PERSONAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CHICAGO, May 5 .- There was a tremendous disappointment here to-day in the "turn out" for the Players' League opening. All the big expectations of 16,000 to 20,000 were sadly dashed to the ground, and when to-day's game started there were not 3,000 people on the grounds. The weather had much to do with the poor attendance, and the postponement on Saturday had also a great influence. The friends of the new League were somewhat discouraged at the comparatively poor showing, but the feeling is still strong for the Players' League. A BIG DISAPPOINTMENT.

Last Saturday was the scheduled date for the opening of the Players' League season at Chicago. Up to 2 o'clock the weather was all that could be wished for good sport and fine ball playing, but at that hour the wind shifted, and in two minutes the mercury dropped about 25 degrees, and the rain began descending, to the disappointment of a "crowded house" at the ball grounds, and 35 carloads of people at the Pennsylvania depot gathered there for the start. It was estimated that 15,000 people were ready to witness one of the largest opening games ever seen in Chicago. To-day the postponed game was played with cloudy and cold weather to a crowd of 2,600 people, who saw a game played in the mud. The contestants were Chicago and Pittsburg, and the latter club had things all their own way. Staley was very effective, and only let down in the latter part of the game when Pittsburg had the game won.

CHICAGO'S FIRST RUN. The contest started very well for the home players as in the first inning they made a run and the visitors were blanked. When the third inning came, however, the home team were not in it. The Pittsburg sluggers lighted on to King and completely pulverized him. From that stage on the visited to knock the ball in all direc tions. The hits were not long ones but they were sate. The grounds were bad, very bad, but despite that fact some fine fielding was done. It is unnecessary to tell the story of how the runs were secured, as the majority of them were made clean off the stick end. STALEY WAS HIT HARD.

Staley was hit quite hard, but the excellent support he received kept the runs down wonderfully. Ryan reappeared and whacked out a three-bagger. Farrell also made a triple, a fine one. But the big hitting availed little, as the hits were scattered and Staley was on his mettle at the right time. The fielding of the visitors was so good that the home players had to earn lour of their runs. King was hit at the right time, and his support at stages was very poor.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.-The New York Grants put up a very poor fielding game to-day, and the Philadelphia Brotherhood club won easily by a score of 8 to 4. Hatfield, Buck Ewing and Gore acted as though they were out for practice instead of in a match game, and the other men did but little better. John Ewing started in to pitch for New York, but his thumb was broken in the third inning in stopping O'Rourke's wild threw, and Crane finished the game. Pickett celebrated his last game with the club by making a three-base hit and handling everything that came his way at second base. Attendance, 2,725. Score: PHILAD'A. R B P A E N. YORK. B B P A B game between Chicago and Cincinnati was a pitchers' contest and very stubbornly contested throughout. Cincinnati tied the score in the seventh inning on Baldwin's hit, sending Reilly home. The game was called at the end of the nome. The game was called at the end of the ninth inning on account of darkness, neither team being able to add to their score after the seventh. The general work of both clubs was fine, the few errors being occasioned by heavy condition of grounds and cold weather. Attendance, 170, Score:

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 5.-The Philadelphia players hit Nichols hard and often this afternoon, and should have won as they pleased, but Vickery, who was in the box for the home club, let down in the eighth inning, and the Bostonians tied the score. The Phillies scored the winning run in their half of the eighth on two two-baggers, and Gleason, who succeeded Vickery in the ninth, disposed of the visitors without much trouble. Attendance, McKeesport and Canton Clubs Play an Exciting Tie Game.

MCKEESPORT, PA., May 5.-The game between McKeesport and Canton to-day was as hotly contested as the previous games. It was a beautiful exhibition, but was called at the end of the eighth inning on account of rain. The crowd was not large, but was enthusiastic. The score was as follows:

An Enthusiastic Pittsburger. J. C. Wamser, of the St. Charles Hotel, Pitts-burg, is in town. He came to Chicago specially to see the opening game of the Players' League. Wamser is known as the greatest baseball crank between the Alleghenies and the Rockies, and he was the "rockiest" Alleghenian ever seen last night. He had hired a dozen carriages and invited four times that number of friends to attend the game with him, and when the rain poured down he wept with the skies.

