of which pieces were taken away by bystanders. "Yes, it is very rotten," he said; "I had it removed from the top of the building because it was dangerous. We then put it in use for lifting stone at this

"Then you lifted big blocks of stone with an admittedly dangerous and rotten boom?" cried an astonished interviewer. Mr. Malone shrugged his shoulders, but

Immediately after the accident occurred Mr. Malone sent a telegram to the authorities at Washington, giving his version of the accident. He then gave orders to clear the building of all reporters and others. Deputy Coroner Berry happened to be in-specting the rotten boom when the Superintendent came upon the scene and ordered him off the premises. Mr. Berry presented his card, and remarked that his duty was to collect all evidence of defective timbers, etc., which might subsequently be destroyed. Mr.

Government in that place and that the Deputy Coroner was an interloper. Messrs. Berry and Miller protested against the indignity to which they had been treated.

The was the lean horse's opportunity, and with remarkable promptitud: he grasped it. He also grasped that bundle of artificial grass—for, alas! they were but artificial—in his strong, yellow teeth, and 'Go for a policeman," cried Mr. Malone, "I'll have this man arrested."

RECKONED WITHOUT HIS HOST. But Mr. Malone reckoned without his bost. The policeman arrived, and taking in the scene at a glance, refused point blank to arrest the Deputy Coroner. As a matter of fact, he had no power to make any such arrest, Mr. Berry being quite within his

"Do you know, sir," said Mr. Berry to Mr. Malone, "that although you can't order me under arrest, I can command this officer to arrest you. Read the subponas, Mil-There was dead silence while Mr. Miller, with a sardonic smile, obeyed. Then the Deputy Coroner, his clerk and the reporters departed with colors flying.

Mr. Berry viewed Thomas Carey's remains in the evening, and the inquest has been fixed for to-morrow afternoon.

To the building itself no important dam age was done, beyond the breaking off of one of the dormers. This can easily be re-placed. The statue of Justice had only been raised 18 feet when it fell, and is uninjured. None of the other derricks were broken or displaced, and all loose timbers were carefully secured before the close of work yesterday evening.

To-morrow, Mr. Malone declares, he will summon before him every man employed upon the Cherry alley side of the building, in order to get all the information possible for the Coroner's assistance.

When the broken mast fell across the second avenue lines of telegraph and street railway wires, the wires began to spit flame, and for some moments the passers-by were quite panic-stricken, but when the mast was removed the flashing along the wires ceased. A number of telephones were burned out.

OTHER WORK ON THE WIRES. The falling of the cable caused the dropping of the heavy wire cable which ran from the derrick's top to a strong timber planted in Fourth avenue, east of Grant street. The steel cable fell upon the many electrie light, electric railway and telephone wires which form a network at the corner of Grant and Fourth, and tore them from their fastenings, crossing them, tangling them, break-ing them, and mixing them in almost in-extricable confusion. The insulating ma-terial being torn from the heavily charged electric-light wires in several places, the strong current was transferred to some of the telephone wires. At the corner of Diamond and Try streets, two blocks away, a telephone wire had been loosed from the glass insulator and lay upon the cross-arm. It seems that this wire was one of those which caught a strong electric light current. In two or three minutes the white smoke which curled up from the cross-arm burst into flame, and soon several cross-arms were blazing, as well as the pole. brought, and a man carrying a bucket of water climbed up the pole and put the fire out. The heat had broken the wire, and the

A BOY, A RAFT AND A RIVER.

An Old Story Repented by the Drowning of Charles Menschke.

Charles Meuschke, a 9-year-old son o Henry and Liebethe Meuschke, Bingham street and Diamond square, Southside, was drowned at about 4 o'clock yesterday. He and a number of playmates were playing Eighth district, Second ward, Allegheny, of the special election of Councilmen, held recently, to open the ballot box, take out the "cut and dog" at the foot of Twelfth street. The game consists in striking one stick with another to see who can send it the fartnest.

Little Charles' stick went into the water, and he went out on to a raft to get it, and lost his balance reaching for it. The body was soon recovered.

for no man. See page

B. & O. IMPROVEMENTS.

The Rond Will Put on Four Vestibule Trains Between Baltimore and Pittsburg -A Very Desirable Innevation-Read at Work on the Summer Schedules. The new summer schedules on the various railroads will go into effect May 11. The arranging the trains. The B. & O. promises something in the way of improvement that will surprise their competitors and please the public. For a long time the road has been running vestibuled trains on the main line without any extra charge. The cars

A BAKER'S DOZEN DIVORCES GRANTED are made at the B. & O. shops, and are as fine as any Pullman car built. There is a porter for each car, and the seats are arranged as in the common coaches.

