

WHAT IS THE WIND? Col. McClure intimates something has happened in the Democratic ranks.

PATTISON LEADS JUST NOW. Randall alive and in health could not have been re-elected.

TARIFF REFORM TOO POPULAR. A disappointed Montana Statesman analyzes Republican aims. MURAT HALSTEAD HAS MADE A MISTAKE.

NEW YORK, May 3.—An interested account of a Broadway car on Thursday morning was the headline and general topic of conversation at the Philadelphia Times.

THE COLONEL LOOKED BRIGHTER AND IN BETTER PHYSICAL CONDITION THAN I HAVE SEEN HIM FOR A LONG TIME, AND HE WAS JUST AS CHATTY POLITE AND SOCIALLY AS USUALLY FOUND.

RANDALL COULDN'T HAVE WON. "Did the death of Randall have any influence upon the chances of Wallace for Governor?"

A TARIFF REFORMER WILL WIN. "Of recent years these more liberal Democrats are increasing in number. People outside do not understand this as we do in some parts of Pennsylvania."

PLenty OF ASPIRANTS. Other ambitious aspirants came into the field for Congress, among whom was General Scull.

HALSTEAD'S GREAT MISTAKE. "I don't think the people of New York know much about Mr. Halstead's new venture, or care much about it."

NO EVIDENCE OF IT. After the episode Scull was placed in the very short catalogue of anti-Quay Congressmen from Pennsylvania.

FRIENDLY TO SENATOR QUAY. The Primary Election in Armstrong County goes in that way.

A MONTANA STATESMAN. "I had an interesting chat yesterday with Major Maginnis, the bright Montana man who wore the toga at home and lost it when he came over to the United States Senate."

THE FIGHT IN LANCASTER. A FIERCE CONTEST, WITH CHARGES OF BRIBERY. The Martin Delegates Seem to Have the Advantage—Brocius Evidently Rejoices.

ONLY SPURIOUS PATRIOTS. "In other words, they are the true patriots, and all the others are spurious. It is just that they led to the enactment of the force laws of the South."

QUESTION OF POLITICAL OUTRAGES. "I am not prepared to say," continued the Major, "that there are no political outrages in the South, but no one will attempt to prove it."

SCULL'S FRIENDS HOPEFULLY BELIEVE THAT HE WILL BE HIS OWN SUCCESSOR. A Washington View of the Honored Congressional Contest—Quay Is Not Interfering.

WARREN, May 3.—A very lively fight is now on for the representation in Congress from the Somerset-Blair-Bedford district.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FARMERS FOR A SONG. The Hon. N. J. Bacheller, the Commissioner of Land and Forests, writes me that the abandoned farms of this State vary in size from 5 to 600 acres.

THE WORMS GIVE FACTS DESTROYED AND A CLOSE CALL FOR A R. R. STATION. Laughlin's station, on the Baltimore and Ohio road, caught fire at 11:30 o'clock last night.
