

THE TROUBLE WITH SPORTS. THE TROUBLE BETWEEN FOGARTY AND PRESIDENT LOVE. BAD BUSINESS METHODS.

Those directly interested in the game of baseball cannot well be other than a little weary of it just now. The week has, indeed, been a discouraging one for those who have newly entered into the business with the fond expectation of making lots of money.

What we mean is the most important feature of the week has been the disagreement between ball player J. G. Fogarty and President Love of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Bad Business Methods. The present quarrel among the baseball factions is fast bringing before the public all the extraordinary features of the baseball business.

Deceits Pointed Out. Now, I ask, is there a business of any kind, that is a responsible and profitable business, where the employees are allowed this privilege of "overriding" in the extent in which we find it in the baseball business?

among the cranks to-day as it used to be. In such a case, it is not the best to kill the goose that lays the golden eggs.

Secretary Brunell of the Players' League, has been making a public apology for the poor pitching and all round playing of the various clubs of the new League.

About the Pugilists. Admirers of the prize ring and boxing stage have not had much to interest them during the week, that is as far as actual events have been concerned.

Slavin and Corbett. Slavin has also been talking to other people than Mitchell. The big Australian wants to fight Corbett, the big Californian, at the Philadelphia Club for $30,000 or $20,000.

The Two Turf Events. The turf season has just opened and the week has witnessed two prominent events: viz: the Kentucky Derby and the Brooklyn Handicap.

Mr. Edselle says in his letter that the Government officials were greatly pleased with the test and have offered him Government aid to perfect his discovery.

THE HUMAN ROCKET HOAX. "The Matter Sothens' death," said Florence.

After all it is a quiet, harmless way. The matter Sothens' death," said Florence. "I have not read the account of the explosion, but I have seen the photograph of the rocket, and I have seen the photograph of the rocket, and I have seen the photograph of the rocket."