General Passenger Agent C. O. Scull has always recognized the importance of this city as a passenger center, and he has always edvocated running vestibuted trains between Baltimore and Pittsburg. Vice Presidents King and Ford have always opposed the plan, but up to this time money posed the plan, but up to this time money was the one thing needful, and that was lacking. This year the company has so far recovered its old financial standing that some attention will be paid to the Pittsburg division, and such vestibuled trains will be run. There will be four trains, two each way, between Baltimore and Pittsburg. The train leaving here in the morning in addition will carry a Pullman parlor car.
This train in the past used to connect at Cumberland with a train on the main line, but under the new schedule it will run through solid to Baltimore, making that city by 6:50 in the evening, the scheduled time for Washington now. Division Passenger Agent Smith says the road can easily cover the ground, but it will be mighty fast running. Much time is now lost on the Cumberland division on account of the movement of freights, but this will be avoided in the future. The night express to Baltimore will be run as usual.

On the Western divisions some important changes will also be made. The night express will leave here at 7:45 instead of 7:30, A train will be run through solid to Cincinnati with a parlor car attached in the morn-

On the Pennsylvania road, with the change in schedule, a number of fast local change in schedule, a number of fast local trains will be put on, or rather the present trains will make fewer stops. This move is intended to head off the cable roads, and give the people of East Liberty and points beyond better passenger facilities. Just how many of the trians will be made faster, those in charge have not yet decided. The cierks are busy looking over the time, and will fir in the feat trains to seconymedia the will fit in the fast trains to accommodate the

The Baltimore and Ohio vestibuled cars are being made and will be put on the road

PRIDE TAKES A TUMBLE.

An Accident That Befell a Lady's Spring Bonnet - A Lean Gray Horse That Couldn't Discriminate Between the Real and the Artificial.

It was, in sooth, a remarkable bonnet; and as its buxom owner minced along Smithfield street, yesterday afternoon, her glaring headgear was the cynosure of every eye. She wore a big bundle of grasses and field flowers, with just a little strip of velvet to give an air of consistency to the whole. The grasses looked delightfully natural, and it seemed that even the dusty city air had been unable to rob them of their freshness. The lady appeared to be very proud of her bonnet, and smiled disdainfully at the more modest head-coverings she passed. At the Diamond street corner a few drops from a street sprinkler fell upon the grasses, and an old gentleman rapturously cried that the combination reminded him of country life, dewdrops and all the rest of it. The lady before the luckless proprietor could prevent it, had chewed up the whole concern, in-cluding even the velvet binding.

The lady shrieked, the heartless passers by laughed, and the owner of the horse was hastily summoned to the spot. He ex-plained to the now angry female his utter inability to resurrect that particular bonnet, but offered to conduct her to the nearest millinery store and there purchase another, which should have a whole prairie on top After some parley the offer was accepted, and the pair hurried off, the lady's head, humbly covered by a white handkerchief. Thus was the pride of the bonnet-owning dame severely punished, while the indiscreet equine which purloined herbage without first testing its reality, suffered, no doubt, the pangs of indigestion

Moral: Never wear real grass in your bonnet, and if you must steal anything, be sure that it is genuine goods.

CUT DOWN ONE MILLION. Reduction of the Capital Stock of the Char-

tiers Natural Gas Company. Thirty thousand shares of the Chartiers Natural Gas Company were voted "aye" on a proposition to reduce the capital stock from $4,000,000 to $3,000,000, and only two stockholders representing 60 shares of stock uplifted their ineffectual protest. The votting was commenced at 2 o'clock, and by 4:30 a majority had been cast in favor of the reduction. A large portion of the million dollars' worth of stock is unfloated, and sev-eral stockholders are hoping to see the af-fairs of the company look up now that the financial surgeons have removed the water on the brain and got things down to an sctual business standpoint. But tew of the stockholders showed up in person, sending in their proxies or forwarding instructions to Secretary Tener to deposit their vote.

Wants a Guardian for the Girl.

Secretary Tener stated that the troublous times of a few weeks ago were not likely to be duplicated, the storm at that time having cleared the atmosphere pretty thoroughly. He added that he was willing to hand out cigars on the strength of the occasion, but had no news to divulge.

