Thousands of Knights of the Golden Eagle Arrive in Pittsburg.

A BIG PARADE EXPECTED TO-DAY.

The Twin Cities Donning Gala Attire for

This Week's Meetings. VISITORS FROM MAINE TO COLORADO

The advance guard of the Knights of the Golden Eagle invaded the city yesterday morning, to complete the final arrangements for the public demonstrations, which the public will witness the next few days. The decorations of the city in honor of the visiting Knights are assuming an elaborate appearance. Until 12 o'clock last night at least 3,000 Knights, in regulation uniform, had arrived in the city, and had taken up quarters at the various hotels. The Supreme Castle headquarters have been established at the Central Hotel, where the local committee is busity engaged looking after the welfare of the visitors. Representatives from the East as far as Maine, and from the West as far as Colorado are in attendance here at the annual conclave. The local committee had to keep hustling last night; between receiving the visitors at the different depots and assigning them quarters they were on the go all the time. Chief Marshal Heber McDowell has established his headquarters at the Seventh Avenue Hotel, and all orders in relation to the grand parade will be issued from there.

OFFICERS IN THE CITY. The following officers of the order arrived yesterday, and will participate in the fes-National Supreme Chief R. Emoryennis, of Baltimore; Davis Casellberry, Grand Supreme Chief of Pennsylvania; Past Supreme Geoeral of Records J. D. Barnes, of Philadelphia; William Culbertson, Supreme General of Records, Philadelphia; Grand Treasurer Timothy McCarty, of Philadelphia; Grand Chief of Colorado, W. N. Miller; Grand Councilor Harry Witcel, of Philadelphia; Adjutant J. Marbeihut, of Philadelphia; Major Signor, Captain Columbus Ensign; Houston W. J. Blake, Washington, D. C.

Columbus Ensign; Houston W. J. Blake, Washington, D. C.

The following cities and towns are represented at the conclave: Uniontown, Connellesville, Broadford, McKeesport, Meadville, Scottdale, Youngstown, Bellaire, Hamilton, Springfield, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, New York, New Haven and other places.

This morning the Supreme Castle will convene at 9:30 at 102 Fourth avenue. An address of welcome will be made by the Chairman of the Reception Committee. Mayor Gourley was to welcome the Knights to Pittsburg, but owing to business engagements he cannot be present. On behalf of the visiting delegates, Supreme Chief R. Emmoryennis will respond to the address of welcome, after which the assemblage will adjourn to Lafayette Hall and partake of lunch.

At 1 o'clook all aides to the Chief Marshal will report at the Seventh Avenue Hotel and

At 10 clook all aides to the Chief Marshal will report at the Seventh Avenue Hotel and commence the formation of the parade. It is expected that at least 6,000 men will participate in the demonstration, if the visitors continue to pour in as they did last night. The parade will move in the following order: Chief Marshal Heber McDowell, Reading Commandery, mounted, will procede the military part of the parade, followed by Cyrus Commandery No. 1 and 3, from Washington, D. C.; Cyrus Commandery No. 1, of Wilmington, Del.; Springfield Commandery, and all visiting commanderies from Ohio, followed by the Pennsylvania Division, headed by the Harrisburg Commandery, Major General L. S. Stiltz, Commander, The Pittsburg Commandery will bring up the left of the line.

BOUTE OF THE PARADE. The parade will pass in review at the corner of Ridge and Irwin avenues, Allegheny, after traversing the route already outlined in THE DISPATCH, as follows: Liberty to Seventh avetrue, to Smithfield, to Second avenue, to Grant street, to Fifth avenue, to Dinwiddie street, to Center, to Folton, to Wylie, to Fifth, to Market, to Sixth, to Suspension bridge, to Federal, to North avenue, to Irwin, to Ridge avenue, where the parade will pass in review.

The Knights will visit Lafayette Hail to at-The Knights will visit Lafayette Hail to attend an open meeting. At this meeting impromptu addresses will be made by the officers of the order. This will adjourn at 9 P. M., and then a barquet will be given in honor of the then a banquet will be given in bonor of the officers of the Golden Eagle, and to the visiting delegrates. Music will be furnished by the Grand Army Band.

Past Grand Chief A. C. Lyttle will preside at the banquet table, and Deputy Grand Chief Heber McDowell will officiate as toast master. The following toasts will be given and responded to: "Supreme Castle," by Supreme Chief R. Emmoryinnis: "The Grand Castle," by General L. E. Stiliz: "Our Guests," by P. S. C. J. D. Barnes: "The Press," S. K. of E. Timothy McCarty, "Our Homes," D. G. C. E. T. White; "Our Order," S. V. C. J. W. Kelley, and "Our Country," by Major E. A. Montooth. The menn, which is in charge of E. W. Hagan, will be elaborate, with all the delicacies of the season.

To-morrow afternoon and evening the To-morrow afternoon and evening the grand golden fete will take place at Silver Lake Grove, Dancing will be the order from 2 until 5 P. N., then an exhibition drill will take place. Prizes will be awarded to the best drilled commandery that participates in the exhibition. At 8:50 the Grand Eagle promenade will be given, in which the whole military portion of the order will take part.

PROGRAMME FOR THURSDAY.

Thursday morning the visitors will take in the sights of Pittsburg's ginss works and iron mills. The committee will conduct the visitors to the Edgar Thomson Steel Works at Braddock, where, no doubt, they will be entertained by the manner in which steel rails are made. At 4 P. M. the visitors will return to the city and take the excursion boat City of Pittsburg for a trip down the Ohio. The Grand Army Orchestra will be in attendance, and dancing will be indulged in. All frieuds of the Knights are invited to take in the excursion. The boat will leave the wharf at 8 P. M. and drop down the Ohio about 20 miles. It will return about midnight.

BUTLER, PA., May 2i, 1890. my22-13

CEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RE-CEIVED until 2o-clock P. M., SATURDAY, May 3i, 1890, for $40,000 worth of bonds of the borough of Wilkinsburg—first bonds—in decimable in 20 years; 10 bonds in 25 years, and lo bonds in 36 years; said bonds to bear 4 per cent. interest, free of State tax, per annum, payafile semi-annually. At the meeting of the Supreme Castle the

At the meeting of the Supreme Castle the change of the constitution will be considered among other things. A delegation from Canda will arrive in the city this morning, and will participate in the general festivities. The committee having the entertainment of the Knights in charge will see that nothing is left undone to make their visit to the city a memorable one, which they can look back to with piersurable remembrance. piessurable remembrance.

The general parade committee has made the Central Hotel its headquarters, and all excursion tickets will have to be signed by the secretary of this committee in order to insure the return of the Knights after the demonstration is over
