Staley was down on the card to pitch, and it was expected that he would at least approach in effectiveness his first game of the series here. But all the predictions proved talse, and Mr. Staley lasted just one inning. The Chicagos hammered his delivery out flat, and made five earned runs in their first turn at the bat. Morris was substituted in the second, but he fared about as

MORRIS WAS ALSO PIE. Morris' best curves were caught on Chicago sticks and lined out to the fences. King, for the home players, pitched a great game and alowed the visiting batsmen to hit him safely but six times. The game on the whole was rather loosely played, and was nothing more than an exhibition of terrific slugging. After Latham had been sent down in the first Duffy rapped out a three-bagger and came in on Ryan's single. O'Neil found a three-bagger also, and his drive was followed by a single by Comiskey, a double by Darling and the third triple of the inning by Farrell. The latter tried to make home on his hit, but was fielded out at two-sacker. Four more Privates made the circuit of the bases in the sixth on hits by Bastian, Latham, Duffy and Ryan and an error by Corcoran. Duffy and O'Nell each made their fourth hit in the eighth, and both of them, with King, crossed the plate.

The visitors scored one in their first crack at the ball, and earned it on Hanlon's double and a single by Heckley. Hanlon scored again in the tuird on a base on balls, Quinn's single and a bad muff by King. In the eighth the first three Pittsburgers on the list touched the four bases. Hanlon made first on Bastian's error, and came over the plate. Ben Visner hammered a three-masted bit into left. Visner came in on a careless throw by Darling, and

SPALDING'S OPINION.

Killed. NEW YORK, May 8 .- President A. G. Spalding, of the Chicago National League Baseball Club talked with a reporter this morning. In regard to the baseball situation, and the signs he read in the sky, Mr. Spalding said: "Some League or tother must go to the wall; "Some League or tother must go to the wall; they cannot go on as they are now doing, each cutting the other's throat. The public is overdosed with baseball, or rather with the fight for patronage between the two League clabs. In view of the past history of their players the Brotherhood clubs should draw far better than they do, for they contain many of the men who were most popular with the crowds in days gone by. On the part of the National League I freely confess that we are not drawing satisfactory crowds. If there were not an element of antagonism manifest between the two Leagues both might, perhaps, prosper. There are enough propie interested in the great national game to sapport both organizations.

"As the situation stands, however, there is no money in it for anybody. The two opposing Leagues are waging a war of extermination. It cannot last. One or the other must givenway."

LINCOLN WAS BASY. Lincoln was in the box for five innings for Cleveland, but the Smoky City lads began to bang the ball, and Manager Schmelz brought Gilks in from left field to pitch the rest of the game. Pittsburg scored its first two runs in the second on singles by Hecker and Kelty. and a double by Sowgers. In the fourth, with one out, Kelty hit safely and went to second on a passed ball. Dunlap was given a base, Sowders hit to Veach, who let the ball get through his legs, and two runs was the result. Sunday sent Sowders home with a single to right. In the fifth Ardner fumbled Hemp's hit, and Milthe fifth Ardner fumbled Hemp's hit, and Mil-ler followed with a single. Ardner failed again to connect on La Roque's hit and Hemp scored. Hecker forced La Roque out as second, and Mil-ler accred while the Cleveland players were running Hecker down between the bases. Pittsburg's last run came in the seventh on a base on balls, a wild pitch and a sacrifice, in the first inning.

WHERE CLEVELAND SCORED. In the first inning Luncoln's single and Miller's fumble with a wild throw by Wilson gave Cleveland a run. In the second Dailey hit to Dunlap and was retired. Davis lined out a single, and Veach followed suit; Ardner hit to Dunlap and reached first. The bases were full, and McKean made a three-bagger to center. Gilks hit to Miller, who succeeded in retiring McKean, while the batter got to second. A wild throw by Wilson permitted Gilks to score. In the third Smalley singled, Dunian muffed Wilson's throw, and a sacrifice gave Cleveland another run. In the fourth McKean Gilks' beautiful single to left. Lincoln singled, but the side was retired before any more rous got in. In the seventh a base on balls, a passed ball and a single gave Cleveland another run and tied the score. No more runs were made until Cleveland's half of the tenth, when Veach started off with a single, Ardner went out on a long fly to Sunday, Dunlap fumbled McKean's hit, and with two men on bases Gilks lifted the ball safely in left, and sent Veach across the plate with the winning run. The Colored Heavy Weight Beats the Western Man in 16 Rounds. PROVIDENCE, May S.—Twelve hundred people were at the Gladstone Club to-night and saw Patay Cardiff, of Minneapolis, fall down before George Godfrey, the colored heavy-weight champion of Boston, in 16 rounds. The opinion was pion of Boston, in 16 rounds. The opinion was generally expressed by those who claimed to be conversant with the western man's peculiar factics that he voluntarily surrendered the contest. The $1,200 trophy was awarded to Godfrey. The first exhibition of the evening was the contest for points between Godfrey and Cardiff. Godfrey entered the ring weighing 172 pounds, while the Westerner tipped the beam at 176 pounds. The referee was Bill Mahony, of Boston. Godfrey's seconds were Baidy Carroll and George Bush, Those who performed the like services for Cardiff were Dan Gill and Tom Kelly.

The combatants fought 16 rounds. Cardiff was remarkably clever in dodging and avoiding punishment. His left eye became completely closed during the struggle. The men fought at close quarters for the greater part of the set-to. Godfrey used aggressive tactics standing right up to his man. The Boston man's face was discolored and cut. Neither received any body punishment the objective point of each being the other's physiognomy.