The B. & O. Vice President Looks Over the

Passenger Business Here. C. K. Ford, Third Vice President of the Baltimore and Ohio road, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Ford has charge of the passenger and local freight business of the road. He held a short conference with Manager McDonald of the Pittsburg and Western Division. Passenger Agent Smith said that they talked about some of the passenger arrangements with the latter line. It is not the intention to add any new trains. At one time it was proposed to run passenger trains from the Baltimore and Ohio to the Pittsburg and Western, over the Junetion, but this place had been abandoned. Mr. Ford returned to Baltimore last evening in his special car. Where the Poll Book Was,

Upon the petition of Mayor Wyman, o Allegheny, Judge Magee yesterday made an order directing the Inspector of the poll book and reseal the box. The poll book had inadvertently been sealed up with

LADIES, now is the time to have your curtains cleaned in first-class manner. 443 Smithfield st., Pittsburg, 100 Federal,

ASKING FOR $5,000.

William Moyle Brings Suit Against Attorney William M. Price

FOR A LETTER HE HAS OBTAINED,

And Which Doesn't at All Platter Mr.

that bail in the sum of $2,000 be required. & Bro., Douglas & Mackie and others. It reads as follows:

Dear Sir: After a desperate struggle against the basest perjury, vilest slander and vituperation from William Moyle, I have succeeded in forcing him to give up all his assets for the benefit of his creditors to his assignee, including the assets held by E. E. Moyle as a blind to cheat you out of your money. The assignee will now proceed to collect them for distribution, and I hope soon to realize the judgment I hold for you. Do not permit Moyle to hoodwink you into any arrangement that does not mean a full settlement of your claim. Either leave the matter in my hands or employ other counsel if you prefer.

leave the matter in my hands or employ other counsel if you prefer.

I am fighting for your claims, and when secured finally, I will charge you for my services unless you get other counsel. Moyle has tried to rob me out of two years' work, and all I had or could borrow for him, I compromised with certain of the creditors at about 70 cents on the dollar, which they accepted by reason of certain statements made by me to them, based on what Moyle told me. I now find his statements were false and his assets a great deal more than he led me to believe. I will return the releases I received from them, and endeavor to collect the balance due them. I will not be responsible for his deception and his lies. Unless you notify me that you have employed other counsel, I will still go on with the fight in your behalf.

behalf.

I send this statement to show you that I am still on deck, fighting Moyle notwithstanding his slanders, and mean to stay there until I make an honest man out of him or get your money.

make an honest man out of nim or gov your money.

Summarized account of William M. Price, trustee of William Moyle: Amount money paid out to day, $37,562 79; amount of money, goods, etc., received from and collected for Moyle, $30,782 11; overpaid, $6,780 68. There are some further credits to go on the above, which will reduce it somewhat. Of the above sum about $25,612 of judgments have been satisfied, and there is still $7,650 unpaid, but I believe most, if not all, will be secured.

WILLIAM M. PRICE.

THIRTEEN DIVORCES IN A DAY.

Court of Domestic Misery.

Judge White yesterday granted 13 divorces and refused 3. In the case of J. M. against Emma L. Hoaglin, the Court held that the wife's refusal to follow a roving carpenter was not a wilful desertion, and divorce was refused. Susan was refused a divorce from Murray Barker because the evidence was insufficient and irregular. Judge White thought the at-torneys had prepared the testimony and pre-sented it to the commissioner simply for his signature. Divorce was refused in the suit of Elizabeth against Henry Shafer, because the Court thought there was collusion.

Divorces were granted in the following cases: J. E. against Lilian Fife, Lida J. against B. F. Crowe, Mary A. against Henry Hartman, Emma against William G. Nagle, Mary A. against John McFarland, David against Angeline Albright, Caroline against Emil Herman, Bessie against William Kirkham, Frances against dewdrops and all the rest of it. The lady wanted to cross Fourth avenue, but a street car stopped the way. According, she stood for a moment on the curb; while a lean, gray horse, hitched to the post just behind, gray horse, hitched to the post j

Robert B. Boyd, alleging cruelty. F. I. Gosser was appointed commissioner in the ase of Lettie H. against E S. Johnston; J. D. Brown in the case of Mary E. against John M. Johnston, and F. K. McCance in the case of H. B. against Dora P. Heisley.

Smokestack of an Electric Light Company Blamed $5,000 Worth. W. J. Gilmore, Sarah Louisa Thompson widow of J. W. Thompson, and Bessie Louise and John Thompson, heirs of D. C. Thompson, yesterday entered suit against the Allegheny County Light Company for $5,000 damages. The plaintiffs own property at the corner of Liberty street and Virgin alley, extending back to a ten-foot alley. alley, extending back to a ten-foot alley. This alley, they state, is a private one, but notwithstanding the light company has erected a large iron stack, projecting into the alley fronting the plaintiffs' property.

The smoke and heat from the stack have inconvenienced plaintiffs greatly and damaged their property considerably, for which they ask $5,000 damages.