Enst Elizabeth Ball Club.

East Elizabeth is determined to be in line this season with a ball club, and on Saturday what promises to be a strong amateur ag-greation was organized. The club is named the J. D. O'Neil's, in honor of the gentleman who has been appointed manager of it. W. W. Hart is captain and Messra. Gumbert and Hart form the battery. The other players are Messra. Baum, O'Neil, the two Ballsinger brothers, Reed, Lambert, Rankin, Fulton, Stevens. The team wants engagements.

WE may get three out of the four at Chicago after all is over. "SILVER" KING was knocked off his royal perch yesterday. Ir begins to look as if both the New York clubs were hoodcoed.

Poor old Radbourne! How weary of life he would be before yesterday's game at Brooklyn VAN HALTREN is surprising his friends by his effective work in the box.

RAIN prevented the Tri-State League games at Wheeling and Youngstown yesterday. AND still some people have the Pittsbur National League Club located in Indianapoil THE Brooklyn League players are being criticised for what is called Association tactics. McCarriy seems to have infused some life into the St. Louis Browns. They are playing great ball.

BAIN stopped the colts from doing up the Cleveland aggregation yesterday. It may be fine to-day. CORRHILL, of Brooklyn, is another who be-lieves that the League will change its schedule before long.

THE Chicages hit Staley hard lenough yester-day to score double the quantity of runs made by the Chicages. THE Electric Blues have organized and want to play any young local team. Address Hayes Nesbitt, 30 Wylie avenue.

ROAT went to Cleveland yesterday to join the Pittaburg National League club. He will likely be again tried at third. READER—By looking at Sunday's DISPATCH you could have seen. Six hits were made off Galvin's pitching on the day you name. A CORRESPONDENT calls attention to the ex-cellent abilities of Lohner, a local outfielder. The former thinks Lohner is worth a trial. LEAGUE catchers seem to have no terror for Hamilton. He is ready to lead the League in base running just as he did the Association last

THE New York League club has released Catcher Tom O'Rourke and Scanian, the Chi-cago first base man. Esterbrook is a fixture in the initial bag.

ACCORDING to Buckley, Rusie, the New York (N. L.) pitcher, is the speediest man in the business. It isn't much fun to be the re-ceiving end of such a battery. INQUIRER—Certainly the Players' League has so far had a larger aggregate attendance than the National League, but it is next to im-possible to get the exact figures.

WHEN you read down the Chicago Brother-hood Club's batting order and strike such names as Latham, Duffy, O'Neil, Comiskey, Boyle and King, it sounds more like a St. Louis organization than a Chicago representation. After all, it seems as if the Association talent was just as good as the League.—Mail and Express.

Waler, No. 14 Industry street, Thirty-first ward.

A ST. LOUIS authority says: , Von der Ahe, notwithstanding his overbearing tactics, has gotten together a great club. It is, without doubt, the best hitting, fielding and base running team in the Association. It has the best pitching talent outside of the Brotherhood and League. If Von der Ahe treats his men as well all the season as he is doing now his new Browns will certainly play with some club for the world's championship next fall. Von der Ahe's experience since last year has taught him a good lesson, and he is not the buildozer and tyrant of old.

A DISPATCH from Buffalo says: It is probable that Arile Latham, the shortstop of the Chicago Brotherhood team, will be arrested when the club returns to this city. Tuesday afternoon, after the game, a small boy named Willie Jamison threw a stone into the 'bus in which the Chicagos were riding, striking Latham on the head. Smarting from the pain the ball player jumped out of the vehicle and running after the boy beat him until bystanders interfered. The boy was too ill to leave his home to-day, and his father threatens to procure a warrant for Latham's arrest. The Chicagos do not play here again until June 2.

CORBETTS NEW BACKERS.

Phil Dwyer and Ed Kearney Will Put Up S50,000 for Him to Fight.

New York, May 5.—Referring to the report that Phil Dwyer and Ed Kearney had expressed a willingness to back Jim Corbet, of San Francisco, against any of the heavy-weight puglists, Phil Dwyer last evening said the store was true. "You may not know it," he declared, "but that man, in my opinion, outranks them all, and I took pains to tell him so when he was here. I also advised him on returning home to take good care of his hands, and that when he felt fit to let me know it and I would back him against any fighter for any amount up to $50,000 a side. I think Sullivan is retrograding sadly and do not believe he will ever meet Jackson or any other first-rater."

