

TROUBLED ON TENER. The Chicago Sluggers Give John an Awful Drubbing in One Inning. HE BROKE UP IN THE NINTH. The Boys Looked Sure Winners Until the Cyclone Appeared. BALDWIN ALSO GETS A GOOD DOSE. Some Mysterious Movements of the National League Magnates. HINES RELEASED BY THE LOCAL CLUB.

LOOKED LIKE WINNERS. At the end of the fifth inning they were one run ahead and when the Chicago opened the sixth the score was 10-1. The batting was with the weaker end of the team, and defeat being almost sure, hundreds of spectators had jumped into the field and were cutting across toward town. O'Neil stood on the right coaching line in perfunctory attitude, thinking perhaps of what might have been.

THE FUN STARTED. In the next, the great first baseman deflected a weak spot on the ground, and as a slugging tree he lunged at it with sufficient force to send the leather over second. O'Neil looked up and Latham tried to make. Darling was in the air, and he caught Tennor's very first attempt and placed the ball safely into right, reaching first, while the captain held down third. A wave of noise in the stands and pavilion showed that something might yet happen. O'Neil found his voice and began coaching vociferously, while Latham unobtrusively his blazer and begged O'Neil to let Latham's sake hit the ball. Farrell hit the ball, and when he did the home goes rushed back to their seats. O'Neil fell in a heap from joy and Latham turned and looked at him.

AN AWFUL DISASTER. By this time, Coniskey and Darling having scored, the spectators were in a whirl of excitement. No one was out when Bastian struck his bat once on the head of the pitcher shot the ball but once at the little shortstop. The latter punched it in the middle and the ball sped on and on over the field. Farrell scored the tying run and a noise that drowned even Latham's best effort to howl. Bastian rested on his base and saw no one was out. Then Mark Baldwin, who had not yet touched the ball with a bat, rushed a screamer into left, and so surprised that he got only as second, while Bastian crossed the plate with the winning run. Latham went as Beckley caught his cruel on fly. Baldwin was still on second when Duffy's attempt to sacrifice failed, but he came in, and Coniskey, the hero, when Ryan hit safely over Robinson's head. Five runs had now been scored and earned, but O'Neil continued the bombardment by spinning the globe into right and sending Ryan to third. Coniskey was tenth man at bat, but was fielded out, and a remarkable game had now won and lost. In the ninth Tennor had touched up the seven hits, with a total of 12 bases. The score:

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—The New York Brotherhood team put up a good game today and won from the local Players' League team by a score of 6 to 4, but it took ten innings to do it. Two good catches by Statter in the eighth inning robbed the local team of a run, and his by Richardson and Brown gave New York a two-run lead in the tenth. The six bases on balls by Cunningham gave the visitors three of their six runs. Attendance, 1,622. Score:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.—No games are scheduled, but postponed games will be played at each city by the clubs that played against each other yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—You can say most positively that Pickett will not play half any more this season. It is hardly probable that he will be back here again. "Then you will not contest that matter any further?" "No, sir. We would like it to the Supreme Court, but it would be of no avail. The playing season would be over before we could get a decision. Pickett will go into private business."

player and to have kept Hines would have kept Hecker on the bench, and we could not afford that. Hines is a good outsider, but we are satisfied with the outfield we have. I think Hecker will pitch now and again as soon as he gets into condition. Youngman has not been released." It is thought that Youngman will be dispensed with before many days.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—The Philadelphia National League club defeated the Boston Brotherhood team today in the first game of the season. The difference between the two teams was effective, the difference being slightly in favor of the former. The Phillies scored seven runs, their only error being an excusable wild throw by Allen. Attendance, 1,283. Score:

WASHINGTON, May 7.—President Young has several additional unpurged in mind and he is going to keep up the fight on the same issue whenever a majority of the League clubs demand. In conversation with your correspondent today, he said: "The League has no definite plans looking to a change in the situation. We are still determined to keep up the fight on the same issue. We will not make money, and they mean to stay in the business. Here in Washington there are not a great many of our kind. If they do not make money, they mean to stay in the business. THE TOURNAMENT FINISHED. Another Day's Excellent Shooting by the Celebrated Trap Shooters. The local shooting tournament, promoted by Messrs. E. E. Shaver, Crow, Richardson, Darison and M. Hostetter, was brought to a highly successful conclusion yesterday. The tournament has certainly been the best ever held in this city, and probably the best ever held in the country. The entries have been extraordinary, considering that the matches were open to the world. One noteworthy feature of the two days' shooting has been the prominent part the local shoot has taken. They have been good winners and the famous competitors from other cities have had none the best of it.

POOL-SELLING A CRIME. A Jersey Judge Vehemently Denounces a Common Practice. ELIZABETH, May 7.—The May term of the Union County Court opened yesterday with Judge Van Dyke, of the Supreme Court, on the bench. When the grand jury was sworn the judge delivered a searching charge regarding the race tracks of Elizabeth. After admonishing the jury that they were clothed with all power to indict offenders the law and could apply to the Court for instructions he said the grand jury was responsible if offenders were not punished after proper evidence was submitted of violations of the law.

WHAT'S IN THE WIND? The National League Magnates Are Moving About Very Mysteriously. There is, undoubtedly, a mysterious movement among the National League magnates. They are quietly being themselves away to New York if all reports are true. J. P. O'Neil is there, and President Nimick either left last night or will go to-day. A. G. Spalding, of Chicago, is also on his way there or may be there now. President Nimick remarked to Constable Hawser, of Alderman McMaster's office, yesterday, that the rent difficulty with the National League magnates, particularly that part of them residing in Pittsburgh, as a rule some of these men are very unreliable things, and although President Nimick was questioned yesterday, he declined to say anything except that the rent difficulty regarding Recreation Park would be settled at once.
