Some of the bucket shops suffered at his hands when the market was stagnant, and could be broke on offerings of 10,000 lots. He would give an order to a "bucket shop" for 50,000 barrels and then would offer 10,000 on the floor. With 20,000 or 30,000 barrels he could break the market at least a point and then cover with the "bucket shops." Smith was not backing an out-of-town "shop." PHILADELPHIA, May 12.-To-day's game be-tween the fulladelphia and Brooklyn Brother-hood clubs was marked by many errors and plenty of hits. The visitors won by bunching their hits at the same time the local players were making at the same time the local pixyers were making their errors. Sanders pixyer his first game with the Brotherhood, and while his pitching was hit rather freely, he gave indications of being as good as ever. Daily sprained his ankle in the firth inoing and was earried from the field. At-tendance, 2,242. Score:

Boston, 12-New York, 2.

NEW YORK, May 12 .- Kelly's Players' Lengue made fiwing bite the dust in fine style to-day before a crowd of 1,500 persons. Boger Connor did good work on first base for the home team and Reouthers proved a good man for the Bostons. The New Yorks, however, seemed to be badly rattled. Score:

THE Southside Standards will play at Tarentum on Saturday. FRED CARROLL had his eye on the ball yesterday in old time form. THE Coits did very well yesterday, but Dame Fortune was their friend.

THERE is a letter at this office for Manager Han-lon of the local P. L. club. STALEY pitched a great game yesterday after that very ominous first luning.

The officials of the local N. L. club are consid-erably dissatisfied with Juniap's work. He may be given a restone of these days. CHICAGO is having very hard luck indeed. Comiskey's team can stand it much better than the other weakier-bound club there. It is likely that the local P. L. Club will stay at Cleveland and play one of the postponed games to-morrow. If they do this they will go direct from Cleveland to the East. From Cleveland to the East. SECHETARY BRUXELL has instructed his um-plree to call a hit which bounds back and hits the batter a foul ball. Fasig's Horse Sale.

A Lively Dog Fight. A large crowd of local sports went to Collier station yesierday to see a battle between two Pittsburg dogs. One dog, a black was owned by a Washington street man, and the other, a brindle, was owned by resident of the Eleventh ward. The dogs cach weighed 25 pounds and the stakes were fillo a side. The black was favorite. After they had fought 2 hours and 40 minutes the owner of the brindle dog claimed that the owner of the black had helped his dog to "scratch." A wrangle ensued, and the referee declared all bets off. When the party returned to Pittsburg the referee gave the fight to the brindle dog. The other dog died from the effects of the battle. CLEVELAND, U., May 12.-W. B. Fasig's horse sale opened to-day at the Cleveland Driving Park. Thirty-four horses were sold for $13,500; average, $400. There was a good attendance. Colonel E. C. Edmondson, of Lexington, Ky., was the princi-nal auctioneer. pal auct
