Programmes for the Mozarts and Boston Symphony Orchestra.

THE LATTER'S SEASON AT THE HUB.

Progress in Musical Culture as Indicated by Recent Events.

NEWS FROM POPULAR PITTSEURGERS

The most important among the many events that throng in toward the close of our musical season are the two concerts of the Mozart Club (twel th season; fith and sixth concerts) to be given with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, on Monday and Tuesday of next week, at Old City Hall. The full programmes, now first published, are as fol-

Of Mme. Steinbach-Jahns we are told that she began her professional career singing sou-brette parts in the Opera at Frankfort-on-the-Main. She next appeared in Danzig, where her remarkable gifts attracted attention, and her remarkable gifts attracted attention, and brought her an engagement at the Leipzig Staat Theater. Here she soon became the leading dramatic soprano, and her career was one of extraordinary success. Among her more notable triumphs were the reles of Elsa in "Lohengrin," Senia in Flying Dutchman," Genouva, Eva in "Die Meistersinger," and Agnes in "Freischuetz." Since Mr. Nikisch brought her to this country to participate in the orchestra's present extended tour, the voice of our best critics has amply indorsed her growing European reputation.

The math season of the Boston Symphony Orchestra's regular concerts at Music Hall, which closed a fortnight ago, has been the most successful in its history. The new conductor, Mr. Arthur Nikisch, from Leipzig, has more than warranted his selection for this important post. He has wholly captivated the critics of the Hub, in spite of prejudices at the

Those who have succeed at Mr. Higginson's wooderfully liberal patronage of the orchestra, as a fad, indulged in for the delectation of an aristocratic clique, will have hard work to find such another instance of musical evangelism for the masses.

De Pachman's success in his Chopin recital on Friday evening was, indeed, phenomenal. The clearest manifestations of interest and de-light were made throughout the audience from first to last, and the sober, second thought of the commisseurs, as evidenced in many conver-sations yesterday, is marvellously free from the sations yesterday, is marvellously free from the usual tendency to reverse the popular verdict. There is some chance of his returning here after the three more concerts that complete his present tour. If so, there should be small doubt of a crowded house. Let us hope it will be so, if only to remunerate Mr. Gittings for his large-hearted labors and frequent pecuniary lesses in bringing to our city the greatest planists that come into America. AN American Composers Festival is announced to take place at Omaha, Neb., Nowember 27, 28 and 29, the works to be performed to be those of native American composition. New Yorkers have had 71 operatic performances during the past season, and about as many orchestral concerts, while, by adding the plane, choral and miscellaneous concerts, the list is increased to about 250.

PAULINE L'ALLEMAND has been engaged by Manager Rudolph Aronson for the Casino Company. She will make her first appearance this summer, probably about June 1, when Lillian Russell takes her vacation.

On Wednesday next the Randall Club will give a social musicale at Old City Hall from 8 to 12 P. M. The order of the evening will consist of ten choice members by the Great West-ern Band of 30 players, after which the floor will be cleared for dancing.

A CONCERT will be given at Old City Hall May 29, under the auspices of the C. M. B. A. Misses Agues Vogel, Grace Miller and Anna Misses Agnes voget, Grace sinier and Anna Leah Dickenson, Messrs. Joseph A. Voget, T. J. Fitzpatrick, Charles Gernert and Charles F. Cooper and the Gernert Orchestra will take MESSES, JOHN GERNERT, William Doelz, Charles Wels, Otto Ganske, violins; Charles F. Cooper, cello; George Leppig, Walter Arbogast, horns, and August Beckert, ober, go to Wheeling W. Va., on Monday to assist the Wheeling Orchestra in a concert to take place that evening.

The "Art Musicale" was entertained or Tuesday evening by Mrs. Mary R. Scott. Those who participated in the interesting programme were Mrs. Scott, Mrs. J. H. Speer, Miss Abbott, Miss Marshall, Miss Patterson, Mr. F. J. Bussman, Mr. R. W. Drum and Dr. W. T. English, MISSES GRACE MILLER, Alice Carter and Anna Leah Dickinson, Messrs, F. W. Robert shaw, Geo. E. Williams, R. J. Henne and Curtis Buffum and the Gernert Orchestra gave :

musical cast to the entertainment given on Friday evening at Lafayette Hall by Duquesne Commandery, Knights of St. John. MR. THEODORE THOMAS, the eminent or chestral conductor, was married in Chicago or Wednesday last to Miss Rose Fay, sister of Miss Amy Fay, whose name is so widely known in musical circles. Mrs. Thomas is a connection of Mrs. G. F. Muller, of Sewickley, both being of the same stock as the famous Bishop Hopkins, who literally made Trinity P. E. Church, of Phisabers.

