POLITICS IN MERCER.

No Lack of Citizens Willing to Look After the Old County's Interests

IN SOME PUBLIC POSITION.

The Near Approach of the Nominating Convention

MAKING REPUBLICANS HUSTLE.

The Names of the Leading Candidates, and Some Opinions

AS TO THOSE WHO MAY BE SUCCESSFUL

PROBRESPONDENCE OF THE DISPATCH. MERCER, May 5.-The political field of the "Messer diocese," as Editor Whitaker. of the Venango Spectator, characterizes us. has been plowed, subsoiled, harrowed and cross-harrowed the past few days as never before. An abundance of seed and chaff have been scattered broadcast, some of it, no doubt, falling on stony places, and to know how much will bear fruit we must wait until the 20th, when the hopes of the few and the disappointments of the many will be realized.

This will be the first large nominating convention since the new rules were adopted to govern the selection of candidates, and the question now of greatest interest to candidates and their friends is, "How are the new rules likely to work?" One thing has already been made plain; they allow the candidates a golden opportunity to work, and the fellow who isn't a hustler or does net have friends who are hustlers, will find his name written in the Dennis column.

UNDER THE NEW RULES the electors meet at their respective places of holding elections, and vote for the candi-dates of their choice. The one receiving the highest vote is regarded as the first choice of the district, the next highest second choice, and the next third choice. The delegate elected to attend the convention must cast the number of votes to which his dis-trict is entitled, in accordance with their opinion as expressed at this election. If but one candidate has been voted for, then the delegate is free, after that one is out of the way, to vote his disrict as he pleases; or if but two have been voted for, he can use his pleasure as to third choice; but if three pany and regiment to which he belonged when in the service; but, though there are several old soldiers among the candidates this year, only two call attention to the fact in their announcement. One candidate adds this to his announcement: "One term's receipts from this office are enough." As Honaman. might be inferred from this, the fellow he is The figu trying to oust has served one term. One candidate for Assembly announces himself

Heretofore the existence of a political ring has been strongly suspected and charged It was the ring against the field, with the field usually left out in the wet. This year there has been a dissolution of partnership among the leaders, and there are now two rings, or a ring and a ringlet; or one might ermed a slate and the other a blackboard. * Your correspondent does not claim to be a political prophet, but present indications point to results which he will outline, though material changes may take place within the ten days yet to come before the convention.

The contest for Congress is carried on by Mai. Alex McDowell, the jolly banker of Maj. Alex McDowell, the jolly banker Sharon and Hon. J. C. Brown, late of the Greenville Advance-Argus. Both are well and favorably known, but the drift of opinion seems to be that McDowell will have an easy victory, in the county, even if it proves to be an empty bonor in the district. Following are the candidates for Assembly: J. S. Fruit, Sharon; I. H. Robb, Sandy Lake; Benjamin Hughes, Pardoe; W. H. Miller, Greenville; I. B. Spier, Greenville; Henry Hall, Mercer; W. J.

township. It is pretty generally conceded that Frint and Hall, who have served two terms, will again be nominated. The fight for third piace seems to be among Robb, Spier and Harshaw, with the odds in favor of Robb. FOR THE SHRIEVALTY.

Harshaw, Grove City; Joseph Miller, Pine

The candidates for sheriff are: A. H. Burnett, New Vernon; Samuel Dunham, Sharpsville; Charles Clawson, Mercer, and B. R. Welch, Grove City. It was thought at first that Clawson would have a walk-over for this office, but Burnett has developed noexpected strength the past few days. He has been a candidate several times and always bore defeat gracefully. It is probably a question of now or never with him, and the tide of sympathy that sometimes earries victory in its wake may put Burnett through, though it will be a victory for the ringlet if he gets there. One of the most spirited contests is going on to decide who shall be Clerk of Courts.

Following are the condidates: S. V. McDowell, Delaware township; C. W. Ray, Sharon; J. C. Van Orsdell, Wilmington township; G. E. Hamilton, French Creek township; S. D. Downs, Hempfield township; S. A. Wilson, Stoneboro; H. H. Zeigler, Mercer. Most of them are hustlers, and the man in this county who doesn't know that we are to elect a Clerk of Courts this fall must have been taking a Rip Van Winkle sleep. It looks as if Downs, Ray and Zeigler would lead the field in theorder named to start with, but where it will end is as uncertain as the verdict of a petit jury. It would to-day likely be Downs, but what it will be on the 20th is not so easy to predict. Downs has made a tolerably success'ul effort thus far to keep from becoming identified with either ring or ringlet to hurt his chances with the others.

ONLY TWO CANDIDATES.

The Prothonotary contest thus parrowed down to B. J. Haywood, the present in-cumbent, and T. A. Courtney, of Mercer. Haywood has had considerable of a pull at the public teat, but as he has made a most competent and courteous officer, and, besides, is one of the keenest of Mercer county's keen politicians, it is thought, even by many of his opponent's friends, that Haywood will be his own successor. Mr. Courtney is qualified for the position and is popular. He is making his fight against the underlying principle of civil underlying principle of civil service reform, however, and using the plea that one term is sufficient. The candidates for Treasurer are W. H. Ben, or Greenville; W. J. Graham, or Jackson Center, and W. H. Dight, of Mercer. The light is wholly between Beil and Graham, and will be a typical contest between the ring and ringlet. This for some reason, has been claimed by the farmers for several years, and one of their number chosen to fill it, but this year will be an exception, as Beil is eashier of the Greenville National Bank and Graham

Superintendent of the Jackson Center Horse Company. As Jackson Center is more of an agricultural village than Greenville, Graham claims the preference, as well as from the fact that managing fine stock comes nearer farm-ing than managing a national bank. Beil is a capable business man, and it looks as if he would be first under the wire.