Mr. Dwyer further said that although it was not generally known, yet it was himself who found the money for Sullivan in his fight with Jake Kilrain, and was willing to do so again, but if he was matched against Corbett his money would be placed on the latter, and he theorethy it would have a fel investment. 850,000 for Him to Pight.

money would be placed on the latter, and he thought it would be a safe investment.

Ed Kearney echoed these sentiments and expressed the opinion, that the ex-San Feangisco bank clerk was the "top sawyer" of them all.

AN INTERESTING BOAT RACE.

Lumsdon and Hawdon, Two Old-Timers, Row for a Stake. A scall race took place on the Tyne, England, April 19 which will be of great interest to American patrons of aquatics. The contestants were William Lumsdon, who was defeated in this section some years ago by Nick Layberger, and Jack Hawdon, Hanlan's first opponent in England. The race was for £10 a side, and Hawdon was favorite at 2 to 1 one. There was a large attendance to see the once "coming champious." The distance was two miles.

The start was a good one, and Lumsdon, who is now working in the coal mines, soon forged ahead and ultimately won easily in 15 minutes and 4 seconds. About 11 or 12 years ago both men were looked upon as world-beaters. Lumsdon was matched to row Trickett and forfeited. He was a protege of Jimmy Taylor, new of this city. Lumsdon was located in this city for some time. A scall race took place on the Tyne, England,

GEN. THOMAS DECLINED. A Letter Which Makes Clear His Position

Regarding the South. RICHMOND, VA., May 5 .- The following very remarkable letter of General George H. Thomas, heretofore unpublished, was to-day discovered among some of the stored-away ar chives of the State Capitel here:

NEW YORK HOTEL, March 12, 1861. To His Excellency, Governor John Letcher, Richmond, Va.:

Dirak Sir.-I received yesterday a letter from Major Gilham, of the Virginia hilltary Institute, dated the 0th instant, in reference to toe position of Chief of Ordinance of the State. In which he informs me that you had requested him "to ask me if I would resign from the service, and if so, whether that post would be acceptable to me." As he requested me to make my reply to you direct, I have the honor to state, after expressing my most sincere thanks for your very kind offer, that it is not my with the leave the service of the United States as long as it is honorable for me to remain in it, and therefore as long as my native State evirginia) remains in the Union it is my purpose to remain in the army—unless requested to perform duties alike repulsive to honor and humanity. I am very respectfully

Your obedient servant,

General Thomas was a Virginian by birth

General Thomas was a Virginian by birth and rose to great distinction in the Federal operations in the South and West. It was always insisted by old army officers who joined the Confederates that General Thomas had frequently expressed his determination to share the fortunes of war with his native State. Share.

This, however, Thomas denied. The above letter, however, which is authentic, looks very much as if the distinguished officer must have changed his mind subsequent to the time he wrote it. The letter is regarded as a valuable contribution to history.

WOMEN AT JOHNS HOPKINS.

A Fund Proposed to Give Them Highe

Medical Training. BALTIMORE, May 5.-An association has been formed here of ladies well known in literary and social circles, having for its object the creation of "the women's fund for the higher medical education of women." It is proposed to raise $150,000, to be given to the Johns Hopkins University trustees, on condition that they admit ladies as students to the medical school about to be opened on the same terms as men. They concede that all applicants must have previously undergone the necessary training, and must have the same schooling and experience as the male students. A school of medicine has recently been added to the university, and the leading physicians and surgeons at the hospital have been made professors of the various branches in which they excel. They have been lecturing to resident physicians.

The idea is to give qualified women the same opportunities. It is also to be an advanced medical school, open to all comers. The money is to be secured in Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and San Francisco by women interested in the undertaking. Local committees are already at work in the four first-named cities, and the others will immediately follow suit.