From all accounts Mr. Charles Davis Carter From all accounts Mr. Churles Davis Carter and his Monongahela Churs d'Lub scored a decided success in their concert at Monongahela City last Thursday evening. The novelty was Gade's "Comala," op 12 (text after Ossian), a work with which Pittsburg audiences would like to become acquainted. In the cantata and the brist preceding programme, these soloists appeared: Mrs. J. Sharp McDonald. Misses Price l'atterson and Lonore Taylor, Messra. J. H. Gittings, Louis Critchlow, J. E. Pettee and W. H. Arison,

AT the next concert of the Allegheny Musical Association, which is set for the 27th inst. (pity it should conflict with one of the Strauss concerts). Dudley Buck's cantata, "Don Murio," will be given with these soloists:
Mrs. Theodore J. Toedt, soprano; Miss Gertrude Edmands, contralto; Mr. Theodore
J. Toedt, tenor, and Mr. Myron W. Whitney, bass. Carnegie Hall be used; but is the organ to be kept closed?

MISS JULIA E. TAYLOR gave an interesting Miss Julia E. Tanion gave an interesting recital at Beaver College last Thursday evening, playing Beethoven's sontata, op. 27, No. 2, Schumann's concerto, op. 54, Listi's sixth rhapsodie and a group of morceaux by Chopin-Massenet and Mozkowski. The recitalist was assisted by Mr. Frederick J. Bussman and John A. Bell, of Pittsburg, and by Miss Gertrude Griffiths, who sustained the orchestral part of the concerto on a second plano.

MR. MORRIS STEPHENS and his choir of 50 voices will give the cantata, "Daniel," in costume, at the Second M. P. Church, Eifth ave-nue and Marion street, next Thursday and Friday evenings. The leading parts are cast thus: Queen, Miss Jennie Gray; King, Mr. C. M. Rorah: Daniel, Mr. F. W. Bearl: Herald, Mr. Stephens. A miscellaneous programme will first be given, in which Miss Louise Loomis and Mr. D. J. Davie-, besides Miss Gray and Mr. Bearl, will also take part.

Dr. HANS VON BUELOW and Eugen D'Albert, in conjunction upon a single programme, gave a rare treat to the New Yorkers gramme, gave a rare treat to the New Yorkers yesterday evening at the Metropolitan Opera House. Buelow conducted the orchestra throughout, except in the Bach concerto for two pianos and orchestra, which he and D'Albert played together. The latter also gave Brahms' second concerto. Mendelssohn's Scotch symphony with Weber's "Oberon" and Beethoven's "Leonore" overture formed the test of their remarkable programme.

MR. W. H. STEPHENS, who held the position of tenor in St. Andsew's Church choir until last fall, is now in London completing his musical education, with a view of appearing in opera. He is studying with Mr. H. Blower, at the Royal Conservatory of Music for the Voice, and also operatic singing and acting from Garcia. He writes to a friend in the city that he is progressing finely, and has every hope of ultimate success. Mr. Stephens has a voice of unusual range and quality and should undoubtedly achieve success on the stage.

An entertainment under the title "concert and minuet" will be given to-morrow (Mon-day) evening at Roup School Hall, Elisworth avenue. It is for the benefit of the Children's avenue. It is for the benefit of the Children's Hospital, and is being arranged by the Flossie Howe Cot Club, of the King's Sons and Daughters, who will very appropriately dance the courtly minuet. The dance tune is the one from Mozart's "Don Juan," and will be played by Gernert's Orchestra. In the musical programme a number of local favorites will be heard, and with them a Miss Beesley, who returned on Friday from a three years' course of study under the celebrated Madame Alvensleben, of Dresden, will take prominent part.

That gifted and engageratic laboure in the

THAT gifted and energetic laborer in the country's musical vineyard, Mrs. Jeannette M. Thurber, not content with the ardnous duties she has assumed in managing the National Conservatory of Music, is now seeking to get a great national music hall built in Washington and otherwise to get official circles interested in the good cause. The intimation is plainly given that encouragement in this direction might cause the transfer of her national musical enterprises to the national capital. Good for Mrs. Thurber! If she should be instrumental in getting our Government at some future time to emulate the patronage given by foreign ad-ministrations to the cause of music for the nation, she will have done an inestimable service to art. THIS weeck the most interest centers in the first concert of the Zitterbart Orchestra, which is to be given at Old City Hall on Thursday evening. The purely orchestral numbers will be the new overture, "Domitian," MS., by Mr. Fidelis Zitterbart, Jr., and the same home Mr. Fidelis Zitterbart, Jr., and the same home composer's fantasie; "A Child's Dream," and Schubert's lovely B minor symphony (unfinished). Conductor and Composer Zitterbart will also appear as violin soloist—his first appearance before the general public in this capacity for many years—playing a concerto by Maurer, with piano accompaniment, Mr. Hugo Raiber will play the andante and presto of Mendelssohn's G minor plano concerto, with the orchestra. Mrs. Adah S. Thomas and Miss Helene Zitterbart, sopranos, Mr. Harry B. Brockett, tenor, and Mr. Chas. F. Cooper, 'cello, will be heard in other solo numbers, making altogether a concert of exceptional promise.

