

HAD HIM DOWN FINE.

One of the Stoyestown Counterfeiters Found Guilty Yesterday.

THE OTHER U. S. COURT WORK.

Judge White's Instructions to Commissioners in Divorce Cases.

A GRIST OF NOTES FROM THE COURTS

The trial of Edward Brisbin, of Stoyestown, which is one of the numerous counterfeiting cases that are to be taken up at the present session of the United States District Court, took place yesterday.

SPERMINS IDENTIFIED.

Some sperm of the man was submitted and identified by the witness, Attorney Rowland wanted the witness to admit that he was drunk when he called on Brisbin, but O'Dwyer strenuously denied that.

THE DEFENDANT'S STORY.

The defense was opened by placing the defendant, Edward Brisbin, on the stand. He said that the money found in his house had been made by his father, William H. Brisbin, the metal found in the house had been made by him, and had found in the ruins of a hardware store that had been burned down.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Hancock sub-district school, held this evening, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

RESOLVED, THAT IN HIS DEATH, WE, HIS BROTHER MEMBERS, RECOGNIZE A SERIOUS LOSS.

Resolved, that in his death, we, his brother members, recognize a serious loss to the school, and to the community, and that we should be united in mourning for him.

WORK OF THE U. S. GRAND JURY.

The grand jury in the United States Court returned the following true bills yesterday: Emma Cole, passing counterfeit money, four counts; Daniel Cornish, removing a letter from a post-box, with intent to defraud, one count; and a letter from a post-box, three counts.

CAN'T SEE THE CLAIM.

Judge Acheson Hands Down an Important Infringement Opinion. Judge Acheson, of the United States Court, handed down an opinion yesterday morning in the case of the American Gas Company vs. Anderson. The plaintiffs were assigned by the court to prove that the defendant had infringed on their patent.

NO CRIME WAS MEANT.

Daniel Cornish Found Not Guilty in Very Short Trial. Daniel Cornish was found not guilty in a charge of removing a letter addressed to another from a post-box at Tyroneville, Crawford county.

ONE LOT OF BARGAIN SILKS.

One lot striped saris silks, 19 inches wide, with a very large pattern, and other colorings, which we offer at the very low price of 50c a yard.

LADIES' APRONS.

Special values in fine aprons. Brilliant sprays at $1; black silk aprons, very handsome, $3.

DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know that you may miss a fine pair of shoes if you do not call at our store? We have a large stock of shoes, and we are selling them at a very low price.

SOME TALL HUSTLING.

That Was Done to Keep Verona Borough as Dry as Possible.

THE TELEGRAPH PLAYED A PART.

A Duplex Aim in Rushing the Matter Through on the Double Quick.

ATTORNEY YOST VERY WELL PLEASSED.

There was some lively hustling in the case of Daniel Ritter, who asked the Supreme Court for a certiorari on the Quarter Sessions of this county. Attorney William Yost said that he was very well pleased with the result of the case.

GRATIFYING TO ALL.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant fruit remedy, known as the 'Pain Expeller,' is a fact which illustrates the value of the medicine.