The ladies here think they can raise $50,000 and social circles, having for its object th

The ladies here think they can raise $50,000 by June 1, and expect that all the other cities will contribute $25,000 each. All contributions will be conditional on a total contribution of at least $100,000 and on the acceptance of the conditions by the trustees.

ity, is arranging for the transfer of the club of that city to Indianapolis, notwithstanding Nick Young's denial that Pittsburg is to go out. When Brush agreed to transfer his players to New York there was a proviso in the agree ment that should Indianapolis go into the season Glasscock and one other player, probably Boyle and Rusie, were to return, provided the amount of advance money paid them by New York was refunded. Brush has all along desired a club, but his fellow-directors were not in favor of it. This the wily President has overcome and his recent admission that he would not interfere with Pittsburg's coming here is now shown up in its true light. When the Pittsburg club completes its trip it will not return to its old abode, but will land in

SOMEWHAT OUT OF LINE.

The writer of the above has certainly lab ored to leave no room for doubt in the matter, and if he is not the veriest prevariestor some other people are telling the most willful falsehoods to the public. President Nimick was shown the dispatch yesterday, and after reading it had a hearty laugh. He said:

"Now, when is this nonsense going to end? am puzzled to know what reason there is for some persistently publishing to the world that we are going to transfer our club. Let me make a statement, a full statement, regarding the whole matter. I will now talk just as if I was under oath. We have never spoken to anybody about transferring our club. We have never written anybody on the subject, and most certainly there never has seen anybody to see us on the matter either from Indianapolis or anywhere else. Now want this statement to be thoroughly relied upon, because it is absolutely true. will say more. Our club will be here this year and for many years. I have just received word from Mr. Converse, one of our directors, who says that he is ready to put up $20,000 to help the club along. He rightfully says that other people are trying to usurp the club's rightful territory. His admiration for the national game began in this city, and he naturally feels opposed to being pushed out by people who heretofore have done nothing at all for the game. Bear in mind it has been our money that popularized the game here and we mean to stay. We will stay. THE LEAGUE NOT WILLING.

"But," continued Mr. Nimick, "even if we did wish to transfer our team, we couldn't do it without the consent of the National League. That organization could carry a club here without us. At any rate, the League is not willing for any transfer. even if we were. I hope that all these malicious rumers will stop, because they are as much insults to the public as they are lies about us. I feel confident that after all this temporary excitement, consequent on the introduction of a novelty, is over we will be all right."

Mr. Nimick went on to say that Miller is destined to make a great third-base player. The President declined to say definitely what efforts are being made to secure another in-fielder. He is satisfied with Dunlap's work, heider. He is satisfied with Dunlap's work, but the officials are desirous of securing a regular and first-class third baseman. If such a player cannot be secured, Mr. Nimick plainly intimated that Miller will be kept at third permamently, and Berger and Wil-son will do the catching.

FEW IMMIGRANTS GOING WEST.

Western Roads Complaining of Poor Pas songer Business This Year.

O. Warner, the traveling passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, affixed his signature to the register of the Seventh Avenue Hotel yesterday. He is disgusted with the Western rate wars, and hopes they will soon be settled. The managers of the road represented in the Western Transcontinental Passenger Associations will meet in Chicago to try to patch up their differences. When this is done it will require a notice of ten days before old rates can be restored. Mr. Warner thinks from present indications that the managers will come to an agreement. "The cutting has not helped the passenger business," he said. "The people are not traveling. The usual number of tourists keeps up, but this seems to be an off year. There are few immigrants going West, and those bound that way are striking for Oreces and Washington. These ing for Oregon and Washington. These places are the objective points. I don't his know what is the trouble this season, but immigration is not westward."

KANSAS CITY SCORES A BIG VICTORY

Judge Arnold Lectures the Player About

His Ingratitude.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5 .- The suit of the American Association Baseball Club, of Kansas City, against John T. Pickett and the Players' National League Baseball Club, of Philadelphia, argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morn-

The Judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case and perpetual thereafter from playing baseball with or giving his services as a baseball player for the season of 1890 to any other club or organization, person or persons whatsoever other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Baseball Club, of Philadelphia, be restrained from employing John T. Pickett or otherwise interfering with the giving of said Pickett's services for said season of 1890 to the Kansas City management. The injunction issues on the entry of security for $1,000.

SOME PLAIN LANGUAGE.