SUING A SALOON KEEPER

Intexicution. Caroline Davies yesterday for herself and five children, sued Felix and Bridget McKnight and James and Peter Quinn for $20,000 damages, for the death of her husband, Robert Davies. Felix McKnight has a licensed saloon at No. 998 Second avenue, posure gave him an illness resulting in his death.

A petition was filed in the Orphans' Court yesterday by Lizzie Cargo, asking for the appointment of a guardian for Grace Gillespie, aged 10 years. The child, she stated, has been cared for by her uncle and aunt, Her mother, Emma Gillespie, is insane and at the Poor Farm, and her father, Alexan-der Gillespie, is a drunkard and unable to care for her. May 17 was fixed for a hear-

Monday's Trial List. Common Pleas No. 1-Wittmer vs Allegheny City; Holman vs same; Dufford vs Frederick; City: Holman vs same; Dunoru vs Frederick; Roenigk Bros. vs Holtzman; Schiffelbein vs Krane; DuBols, executor, vs Cosgrove; same vs Lewis et al; same vs Echols et ux; same vs Luther et ux; McAllister vs Munhall & Co.; McNeil vs McNeil; Allegheny National Bank vs Bailey et al.

Common Pleas No. 2—Keller vs Edgar: McTiernan et ux vs Collins et ux; Krans vs Kreps; Penman vs Henderson; Cella vs Questa; McFall, Hetzel & Co. vs McKeesport and Youghiogheny lee Company; McMahon vs Atkinson; Rankin vs Hermes.

Notes From the Court House PETER WEBB yesterday entered suit against Lewis Winkelfuss for $2,000 damages for injury to his property, caused by a sewer on the de-fendact's place leaking into his cellar. A MOTION was made yesterday for a prelimiand others against the Case of Charles Lockhart and others against the Highland Street Bail-way Company and others, and May 9 was fixed

W. E. PATTERSON yesterday filed a petition for an inquest in lunacy on his sister. Amanda Patterson, of Elizabeth. He states that she is 48 years of age and single, and has been a luna-tic for some time. The court fixed May 12 for a hearing in court in the case.

YOUR money works while you sleep. See page 14, to-day's Dispatch.

CABINET photos $1 per dozen. Life-size crayons cheaper than anywhere else. Son-nenberg's Society Gallery, 35 Fifth ave., Pitta.; Branch Gallery, 52 Federal st., Alleghery.

CAME OUT A LITTLE AHEAD. The Americas Clab Banquet a Financia mittee for Next Year-Good Work of the Press Recommended.

The regular meeting of the America

Club was held last night. Charles Baer presided. The report of the treasurer showed that there were $3,407 in the treas ury and $1,193 in the sinking fund, a total ury and $1,193 in the sinking fund, a total of $4,600 on hand, and all bills paid. The report of the Banquet committee was received, and showed that 305 persons were present at the banquet, including the speakers; 262 tickets were sold, making the receipts, at $8 each, $2,096. When the expenses were paid $1,840 were left. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company furnished two cars free for transportation of the guests, and the thanks of the club were tendered to Vice President T. M. King, General Passenger Agent C. O. the club were tendered to Vice President T.
M. King, General Passenger Agent C. O.
Scull, and ticket agents W. T. Datby, at Washington, and E. D. Smith, Pittsburg.
It was requested that in the future the banquet committee be appointed in October, so the speakers can be seen before they make arrangements to go elsewhere. It was also recommended that the members be allowed to subscribe for tickets for the next banquet during this year, so that the committee, when appointed, will know what to act on.
U pon a basis of the present membership, 562 resident and 135 non-resident members, they calculated that at least 500 tickets for the banquet should be sold. If this was done the committee could secure a theater or large hall for the banquet, as any of the done the committee could secure a theater or large hall for the banquet, as any of the hotels would be too small, every bit of space baving been occupied at the last banquet, and boxes could be provided for the lady friends of the speakers and members, and thus add to the appearance of the affair.