THE Handel Musical Association, of Allegheny, will give its last concert this season on number who have heard the or-tra at an expense of 50 cents or less 60,250 will be G. W. Chadwick's ballad for chorus and chestra, "Lovely Rosabelle," which will be heard here for the first time, though without orchestra. Mrs. Frank Brocklebank and Mr. Harry B. Brockett are to be the local soloists; the foregners will be Miss Clementina de Vere, the soprano, who is now riding the crest of popularity's wave in New York and elsewhere, and Mr. George E. Whiting, one of the country's very best organ composers and players and a brother of Mr. Amos Whiting, who directs this chorus. Miss de Vere will sing the air from David's "Perle du Bresil," the Homanze from "Aida" and Goring Thomas' song "Ma Voisire." Mr. Whiting will play Bach's Toccata in the Doric Mode, Krebs' "Bell Fugue," his own Sonata in A minor, op. 25, and a pastorale of his own writing, Liszt's march "From Crag to Sea," and a transcription from the "Flying Dutchman," besides improvising on Mendelssohn's song, "On Wings of Song." rchestra, Mrs. Frank Brocklebank and Mr.

HE KNEW CHIEF ELLIOT.

Rather Strange Thing Occurs at the Homeopathic Hospital. Yesterday afternoon a man named James K. Park, 55 or 56 years old, who followed the employment of a canvasser, died at the Homeopathic Hospital from pleurisy.

Park was admitted to the hospital in March and very little is known of him. The man told the hospital authorities that he knew Chief Elliot of the Department of Charities but Mr. Filliant to the control of the charteness of the property of the property of the charteness of the property of the charteness of the property of the proper Charities, but Mr. Elliot after looking at him could not tell who he was and thinks he is a stranger in this city. The authorities are anxious to find his relatives.

CAPES AND WRAPS Early in the season we started in with an unusually large stock of Capes and Wraps. That stock has been replenished several times, and we're beginning to think the next census will show a greater number of ladies than anybody could guess. We appreciate the enormous patronage we have received in this department. It's a substantial testimonial to the efforts we put forth in getting the very latest styles and selling at prices that leave us a slight margin indeed. A fresh arrival of new Lace Capes and Wraps in entirely new designs reached us yesterday and will be waiting for you to-morrow. They're eauties, too, and range in price from $5 to $25. Look over the following:

New Beaded Capes are $1 50, $2, $2 95, $5, $6 to $9 75. New Striped Blazers, $1 69 up. New Cloth Blazers, $3 50 to $8 45. New Silk Waists, $4 95 up.

New Ladies' London Shirt Waists, $1 50 up. One lot Stockinette Jackets, $3 45, reduced from $5, A lot of Children's Reefers, $1 75, $2, $2 25 and up to $6 75. Fine New Cloth Capes, $1 95 to $3 45, Ladies' Cloth Connemaras, $3 50 and up. Misses' and Children's Wraps greatly reduced.

Extra Fine Cloth Capes, $4 95 to $6 75.

A WORD ABOUT MILLINERY. The rush in our Millinery Department is great beyond expectations, but it is so thoroughly equipped and systematized that our patrons can get anything they want quicker than elsewhere. In fact that's exactly why we are rushed. We give prompt service and first-class work. Call and examine our new styles. Straw and Gimp Hats, Bonnets, Ribbons and Flowers in endless variety. Our display of Trimmed Hats and Bonnets will please the most fastidious tastes. Infants' Lace and Mull Caps, Bonnets and Hats in White, Cream and Black

-Who wins the eyes wins all -Certainly use SAPOLIO # in house-cleaning Sapolio is a solid cake of scouringsoap Try it in house-cleaning

YOU ARE JUDGED by your house just as much as by your dress. Keep it neat and clean and your reputation will shine. Neglect it and your good name will suffer. Do not think that house-cleaning is too troublesome; it is worth all it costs, especially if you reduce the outlay of time and strength by using SAPOLIO.

APPLIED ZOOLOGY

As the MAMMOTH, in pre-historic times, exceeded in bulk all other forms of contemporary life, so in present times LAIRD'S MAMMOTH SHOE STORES surpass all competitors in number, quantity and quality of goods, but especially in the marvelous bargains presented at all times. As the ALLIGATOR is the most formidable among saurians swarming in American waters, so do Shoes, at LAIRD'S, made from Alligator hides, defy wear and water as perfectly as when it was originally fastened upon the back of his Gaitership. Attention is called next to the largest Marsupial, the Australian KANGAROO, famous for his jumping abilities. Shoes from this kind of hide are especially adapted for Spring-wear.

The distinguished member of the genus capricornus com-monly known as DONGOLA GOAT, furnishes fine, soft skins for lady tourists; Shoes especially adapted for scaling mountains and high peaks. In this business, as in others, the most useful are the common, everyday domestic animals, such as Porkers, Veal Calves, Cows and Horses, who furnish from their much enduring hides the most substantial, reliable, pliable and all-round wearing footgear for people of all ages and feet of all sizes. The difference between seeing curious and interesting objects at Museums and these wonders of APPLIED ZOOLOGY AT LAIRD'S is, that it costs you money at the former, while you can save much money by visiting the latter.
