AFTERNOON GAME.

NEW YORK, May 30. - There was probably a greater amount of enthusiasm shown in the after noon game between the New York and Pittsburg (P. L.) teams than in any game that has been (P. L.) teams than in any game that has been played at Brotherhood Park since the opening event of the season. This was owing to the magnificent display of batting and the brilliancy of the fielding. Manacer Ewing was obliged to lay off and this caused the original playing programme to be changed, Crane and Vaughn being substituted for the Ewing battery. But one man hit Grane effectively, and that was Fields. He made four ark hits in as many times at the bat, and scored two home runs. For six innings Fields was the only player who scored a hit for Pittsburg. In the following inning, however, they touched the New York pitcher up for a triple and three singles, and, with the assistance of a base on balls, a missed fly by Gore, a passed ball and a wild throw, five runs were corred, trans was referenced.

BOSTON. May 30.—This afternoon the Bostons put Nichols and Bennett as their battery, and Sowders and Wilson formed the battery for Pittsburg. The resuit of the game was even more disastrous to the visitors than in the morning, for they didn't get even the semblance of a run. The Bostons placed an absolutely perfect game, without error of any kind. The visitors sized up Nichols for four scattered hits, but beyond those hits the Pittsburg batsmen were retired in monotonous regularity. They could do nothing with Nichols. The Bostons, however, had no trouble in hitting the ball. Bennett was the only man who falled to hit safely. With all the slugging the Bostons only scored three runs, because the Pittsburg fielders delded the ball so sharply that runs were out of the question. Long played in his usual position despite the ugly wound on his leg. Attendance, 4,551. The scores: BOSTON. B B P & E PITTSBURG. R B P A B

RACES AT HOMEWOOD Good Sport and a Fair Crowd at the Opening Event of 1890.

CLOSE FINISHES ALL THROUGH. George P., Harry Hontas and Cazigue, Jr.,

Winners of the Races. OTHER EXHIBITIONS ON THE TRACK

Yesterday racing was inaugurated at the Homewood Driving Park for the season of 1890. About 3,500 people were present to wit-ness the opening event looking to the reclaim-ing of the sport for Pittsburg. They were well repaid, for though the classes were not fast every race was interesting and the finishes could not have been better. There was scarcely a heat won by more than a head and the field was always well bunched up, but two horses being distanced in 11 heats. Betting was quite lively at times and it looked as though the sport would be able to again take its place among the would be able to again take its place among the city's amusements.

The races were not the only attractions furnished. John Stroup has a fine team of horses in which he has a great deal of confidence, and he displayed it yesterday, furnishing amusement for the spectators and helping a good cause. J. W. Wilson, of Chicage, offered to wager that Mr. Stroup could not drive his team once around the track without the use of the relias. The bet was $100, the loser to donate that amount to the Newsboys' Home fund. Mr. Stroup easily won the wager, and a check for $100 was added to the amount for building a home for the newsies.

Dallas, the fast pacing horse, was in no condition for speed, but was driven an exhibition mile by Charles Predmore. The first quarter pole was passed in 44 seconds, the half in 1:24, the three-quarters in 2:02 and he finished in 2:40%.

Just before the last heat of the paoing 2:29 race E. C. McClelland, the runner, gave an exhibition two-mile run. He started out without any pre-liminary training and made good time. He did the first mile in 4:32%, and he finished the second mile in 10:17%. McClelland in first-class shape.

Buil Ensh, a green horse, was entered for the three-minute trot, but was scratched, and during an interval between two heats the horse trotted a mile in 3:05.

The first race of the day was the three-minute mile in 3:05.

The first race of the day was the three-minute trot for a purse of $200, divided. Peter R won the first heat with ease, and was not very hard pressed at any time up to the finish. He looked an easy winner of the race, but in the second heat George P, the black geiding owned by William McCallin, moved up at the finish and won without a break. Peter R was a great favorite at the start, but after the second heat George P was clearly master of the field and won the race without great effort, although the finish of each heat was close. It was nearly 7 o'clock and growing dusky when the 2:33 trot was rung up. It was a very pretty race and was close at every stage of the game. Cazigue, Jr., William McCallin's sorrel stalion, won the first two heats with ease, leading nearly the entire distance. Lon C was a close second in both heats. In the third heat Peter Whetstone took the lead at the start and held it past the three-quarter pole. For the first half-mile Cazigue was in the rear, but after passing the half pulled himself up, and after reaching the three-quarter pole the fight for place began. Whetstone was not the horse to win, and Cazigue executed first by a nose after a driving unish. It was the prettiest contest of the day. The result by heats:

The American Temis Player Defente Saunders and Takes the World's Honors. IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.1 LONDON, May 30 .- (Copyright.)-The concluding day of the tennis championship match was attended by a somewhat smaller company of spec-tators than on Wednesday, but Prince Edward, of Saxe-Weimar, was present, and the interest in the play was 'very keen. Both men were in good of saxe-weimar, was present, and the interest in the play was very keen. Both men were in good form. In the first set Pettit led off, winning the game quickly. Saunders as rapidly scored second, but he then fell off and only added fourth and an eighth to his credit. In the second set Pettit had things all his own way, showing superiority in "service," "returning" and "volleying, "with the result that the Euglishman only won the third game. But the effort told on the American, for he perspired freely and had to use towels, while Saunders scarcely turned a hair. In the third set Saunders, by his corkscrew service and careful play, won three games in succession. Pettit took the fourth, sixth, eighth and ninth, but Saunders, after a brilliant display, scored the others, winning the set amid appliance, in the fourth set Pettit's cored the first game after a struggle, in which he showed such fine form, that he received a perfect ovation from the spectators. Saunders won the next, then Pettit, then Saunders, but Pettit's quicker piay and wonderful "volleying" again carried everything before him, and he won the set, the world's champlonship and £1,000 amid a storm of applause.