Referring to the exhaustive report of THE DISPATCH and the treatment of the banquet by the press generally, the committee said. by the press generally, the committee said:
"Your committee desire to thank the daily papers for their exhaustive reports, which in themselves are evidence of the journalistic enterprise of our great city, and the several press associations who so fully covered the dinner in their reports wired throughout When the report had been received and the committee thanked, a motion was made and adopted that the club attend the State Convention, to be held in Harrisburg, June 25, and a committee be appointed to make arrangements. Chairman Baer deferred appointing the committee, leaving it to President Paul, who was absent last

THE CARNEGIE ORGAN ALL RIGHT. Popular Free Recitals Expected to be Com

menced Very Shortly. Inexperienced organists and the absence of any person qualified to explain the intricate mechanical movements of the Carnegie Hall organ have caused rumors to be circulated that the instrument was "played out." Nothing could be further from the truth. The organ is all right, and will be heard from regularly. At the next meeting which meets in this city June 23, are good. of Allegheny Councils a resolution will be introduced, empowering the City Property Committee to throw open the hall and use the organ for free organ recitals at least once a week, presumably on Saturdays. The City Property Committee will then feel that it can go ahead and consider Mr. Edwin Lare's motion to engage a competent organist, who will also be able to keep the

The hearty indorsement given by the presence of the best people in Allegheny at the recitals already given has proved to the satisfaction of both branches of Councils that the plan is a popular one, from which the best results in the education and amusement of the masses must come. Leading citizens have come forward and congratulated President Hunter, of Common Council, for his indorsement of the recitals plan, and the formation of a permanent music fund, out of which assisting performers or organizations will be recompensed, is now a matter of certainty.

SIMPLY A QUESTION OF LAW.

plicants' Appeal.

Attorney John M. Hunter yesterday gave otice before Judge Magee in the Court of Quarter Sessions that he would appeal the cases of Henry Berg and Daniel Ritter, two of the applicants for retail license in the borough of Verona, and he asked for a copy of the record.

The Judges stated, in connection with their refusal, that had they not decided that Verona was prohibotory they would have granted a retail license to Daniel Ritter and a wholesale license to Charles Silverman. The question to be decided is simply one of

He Declares Positively That He is Not in the Wholesnie Liquor Business.

Mr. Samuel Bing yesterday denied that he had any interest in the wholesale liquor business of Adler & Mayer, at No. 7 Sixth street. He says that he has bought the eigar and tobacco stock of those gentlemen, and for that reason occupies one half of their store. The packages consigned to his name contained, he said, boxes of cigars. Mr. Bing said that "there was nothing at all between him and his fellow occupants of the store, and even supposing he had an in-terest in their business, he did not see how it could interest anyone but themselves."

LOCAL WORKS OF ART.

If You Want a Rare Good Photograph Now is Your Opportunity. There has been a splash of bad weather and it was a blessing to one man in Pitts-burg. That man is James R. Pearson, the leading photographer of Western Pennsylvania. It has given him a chance to clear away the books at his noted galleries No. 96 Fifth avenue, Pittsburg, and No. 45 Federal street, Allegheny, and now he is ready to have you call and get your photo graph taken. He will please you and the photograph will please your friends. The most skillful of artists, working with the most approved appliances, with the most ample facilities, and that under the personal supervision of a master photographer, form the combination that has built up the great reputation of the Pearson photographs and make them works of art.

The Wonderful Acolians. Greatest of all musical instruments. They are perfect parlor orchestras, and no home is complete without one; they play waltzes, ballads, hymns, overtures, operas, symphonies, everything, and play them more perfectly than can be done by any human being. Any person can play an Acolian and without any knowledge of music whatever. Call in and see them and hear some of the music. On exhibition daily, and visitors are always cordially wel-comed. Only to be seen at

MELLOR & HOENE'S, 77 Fifth avenue GENTLEMEN, take your clothing to Chas. Picifer's and have it cleaned and repaired on short notice. CHAS. PFEIFER, 443 Smithfield st., Pittsburg, 100 Federal st., Allegheny. Telephone 1264, 3469. WE invite investigation. See page 14 o-day's Dispatch.

LA Tosca black lace flouncings, with Vandyke and straight edges, new styles, opened this week. HUGUS & HACKE.

Stylish Suttings.

The most fashionable goods at moderat prices at Pitcairn's, 434 Wood street, Reduced From 50c to 25c. 100 doz. men's all-linen handkerchiefs, colored borders, new and desirable patterns.

A. G. CAMPBELL & SONS, 27 Fifth ave.

IDA AND HER PUG DOG

Accompany Deputy Sheriff W. W. Brown Back to Norwich, N. Y.

THE WOMAN LEAVES CHEERFULLY And the Officer Isn't at All Confident She is

WHY THE CASE WAS HELD SO LONG

Guilty of Murder.

Mrs. Ida Moran, the pretty club swinger and trapeze performer, charged with the murder of Palmer Rich, at Norwich, N. Y., about two years ago, was taken to that town for trial yesterday evening, by Deputy Sheriff W. W. Brown, who had come after her. Mrs. Moran was neatly attired in black, and looked none the worse for her few days' confinement in Central station. She walked cheerfully, arm-in-arm with the Sheriff, to the depot, followed by her little pug dog.

