A GLORIOUS AFTERNOON IN MAY.

The Parade of the Knights of the Golden Eagle Proves a Success.

WORK OF THE FIRST DAY'S SESSION

Great-crowds thronged the streets yesterday morning and afternoon on the advent of the Knights of the Golden Eagle into the city from all sections of the country. An hour's morning session was held, presided over by Supreme Chief R. Emory. Other officers of the Supreme Castle are: Vice Supreme Chief, Irving W. Kelly; Supreme High Priest, George T. Williams; Supreme Keeper of the Exchequer, Timothy Mc-Carthy; Supreme Master of Records, Wm. Culbertson; Supreme Herald, George H. Sumner; Supreme First Guardsman, Charles H. Speer; Supreme Second Guardsman, J. H. Eckert.

Reports were read, showing the Pennsylvania memembership to be 33,443. The following were appointed the Committee on Credentials: Rowand, of Pennsylvania, Cross, of Maryland, and Triebler, of Dela-

A grand parade followed in the afternoon In the warm rays of the afternoon sun the beautiful uniforms, handsome lodge banners and rich flags shope with rare brilliancy. To the music of martial strains the thousands of Knights moved in a long, attractive line through the principal streets of the two cities, while the eyes of the count-less sightseers followed every action with less sightseers followed every action with charmed delight.

The military branch of the order looked particularly bright, with their cocked hats, colored plumes and trimmings of parti-colored regalia. Their marching was of a high class, and the evolutions in fancy figures executed by the several commanderies were loudly applauded all along the line. The good music of the bands throughout the column was a cause for special remark, and received the favorable comment it merited.

If merited.

The parade moved at 2 o'clock from the head-quarters of the Grand Lodge, the Seventh Ave-nue Hotel, and followed the route laid out. The order of march was as tollows:

A Cure for Billons Colle. For a number of years I have been sub For a number of years I nave been subject to periodic violent attacks of bilious colic and have repeatedly employed the best medical talent. I obtained relief only by the use of morphine or chloroform. I was induced to give Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy a trial, and am pleased to report not only my gratitude, but recommend it to all who are afflicted as I am to give it a trial. I would not be without it.
