SCORED A SIGNAL SUCCESS.

gheny.

An Eujoyable Entertainment at the Third Presbyterian Church.

Notwithstanding the steady downpour of rain last evening, the chapel of the Third Presbyterian Church was filled with an appreciative audience for the entertainmen previously announced. The most enjoyable feature of the evening was the gymnastic exercises of the physical culture class, which, under the direction of Miss Bessie Wright, repeated the programme given in the chapel of the Pittsburg Female College last Friday evening. The class is composed of 12 young ladies, who have been in training for the last six months, and under their skillful teacher, Miss Wright, have become very proficient. They looked decidedly pretty, last evening, in their cal-isthenic suits of white, with roses worn at the throat, and they scored a signal triumph with their first number, free gymnastics, which was repeated and emphasized by their

The other numbers on the programme were a piano solo by Mrs. Todd, a recitation, "The Blacksmith's Story," by Miss Mary Mitchell, a soprano solo by Miss Horne, and a violin solo by Mr. H. F. Hetzel.

GIVEN A ROYAL SEND-OFF.

A Hearty Godspeed to Mr. and Mrs. Josinb Cohen Last Evening.

The Concordia Club, of Allegheny, last night did the honors to Josiah Cohen, Esq., and wife, giving them a royal send-off. Mr. and Mrs. Cohen sail for Europe next Saturday, hence the reception. The occasion was pleasant and recuperating.

The Schnus Exhibit Strengthened.

The Schaus collection of paintings at Gillespie's has been reinforced immensely by a number of masterpieces which Mr. Hermann Schans, in person, yesterday morning brought on from New York. These, which comprise some of the best works of you Mark, Dupre, Troyon, Daubigny and De-taille to be had in the United States, repre-sent the choicest of Mr. Schaus' stock, and strengthen greatly the previous collection. strengthen greatly the previous collection. The Van Mark cattle picture surpasses any-thing by that artist heretofore seen in Pitts-burg, and the Detaille is quite a gem. The exhibit now fully sustains the reputation of Mr. Schaus' house as a leader in art works.