Deputy Sheriff Brown, in talking of the case, said it had lain dormant owing to the inactivity of the Sheriff who was in office at the time of the murder. When another Sheriff was elected he began an investiga-tion of the matter, and as a result the grand jury of Chensngo county returned indictments for murder against Mrs. Moran, or Ida Tucker, and Mrs. Fox. The latter, in whose house the murder is said to have taken place, was captured at Carbondale, Pa., where she was living with a man named Woods. The chief evidence against the women

The chief evidence against the women will be the testimony of several persons that they were told by Mrs. Fox that she murdered Rich by first drugging him and then strangling him with a rope. After he was dead, the story goes, she cut the body into pieces and burned them.

Mr. Brown is not at all confident of Mrs. Moran's guilt. He says the murder might have been committed without her knowledge. He states that early in the morning after Rich's disappearance Mrs. Fox picked edge. He states that early in the morning after Rich's disappearance Mrs. Fox picked a quarrel with Mrs. Moran, which caused the latter to leave the house. The Sheriff thinks it probable that Mrs. Fox at that time had the body of Rich in her room, and wanted to get Mrs. Moran to leave, so she would not discover the crime.

MR. MORROW SAYS IT'S ILLEGAL.

Councils Cannot Appropriate Money for the Scotch-Irish Convention.

City Controller Morrow, in speaking of Colonel Echols' proposition to ask Councils for an appropriation to pay for the entertainment of the Scotch-Irish delegates, said yesterday that such action would be illegal and could not be seriously entertained by

The gentlemen interested are quietly at work raising funds, and expect to have sufficient funds to meet the necessities of the occasion.

There are many Sabbath schools yet to be heard from, and when they respond the Financial Committee hopes to be in good

WILL BUILD A NEW BRIDGE.

The Sixth Street Structure to be Replac by a Fine One. There has been within the last few days mother change of front in the matter of building a new bridge over the Allegheny river by the Sixth Street Bridge Company. The bitter opposition to the plan by the Philadelphia contingent of stockholders was emphatic enough to secure a postponement of the decision upon the matter until the 20th of the present month, when a vote will be taken by the stockholders. Other influences have been quietly exerted, how-ever, and after a careful counting of noses the new bridge advocates announce that a clear majority for the plan is assured. The plans submitted by Gustav Lindenthal for the structure are being estimated upon, and it looks as if the chief pathway #### between the two cities would be made at enduring and ornamental affair. HELPING HIM ON HIS WAY.

Crippled Tallor Assisted to Reach Reintives in Philadelphia. Rudolph Schen, a young German tailor, crippled by rheumatism, arrived in this city penniless yesterday afternoon. He had been working in Cleveland, but became inca-pacitated, and the Poor suthorities there learning he had friends in Philadelphia

Bables' Clonks. We show the largest line in the city. Also

LADIES' Pall Mall shirts made to order. CHARLES PFEIFER, 443 Smithfield, 100 Federal st., Allegheny,

Do not conflict our store with other glove lips' rubber goods store.

The old liquor house of John McCullough is giving special bargains in fine liquors, cheaper than can be bought any place in the city. Saloon keepers will find it to their advantage to call-523 Liberty street, foot of

THE crayon group of Mrs. D. Brady's children in H. J. King's window, Fifth avenue, has attracted great attention the past week. Mr. Dabbs considers it among the very best pictures he has made. The grouping of five heads is fine, and the crayon work is brilliant and effective. Closing Out Sale.

Ladies' Stainless Black Cotton Hose 20c. Sold everywhere at 25c. Special values in new striped cotton and lisie hose, 19c, 23c, 25c, 35c, 50c, 68c, 75c, 90c, $1, $1 25, $1 50;

no trash. A. G. CAMPBELL & SONS,

Allegheny. Telephone 1264, 3469. HIGH, dry and healthy. See page 14, to-

SAFE, sure and profitable. See page 14 Histed & Co. Mr. Histed makes sittings, 39 Fifth ave.,

SAFE, sure and profitable. See page

A HAT STORE SEIZED.

The Sheriff yesterday took charge of the hat store of William F. Graham, at No. 445 Wood street, a levy having been made to satisfy a judgment note held by Wilson, Frank & Horner for $343 25. Other notes are on file in the Sheriff's office against Graham, but execution has not been issued. One is for $510, held by Charles J. Follner, Louis S. Clegg, Theophilus Blatts, Jr., and James L. Brown. Another far $121 56 is held by G. S. Guyer & Co., all aggregating less than $1,000.

less than $1,000.