Grable, the ex-business manager of the Southside Enterprise, who was brought to this city from East Liverpool, O., by Detective Carrigan on a warrant sworn out by Miss Asia L. Higgs, the Enterprise editress, charging him with larceny, was given a hearing yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Succop. Grable was represented by James Wakefield. When the time for the hearing had arrived Miss Higgs was pres-ent, but expressed a preference not to testify against her former business partner. She said in explanation that there was a strong probability that a mistake had been committed, and she did not want to take up the role of a persecutor. Magistrate Succop expressed some impatience, and insisted that Miss Higgs produce her evidence if she had any. A ter considerable talk she concluded to testi y, and told a rambling story o her trunk hav-ing been robbed of some money and silver knowledge that Grable had taken any of it. Miss Higgs admitted on cross-examination that the money and silverware alleged to have been taken was the property of the firm, and that Grable had only taken half, or his own share. There was no other testimony and Magistrate Succep discharged Grable.

VERY FOOLISH MOVE.

The New League Officials Mean to Go to Court

> TO SECURE SOME INJUNCTIONS. Public Opinion Against That Mode of Fighting the Battle.

ME. PICKETT IS WELL TAKEN CARE OF

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—Philadelphia is soon to have another baseball lawsuit. This time it is a squabble between two of the home clubs, the Philadelphia (P. L.) club applying for an injunction to restrain Clements, The for an injunction to restrain Clements, Inomp-son, Myers, Gleason and Schriver from playing with the Philadelphia (N. L.) club. The con-tinued fighting and litigation between the League and the Brotherhood has destroyed much of the interest which was formerly manifested in the game, and nowhere is this more noticeable than in this city. There was a division of opinion among the directors of the Philadelphia Brotherhood club as to the advisability of bringing suit against the five play-ers mentioned above, and, it is said, the vote in favor of applying for an injunction was carried by one majority. Secretary Allen and John M. Vanderslice are reported to have been against going to law. The fact that an effort is to be made to take five of the best players away from the Phillies has aroused a great deal of unfavorable comment in baseball circles, and if it is pushed to the end the National League will gain many sympathizers. A BAD MOVE.

A well-known business man approached Manager Harry Wright in the Continental Hotel corridor to-day and said: "Is it true that the Brotherbood is going to try and restrain Clements, Gleason, Myers, Thompson and schriver?"

"I do not know," replied Wright,

"Well, if it is true," said the gentleman, "the Brotherhood will lose much patronage. I am a strong Brotherhood partisar, but if a suit like this is brought I pletige you my word I never shall go to their grounds again, and I know many more who are of the same frame of mind as I am. I am in favor of a fair, square fight between the League and the Brotherhood, but when it comes to a state of affairs where spite and malice are allowed to rule you can count me on the outside."

Lawyer John M. Vanderslice said to-day that the argument for an injunction against the five fhiladelphia League players would probably be heard on Saturday, May I7. The papers in the case have been prepared and were received from the printers to-day. Second baseman John T. Pickett, who was restrained from playing with the Philadelphia (P. This may be a disobedience to the order of court, so far as Pickett is concerned, as he is restrained only as a ball player, but so far as the Players' League Club is concerned it is the opinion generally of several well-known lawyers—not connected with baseball—that any employment by the club or its agents that prevents Pickett from giving his services to the Kansas City club, is a violation of the injunction which contains the following significant language: "We command you, the said John T. Pickett, not to play baseball with, or give your services as a baseball player for the season of 1890, ending October $1, 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons whatever other than the American Association Baseball Club, of Kansas City, Mo., and we command you, the said Piayers' National League Baseball Club, of Philadelphia, and your agents, employes and servants not to employ said John T. Pickett, or otherwise interfere with the giving of said Pickett's services for said season of 1890 to the said American Association Baseball Club, of Kansas City, until the further order of said court in the premises."

THE Mayflower sailed upstream yesterday on THE Mayflower salled upstream yesterday on a trial free excursion trip. Quite a number of guests were on board. The voyage was made agreeable with music and dancing, the spacious saloon being gaily decorated for the occasion. A number of gentlemen of the "bum" order, to their intense surprise, found themseives rigidly excluded. The new management promises that the boat will be kept thoroughly exclusive during the coming sesson, and that every inducement will be given to intending excursionists.

ANOTHER STOCK FAILURE. Brinker Brothers Decide to Quit Busine

and Pay Their Losses. Brinker Brothers, brokers in stocks, grain and petroleum, yesterday decided to close up their business to-morrow. This firm is located at No. 410 Smithfield street, where it has conducted a brokerage business. It is reported as having done the largest com-mission business in the city. The firm was formerly Loughry, Brinker & Co., but for the last six or seven months Messrs. A. L. and Cyrus Brinker have been conducting the business. An interview was had with Mr. Cyrus Brinker yesterday. He said that he wanted it understood the firm was not in any financial predicament. Mr. Brinker said it would close up to-morrow evening, and pay everything in the meantime. He added:

"We have decided to quit, as we can con-tinue no longer unless we have assurance from the various houses, where we placed our deals, that we will get our money when the deals are closed. As it stands at present we feel considerable apprehension for the safety of our customers' money when it is in the hands of other tirms. The condition of the stock market at present has a very bad effect on the bucket shops, and we will not chance losing anything with them."