Judge Arnold, in the course of his decision, says: "As the disputed questions of law in this case were considered and decided adversely to the defendant in the case of the Philadelphia Baseball Club versus Hallmann, we are thereby saved from the necessity of repeating much of what was so well said in that case by the learned President of this court. The rule there laid down is that where a person enters into a contract to render his services as a baseball player for a reasonable length of time, a court of equity, although it cannot compel him to perform these services will nevertheless enjoin him from giving to a third person the services he has bound himself to render to another. When we consider the fact that the plaintiff, the Kansas City club, paid for the release of Pickett from the St. Paul Baseball Club in May, 1889, $3,300, of which sum $800 was paid to Pickett and a salary of $340 a month, which was regularly and fully paid to him, although he was sick and unable to play nearly half of the season of 1889, his ingratitude is shown to be equal to his bad faith. While we cannot punish him for his ingratitude we can restrain him from deriving any ben-PICKETT'S BAD EXCUSE. "He will not be condemned to idleness, but he will be prevented from playing baseball as a business unless he plays for the plaintiff. His excuse that the Kansas City club has transferred its membership from the American Association to the Western the American Association to the Western Association will avail nothing in this suit, for he has stopped himself from complain-ing, as he knew of the transfer and approved and acquiesced in it. Nor will his complaint that the Kansas City club released some of its players help him out of his difficulty. It was not a part of the contract that he should select or retain the players to play with him. The right of selection and employment is one of the exclusive rights of the employer, unless the rule which requires servants to obey their masters is to be disregarded in baseball matters. But in this particular, as in the other, the defendant has stopped himself by acquieseing in the release of those players. His fear that the plaintiff will not be able to pay his salary is a matter he should have thought He Cannot Play With the Philadelof when he was making his engagement. It will not excuse him from keeping his part of the contract until default in payment shall occur. His experience with the plaintiff as a paymaster does not justily his fear, but it does lead to the belief that this is a mere subterfuge. An injunction will be granted as prayed for."

fit from his breach of contract,

HOW A JAP LADY SMOKES.

Familiar Scene in the Cars of the Awe-Inspiring Orient. Detroit Free Press,]

When a Japanese lady gets on the car-if not with her husband or family she is sure to have a lady friend or a female servant with her—she generally drops her sandals on the floor and, carefully arranging her robe, folds her feet and legs under her on the seat, just as at home on the mats. She next takes out from the oil—or great silk belt which encircles her waist and which really keeps all her garants in place—the turn pine cast. her garments in place-the tiny pipe, case and pouch, and filling the bowl with a pinch of the fine cut weed, strikes a match and lights it. She draws in one full whiff and then lets most of the smoke float out of her mouth little by little, but finally the rest is blown out through the nose.

She then knocks the tobacco out of the pipe, against the toe of her sandal, on the floor, and replenishes the bowl with tobacco immediately, lighting it from the bacco immediately, lighting it from the former centents which are still smoking on the floor, and of this second bowiful she slowly inhales about three whiffs, then empties the bowl again. I have seen the filling, lighting and smoking repeated one after the other four times, but generally it is but twice. After this the pipe is replaced in the pouch and the whole put away in the belt. It is easy enough to describe this in words, but impossible to point them with the absolute perfection of grace which animates every move.

A RECORD IN PHOTOGRAPHS.

Novel Application of the Camera to Architecture and Building. Carpentry and Building.] A graphic history of the new Library Building at Washington, is being prepared. At regular intervals from the top of the building, occupied by the superintending architect and his force of draftsmen, a camera is turned upon the work which at present consists only of great hole dug out in the square east of the capitol grounds. The resulting picture shows every detail of the condition of the work, the height of the foundation wall, the piles of material on hand, etc. It is pro-posed to file these photographs away, properly labeled in such form, that they can be produced if any question arises as to what was done or was not done at any stage of the work.

BABY'S ROUND SHOULDERS.

A Disagreeable Physical Defect That Has Its Origin.

A tendency to round shoulders is often contracted in the cradle. The mother, in mistaken kindness, places the baby's head on a pillow so high that its shoulders must be curved and the habit thus learned is kept up through life to the detriment of health and appearance. When asleep an infant's head should be very little, if any higher than its body, which should be straightened out. Its nap would be longer and sweeter if healthfully placed. It is just as comfortable, when one is accustomed to it, and far more useful to sleep with the whole body perfectly level.