To some people the failure was not a surprise. Mr. Graham had financial trouble some years ago. He resumed, however, and subsequently added a fur department to the store, and, it is said, did not get sufficient trade to support it. A liquor license was applied for at No. 445. Colonel Samuel Kilgore was originally a partner with Mr. Graham, but he has not been connected with the house for several years, and Graham's troubles began after the dissolution.

Phenomenal Growth in Popularity of the Everett Pinne-Pactory Capacity to be Doubled.

Doubled.

One would think that a piano factory which turned out 80 finished pisnos per week, would be almost enough to supply all America. Yet this has been the production of the Everett factory, and now we are notified that the company are at work on the foundations for another factory of equal capacity, and by the first of October will be making 160 pianos per week. Think of it, and ask why it is, that while other makers are struggling for existence, this company cannot supply the demand for their pianos. The reasons are simple. The fact is that the Everett Company are a rare combination of money and brains. The present factory, while not the largest, is probably the best equipped and most systematically conducted one in the world, consequently they are able to make a first-class piano for less money than other makers. This being the case, it naturally follows that the wide-awake dealers in the business all want the agency for the Everett piano. They are the foremost pianos of the day, and ample proof of this can be found at the agency in this city, where you can get vianos of almost every other make, which have been taken in exchange for the Everett. Alex Ross, of 137 Federal street, Allegheny, has contracted for 350 of these pianos, and while these last, has reduced the price $75 on all styles, so that you can now get one of the finest pianos in the world at $350, in a rosewood case, or at $375 and $400 in any of the fancy styles of mahogany, antique oak, French walnut, etc. These are cash prices, wood case, or at $575 and $490 in any of the fancy styles of mahogany, antique oak, French walnut, etc. These are cash prices, but you can arrange to get one of these pianos on payments to suit your own convenience. Do not fail to see them, or send for circular, to Alex. Ross, 137 Federal st., Allaghany.

Bureka Mineral Springs, Sacgertows, Pa. The Eureka Springs, Sargertows, Pa.

The Eureka Springs Hotel and sanitarium, located at this well-known resort, commends itself to the seeker after health, recreation or rest. A home for the afflicted, the overworked professional or business man, and a delightful resort for a summer's outing.

Conveniently arranged well located, pleasant surroundings, excellent table and service. A fine orchestra will give concerts daily. The Eureka chalybeate (iron) and alkaline waters, nature's remedy for rheumatism. The Eureka chalybeate (170n) and alkaline waters, nature's remedy for rheumatism, scrofula, eczema, anaemia, liver and stomach troubles, kidney disease, sick headache, indigestion, etc. Ponce De Leon Hotel open June 1. For particulars and illustrated pamphlet address Eureka Mineral Springs Co., Limited. my1,4,7,10,13,15

If You Are Building a House You can gain many pointers by examining our elegant new stock of wood and slate

The Alleghenv Valley Railroad has made quite a number of improvements on their picnic grounds at Hulton, and it is now on of the most desirable grounds in the vicinity of Pittsburg. Among the new attractions are flying-horses, baseball field, etc. For further information, vacant dates, etc., apply to Jas. P. Anderson, General Ticket Agent, cor. Eleventh and Pike sts., Pitts-burg, Pa.

Fine Upright Plane, $180. An excellent 7½ octave upright piano, in perfect order, with full iron frame, splendid tone, handsomely finished case and excellent tone for $180, including cover and stool. A square grand piano of magnificent finish square grand plane of magnificent finish and finest carved case, cost when new $600, for $150; also a handsome parlor organ at $50. For a splendid bargain call at the music store of J. M. Hoffmann & Co.'s, 537 Smithfield street. Agents for the celebrated Sohmer pianos and the superb Colby pianos.

FOR a finely cut, neat-fitting suit leave your order with Walter Anderson, 700 Smithfield street, whose stock of English suitings and Scotch tweeds is the finest in the market; imported exclusively for his

HERE is the place to put your money. To-day's Dispatch, page 14.

Great Offering in Handkerchiefs, White and colors, embroidered 12½c, formerly 25c; 25c formerly 35c; 35c formerly 50c. New line of mourning handkerchiels very cheap. A. G. CAMPBELL & SONS, LACE curtains! Lace curtains! 350 pairs at a bargain, on Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10. HUGUS & HACKE.

A HOME on $1 capital. See page 14, today's Dispatch. COLLARS and cuffs, domestic finish. CHAS. PFEIFER, 443 Smithfield st., 100 Federal st., Alle-

Fine Trouserings. The largest stock of stylish suitings and trouserings at Pitcairn's, 434 Wood street.

CHANGE IN MAKE-UP.