A LOT OF WILLING ONES. The following 11 good men and true ask that the mantle of County Commissioner be placed on their shoulders: J. Y. Templeton, West Salem township; J. C. Black, Grove City; Joseph Junkin, Findlay township; S. R. Babcock, Coolspring township; Thomas P. Munnel, Springfield township; Albert S. Herriott, Pymatuning township; David Thompson, Sandy Creek township; G. W. Fercuson, Delaware township; William McQuiston, Deer Creek township; Fred Myers, Hickory township; R. I. Campbell, Greenville.

It is more difficult to form any decided opinion as to who will be successful for this office than for any other on the list. Templeton has served one term and has made many friends who would be glad to see the one term idea violated in his favor. He is making a thorough canvass and may pull through. If the prejudice against a second term kills him off, then Ferguson or Thompson may touch bottom, while Munnel, owing to his very favorable location, beside being a capable man, stands a good chance for being the other.

The candidates for Recorder are: C. J.
Law, Pymatuning township; John B.
Hogue, New Vernon township; J. M. Stewart, Pymatuning township, and J. M. Miller, Findley township.

The fight between Law and Stewart will likely award the prize to Hogue, by the way a very worthy man, who came within a few votes of being nominated for Treasurer three years ago.

OTHER OFFICES TO FILL. George Moyer, Pymatuning township, George Maurer, Mill Creek township, J. F. Hope, Hickory township, and J. W. Haw-thorne, Sandy Lake township, are the can-didates for Poor Director. Hawthorne and Hope are the strongest candidates, with chances in favor of Hawthorne.

J. D. Emery, Esq., of Mercer, thus far has no opposition for District Attorney.

There are six candidates for delegate to State Convention, and as but three are needed, three must be left. No doubt all are Delamater men. Following are the names: T. O. Hazen, Sharpaville; F. Donaldson, Jr., Greenville; Daniel Williams, Sharon; G. H. Caldwell, Deer Creek; W. A. McMasters, Jamestown; C. M. Derickson,

If I were to make a guess, it would be that Williams, Caldwell and Donaldson will be the three lucky candidates.

A DEMOCRAT, SURELY

The Only Answer That Can Now be Given to the Query,

WHO WILL BE THE CONGRESSMAN

That Shall Represent a Block of Four Counties in Eastern Ohio.

LOTS OF CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD

PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BELLAIRE, O., May 5 .- The new district, omposed of Belmont, Monroe, Noble and Washington counties, will elect a Democrat to Congress next November by a plurality of about 1,500 votes. As soon as the redistricting bill had passed the two Houses of the Legislature, the names of half a dozen aspirants for the honor were given to the public, and within a week as many more will make themselves known. General A. J. Warner, of Marietta, is the most prominent candidate. He is indeed the only one of them with more than a local reputation. Warner, however, is a better statesman than he is politician, and it is conceded by his friends that he cannot secure the prize. His position on the tariff question is particularly obnoxious to the Democrats of the district. He is ranked as a Randall Democrat, and was the author of the "straddling" platform adopted by the State Committee of 1883. In his own county one of his opponents will be Editor McMillan, of the Marietta Times.

MONROE'S CANDIDATES.

In Monroe county two men are discussed for the nomination—one of them is Judge Driggs, of the Belmont-Monroe Judicial district. His term will expire in another year, and he has not fully determined what to do. He can get another five years' term as Judge if he chooses. But if he plunges into politics, and enters into the Congressional race, all his hopes are gone. It is likely that Driggs will stand aside for J. P. Spriggs, who lives in Woodsfield, and was at one time a law partner of Judge Driggs. Spriggs is a little past the prime of life, and is prominent at the bar. He will receive fair support from his own county.

The largest county in the district is Belmont, and polls more Democratic votes than any of the others. The convention will be held here in Bellaire, it is presumed, the metropolis of the county, so Belmont has already a number of aspirants in the field. One of them is Colonel James F. Charlesworth, a soldier in the Mexican war, who, worth, a solder in the Mexican war, who, despite his age, is quite sprightly. Charles-worth was an old-time Whig and ran a newspaper at the county seat many years ago. He was a candidate for Congress in 1880 in a district overwhelmingly Republican, and was of course defeated. He has acted as chairman of the county committee. acted as chairman of the county committee, and at present represents his Congressiona district on the State Committee.

PLENTY OF TIMBER. Ross J. Alexander, of Bridgeport, made the fight two years later against J. T. Upde-graff, and cut down his majority to a very narrow margin. When Updegraff died two months later, Alexander again ran, and was besten by Joseph D. Taylor. He served one term in the Legislature and distinguished himself as an economist of the Hol-man stripe. He ran for Probate Judge two years ago and was defeated.

Newell K. Kennon is another candidate.

He is about 35 years old and is a practicing lawyer. He was elected prosecuting at-torney of Belmont county in 1884, and was defeated in 1887. The politicians of the county seem to favor him.

OTHERS IN THE RACE. Albert Lawrence, who came into the county as a visiting statesman a few years ago, is also said to be a candidate. Lawrence was made much of after his advent into county politics; was made solicitor of St. Clairsville, and was favored in various ways by the Court House hopeless contest. Lawrence is a man of fair ability, and the greatest obstacle to his success is the cry of "carpet bagger" raised The friends of Hon. David Wagener are arging him to enter the race. Senator Wagener has tremendous popularity along the river front, and if he determines to enter years ago he ran for the Legislature-a the field he will certainly infuse a vigor into the contest which will not otherwise characterize the race. The situation may be briefly summarized. General Warner is ruled out of the race at the start, and who will be the winner is
