Shippers Doing a Very Losing Business With England at Present.

SPECIAL TELEPHAN TO THE DISPATOR.1 NEW YORK, May 22-It is estimated that no

$85. licef in England, at the retail markets, can be had in alundance at 12 cents a pound, while here it costs about 20 cents a pound. In the face of this slump in English prices the shippers find themselves competing to con-tinue shipping cattle. Months and months ago the shippers had all they could do to find room for shipping their cattle and then they gladly paid $20 for each head of cattle shipped and contracted to pay this rate up to August 1. The result was that the offerings being immense, many tramp steamships went into the business.