HOMES! homes! See page 14, to

CLASSIFIED

this page of THE DISPATCH will be found on the Eleventh Page, in the Second Part of this issue.

Lets, Business Chances, Auction Sales, etc., are placed the Eleventh Page. Advertisements handed in too late for Classification will be found on the Sixth Page.

FACTS,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOT FAIRY TALES

Count With the Public.

It has long since ceased to be a matter of conjecture as to which is really the leading and largest Housefurnishing Establishment in this section of the country. The popular index finger points straightway to Keech's. The people are bestowing their confidence and patronage on one who has shown himself worthy of it. They have seen Keech implant the acorn of his present business. As years passed on this acorn grew forth into a sturdy oak, which even now is assuming more gigantic proportions than ever. For, large as is Keech's present emporium, it is not large enough to accommodate his great and growing trade, and, with a view to bring about an improved state of facilities, ground was broken several weeks ago for a large addition to the present storerooms. When finished (presumably October 15), Keech will be in possession of one of the largest establishments of the kind in this glorious Republic. By way of comparison it might be mentioned that it will occupy a larger area of space than all similar establishments in this city put together. And yet who can foretell the ultimate growth the great oak will obtain which but a comparatively few years ago was but an insignificant acorn. Verily, there is no end to trade where low prices and honest dealing have their home.

BUT A FEW WORDS

---ABOUT-

KEECH'S STOCK

our elegant new stock of wood and slate mantels, tiles and fittings. We carry a complete stock of stoves, ranges and Schlag's natural gas appliances. The latter are very economical in the consumption of gas. JAMES C. THOMPSON, 640 Liberty avenue. Furniture... Carpets.

of Chamber Suites unsurpassed in elegance and low prices. In Parlor and Dining Room Furniture everything that is sanctioned by fashion, that is reliable and popular. Wish you would compare these goods and prices with those of other dealers-the result would be a revelation to you.

New and exclusive patterns in Body and Tapestry Brussels, Gobelins and Velvets. They will please the most fastidious, while the prices will delight the most economical. In Moquettes there is a magnificent variety. These Car-pets, which invariably give splendid satisfaction. are becoming more popular every year. Try

A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF

A BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF

BABYCARRIAGES

LADIES' WRAPS AND CAPES. A HANDSOME SHOWING OF

CASH OR CREDIT.

923 AND 925 under their usual headings on PENNAVENUE

Open Saturdays till 10 P. M.

William Moyle yesterday entered suit against Attorney W. M. Price for $5,000 damages. He alleges that Price wrote to parties with whom Moyle did business, libeling him and injuring him in his busi-ness. Price, the plaintiff says, wanted to break down his character and business, and has deprived him of credit with the parties to whom the letters were written. He asked that a capias be issued for Price, and He attached a copy of the circular alleged to have been sent by Price to J. Kaufman

Judge White's Hard Day's Work in th

Mrs. Anna M. Boyd sues for divorce from

MORE DAMAGES DEMANDED.

MR. BING FLATLY DENIES IT.

For the Death of Robert Davies, Caused by and the others assist him in running it.
It is alleged that October 23, 1889, Davies was sold liquor in McKnight's place when he was visibly intoxicated. He was unable

W. E. PATTERSON yesterday filed a petitio gave him transportation as far as Pittsburg. Examiner Hoffman, of the Department of Charities, gave him a ticket to Philadelcapes, shirts, booties and alips, at the very lowest prices. Examine and judge for ROSENBAUM & Co.

stores. The Louvre Glove Emporium is only at 24 Sixth st., directly opposite Bijou Theater entrance, and pext door to Phil-

Fifth avenue, Pittsburg, Pa. REAL ESTATE! real estate! real estate! See page 14, to-day's Dispatch.

Regardless of cost, as goods must be sold at once. Store open until 9 P. M. Call early for bargains in lace curtains and upholstery goods in general, 66 Federal street, below West Penn depot, Allegheny.

H. HOLTZMAN & SONS.

LADIES, for cleaning of all kind of cur-tains we cannot be excelled.

CHAS. PFEIFER, 443 Smithfield st., Pittsburg, 100 Federal st.,

CARPET cleaning and mattress renovating.

HAUGH & KEENAN,

'Phone 1626.

33-34 Water st.

Pittsburg, 1st to 15th every month. Bal-ance time at 21 E. Fisteenth st., N. Y.

ADVERTISEMENTS That heretofore appeared on

The Wants, For Sales, To

-OF---

You will find here a line

Refrigerators and Ice Chests.

A COMPLETE VARIETY OF

Men's Spring Clothing.

KEECH'S,

Near Ninth Street.